N O T E

on British Cases Nos. 1251 - 1263.

By E. SCHWELB.

No. 1251. —It is not probable that the rank "SS. Obergruppenführer" is correct. The rank of Obergruppenführer corresponds to the rank of General in the Army. It is not probable that a general would interrogate prisoners of war of the rank of guardsman.

No. 1252. 2. ROMPA is said to have been a shipping master in Hamburg before the war.

No. 1253. Hauptmann PICKARD is thus described by F.O. Mackenzie:

> "The German officer in charge of the detraining I would describe as: approximate age about 35-40; about five feet four inches in height; medium build; weight about 140 pounds; blue eyes and auburn hair; blotchy complexion with heavily lined face and with fencing scars on his neck."

Warrant Officer Wright describes him differently:

> "The German officer in charge of the journey from the station to the camp was a man whose age I estimate to be about fifty. He was about five feet three inches in height, with grey hair, close-cropped, fresh complexion, slightly corpulent."

No. 1254. The correct name of the place is:

Weidenau, Bezirk Freiwaldau (Frývaldov), Czechoslovakia.

No. 1257. The depositions of the Polish witnesses, partly corroborated by a German witness, make a good prima facie case against (2), (3) and (4). As to (1), the Burgomaster, the question is whether he had any duty towards the Prisoners of War and whether he, therefore, can be guilty of an offence of omission. Such duty may be implied in his position as head of the local authority. Under Art. 2 of the 1929 Convention Prisoners of War are in the power of the hostile Government and it may be argued that the head of the local authority is part of the Government machinery. If this be so, then the Burgomaster is a proper subject of the provision that Prisoners of War shall be protected, particularly against acts of violence, from insults and from public curiosity, and he would appear guilty of a contravention of this provision in not attempting to stop the illtreatment. The fact that he ordered slave labour away from the place does not seem to constitute an offence and with regard to that the accused can invoke his duty to protect the airmen from curiosity.

The aircraft and the victims of the crime have not been identified. Nor is the nationality of the victims (British or American) established.

No. 1258. Identity of the accused to be established through the Canadian authorities.

No. 1260. Attempts to trace the accused will be made. At present the accused are not identified.

No. 1261. It is doubtful whether in the particular circumstances of this case (escape of British P.O.W. from moving train) there is sufficient reason to hold the officer in command (No. 1) criminally responsible.

No. 1262. As to some of the complaints there is some difference in the evidence: e.g. Lance Corporal Pearson says that the general living conditions were very fair, the billets were equipped with running water and water closets and the food was adequate. (Paragraphs 3 & 4 of Affidavit.) Lance Sergeant Mellon and Company Sergeant Major Coles complain of the accomodation, sanitation and food.

No particulars about the work prohibited or suspected of being prohibited are given and it is therefore difficult for the Committee to judge whether it had direct connection with the operations of war (Art. 31 of Geneva Convention), but there are some complaints, e.g. of chaining of prisoners of war which are a sufficient foundation for the charge.

COMMITTEE I

NOTES ON CASES

By Dr. Litawski, Legal Officer.

Yugoslav Cases

No. 1265 Responsibility of 21 of the persons accused not sufficiently established. The criminal activities of 7 only out of 28 have been described on Page 2.

No. 1268 Responsibility of the accused Nos. 14 - 16, 31, and of the accused NAJDANOV not established, and no specific charges brought against them. All of them hold inferior positions and could not be held responsible on general lines for atrocities committed in the district concerned.

Luxembourg Cases

No. 1285 It is not clear what the Luxembourg National Office proposes to do with information and names submitted in the Annex. Those persons had nothing to do with the facts dealt with in the charge.

No. 1286 It appears from the particulars on Page 2 that SCHMIDT and LOHNES should have been also charged.

No. 1288 It is proposed to list all persons indicated in the Annex on the Commission's List "S".

COMMITTEE I

Note on the United Kingdom
Cases Nos. 1289 to 1299

By Mr. E. Schwelb

No. 1289 Obergefreiter Lobitz - murder of British P.O.W.

A Clear case for A.

Dr. Studhoff, Obergefreiter Puhl and Fraülein Hirsch should be put on W. (See Rice's Affidavit).

No. 1290 Unteroffizier Adler - throwing of petrol on P.O.W.

A clear case for A.

The Stabsarzt (military doctor of the rank of major; see Green's Affidavit, paragraph 9) could be put on W.

No. 1291 Murder of Private Trainor.

The victim was a Private in the Australian Imperial Forces. The case, therefore, concerns the Commonwealth of Australia.

A clear case for A against Unterfeldwebel Vater (1).

As to (2) (Martin Mathis) it appears from the Notes on the Case that the British national office wants him as a witness only. He is not suspected of murder. It is said of him that he rode into the cowhouse where the prisoners were on a horse and rode it straight at Private Trainor. Trainor tried to ward off the horse with his dung fork and Mathis attempted to strike him with his riding fork. This would seem sufficient to put Mathis also on A.

No. 1292 Shooting of Private Tattersall.

A clear case for A against both Duras and Knels.

In addition, Blenkle (particulars in Reid's Affidavit, para. 7) could be charged as accessory before the fact.

No. 1293. Gefreiter Gerstenberg - Shooting and severely wounding Pte. Tyler

A clear case for A against the accused Gerstenberg. The consequences of Tyler's wound would not have been so serious if he had received proper treatment (see Affidavit by Captain Learner, para. 4). For this neglect the Kommando-Führer seems to be responsible. (Bryant's Affidavit, para. 3). If his identity can be established, he could also be put on A.

No. 1294 Attempt at escape through sewer

The Affidavits of Graham, Hunt, and Bowman constitute prima facie evidence that the prisoners-of-war were illtreated after recapture. The Affidavits of Hughes, Sunley, Conduit and Burling contain hearsay evidence only.

(1) and (2) were the commander and second in command of the camp respectively. The case against them is obviously based on their general responsibility. for what is going on in the camp. Apart from that their individual criminal responsibility is not established. From the evidence it appears that a well-prepared attempt at escape was in progress and the firing at the escaping prisoners in the pitch dark tunnel (Affidavit of Hughes) does not seem to have been as such criminal, the less so as it was preceded by shouting (Sunley's Affidavit).

As to (3) Bowmann concretely accuses the Sergeant i/c the Carabinieri to have stamped on the prisoners' feet with his boots and struck them in the face with his revolver-butt.

No. 1295 Functionaries of P.O.W. Camp at Macerata.

A prima facie case against 1,2,3,4,5a and 5b.

No. 1296 Shooting of Trooper Aaron.

This incident took place in the camp with which also the preceding charge deals (1295).

A very clear case for A against (4) whose name is not known. The charge against (1), (2) and (3) is obviously based on their responsibility for the conduct of the camp.

No. 1297 Fascist leader Gonella - shooting of Indian P.O.W.

This charge is based on hearsay evidence by Lt. Partridge whose Affidavit is based on the information furnished by two Italians.

The identity of the victim is not established. He was reputed to be an Indian Prince.

Enquiries are in progress to establish, a.o. the identity of the victim and to interview the Italian witnesses.

Committee I may either put Gonella on A forthwith, or adjourn the case in order to await the result of the enquiries which are being conducted in Italy.

No. 1298 Functionaries of P.O.W. Camp at San Guiseppe, Sicily.

The charge is not only a general charge against the way the camp had been run, but the Affidavit of Phillips contains also direct and personal charges against the Camp Commandant.(1). The charge against (2) is based on his general responsibility for conditions in the camp. (3) should in my submission be put on W only; (4) on C; (1) and (2) on A.

No. 1299 Zanzoni - illtreatment of Ps.of.W.

A very clear case against Zanoni (1) and - on account of his general responsibility - against (2).

For Committee I meeting -
Wednesday 22nd August, 1945.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I.

NOTE ON THE YUGOSLAV CASES 1014 (ADDENDUM) AND 1310 TO 1325

By Mr. E. SCHWELB.

Addendum to the charge No. 1014 (Terrorism in Krusevac, Kragujevac and Cacak.)

The Yugoslav National Office submits a list of persons whom it holds responsible for crimes committed by the German Limited Company "Didier Werke A.G. Ofenbau").

In the paper I/14 I submitted for consideration by Committee I the question whether the construction and delivery of appliances for the cremation of the bodies of executed persons constitutes a war crime and drew attention to the distinction to be made between this case and the case of the firm of Faulhaber, Berlin, who had delivered gas chambers for the extermination of living persons.

In case Committee should decide that the construction and delivery of appliances for the cremation of the dead is sufficient to establish a prima facie case of a crime having been committed, the following would have to be considered with regard to the five persons whose names have now been submitted :

1). Flotow, as chairman of the Aufsichtsrat (i.e. board of auditors) is prima facie not responsible for crimes committed in the course of the business of the firm.

2). Fellinger as "Vorstand", i.e. a member of the board of directors, belongs to the group of persons who are responsible for dealings of the Company.

(3) - (5) seem to be members of the technical staff.

In case Committee considers that a crime has been committed by the company, (2) to (5) should be listed on S.

No. 1310 - Concentration Camp Skoplje.

A clear case against Bogdanov and Panev who should go on A. Puskarew is already on A. (425).

No. 1311 - Stockhausen and others - illegal execution of 12 peasants.

The case against Stockhausen (1) and Quasny (who is already on the Commission's list; charge No. 1140) is clear. As to (2), (3), (4) and (5) it is only stated that they are "either directly or indirectly" responsible for the execution. No indication about what constitutes the direct or indirect responsibility is given.

No. 1312 - Personnel of Neuengamme Concentration Camp.

A clear case for putting all 17 accused on A. One of them (Pauli; No. 1) is mentioned in Col. Wade's report No. R/G/4/6a. Four additional persons (Tumann, Dreimann, Speck, Roese) mentioned in that report are not charged by the Yugoslav National Office.

The Belgian charge No. 989 also deals with Neuengamme Concentration Camp and six persons have been put on A upon the Belgian charge.

On the request of the French National Office (No. 1058) Professor Heissmayer has been put on A for poisoning of Jewish children at Neuengamme.

No. 1313 - Massacre at Meckovac and Marsic.

A clear case against all the accused (A). Felber, and Wagner are already on the Commission's lists (No. 1014). I could not find Zimmermann on the Commission's lists. As to Schlegel and Zierger no details as to units etc. are given.

No. 1314 - Feldwebel Winter - rape of a woman of 65 years.

According to the "particulars of evidence in support", this infamous incident has been dealt with in a document from the Nuice Town Council which is on the files of the State Commission. UZICE

The question is whether the fact that a Town Council document deals with the incident makes a prima facie case against the accused, the Yugoslav National Office itself having not examined the case.

No. 1315 - Münster - Shooting of 100 civilians.

A case against Münster (A).

Herstenberg and Schroeder are already on A. (Cases 1014 and 1248).

No. 1316 - Mosca - illegal arrest

The question is whether Mosca, when arresting Uccellini, knew that he was innocent. The sentence on Uccellini was certainly not passed by Mosca who is a customs officer.

The Yugoslav National Office should be asked to supplement the information.

No. 1317 - Ciaccio and Terzi - Shooting of partisans.

Both on A.

No. 1318 - Siffredi: A

No. 1319 - Leopardi and Boruzzo: A

No. 1320 - Bertorelle and Orioli: A. Pedrazzoli is already on A (No. 621).

No. 1321.- Concentration Camp Fraschette, Alatri

All on A.

No. 1322 - Siracusa, Cetinje.

The illtreatment of the survivor, Aleksander Demajo, suffices to put Siracusa on A. As to the death sentence on Moris Deniajo, Sava Vukovic and Ivan Sudjevica, th e part played by the accused should be made clear. Obviously he was neither a member of the court, nor the public prosecutor acting before it.

No. 1323. - Il Tribunale Speciale per la Difesa dello Stato

A special paper dealing with this charge will be circulated.

No. 1324 - Santamaria and others - Italian Concentration Camps.

All the accused were directors of Concentration Camps, (2) and (3) of the notorious camp in the Lipari islands which were known for the abominable treatment of the internees long before this war and long before the accession to power of Nazism. There is evidence that allied nationals were among the victims of the camp during the present war and this is sufficient to put all the accused on A.

No. 1325 - Women's Concentration Camp at Pollenza

A case for putting the accused functionaries of the camp on A.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I

NOTE ON THE YUGOSLAV CASE NO. 1281
(PREFETTO DI CATTARO; TAKING OF HOSTAGES.)

By Mr. E. SCHWELB

I.

In the meeting of Committee I, held on August 15th, 1945, the case against the "prefetto di Cattaro" was adjourned for further consideration.

The accused, whose name is unknown but whose identity as head of the administration of an important town and harbour it should be possible to establish, is charged with having committed the crime of "Internment of Civilians under inhuman conditions".

It is stated that"he selected hostages from the above-mentioned villages and arrested them with the intention of having them shot if any disturbances occurred in that district. . This action caused the imprisonment of innocent men and women and the terrorisation of the civilian population."

"Evidence is based on the original document in which the order was issued. The signature on the document is illegible except for the title - IL PREFETTO. This document is now filed in the archives of the Yugoslav State Commission."

Under "References to relevant provisions of international law" the Yugoslav charge alleges a violation of Articles 4 and 5 of the Hague Regulations, 1907. These are not relevant to the problem because they deal with prisoners of war, while the victims of the crime, which the charge indicts, were civilian inhabitants of occupied territory.

II.

The question, therefore, arises whether what the accused is alleged to have done, is a war crime.

The Commission, in its meeting held on May 9th, 1944, adopted the proposal, embodied in Doc. C.15(1) and added the following to the List of War Crimes which had been provisionally adopted by the Commission on 2nd December, 1943 (Doc. C.1) :

> "Indiscriminate mass arrests for the purpose of terrorising the population, whether described as taking of hostages or not."

It appears that the statement of facts contained in the charge No. 1281 does not establish the facts of this Resolution.

In the present case the arrests are not stated to have been "mass arrests" and "indiscriminate". On the contrary: the prefetto is accused of having selected hostages.

Nor is the purpose of terrorising the population established. It is stated that the intention was to shoot the hostages "if any disturbances occurred in that district."

Nor does the statement of facts bear out the description "Internment of civilians under inhuman conditions."

III.

The decision on this charge therefore depends on the question whether the taking of hostages is criminal per se.

The present state of International Law on this problem is thus stated in Oppenheim-Lauterpacht Vol. II, Revised Sixth Edition (1944):

> "A new practice of taking hostages was resorted to by the Germans in 1870 during the Franco-German War for the purpose of securing the safety of forces against possible hostile acts by private inhabitants of occupied enemy territory. Well-known men were seized and detained, in the expectation that the population would refrain from hostile acts out of regard for the fate of the hostages. Thus, when unknown people frequently wrecked the trains transporting troops, the Germans seized prominent enemy citizens and put them on the engines, a device which always proved effective, and soon put a stop to further train wrecking. The same practice was resorted to, although for a short time only, by Lord Roberts in 1900 during the South African war. It has been condemned by the majority of writers. But it may be difficult to agree with their opinion. Matters would be different if hostages were seized, and exposed to dangers, for the purpose of preventing legitimate hostilities on the part of members of the armed forces of the enemy. But no one can deny that train-wrecking on occupied enemy territory by private enemy individuals is an act which a belligerent is justified in considering and punishing as war treason. It is for the purpose of guarding against an act of illegitimate warfare that these hostages are put on the engines. The danger to which they are exposed comes from their fellow-citizens, who are informed that hostages are on the engines, and ought therefore to refrain from wrecking the trains. It cannot, and will not, be denied that the measure is a harsh one, and that it makes individuals liable to suffer for acts for which they are not responsible. But the safety of the troops and lines of communication of the occupying belligerent is at stake, and it seems doubtful, therefore, whether even the most humane commanders will always be able to dispense with this measure, since it alone has proved effective.
> During the first World War, Germany adopted a terrible practice of taking hostages in the territories occupied by her armies, and shooting them when she believed that civilians had fired upon German troops. During the Second World War she followed the practice of mass shooting of hostages on such unprecendented scale as to bring it prominently within the category of war crimes, the punishment of which was declared by the United Nations to constitute a major purpose of the war."

The British Manual (Chapter XIV, para. 461 et seq.) though not considering the taking of hostages commendable, does not go as far as declaring it illegal. Para. 461 recognises the right to take hostages with the proviso that all they have to suffer is captivity, and not death. According to para. 464 it would appear legitimate to take inhabitants as hostages for the proper treatment of wounded and sick. A similar course might become necessary, if prisoners have fallen into the hands of irregular troops, or of inhabitants who have risen in arms, since there might be fear for their maltreatment.

IV.

Time did not allow the present writer to place before the Committee a complete survey of the modern literature dealing with the legality of the taking of hostages; but what has been quoted under III supports the view expressed by members of Committee I that the taking of hostages is not as such a war crime.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I

REPORT ON THE YUGOSLAV CHARGE NO. 1523 (PERSONNEL OF THE SPECIAL TRIBUNAL FOR THE DEFENCE OF THE STATE, ROME.

By Mr. E. SCHWELB

I.

The present case is to some extent similar to the case No. 940, which dealt, inter alia, with the personnel of the Tribunale Speciale della Dalmazia which in the Yugoslav memorandum, presented in the case 940, was described as the "opposite number of the Tribunale Speciale per la Difesa di Stato in Rome" (See Doc. I/15). Committee I decided on July 17th, 1945, to put the personnel of the Tribunale Speciale della Dalmazia on S.

An information on Italian courts in Yugoslavia will be circulated by Col. Wade as Doc. I/26.

II.

This writer, who was greatly interested at the time in Fascist "legal" developments, does not doubt in the least that the Special Court for the Defence of the State in Rome from its very beginning in 1926 has been nothing but an instrument of oppression and a cloak for common crimes committed by the Fascist Government first against Italian opponents of the regime and eventually, during the Second World War, also against citizens of other countries, particularly of inhabitants of Italian occupied Yugoslav territories. In spite of this fact, of which the Committee could, as it were, take judicial notice, it is necessary to scrutinize the charge closely not only because of the necessity of establishing the guilt (prima facie) of the individuals charged, but also for the reason that the formulation of the Yugoslav charges implies some conceptions of International law and municipal criminal law which would hardly be acceptable to some other gpvernments. Even if it be admitted (and as a matter of fact there can be no reasonable doubt about it) that the sentences imposed by the Court on Italian citizens of Yugoslav race (members of the Yugoslav minority in the Italy of between the two wars) were unjust, illegal, and even criminal, International Law does not recognise the right of a racial minority to rise against the state under whose jurisdiction it fell under the 1919 Peace Treaties. No exemption of Italian citizens of Yugoslav race from Italian jurisdiction can be claimed for the time when the disputed territory undoubtedly formed part of Italy, both under International law and according to the municipal legal orders of Yugoslavia and Italy. It is well known that as a matter of law Italy had even no obligations towards her minorities analogous to those accepted by other states in 1919/20.

III.

Applying what has been summarily stated sub (II) supra to the "Particulars of alleged crime" in the Yugoslav charge, the following general observations can be made :

a) The trying of Slovenes and Croats from Istria, Gorizia and Trieste is not illegal. The same may be said of the trial of Yugoslav citizens for alleged offences committed on Italian territory (i.e. territory formin part of Italy under the territorial arrangements of 1919/20). In addition: the so-called territoriality of criminal law "is not an absolute principle of international law" (The Permanent Court of International Justice in the case of S.S. Lotus (France v. Turkey), 1927, Judgment No. 9, Series A, No. 10). Many continental legal systems penalize some crimes, particularly crimes against the security of the state, also if committed by foreigners abroad; as municipal jurisprudence is divided, the Permanent Court held that "it is hardly possible to see in it an indication of the existence of the restrictive rule of international law" (i.e. of a rule restricting the criminal jurisdiction of a state to its territory). Incidentally; it is a consequence of the fact that the jurisdiction of a state is not restricted to its nationals and to its territory, that there exists "universality of jurisdiction over war crimes." (Cp. Willard B. Cowles in California Law Review, June, 1945; and Quincy Wright, Article "War Criminals" in American Journal of International Law, April 1945). We cannot claim for the United Nations universal jurisdiction over war crimes, and simultaneously indict jurisdiction exercised under the so-called "protection principle" as a war crime per se.

b) The exercise of jurisdiction by courts of the occupying Power over the inhabitants of the occupied territory does not itself constitute "usurpation of sovereignty." Such jurisdiction is compatible with the restraint placed upon the occupant by the Hague Regulations. There was, of course, illegal usurpation of sovereignty over Italian occupied Yugoslavia during the war, but it is doubtful whether it was the judges of the Rome court who committed this contravention of the rules of warfare. It was obviously the Italian Executive and, probably, the Legislature, but not the Judiciary, who illegally "annexed" Yugoslav territories.

c) "Slovenes and Croats from Istria, who left Italy in 1929 and became Yugoslav citizens, were tried and sentenced by this Special Court." The fact that they left Italy in 1929 does not necessarily mean that they ceased to be Italian citizens; nor does the acquisition of Yugoslav citizenship necessarily and automatically bring about the loss of Italian citizenship.

d) The trial and sentencing of Yugoslav citizens from Dalmatia because they had worked for their liberation is not necessarily a war crime on the part of the judges. Whether or not it constitutes a war crime depends both on what the Yugoslav patriots had done, and how the trial was conducted and what kind of law was applied. If only such activities had been punished after due process of law as the belligerent occupant is entitled to forbid, no crime would have been committed.

e) What was stated under (d) applies also to the case of Yugoslav citizens from regions not occupied by Italy, if they were tried for alleged offences committed in the Italian occupied parts of Yugoslavia.

f) The distinction between "reconnaissance duties" and "spying" is subtle. Only after close study of the individual cases could the question be answered whether by sentencing a person who acted on reconnaissance duty as a spy, the members of the court have committed a crime.

III.

Applying what has been summarily stated sub (II) supra to the "Particulars of alleged crime" in the Yugoslav charge, the following general observations can be made :

a) The trying of Slovenes and Croats from Istria, Gorizia and Trieste is not illegal. The same may be said of the trial of Yugoslav citizens for alleged offences committed on Italian territory (i.e. territory forming part of Italy under the territorial arrangements of 1919/20). In addition: the so-called territoriality of criminal law "is not an absolute principle of international law" (The Permanent Court of International Justice in the case of S.S. Lotus (France v. Turkey), 1927, Judgment No. 9, Series A, No. 10). Many continental legal systems penalize some crimes, particularly crimes against the security of the state, also if committed by foreigners abroad; as municipal jurisprudence is divided, the Permanent Court held that "it is hardly possible to see in it an indication of the existence of the restrictive rule of international law" (i.e. of a rule restricting the criminal jurisdiction of a state to its territory). Incidentally; it is a consequence of the fact that the jurisdiction of a state is not restricted to its nationals and to its territory, that there exists "universality of jurisdiction over war crimes." (Cp. Willard B. Cowles in California Law Review, June, 1945; and Quincy Wright, Article "War Criminals" in American Journal of International Law, April 1945). We cannot claim for the United Nations universal jurisdiction over war crimes, and simultaneously inflict jurisdiction exercised under the so-called "protection principle" as a war crime per se.

b) The exercise of jurisdiction by courts of the occupying Power over the inhabitants of the occupied territory does not itself constitute "usurpation of sovereignty." Such jurisdiction is compatible with the restraint placed upon the occupant by the Hague Regulations. There was, of course, illegal usurpation of sovereignty over Italian occupied Yugoslavia during the war, but it is doubtful whether it was the judges of the Rome court who committed this contravention of the rules of warfare. It was obviously the Italian Executive and, probably, the Legislature, but not the judiciary, who illegally "annexed" Yugoslav territories.

c) "Slovenes and Croats from Istria, who left Italy in 1929 and became Yugoslav citizens, were tried and sentenced by this Special Court." The fact that they left Italy in 1929 does not necessarily mean that they ceased to be Italian citizens; nor does the acquisition of Yugoslav citizenship necessarily and automatically bring about the loss of Italian citizenship.

d) The trial and sentencing of Yugoslav citizens from Dalmatia because they had worked for their liberation is not necessarily a war crime on the part of the judges. Whether or not it constitutes a war crime depends both on what the Yugoslav patriots had done, and how the trial was conducted and what kind of law was applied. If only such activities had been punished after due process of law as the belligerent occupant is entitled to forbid, no crime would have been committed.

e) What was stated under (d) applies also to the case of Yugoslav citizens from regions not occupied by Italy, if they were tried for alleged offences committed in the Italian occupied parts of Yugoslavia.

f) The distinction between "reconnaissance duties" and "spying" is subtle. Only after close study of the individual cases could the question be answered whether by sentencing a person who acted on reconnaissance duty as a spy, the members of the court have committed a crime.

IV.

Notes on the instances numbered in the charge No. 1925 (1) to (6).

(1) Under the presidency of Tringali-Casanuova (1) the Special Court sentenced to death and to hard labour 91 persons who were Yugoslav citizens belonging to the Yugoslav minority in Gorizia and Istria who had fought for their national liberation from the Italian and fascist yoke. This statement contains an inconsistency: either the victims belonged to the Yugoslav minority in Italy, then they were Italian citizens (nationals). Or they were Yugoslav nationals, then they could not belong to the Yugoslav minority in Italy. In the first case they fought against the state whose citizens they were. In the second case they were foreign nationals fighting on Italian soil against the local sovereign. The fact that politically the struggle of those Yugoslav patriots and of those members of the Yugoslav minority in Italy was favourable to the cause of the United Nations and deserving also in other respects does not alter the fact that in law the Italian courts were competent to try offences, committed on Italian territory to free part of this territory from the Italian yoke. Here a prima facie case of a judicial crime does not seem to be established. *

(2) General Le Metre (2). No details about the alleged offences of the victims and of the court proceedings are given. The Yugoslav National Office should be asked to furnish further information.

(3) General Griffini (5).

(4) General Suppiej (6).

(5) General Contincelli (3)

(6) General Gauttieri (4).

In these cases what was said under (2) applies.

V.

Notes on the instances numbered in the charge No. 1925 I to XII.

The greatest admiration for the National Liberation movement cannot undo the fact that "in those Yugoslav regions taken by Italy after the first World War" the movement was directed against the legitimate local sovereign and the courts of the local sovereign were, under International and municipal law alike, entitled to punish offences against the local law.

ad I. In my submission part of, but not all the facts stated with regard to the sentence passed on 28th April, 1941, indicate that the court proceeded illegally. The court was, under International law, prima facie not entitled to punish Yugoslav citizens inhabiting occupied Yugoslav territory because they belonged to the Slovene society and because they

* While this paper was being typed the Yugoslav National Office informed the Commission's office by telephone that the words "and Yugoslavs" were to be inserted between "Yugoslav citizens" and "belonging". Thus the inconsistency dealt with in the text has been remedied.

conducted propaganda against the unity of the Italian state, but it was entitled to try persons because they encouraged people to sabotage, spy and rebel against the (sc. Italian) State. With regard to Italian citizens this restriction did not apply.

ad II. This seems to be a case of unjustified imprisonment. The victim had done nothing which could be properly tried in an Italian court.

ad III. This information seems to need supplementation.

Prima facie persons from Gorizia (a town then belonging to Italy) could be tried for an attack against members of the (Italian) Customs Guard.

ad IV. This is a case of political oppression. The Communist party was prohibited in Italy and under her totalitarian regime membership in the Communist Party was a crime. The sentence passed on Italian citizens for membership in the Communist Party is barbaric, and obnoxious to the Western mind, but it is not a war crime.

ad V. This is a borderline case. As stated in the introduction to this paper (supra III), in cases of offences against the security of the state (and in other cases also, e.g. counterfeiting currency) many continental legal orders allow the punishment of crimes committed by foreigners abroad.

ad VI. Provided that Matkovic and Ban were Yugoslav nationals (Matkovic is stated to have been born in Italy) there seems to be an excess of judicial power.

ad VII. Here the nationality of the victims seems to be relevant. Vicic-Gustincic and Cekada appear to have been Italian citizens. If this is so, they could be tried when captured as members of the armed forces of a state with which Italy was at war.. Vrecar appears to have been a Yugoslav national and his serving in the Yugoslav forces did not constitute an act which could properly be made the object of criminal proceedings in an Italian court.

The Yugoslav National Office should be asked to furnish information about the nationality of the 22 Yugoslav soldiers according to the Treaty provisions and municipal rules valid in the period between the two wars.

ad VIII Here it could probably be said that the occupant was not obliged to allow inhabitants of the occupied territory to maintain liaison with the British in order to harm Italian military operations.

ad IX. Here applies what was said under V.

ad X. As to Glorija Jardas the case depends on the legal standing of the Partisan Units in the material time (before November 28, 1942).

Assuming that the Partisans then already had the status of belligerents within the meaning of Art. 1 of the Hague Regulations, Miss Jardas had the right to be treated as a prisoner of war and her trial and punishment was illegal.

The case of the 4, 7 and 2 Slovenes and Croats who were Italian citizens does not constitute a war crime.

ad XI This case rises difficult problems. The victims ought not to have been on the Lipari islands. As they were deported there illegally, it could be maintained that they were entitled to self-help and that they, therefore, ought not to have been punished for taking part in their revolutionary organization.

On the other hand, it could be said that no state is under an obligation to tolerate revolutionary organizations formed by foreigners on its territory and the fact that the foreigners came to the territory against their will does not necessarily alter this position.

ad XII No details about the case of Radovanovic and Vrhinec are given.

VI.

Conclusions

1) I submit that the decision on this charge should be adjourned until the Yugoslav National Office kindly furnishes additional information on the different questions which have been mentioned in the earlier chapters of this paper.

2) When the charge will thus be supplemented it will probably be possible to list part of the accused on A and part on S.

3) But in addition there will remain a large number of crimes which are not war crimes but which fall within the category of "analogous offences", chiefly atrocities committed against Italian citizens. It would be worth considering whether the attention of the Allied Control Commission for Italy should not be drawn to these "crimes against humanity" within the meaning of Section 6 (c) of the Charter of the International Military Tribunal.

NOTES ON CASES
(Luxembourg, Belgian, French, Norwegian).

by Dr. Litawski, Legal Officer.

Luxembourg cases (adjourned)

No. 1285 — It is not clear what the Luxembourg National Office proposes to do with information and names submitted in the Annex. Those persons had nothing to do with the fact dealt with in the charge.

No. 1286 — It appears from the particulars on page 2 that SCHMIDT and LOHNES should also have been charged.

No. 1288 — It is proposed to list all persons indicated in the Annex on the Commission's List "S".

Belgian cases

No. 1300
a) The accused not sufficiently identified. (Units).
b) As a general remark, which applies also to cases other then Belgian, it should be pointed out that for the identification of persons accused it is not sufficient to indicate places of commission of crimes, because of the fact that in many instances the offenders committed crimes outside their official residence. It is therefore of great importance for tracing those criminals, to identify them in charges not only by places where crimes were committed, but also by indicating their official residence at the time of commission of crimes.

If we take, for instance, the present charge it is clear, that the accused No. 2, held the position of Ortsgruppenleiter somewhere in the district of Celle, but it does not necessarily follow from the description given on page 1. that he was an Ortsgruppenleiter of Neuhagen.

No. 1301 — The accused not sufficiently identified. There is no indication of his rank and unit, or his official position or residence.

No. 1302
a) No identifying data of the accused No. 2.
b) No indication as to where the accused No.4 was a Chief of the Gestapo. There are two places mentioned in the charge.

No. 1304
a) The accused Nos. 1 & 2 not sufficiently identified, (Official position or places of residence), though, as it has been stated, that the victim has identified them , it should also be possible to identify the accused No. 2 as he was a member of the Belgian Military Police.
b) Responsibility of the accused No.2 is not clear, as he was presumably entitled to take action against the deserters. Besides, it is not expressly stated that he personally tortured the victim.

No. 1305
a) Names under Nos. 16, 19, 22-25 seem to be incorrectly spelt , and some of the others sound strange.(Nos. 26,36,41)
b) The Belgian National Office proposes to list the accused:

Nos. 1-4 on A List
" 5-69 " S "
No. 70 " W "

It appears from the statement of the German witness No. 70, as well as from the facts elaborated in the Annex, that the victims have been executed by soldiers stationed in the Château des Pères Blancs. It seems therefore that the group of soldiers Nos.60-69 stationed elsewhere should be left out of the charge even as suspects. The case does not give any sufficient basis to charge this group of persons at all.

No. 1307 a) The place should be spellt CREFELD instead of ORFELD.
b) The crimes have been committed also at the RHEYDT Concentration Camp and the Commandant of that Camp should also have been charged.

No. 1308 The first name of the accused does not seem probable.

No. 1309 There are two seperate charges in this case. In the second one, against the accused No. 2, the victim is a Dutch National.

French cases

No. 1326 a) Nothing has been said in the case that could justify bringing up charges against the group of Military Police at AVALLON as such. On the contrary, from the particulars on page 2. it appears clearly that only the accused No. 1. was involved and committed the crime personally.

b) The victims were Yugoslav and Portuguese Nationals and the respective national authorities should be notified.

No. 1327 Responsibility of the accused not sufficiently established. Apart from the statement that he was in some kind of control position over the French workers, and that he was hated by all people, no specific charges have been brought against him.

It has not even been stated that any crimes were committed against workers under his control which would justify to list him as suspect.

No. 1328 The accused Nos. 1-3 and 5-7 not sufficiently identified. The particulars given in the case should be supplemented by indicating the units or the official residence of the accused. There are too many places mentioned in the case which make it more difficult to establish the official residence of the accused mentioned above.

b) The accused Nos. 10-16 not at all identified. (Ranks , Units, Official Residence).

c) The names of the accused Nos. 2 and 14-16 seem improbable or incorrectly spelt .

No. 1329 a) The names of the accused Nos. 4 and 5 seem incorrectly spelt .
b) The accused Nos. 2 and 5 are Belgian Nationals. The Belgian National Office should be notified.
c) The case requires some clarification as to the responsibility of the accused Nos. 3-7 because on page 1 it has been stated that they are charged with complicity and on page 2 thay are regarded as suspects.

In the first case they should be eventually listed on "A" instead of on "S". In the second case, the statement onpage 2 does not give sufficient ground to list them even as suspects.

No. 1330 The last three of the accused not sufficiently identified.(Ranks, Units, Official Residence.)

No. 1331 It would be desirable if the French National Office would change the practice of giving first names of the accused in French transcription.

No.217(Additif) No charges brought against DICKMANN.

No. 438 " In the main case it has been stated that the orders to commit the crimes were issued by the accused AHRENDT while in the Additif the same is attributed to the accused HAUCK.

Norwegian cases

No. 1332 a) The accused not sufficiently identified.(Units or Official Position). It is not clear whether LOTZE and MALMENDIER were in charge of the P.O.W camp.
b) The victims are Soviet Nationals and the respective national authorities should be notified.

For Committee I - meeting
29th August 1945.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I

NOTES ON THE YUGOSLAV CASES NOS. 1333 to 1344 and ADDENDA TO CASES 461, 600, 601, 1152 and 1268.

By Mr. E. SCHWELB.

No. 1333. The question is whether Nojevminev, who obviously was the military commander of a detachment arresting Manojlovic is criminally responsible for the suffering of the arrested person in the horror camp of Banjica and at the time when he was on forced labour in Greece. But the arrest itself, if effected without reasonable cause, could be regarded as criminal.

No. 1334. A.

No. 1335. A.

No. 1336. A.

No. 1337. A particularly outrageous crime. Though it is not expressly stated that all the accused were participants in the crime, this may be implied from the charge and all 15 accused can therefore be put on A.

No. 1338. A.

No. 1339. This charge deals with abominable crimes committed against Italian citizens on Italian territory. It is not clear from the charge whether Yugoslav citizens were also among the victims.

It has been the practice of Committee I, before the listing of a criminal to insist on prima facie evidence either that the crime had been committed on allied territory or that allied nationals were among the victims.

It is up to the Committee to decide whether they want to alter their attitude in view of Art. 6(c) of the Charter Cmd. 6668 (Crimes against humanity). The same problem is implied in the charge No. 1323 (see Doc. I/25).

No. 1340. A.

No. 1341. 1 and 2 on A. "Other perpetrators" is too general a description.

No. 1342. A.

No. 1343. A.

No. 1344. As to the place: Is not Crna Gora the Serbian name for Montenegro, a province, formerly an independent kingdom, of which Cetinje is the capital?
All: A.

No. 461. (addendum): A.

No. 600. (addendum): A.

No. 601. (addendum): A.

No. 1152. (addendum): an additional charge against Diersing, who has already been listed on A.

No. 1268. The Yugoslav National Office have restated the "particulars of alleged crime" by inserting a new text for pp. 3 and 4 of the original. There now seems to be a prima facie case against the 37 accused persons.

SECRET

Report upon "C" Cases and Recommendations for Charges.

(By Mr. McCausland)

ϕ Cases that should be dropped.
\+ Cases for alteration generally from "C" to "A".

French Cases v. Germans

ϕ 452/Fr/G/145. There is no evidence that this was a crime. The woman who was shot acted very foolishly in standing on a vehicle to watch the fighting, and the unknown Germans who shot her may well have thought she was acting as a look-out. Nor is there the remotest chance of finding them.

485/Fr/G/164. The Commandant is on "A" List.
The Asst. Commandant is not implicated by the evidence and should be taken off "C".

ϕ 498/Fr/G/177. The charge is one of burning a village in reprisal for the capture of 19 German soldiers by partisans. No lives lost.
Is this a war crime? See Oppenheim II, pp. 447 and 449.

\+ 529/Fr/G/207. The order for the execution of hostages was given by General Brenner who is on "A" list. I think the other officers, N.C.O.'s and men who are named should also be on "A".

\+ 532/Fr/G/210. Nos. 6 and 7 (now S) might well join 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 on "A" list. They were present and are of higher rank than most of the 5.

\+ 534/Fr/G/212. At present adjourned.
The two officers specified might go on "A" list.

553/Fr/G/226. The charge is looting, and Kulmann, the officer in charge, is rightly on "A" list.
As it is admitted that a pretence of requisition was put forward, the six men charged with him are not prima facie guilty. At present, the circumstances are quite consistent with their innocence.

570/Fr/G/243. (adjourned) It seems most improbable that Mario was present in a capacity other than that of interpreter. He should be classified as a witness.

572/Fr/G/245. The unit concerned in torture, looting and murder consisted of Russians in German service. Should not this be referred to the U.S.S.R.

579/Fr/G/252. Destruction of a farm by fire.
The culprit was a drunken German officer whose further orders were countermanded.
I feel that in this case the officers, N.C.O.'s and men should be removed from the list. So far as they were concerned the order was a lawful one.

Belgian Cases.

143/B/G/13. Should now be "C", instead of B(1).

\+ 166/B/G/15. Assuming that the name of the witness is known and that he can be produced, this should be "A".

\+ 275/B/G/17. Evidence good and accused's name ascertainable. Should be "A".

276/B/G/18. ditto.

602/B/G/19)
604/B/G/20) These cover the same charge - murder of an American airman - and should be joined. Strong case. Should be "A".

797/B/G/33. Looting. The major criminals - Goering, von Ribbentrop and Rosenberg - presumably fall outside our jurisdiction now. Should they be removed?

875/B/G/43. Murder of an American airman. Strong case - should be "A".

Czech Cases.

26/Cz/G/4. Refers to events in March 1939, and therefore not a war crime, though triable by Czech courts. But presumably Dietz Sepp, as a major war criminal will be dealt with by the International Military Tribunal (see Article 6(a) of the Charter).

389/Cz/G/6. This case also falls within the jurisdiction of the International Military Tribunal as 16 of the men accused are major war criminals.

464/Cz/G/6. The same remarks apply. I presume that all these cases have been passed to the committee of Prosecutors set up by Cap. III of the Charter.

U.K. - Italian Cases.

6 109/UK/It/17. In this case the officer concerned behaved very foolishly in smashing his camera while awaiting his turn for interrogation and the assault resulting was a very trivial one. The case should be dismissed.

115/UK/It/11. So far as General Bellomo is concerned, this case has been disposed of. A minute from Mr. Kent (dated 25.6.45.) notes that Sommavilla has not yet been arrested. However, he is already "A" and no charge is called for.

6 156/UK/It/13. Sommavilla is marked "A" as having been Commandant of the Camp, but the shooting was done by two drunken guards and there is no suggestion that he knew anything about it. As there are many other charges against him, I think this should be dropped.

220/UK/It/17 to
255/UK/It/37. These cases all relate to British officers and men who escaped and were subsequently recaptured in civilian clothes. They were tried by military courts and sentenced to death or long terms of imprisonment.

They are in a very unsatisfactory state and would have been better marked "adjourned". At present they are marked "C" and certainly cannot go higher.

269/UK/It/38. Murder of Indian P.O.W. by a sentry at Caserta. There seems no reason for charging the two senior medical officers with culpability, especially as they appear to have put the sentry under arrest, and I suggest that both should be marked as witnesses.

270/UK/It/39. Similar case.
The Commandant should be held as a witness.

271/UK/It/40. Similar case, but here it appears that the Commandant refused to allow Br. medical officers to attend the wounded men, indicating that he supported the sentry's action. No charge.

\+ 272/UK/It/41. Colonel Gori should be promoted from "C" to "A".

\+ 344/UK/It/44. I think there is just enough evidence to justify the promotion of Colonel Cione to "A", though the charges seem to arise from gross incompetence rather than malevolence.

\+ 345/UK/It/45. Not a serious case, but Col. Cione and Lt. Roocke might be "A" instead of "C".

\+ 346/UK/It/46. The real culprit here seems to have been the Camp interpreter who is not charged. As he can be identified he should be added to the charge sheet and marked "A".

6 347/UK/It/47. I do not consider that the evidence here discloses an offence. The handcuffing of prisoners on a 17-hour journey after some had attempted to escape does not amount to cruelty. The case should be struck off.

415/UK/It/48. There is a definite charge of murder against one Roscioli, leader of the local Fascist militia. He should be added to the charge and marked "A".

The next case covers the same facts and was rightly "A". ϕ 38/UK/It/54. The P.O.W. who was shot is said to have been insane, but there is nothing to show that the sentry knew this. On the other hand, when he found the P.O.W. trying to climb the fence he did warn him before shooting.

This case should be dropped.

789/UK/It/55. A good case against the unknown guard of murdering a prisoner, but no case against the officers who obviously knew nothing of the occurrence till afterwards. They should be witnesses.

ϕ 961/UK/It/56. Shooting P.O.W.
No case - an unfortunate incident.

962/UK/It/57. Deliberate murder of P.O.W. by a guard, but no evidence to implicate the Commandant and Adjutant, now "A". In fact, the new affidavit by Pte. Sedgwick exonerates them. They should be witnesses.

United Kingdom - German Cases.

ϕ 78/UK/G/19. I am very dubious as to the policy of treating the deportation of 2000 Br. civilians from the Channel Islands as a war crime.

It is true that deportation of civilians figures as No. VII in the Commission's list of war crimes. But is it intended to apply to such a case as this? I should imagine that what the framers of these charges had in mind was wholesale deportation, carried out inhumanely, of whole populations for the purpose of slave labour or repopulation with Germans - the same thing that the Poles suffered in fact.
Here the deportation was highly selective, was carried out humanely, and can probably be justified on military grounds. In some cases deportation becomes a duty.

127/UK/G/27. Murder after capture of 6 men of the West Kent Regiment. Some further evidence has been obtained in this case but it does not carry the matter further and the present classification must stand.
The evidence has been considered by the Commission.

159/UK/G/38. Presumably the arrival at Muhlberg of over 1000 Br. P.O.W. from Crete "in a state of unimaginable exhaustion" is the subject of a separate charge. But if so the French P.O.W. Henri Lascadrau should be noted as a witness in that case, as well as in the charge regarding Casey.

165/UK/G/44. A War Office note of 26.9.44. identifies the Commandant of the Camp as Oberstleutnant Ried. But in this capacity he is already "A", and no change is called for.

174/UK/G/50. Marching of P.O.W. by a circuitous route in order to impress inhabitants. No charge of ill-treatment otherwise.
This is a very weak case and might well be dropped.
It is probably the same case as that referred to in 176/UK/G/52 in which charges of ill-treatment are added.

Cases 174 to 178 are all on the same lines and the accused are marked "C", except in 175 and 177 where they are marked "B2". This should be changed to "C".

+ 179/UK/G/55. In a note d/d 31.10.44. Mr. Kent says that the officer commanding the Division in Norway responsible for the murder of these 50 P.O.W. was General Pellengahr, Div. 196. He may now be promoted to "A". The others should be "C" instead of "B2".

204/UK/G/57. All accused marked "B2" should be "C".
205/UK/G/58. ditto.
207/UK/G/60. ditto.

In the six following cases (208 to 213) a number of accused are marked "B1" or "B2". Under our new classification these should all be "C".

+ 214/UK/G/69. On 31.10.44. three names were supplied of members of the prison staff at Loos. These should be added to 1, 2 and 3, already marked "A".

315/UK/G/79. Murder of 50 R.A.F. officers at Stalag Luft III, April 1944.
This is one of the really important cases and it is in an unsatisfactory state. All those at present named, some marked "A", were Camp officials. Yet the evidence indicates that the prisoners had been removed from their jurisdiction by the Gestapo who actually committed the murder, and if that is so, they cannot be held responsible.
If found, they will be useful as witnesses. But the real task is to find the murderers and those higher up who gave orders.

+ 350/UK/G/83. Ill-treatment of P.O.W. and murder at Kalamata, May, 1941.
Marked "adjourned" but falls in the same category as several preceding cases, and Nos. 1 and 2 should therefore be "A".

+ 351/UK/G/84. ditto. No. 1 may become "A".

+ 352/UK/G/85. ditto. The Commandant (not mentioned) may be "A".

+ 353/UK/G/86. ditto. Here additional evidence has been supplied by Capt. Crowe and Nos. 3 and 4 may now be promoted to "A".

+ 354/UK/G/87.) Using P.O.W. as screen in Crete.
355/UK/G/88.) In both cases there is evidence to justify the G.O.C. and O.C. Troops being marked "A". At present "adjourned".

+ 356/UK/G/89. Compelling P.O.W. to do war work. At present "adjourned". The same officers might be "A".

357/UK/G/90. Ill-treatment of P.O.W. in train to Salonika. There is an additional affidavit, but it adds nothing to our information. Must remain "C".

+ 358/UK/G/91.
359/UK/G/92.
360/UK/G/93.
365/UK/G/95. All marked "adjourned". There is sufficient evidence to justify classing all these accused as "C".

+ 367/UK/G/97. 2 and 4 (now "adjourned") might be "C".

+ 369/UK/G/99. The Commandant of the Camp where the P.O.W. were shot should be "A", the Guards "C". At present "adjourned".

+ 372/UK/G/102. Ill-treatment of P.O.W.s at Maribor and murder. "Adjourned".
The Commandant should be "A", others "C".

+ 374/UK/G/104. Ill-treatment of P.O.W.s at Teschen. "Adjourned". The Unteroffizier should be identifiable and might be marked "A".

781/UK/G/148. As there is no evidence and scarcely any possibility of it, is this accused properly marked "A"?

6 844/UK/G/160. Deportation of civilians from Guernsey. See remarks under 78/UK/G/19.

847/UK/G/163. Marked "adjourn". As there seems to be a very good chance of identifying the guilty, I think No. 3 should be marked "A" and 1 and 2 "C". The names of 4 and 5 have been inserted recently, but there is nothing to show why.

6 944/UK/G/167. A trifling complaint of bad food, not worth following up. "Adjourned". The only solid complaint in this case seems to be the bad food received by P.O.W. at two camps. Otherwise, it shows the German captors in a surprisingly humane light. Unless we are to follow up all complaints of food, this case should be dismissed.

+ 1253/UK/G/193. "Adjourned". There is a clear case against Hauptmann Pickard, and even a description of him (the only description I have found). He should be "A".

+ 1258/UK/G/194. "Adjourned". The Oberleutnant at Stalag IVB on 31.12.43. should be identifiable and might well be marked "A". The Stalagschreiber should be "C".

New: 1430-1441; Adjourned cases 1323 & 1939; Addendum to case 622 and on the Addendum to the Belgian case 795.

YUGOSLAV CASES:

No. 1430.

MANASIJEV. There is a prima facie case against MANASIJEV, but nothing is said about his rank and unit, or official position. The charge furnishes nothing but the name and the fact that the crime was committed in Krusevac in the summer of 1942.

No. 1431.

Serafim MILENKOVIC has, no doubt, been the victim of a crime, but the charge needs supplementation as to the personal criminal liability of the accused, Panev. All that is said about Panev's personal activities is that he ordered Bulgarian soldiers to search Milenkovic's house on having been informed by some person that Milenkovic was supposed to be the treasurer of the local partisan organisation. The ordering of the search does not per se constitute a crime. The charge goes on saying that 100000 Dinars were found and that "the accused", by which description obviously Milenkovičand not the accused Panev, is meant, was taken to three places, kept for a fortnight and tortured. It is not stated that Panev ordered, or is otherwise responsible for this imprisonment and for the tortures accompanying it. Nothing is said in the charge to substantiate the indictment for Pillage and for Wanton Devastation and Destruction of Property.

No. 1432. A.

No. 1433. A.

No. 1434.

This is a well documented charge of systematic terrorism against the population of Italian occupied Yugoslav territory. There is a prima facie case against the accused 1 to 5, 8, 10 to 19, and 21 to 23, and no problems either of law or of fact are involved in the case of these accused.

Bettini (No.6) Inchiostri (7), Ciubelli (9), and Nicoletti (20) are teaching personnel and staff of the educational administration and in their cases some difficulties appear to arise. Binna (1), whose case is not doubtful, is accused, inter alia, of having brought to Dalmatia, Italian teachers who insisted on the italianisation of Yugoslav children. It appears to be open to doubt whether an Italian educationist who is thus brought to an occupied country, and teaches children in his own language, commits, in doing that, a war crime. The organisation of special courses for teachers to learn Italian and Italian methods does not seem to constitute a war crime either. The Yugoslav National Office should also be asked to explain what the expression "Trustee for Education" (Nicoletti, No.20) means.

Souverain

The meaning of the phrase "Attempts to denationalise the inhabitants of occupied territory" (War Crimes list No.XII) should be cleared up in connection with this charge.

In the case of Tacchini (No.24) it is doubtful whether the Commander of a man of war who in the course of military operations bombards a village, commits a war crime.

No. 1435. A.

No. 1436. A.

No. 1437. A.

The Yugoslav National Office should be asked whether the accused Jakov Kljunak and Ermalia Kljunak are Italian or Yugoslav citizens. In the latter case they would be in the legal position of "Quislings" but no obstacle would be in the way of listing them on the request of the Yugoslav National Office.

No. 1438. A.
It is submitted that also that part of the charge which refers to Tucci's activities as president of the Extraordinary Tribunal makes out a good prima facie case against the accused.

The Belgian addendum to case No. 795.

Here the Belgian National Office adds 12 new names to its Buchenwald charge, viz, officials of the Reichssicherheit's Hauptampt and of the Wirtschafts und Verwaltungs Hauptamt. All 12 should be put on A. and Possoegel and Pyrskalla on C.

Notes on the Belgian and Norwegian Cases.

By. E. Schwelb.

BELGIAN CASES.

Addendum to No. 796.

Here the Belgian National Office adds eight new names to its charge concerning the shootings of 50 allied Air Force Officers. The case against all the accused is based on the deposition of Generalmajor WESTHOFF (see Summary of Information No. 37). There is no doubt that all eight should go on A. The question is whether Westhoff's statement should be taken at its face value also in those parts where he attempts to clear all army officers of any responsibility for the crime.

The only really new person charged by Belgium is No. 4. (Friedrich), described as BORMANN's Deputy. I have never heard of a Nazi functionary of this name. Westhoff speaks of him as "Bormann's deputy, who was an "Obergebietsleiter or something of the sort, called Friedrich." (see Summary of Information No. 37, page 7)

If the existence of this functionary is to be assumed, he should be described as:

FRIEDRICH, "Obergebietsleiter (or party officer of similar rank") deputy of Martin BORMANN, head of the Party Chancellery.

No. 1486. A.

No. 1487. 1 - 5 on A.

As to "le Boxeur" and "le Watmann", it is doubtful whether these nicknames, in the latter case obviously incorrectly reproduced, suffice for the establishment of the identity of the criminals.

NORWEGIAN CASES.

No. 1483. Fischermann. It should be added: alias SÜDEMANN. A.

No. 1484. A. "SCHLUSSMACHER" is probably not the real name of the second accused, but a nickname.

No. 1485. A.

For COMMITTEE I.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

Notes on the Yugoslav Cases.

By Mr. E. Schwelb.

No. 1461. This charge is concerned with crimes committed by Italians on Italian territory against Italian citizens. The fact that after the Second World War the territorial sovereignty of part of the territory may undergo some changes is irrelevant from the point of view of criminal law.

The crimes fall under what in Art. 6 (c) of the Charter of the International Military Tribunal is called "crimes against humanity."

Committee I will have to give a ruling on cases of this kind.

It is submitted that the criminals cannot be listed as war criminals in the narrower sense and that they cannot be listed at the instance of the Yugoslav National Office.

Similar considerations are involved in the cases Nos. 1323 (see Doc. I/25) and 1339 (see Notes prepared for the meeting of 29th August 1945.)

In Doc. I/25 (para VI (3)) I submitted for consideration by Committee I. whether the attention of the Allied Control Commission for Italy should not be drawn to similar crimes.

No. 1462. Here applies what has been said under No. 1461.

No. 1463. No particular accusation is brought forward against 9 (Rocci) and 10 (Soldano) but the charge against them is apparently implied in the general statement that "the individuals mentioned" are "responsible for numerous acts of murder, etc. "

I would propose to put 1 - 8 on A, 9 and 10 on S.

Canino (1) is described as Commander of the 259th Division "Murge". At other places the charge speaks of the 259th Regiment.

No. 1464. It is not expressly stated, but it may be implied, that the soldiers who shot nine innocent inhabitants of Budva acted under Bertelli's command. If this assumption is correct, Bertelli can be placed on A. "Other perpetrators" is too general a description for any action to be taken by the Committee.

Query whether the statement that BUDVA is in the Kotor district of Montenegro is correct. Does it not belong to Dalmatia?

No. 1465. A.

No. 1466. A.

No. 1467. A.

No. 1468. VILLASANTA and MORRA.

This charge may be read in connection with the following statement made by Dr. Živković in the Meeting of Committee I held on 23rd May, 1945, (Minutes No. 10) in supplementing the charge against Bushianini, Barbera and Butti, No. 848:

" Zadar, although belonging to the pre-war Italian "territory, was a centre of the whole Yugoslav Dalmation "territory occupied by Italy during this war. It was "from there that instructions for the commission of crimes "in these Yugoslav territories were issued. "

Although Zadar (Zara) was at the relevant time Italian territory, there is a prima facie case against Villasanta and Mora.

No. 1469. A.

No. 1470. A.

No. 4171. A.

No. 954. (addendum.)

The addendum proposes 20 new names to the charge 954. Against all of them there is a good prima facie case.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

Notes on the French Case No.1445.
Gestapo of Vichy.

By. E. Schwelb.

The charge concerns 98 persons of whom one (Wagner) is described as killed. In addition, a man named TANZMANN is mentioned in paragraph 15 of the "particulars of alleged crime" but not in the list presented by the French National Office.

Against 36 of the persons contained in the list, concrete crimes are alleged and no problem arises with regard to them.

As to the remaining 62 (or 61) persons they all were, at the relevant time, members of the Staff of the Vichy Gestapo and Sicherheitsdienst which as a unit or group is charged with a great number of abominable crimes like murder, deportation, execution of hostages, arson, pillage in the Vichy region and in the whole "zone Sud".

Considering, in point of fact, the particular allegations of the charge 1445 as well as what is by now common knowledge about the Gestapo, S.D. and S.S. (e.g. Doc. C.106) and in point of law the recommendation as to collective responsibility for war crimes, proposed by Professor GROS and adopted by the Commission as Doc. C.105 (1) and, further, per analogiam the provisions of Art.6. last paragraph of the Charter of the International Military Tribunal, it appears justified to list all the persons - with exceptions to be mentioned presently - on A.

The exception refers to 12 of the persons listed, mostly women, who were employed as translators and typists. Those should be listed either on S. or on W.

COMMITTEE I

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

COMMITTEE I

Notes on the French Cases Nos. 1512-1534 and Addendum to No. 926.

By Mr. E. Schwelb.

No. 1512 BERG, HENKEN, HABRICHT: "S"
CLARCK (this spelling does not seem correct.) :"W"

No. 1513 All on "A".
The identificati n of the first and second accused may be assisted by pointing out that the Unit in question had on its vehicles the emblem of a lion sitting upright.
The identification of "the captain" and "German soldiers" seems to be difficult.

No. 1514 All named persons on "A".
Soldiers on "C".
The correct spelling of the first accused probably is: HALLENDORF, of the second accused : PAUL.
No particular charge is brought forward against SCHENK.

No. 1515 SCHÜTZ-KELLER on "A".
NISSOFFEN and FRANCKMANN (probably FRANKMANN) are proposed for "S" though it might also be considered adequate to place them on "A".
IVERSEN on "S".
Soldiers on "S" or "C".

No. 1516 All on "A".

No. 1517 METGER (probably METZGER), SCHWARTZ and JACOB } on "A".
The proposed witnesses do not seem to be of enemy nationality.

No. 1518 This is an accusation of judicial murder. It does not appear that the accused party functionaries could claim any privileges on the ground that they were acting as members of a kind of tribunal.
There is a prima facie case against all six accused who should go on "A".
The following spelling mistakes should be corrected:
2) Landeskommenar(?), possibly: LANDESKOMMANDANT or LANDRAT(?)
5) ANSCHUTTSAEITER.

No. 1519 HUSTERT on "A".
LANDSCHUKE(?) and NORNBURG on "S".
As to the identification of HUSTERT it should be added that he was a Lieutenant and established whether the number S.P. 35250/A is probable.
As to the others, the designation of a military Unit as BLUTgrupp A seems to based on some misunderstanding.
Blutgruppe (blood group) is a term of modern forensic medicine. People are distinguished as belonging to several, probably three (A,B,O,) blood groups, according to the consistency of their blood. This distinction is important in law suits concerning the rights of illegitimate children against their alleged father.
The correct spelling of the town of Nornburg's domicile probably is :NIENSLAGEN.

No. 1520 All on "A".

No. 1521 The charge proposes to put three persons on "A". Two of them have the name of SCHAFER, the first was the commander of the ILE D'OLERON, and is described as a Korvettenkapitän, the second is described both as a Major and as a Captain (of the medical corps.)
Provided there are really two distinct persons there is no reason why all three persons proposed for "A" should not be put on "A", and the six other persons named (four Germans and two Italians) on "S".

LAZ does not appear to be either a probable German, or a probable Italian name.

No. 1522 BECKER on "A"
Query whether HERBACH and BLANC are Germans or Frenchmen.

No. 1523 KOTTER, TRAXCELLER (probably TRAXELLER) and HEINZ on "A".
BOUR is described as a Frenchman, compulsorily enlisted into the German forces. The date (28th June 1945) is obviously a mistake.

No. 1524 DUDEY and Graf von SCHWERING (pobably:SCHWERIN) on "A".
WEBER on "W"

No. 1525 BERNARD on "A"
LAUNIAGER(?), also describes as LAUNIAGER(?) on "S"

No. 1526 1-5 on"A"
6 on "S"

No. 1527 I t will be difficult to identify the first accused TETARD, nothing but the name being stated. It will be impossible to trace the second accused of who nothing but the date of birth is known.
TETARD on "A"
Query whether the witnesses are enemy nationals.

No. 1528 SCHMITT on "A".
X on "C"
Query whether witness is an enemy national.

No. 1529 STERNKOPF and Russian Colonel (if the identity of the latter can be established) : on "A".
German soldiers on "S" or "C".

No. 1530 GROSS and KRUPE (?) (Name not very probable) on "A".
Soldiers on "C".

No. 1531 It appears that the French authorities are in possession or may get hold of the files of the German Court Martial which tried and condemned the accused. It should, therefore, be not impossible to add more particulars about the accused (Unit, habitual place of residence etc.) The plea ne bis in idem does not apply in such a case according to the established practice of Committee I.

No. 1532 See special report on this case.

No. 1533 1 on "A". The spelling probably is KAHL .
2-5 on "S"

No. 1534 ~~HAA~~ on "A"
WEYRAUCH on "S"
YOU does not appear to be a conceivable or probable name. "Standartwachtkompagnie" does not seem to be a correct description. Standarte is the designation of S.S. Regiments.

No. 926 Add. This is an additional charge against two men who are already on "A".

FOR MEETING OF COMMITTEE I.
19th September 1945.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

Notes on the Czechoslovak Case No.1935 (Killing of Inmates of Mental Homes, Jews and Political Prisoners. Human Guinea Pigs.)

By E. Schwelb.

I. This charge is directed against 50 persons involved mainly in crimes connected with so-called Racial Hygiene, with using human beings as guinea pigs for experiments and with systematic extermination of Jews and Allied Nationals and political opponents.

II. The persons mentioned under Nos. 2, 4, 6, 8, 11, 12, 13, 14, 18, 21 and 22 have already been listed by the Commission on a Commission charge for the facts established, also in the present case (activities of the so-called Reelitz Stiftung). The charge is further concerned with the criminal activities of Dr. Ding (No.27) who is charged on the Commission's list in connection with the Belgian charge concerning Buchenwald.

III. The Czechoslovak National Office also charges the leading personalities of the W.S.Dept. WVHA (nos.30-36).

IV. The Czechoslovak National Office proposes to put the persons named under Nos. 1 - 39 on 'A' and there is no reason whatsoever why Committee I. should not agree to this proposal.

As to No.26, his particulars are as follows:

GRAWITZ, Dr. Ernst Robert, Chief Medical Officer of S.S. and Police; Vice-President of the German Red Cross, deputy to the Reichskommisar for voluntary nursing service (Reich Ministry of the Interior), SS-Obergruppenführer, General d. Waffen-SS and d. Polizei. Professor.

In the report written by the accused, Dr. Ding, on the 24th May 1943, which is quoted in the charge, Enclosure 3, Paragraph 24, it is expressly stated that the experiments made by him were conducted on the initiative of the Reichsgesundheitsführer and on the command of the Heeres-Sanitäts-Inspekteur of the Reichsarzt SS and by the Chef des Sanitätswesens der Waffen-SS. It is, therefore, submitted that the Reichsgesundheitsführer, whom the Czechoslovak charges proposes to put on 'S' (49) and the Heeres-Sanitäts-Inspekteur (No.41) should be placed on 'A' as follows:

CONTI, Dr. Leonardo, Staatssekretär and Chief of Health Divisions (Abteilungen III & IV) Reich Ministry of the Interior; Reichsgesundheitsführer:Hauptdienstleiter SS-Obergruppenführer.

HANDLOSER, Prof. Dr. Generaloberstabsarzt; Heeressanitätsinspekteur; Chief of the Medical Service of the Armed Forces.

The following person should be added to 'A':

Chef des Sanitätswesens der Waffen-SS. The name of this person will be established with the help of the Research Office.

IV. As to numbers 40, 42-48 and 50, the Czechoslovak National Office proposes to put thesem on 'S' and this proposal is fully justified.

V. The following particulars could usefully be added to the names of the following accused:

No.21. DR. KARL BRANDT. Reich Commissioner for Health and Medical Services (Reichskommissar für das Sanitäts und Gesundheitswesen) SS-Gruppenführer; Professor. ~~Gesundheitsw~~.

No.30. OSWALD POHL. Chief of Administration and Economics Division of SS; Ministerialdirektor Reich Ministry of the Interior; SS-Obergruppenführer; General der Waffen SS. ~~member, Board of Directors Rüstungsbank Portland Cement.~~

No.31. RICHARD GLUECKS. Chief of "Amtsgruppe D," Wirtschafts- and Verwaltungshauptamt of SS. Commander of Concentration camps; SS-Gruppenführer; General leutnant d. Waffen-SS.

No.50. Dr. OTTO LEBRECHT MEISSNER. Staatsminister; Chef der Präsidialkanzlei;

Notes on United Kingdom Cases.

By. Dr. J. Litawski.

No.1478. This case was adjourned on the motion of Mr. Kent.
(a) From the additional affidavit of Major THOMPSON it appears that the German Medical Officer, OPPERMANN could be listed as an enemy witness, but it is not clear whether the U.K.National Office proposes to do so.

3 and 4 on 'C'.

No.1490.(a) From the evidence attached to the charge and especially from the "Narration" it appears that the crimes were committed by Germans only and there is not sufficient ground to bring up charges against Italian authorities which, as the evidence shows, intervened in favour of the victims and refused to supply a squad formed of Italian soldiers. It appears also that at least the head of the Gestapo of NORCIA should have been charged.
(b) The case should be adjourned to enable the U.K.National Office to make the necessary changes.

No.1491.(a) This is also not a case against Italian war criminals. The crime against DENT was committed by a German officer and a number of German soldiers of unknown names, ranks and unit.
(b) On the other hand there is evidence (see Affidavit of A.PARKER) of other crimes committed at camp No.78 at SULMONA for which its Commandant, Colonel SATTARO has not been charged at all.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I

Notes on the United States Cases Nos. 1628 to 1642

by Mr. E. Schwelb

No. 1628. This charge concerns German personnel of Stalag Luft IV and persons responsible for the movement of prisoners from Stalag VI to Stalag IV. Particular charges are preferred ~~only~~ against Captain Pickard (No. 11) and Oberfeldwebel Hans Schmidt (No. 13). Lieutenant Colonel Bombach (No. 1) is prima facie responsible as Commandant of Stalag Luft IV.

As to 2 to 10, 12 and 14, nothing is said as to their connection with the crimes and as to their responsibility.

Canadian and British prisoners of war were also among the victims.

No. 1629. 1 to 5 on A.

6 on W.

As to 1 (Kürschner) and 3 (Müller) who are not in custody, particulars making their identification possible should be added.

No. 1630. 1 to 5 on A.

No. 1631. Only against 1 (Hasemann) a concrete charge is brought forward viz: that he released captured American airmen to a mob of German civilian /s He should, therefore, go on A.

Nothing is expressly said as to the accused (2) to (15). But it seems to be implied in the charge that they were those civilians resident in Bad Dürrenberg who were among the mob several of whom beat and kicked these airmen, injuring at least one of them severely. The victims have, according to the charge, not been identified but inquiry has been instituted with the Graves Registration Service. It should be noted that it is not alleged in the charge that any of the airmen have died as a consequence of the beatings and kicking.

I would submit to put (2) to (15) on S.

No. 1632. Though the victim does not appear to have been injured as a result of the assault committeed by the accused they are nevertheless prima facie guilty of a war crime and should go on A.

No. 1633. Wiegand on A.

No. 1634. Schultheiss on A.

ELLENBERGER should be listed on W (provided that he is of enemy nationality).

No. 1635. LANDWEHR and KONIGSDORF on A

Data leading to the identification of Konigsdorf should be added, if possible. Both he and Landwehr probably were civilian inhabitants of BURGDORF.

No. 1636. 1 to 3 on A.

The German Lieutenant Colonel in charge of the Erding airfield could also be held responsible for assenting to the handing over of prisoners to civilians for the purpose of exhibiting them to the villagers.

No. 1637. CURDTS on A.

No. 1638. BÜHLER on A.

No. 1639. The connection of the six accused with the crime is not expressly described in the charge.

Nedwed (5) is obviously held responsible as Chief of the Innsbruck Gestapo and PRIMBS (4) as Kreisleiter. If a copy of the ~~XXXXX~~ Statement sworn by Lieutenant Mayer were submitted to the Commission, the implication of (1), (2), (3) and (6) could probably be established.

(4) and (5) on A. Additional information necessary as to the others.

No. 1640. The only difficulty of this case is the identification of the accused.

No. 1641. The part played by the two accused is not described in the charge. Additional information appears to be necessary.

No. 1642. Rothel on A.

It is submitted that at least SICKERT who is stated to have carried a shot gun should go on S.

In addition to Kappe, also Brandt and Scheuermann should go on W.

FEIEREISEN is a citizen of the Grand Duchy. But, as he was an agent of the Gestapo and the Luxembourg National Office proposes him to be listed as a war criminal, there is no objection to listing him also on A.

by Mr. E. Schwelb

No. 989. This addendum contains 41 additional names of Neuengamme Concentration Camp personnel. All on A.

No. 1107. The Belgian National Office now supplements the charge which was adjourned on July 25th, 1945, by the statement that the 150 workers, of whose illtreatment Kümmel is accused, are of Belgian nationality and that two of them have been examined as witnesses.

Now Kümmel could be listed on A.

No. 1486. This case was adjourned on 26th. September because the identification of Major Schultz as a commander of ~~the~~ "la 3e Cie de la Panzer Division, Nachschub Tr 82" appeared to Committee I to be difficult.

Now it is stated that Schultz was in command of the 3rd Company Nachschub Tr 82 of the Panzer Division. Tr. appears to stand for Train. I submit that these dates are sufficient as there can be no difficulty in establishing which Panzer Division was operating in Banneux, Province de Liege on 5th. September 1944.

Nos. 1592 to 1597 and addendum to the case 956

by Mr. E. Schwelb.

No. 956. This addendum ~~has~~ gives two new names. The case of the two persons mentioned is indistinguishable from that of the fourteen people who were placed on A on June 26, 1945.

No. 1592. 1 to 9 on A. on 10 and 11 are the persons/whose deposition the charge is based. 10 (Gaida) admitted that he himself had "in two or three cases given people a box on the ear." He should therefore go on A.

No charge is brought forward against 11 (Krabitza) and 12 (Schabatka). Krabitza as a POLIZEI-CRIMINAL-SEKRETÄR of the Gestapo should, according to precedent, - see the Czechoslovak Oswiecim charge - also go on A. Schabatka whose rank is unknown should go on S.

No. 1593. A

No. 1594. A
The accused's present address is given as Chemnitz. It is submitted that application for his arrest should be made by the Yugoslav National Office to the Soviet authorities.

No. 1596. The charge is based on the deposition of two witnesses who testify to the accused having boasted of crimes committed in Yugoslavia. Though this evidence should not be considered sufficient to find Kupke guilty, it would seem to be in accordance with the usual practice to consider it sufficient to make out a prime facie case.

No. 1597 1 on A
As to (2) (Schwicetenberg?) it is stated that he fought against Tito and that he disarmed the Italian troops and Tito's partisans. These activities do not constitute a war crime.

But it is also said that:-

(a) The partisans were handed over to the S.D.

(b) That some of the partisans were shot "by his unit" by the orders of General Roesner.

(c) That 50 men were shot at once.

(d) That 30 men were shot another time by Schwicetenberg's men.

(e) That these 80 partisans were sentenced to death by Court Martial on the orders of General Roesner.

The part played by Schwicetenberg is not very clear and it would probably be useful to get the original text of the Statement made by Schwicetenberg to the French authorities.

(3) On S or on C.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION
COMMITTEE I
Notes on the French Cases Nos. 1602 to 1627 and to the addenda

Cases 732 and 1355

By Mr. E. Schwelb

No. 1602. 1 to 3 on A

No. 1603. 1 to 3 on A.

4 (Platz) is one of the rank and file of the unit accused of the crime. According to established practice he ought to be listed on S. To list him on S would, of course, in this case be meaningless, because Platz is a prisoner-of-war in French custody. As he is said to have taken part in the pillage he could also go on A.

No. 1604. A special paper dealing with this case will be circulated.

No. 1605. 1 and 2 on A. S.

No. 1606. 1 to 6 on A. The name of the accused No. 6 which is given as KATSEISS and as KALTSEISS is probably KALTEIS.

No. 1607. 1 and 2 on W.

It will be noted that here the French National Office proposes the listing of two officers on W without making a charge against people who could be listed on A.

The designation of the unit is OSTBATAILLON, not ORSTBATAILLON.

No. 1608. Here 31 persons are charged with crimes committed by German and Cossack soldiers belonging to an unidentified unit who were accompanied by the Feldgendarmerie of VESOUL. Horn (1) was the FELDKOMMANDANT of Vesoul. SUHR (2) the officer in command of the operation complained of. ASMUTH (31) the interpreter is personally charged with cruelty. The 28 others (3 to 30) are NCO's of the Feldgendarmerie of Vesoul. The French National Office suggests them for A. This proposal is impliedly based on the principle of collective responsibility, often discussed by the Commission and now laid down, for the "major" war criminals, in the Four Power Agreement of 8th August 1945. ("...leaders, organisers, instigators and accomplices participating in the formulation or execution of a common plan or conspiracy to commit..... crimes are responsible for all acts performed by any persons in execution of such plan"). The question is whether this principle can be applied to a unit of the FELDGENDARMERIE. If the question is answered in the affirmative, 3 to 30 would go on A, otherwise on S. 1, 2 and 31 should go on A in either case.

No. 1609. There is no doubt that(1) and (2) should go on A. The French National Office proposes to put 3 to 49 on S. It is submitted that some of them, particularly 3, 4 and 5, could probably also go on A, if the decision Doc. C.140 were applied (executive officials of the security police from the rank of Kriminalsekretär upwards). As to 3 and 4 only the S.S. ranks are given, namely Hauptsturmführer (Captain) and Obersturmführer (Lieutenant). It is highly probable that the rank of these two accused in the Gestapo hierarchy is at least that of Kriminalsekretär.

No. 1610. 1 on A.

No. 1611. The name of the unit to which the accused belongs is not given.

1 to 3 on A.

4 on S

No. 1612. 1 on A.

No. 1613. 1 on W. See note on case 1607.

No. 1614. The correct name of the accused probably is RUDI (RUDOLF) GRUND. The unit to which he belongs is not given.

GRUND on W. See note on case 1607.

No. 1615. 1 on A.

Lydia FRIEDLI (?) probably FRIEDL or FRIEDEL should be listed on W.

No. 1616. A separate paper on this case will be circulated.

No. 1617. No doubt can exist as to the putting of Grabowsky (No. 1) on A. In addition to this commanding officer, a great number of officers, N.C.O's and men are proposed for List A. (Nos. 2 to 49 either inclusive or exclusive). This involves a decision of principle. As to the accused Nos 49 (or 50) to 54 no indication with regard to their part in the crime is given.

No. 1618. 1 on A.

2 on W. The correct spelling probably is MECKLENBURG.

No. 1619. 1 and 2 on A.

No. 1620. 1 on A

No. 1621. FEUCHTLENGER (probably FEUCHTLINGER) on A. See note on case 1607.

No. 1622. 1 on W. See note on case 1607.

No. 1623. The 3 accused "constituted themselves" as a court martial and "sentenced" their victim to death. This case is similar to the case No. 1518. (see my note on that case prepared for the meeting of CommitteeI held on September 19th, 1945). The case No. 1518 was adjourned because the Committee wanted to get more information about the nature of the "court" involved in it. (See Minutes No. 31, page 2). I suppose that Committe I will want additional information also in this case No. 1623. If it were not for the particular attention Committe I usually pays to "judicial" or quasi-judicial crimes, I would say that the facts set out in the French charge made out a prima facie case against all three accused.

No. 1624. 1 on S.

No. 1625. A separate paper on this case and on the case No. 1616 will be circulated.

No. 1626. There the question is whether the destruction of the plant was not an act of legitimate warfare.

No. 1627. 1 to 4 on A.

~~XXX 1628.~~

No. 732. (Addenda)

The Committee will have to decide upon 3 addenda to the French charge regarding the Concentration Camp Struthof-Natzweiler. There is, in my view, no objection to putting all the persons charged on A.

No. 1355. (Addendum)

Oberscharfuhrer KLUSSNER (No. 2 of the addendum) should go on A as a member of the personnel of the Woippy Camp. The four other persons mentioned in the addendum (1.3.4.5) are already on it on account of the original charge, the addendum containing more personal data.

COMMITTEE I.

Notes on the United Kingdom Cases Nos. 1643 - 1655, and on the Addenda to cases Nos. 1560, 1562 and 1563.

By E. SCHWELB.

I. NEW CASES.

1643, See special paper I/41.

1644, 1 and 2 on 'A'.
The victims of the crime are Australians. It is assumed that the United Kingdom National Office has brought up this charge on behalf of the appropriate authorities of the Commonwealth of Australia.
EBERTHAUSEN, of which the accused No.1. was Bürgermeister, is in the Russian zone of occupation.

1645, 1 on 'A', 2 on 'W'.

1647, 'A'.

1648, 'A'.

1649, 'A'. There appears to be also a contravention of Article 31 of the Prisoners of War Convention of 1929 (prohibited work). It appears that Art.31 applies also to prisoners serving a sentence imposed by a Court.

1650, 1 - 4 on 'A'. Proceedings as to the identification of the accused are being conducted.

1652, 'A'.

1653, 1 - 4 on 'A'. Both the "Particulars of alleged crime" and the affidavits speak also of a Hauptmann SCHMIDT (for particulars see SUZUKI's affidavit para 5 and Warrender's affidavit, para. 8.
He should also go on 'A'.
In the affidavits also other members of the German staff are mentioned. The accused Wilhelm BIRR, a civilian, could probably be traced through the Czechoslovak police authorities. He should be on thepolice register for LADOWITZ (Ladovice)(see affidavit by SUZUKI, para.8.) The Czech name of the town mentioned as place of the crime is MOST (Brüx).(Northern Bohemia)
OBERGEORGENTHAL is HORNI JIRETIN.

1654. 'A'.

1655, 'A'.

II. ADDENDA.

1560. In a newly presented affidavit (By Gunner Randall, para 5), additional information is given with regard to the perpetrator of crime who, on 3rd October 1945, was put on 'C'. A characteristic, not irrelevant, is given by Randall (in conformity with the affidavit by Corporal Lea): the accused had one eye completely closed as a result of a war wound.

1562. Two additional names are contained in Signalman Noakes's affidavit: Unteroffizier DANKWART and KITLER, civilian.
Both should go on 'A'.

1563. From four new affidavits it appears that six additional persons are involved in the responsibility for the HEYDEBRECK camp.
They are:

MAJOR SORGE,	Dr. SCHULZ,
Hauptmann LENNERT (or Lehnert)	Hauptmann TOUR,
Hauptmann SCHMIDT,	Feldwevel KIERKENS.

They should be listed on 'A'.

COMMITTEE I.

Notes on the U.S.A. cases Nos. 1656 to 1668.

By E. Schwelb.

No.1656. 'A'.

1657. 1 on 'A'.
2 and 3 are probably inhabitants of HEINIKEN. It is stated that they took no part in the actual shooting; in spite of that they are suspected of being principals in the second degree of the crime committed by REINECKE as principal in the first degree. The fact that a person was voluntarily present witnessing the commission of a crime and offered no opposition to it, though he might reasonably be expected to prevent it, and had the power of doing so, or at least to express his dissent, might in some circumstances afford cogent evidence upon which the court would be justified in finding that he wilfully encouraged and so aided and abetted the crime.
2 and 3 could, therefore, be put on 'S'.

1658. All on 'A'.
Either 2 or 7 are described in the charge as "KREISLEITER"

1659. 1 and 2 on 'A'.
As to 3, it is doubtful whether he is of enemy nationality; probably he is Polish.

1660. 1 and 2 on 'A'.

1661. 'A'

1662. 1 and 2 on 'A'.

1663. 1, 2 and 3 on 'A'.

1664. 1 - 4 on 'A'.

1665. The part played by the accused persons in the murder of the three captured American Airmen is not described in the charge, but it appears to be implied that they were actual perpetrators or, at least, principals of the second degree. All 13 persons could therefore be listed on 'A'.

1666. 'A'.

1667. 1 and 2 on 'A'.
One Friedrich VOLLBEHR is mentioned as having participated in the spoliation of the airman and to have received his watch and flying jacket. He could also be listed on 'A'.

1668. Six British airmen are among the victims of the crime. Against 1, 2 and 4, specific charges are brought forward. 3 is responsible as Chief of the Gestapo at Baden-Baden. The persons mentioned under 5 - 9 appear to be members of the police staff under 3. If this is rightly to be implied in the charge, they could,-in application of the unit rule - be also placed on 'A'.

Notes on Belgian Cases.

By J. Litawski.

280 (Addendum) The case of the accused No.1. requires some clarification. This accused is charged in the addendum because of the fact that he was Commandant of the unit involved at the time when the crimes were committed, but in the main charge, SEPP DIETRICH and KUMM have already been listed on 'S' as two possible Commanders of this unit. If the accused No.1. is explained as the officer who commanded the unit at the material time, it would seem to be necessary to take off the list the other two names.
The accused 2 - 11 on 'A'.

1094 (Addendum) New accused, all on 'A'. Two names not in the addendum on 'A'.

1095 (Addendum) On 'A'. (This case has been adjourned in order to establish whether there were any Belgian Nationals among the victims.)

1714 0 'A'.
1715 The accused on 'A'.
Reiser on 'W'. This case raises the question whether witnesses who are in custody as prisoners of war and who have been already interrogated by the Government should be listed by the Commission.
1716 (a). Out of the persons proposed by the National Office to be listed on the list 'A', only 5, (Nos.3, 4, 5, 6 and 20) have been specifically mentioned and charged with crimes in the "Particulars of the case". On the other hand, on page 4 it has been said that all persons proposed to be listed on 'A' have been identified. If this was meant to imply that they were identified as actual perpetrators, they can be listed on 'A'. In any case on list 'A' should go all five persons mentioned above, i.e. Nos. 3,4,5,6, and 20 and also the accused Nos. 1 and 2 because they were in command of the unit involved. On list 'A' should also go the following: GOEFFERT (or GOEPPERT), WEISSELT and MISCHKER, all of them charged on page 5 (see annex 3) with specific crimes, but omitted in annex 1.

(b) All persons named in Group 'S' should be listed on 'S' in view of the fact that they were members of the Gestapo of Lyon where a great number of crimes were committed.
It would be also important to ask the French National Office to supplement the charge with the description in full of the various sections of the Gestapo indicated only by numbers, whichdid not give any indication as to the activities and matters for which they were responsible and competent.

(c) WALTER mentioned on page 5 (annex 3) should be eventually listed on 'W'.

It appears that the Head of the Gestapo of Norcia should have been also charged and listed on 'A' (See the "Narration").

1491 1 on 'A'. 2 to be left out. 3 and 4 on 'C'.

Notes on United Kingdom Cases Against Japan.

By J. Litawski.

P.22) In these two cases, all of the accused except those mentioned under P.23) Nos.8. are the same persons. Most of them have not been specifically mentioned or charged in the "Particulars of Alleged Crime".

Taking into account:

(a) the general background related in the cases,
(b) the particular facts described in the affidavits,
(c) the extent to which the National Office succeeded in identifying the personalities involved as well as their functions,
(d) the kind of position held by the accused in the material time and their possible connection with the crimes committed by the actual perpetrators,
(e) as well as the fact that those who have provided information have not a clear recollection of persons (and names) who should be charged, especially in the higher ranks --

it seems appropriate to list the accused in both of the above mentioned cases as follows:

(A) Main Cases: 2, 3, 7, 12, 13 on 'A'.
(The accused No.13 can be listed on 'A', provided the National Office would add to the description of his position the words "in immediate command of Gendarmerie".)

9 and 10 on 'W'.

P.25) 1 on 'B'.
4, 5 and 7 on 'C'.
8 on 'W'
In the case of P.24 it appears that Lt. TAKEYAMA, the Japanese gendarmerie officer should have been also charged and it is proposed to list him on 'B'.

P.26 2, 3, 7 and 10 on 'A'.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

Notes on Yugoslav Cases Nos. 1736, 1737 and 1738.

By J. Litowski.

Nos. 1736 and 1737.

These two cases raise some difficult problems.

There is no doubt that every individual, even a member of irregular forces of a belligerent party who is deprived by enemy power of his liberty, not for a crime but for military reasons, has a claim to be treated as a prisoner of war and enjoy the privileges due to members of the Armed Forces. This implies that measures of reprisal against them because of such membership are prohibited according to Article 2 of the Geneva Convention of 1929.

With regard to these two cases, the question, however, arises:

(1) whether in view of the Article 1 of the Geneva Convention of 1929, the persons indicated in these charges were captured by the Italian authorities in the course of military operations,
(2) and/or whether at the time of their capture they were members of military or semi-military bodies organized according to the conditions laid down by Article 1 of the Hague Regulations,
(3) and consequently whether they acquired or were entitled to acquire the status of prisoners of war.

This question is important especially in view of the fact that the individuals mentioned in both cases were reasonably deprived of their liberty and in fact tried and sentenced during the Italian occupation of Yugoslavia.

Neither of the two cases provide sufficient ground to solve these difficulties because apart from the very concise statements they do not elaborate any circumstances in which the victims were allegedly taken prisoners and do not give any information as to the time of their capture.

It would, therefore, be necessary to ask the National Office for further information, and clarification of all the points noted above.

No. 1738.

The enlistment of soldiers among the inhabitants of occupied territory can be regarded as a war crime only if such action was enforced by the occupant or carried out under compulsion.

From the facts presented in page 2 of the case, it appears that the recruiting in Yugoslav Slovenia was subject to negotiations between the leaders of this part of the Yugoslav population and the German authorities and that it was a question of inducing the Yugoslavs to give their consent for such recruiting. Therefore the facts presented in this case, as they are, do not constitute sufficient prima facie evidence of a war crime and require further information and clarification by the National Office. In particular it would be quite important to know whether recruitment of Yugoslav Slovenes was ultimately enforced by a particular order issued by the German military authorities or was effected only on a voluntary basis.

LOCKES, OBERKEMPING and BIEREWINGKER on 'W'.

1778 — (a) This case was adjoured because it appeared that a number of other persons should also have been charged (see the last two paragraphs of the second affidavit)
(b) In any case, SCHIMINGER should be listed on 'A'.

1784 — (a) This case was adjourned because the responsibility of the accused GRAUL has not been sufficiently established.
(b) 1 and 2 on 'A'. 3 on 'S'.

Polish Case No.1120.

This case is one of a series of Polish cases dealing with confiscation and destruction of property in Poland. All of them have been accepted by this Committee and all of the accused listed on 'A'.

This particular case deals with crimes against Polish property so far as collections of books, booksellers' shops, circulating libraries, archives, collections, and publishing are concerned, and has been prepared on the same lines as the former cases.

There is no reason to discriminate in this case between various groups of accused and all of them should be listed on 'A'.

1788 — With regard to murder, plunder and deportation, the accused should be listed on 'A', but his responsibility for the confiscation of property has not been established.

1789 — Both on 'A'.

1790 — On 'A'.

1791 — Both on 'A'.

1792 — This case raises a problem analogous to those indicated in my notes (already distributed) on the adjourned Yugoslav cases Nos.1736 and 1737.
With regard to this particular case, it would be important to clarify the two following points:
(a) whether the orders "not to take prisoners" allegedly issued by the accused were in fact enforced, and
(b) whether the victims, if any, acquired or were entitled to acquire the status of prisoners of war.
The National Office should be asked for further information and clarification on these points.

(1) In the Main cases of these, the commandants of the camps and some members of the personnel indicated by name, have already been listed on 'A' and charged.

(2) The purpose of these two addenda, and this applies also to the addenda to cases Nos.1803 and 1804, has obviously been to ensure that all the personnel of the consentration camps in question be listed as units. This would mean a departure from the practice hitherto generally applied by this Committee, and it is doubtful whether such a departure would be practical and justified, especially in view of the comparatively small difficulties which the National Office would have to overcome in establishing, not only the names and functions of the accused, but also the specific crimes committed by the individual persons against their own nationals.

(3) Though in cases concerning concentration camps, mere membership of the staff of a concentration camp constitutes a prima facie case, such cases always involve two points relevant to the responsibility of such persons:

(a) their responsibility for participation in a common plan or conspiracy to commit or which involved the commission of crimes,

(b) the responsibility for specific crimes committed individually.

None of these points has been elaborated or specifically made the basis of these two addenda.
I submit, therefore, that the commandants of the camps in question having been already listed on 'A', all other personnel should, for the time being, be listed on 'C'.

1) BRITISH CASES:

No.35 (Addendum)	On 'A'.
1769 (Addendum)	GRAUZ on 'A'. WOISTITZ who has been previously listed as a possible accused No.4. should be removed from the list 'A' and listed on 'S'.
P.68 and P.69.	In these two cases, only the following persons have been specifically charged or mentioned in the documents attached therein: YANAGITA, KUROIWA, MORIMOTO, Dr. MORI and NYUMURA. In view of the particular character of these cases, and taking into account that the responsibility of some of the accused and suspects has not been sufficiently established, I submit the listing of the persons involved as follows: In case P.68, 1, 2, 3 and 4 on 'A'. 5, 6, 7, 8 and 14 on 'S'. 9, 10 and 11 on 'C'. 12 and 13 on 'W'. 1824,	This is the third case against an Italian Military Tribunal. It raises the same problems as those indicated in my notes on the two other Yugoslav cases, i.e. Nos. 1736 and 1737. With regard to these 3 cases, the decisive consideration would seem to be whether the trial of the Yugoslav citizens by these particular courts deprived them of the protection to which they were entitled under International law, and if not, whether the penalties imposed upon them were excessive in relation to the offences committed.

Cases on Yugoslav Cases Nos. 1736, 1737, 1824 and 1738.

By J. Litowski.

Nos. 1736, 1737 and 1824.

These three cases raise some difficult problems.

There is no doubt that every individual, even a member of irregular forces of a belligerent party who is deprived by enemy power of his liberty, not for a crime but for military reasons, has a claim to be treated as a prisoner of war and enjoy the privileges due to members of the armed forces. This implies that measures of reprisal against them because of such membership are prohibited according to Article 2 of the Geneva Convention of 1929.

With regard to these three cases, the question, however, arises:

(1) whether in view of the Article 1 of the Geneva Convention of 1929, the persons indicated in these charges were captured by the Italian authorities in the course of military operations,
(2) and/or whether at the time of their capture they were members of military or semi-military bodies organised according to the conditions laid down by Article 1 of the Hague Regulations,
(3) and consequently whether they acquired or were entitled to acquire the status of prisoners of war.

This question is important especially in view of the fact that the individuals mentioned in all three cases were presumably deprived of their liberty and in fact tried and sentenced during the Italian occupation of Yugoslavia.

Not one of thethree cases provide sufficient ground to solve these difficulties because apart from the very concise statements they do not elaborate any circumstances in which the victims were allegedly taken prisoners and do not give any information as to the time of their capture.

It would, therefore, be necessary to ask the National Office for further information, and clarification of all the points noted above.

No.1738.

The enlistment of soldiers among the inhabitants of occupied territory can be regarded as a war crime only if such action was enforced by the occupant and carried out under compulsion.

From the facts presented on page 2 of the case, it appears that the recruiting of Yugoslav Moslems was subject to negotiations between the leaders of this part of the Yugoslav population and the German authorities and that it was a question of inducing the Moslems to give their consent for such recruiting. These facts presented in this case, as they are, do not constitute sufficient prima facie evidence of a war crime and require further information and clarification by the National Office. In particular it would be quite important to know whether recruitment of Yugoslav Moslems was ultimately enforced by a particular order issued by the German military authorities or was carried out on a voluntary basis.

No.1925 — Art.9(4) of the Geneva Convention provides that:

> No prisoner may at any time be sent to an area where he would be exposed to the fire of the fighting zone, or be employed to render by his presence certain points or areas immune from bombardment.

The underlined second part of the paragraph is here in point. The wording of the provision makes it possible to argue that the intention to render certain points or areas immune is of the essence of the offence. This intention on the part of the accused is not alleged in the present charge, nor should it be possible to prove this intention. The accused employed the prisoners of war in the dangerous occupation primarily to have the repair work on the railway marshalling yards done. But they did it recklessly as to the question whether the prisoners would thereby be exposed to additional dangers.

It may be said that it is the primary purpose of the quoted provision to protect the prisoners of war against such reckless behaviour irrespective of the actual intention of the perpetrators.

If Committee I accepts this wider view there is no obstacle to listing both accused on 'A', particularly in view of the fact that they are charged also with other forms of ill-treatment.

1960, From the particulars of the case, it appears that the conditions and the regime imposed upon the prisoners in the Penitentiary at Ebrach remind one very much of the system applied generally in concentration camps. Therefore it is proposed to list the accused Nos. 29, 33, 34 and 35 on 'A' and all the rest on 'S' until the National Office would be in a position to supply more particulars and information as to their responsibility.

Superior Private Osenaga (the accused No.6.) is the only rank among the accused, all the others being officers. From this it may be implied, though it is not expressly stated in the charge that Osenaga was the guard who did the actual shooting. If this be correct, there is prima facie evidence against Maeda (No.2.) and Osenaga (No.6.) for putting them on 'A'.
There is nothing in the charge to establish the responsibility of said (1), (3), (4) and (5) for the crime.

Notes on the Yugoslav Cases Nos. 2042 to 2044.

By E. Schwelb.

No.2042 — 1 - 4 on 'A'.

No.2043 — 1 - 11 on 'A'.
As to (1) (Joachim Irmer) a question of jurisdiction arises because this accused is at present a member of the French armed forces. The crimes have been committed on Yugoslav territory and against Yugoslav nationals.
It appears that the French authorities do not claim jurisdiction in this case, the French representative on the United Nations War Crimes Commission having furnished the necessary information and copies of the depositions to the Yugoslav national Office. It is expressly stated in the note of the General commanding the French troops in Morocco to the French Minister of War, dated 13th October 1945, that the French Permanent Military Court at Casablanca has no jurisdiction in this matter. There appears, therefore, to be no obstacle to the listing of Irmer as a war criminal wanted by Yugoslavia.

Proposals as to the final decision on the Yugoslav Case No. 107.

(Italian Military Tribunal, Section of Ljubljana.)

By J.Litvinski.

In its meeting held on 12th December 1945, (Minutes No.42) Committee I decided to accept all charges submitted in this case except those under paragraphs 15 and II(2) on page 5 and under 7 on page 6 and under III(2) on page 8, consideration of which was adjourned until further information could be supplemented by the National Office as to the belligerent status of the persons mentioned therein.

In order to establish a final list of the accused responsible for crimes described in the accepted charges, i.e. under paragraph I (1 - 14 and 16) paragraph II (1, 3 - 6 and 8 - 14) paragraph III (1 and 3) and paragraph IV, the case was adjourned until the next meeting and I was charged with the task of preparing a list.

In my submission the final decision would be to list on 'A' the following persons: (the numbers of persons and charges are those in the Yugoslav case)

Nos. of accused:	Nos. of charges:

2	I (14), II (1, 3 - 6 and 8 - 14), III (3).

14	II (9), III (1).
15, ...	I (5, 6, 10, 13)
16	III (1).
17	III (1).
18	I (16).
21	II (5, 8, 9), III(3-
22	I (2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 10, 16), II (1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 14), III (3), IV.
23	I (1 - 14 and 16), II (1, 3,- 6 and 8 - 14), III (1 and 3) IV.

The accused Nos. 19 and 20 would be the only two of the accused against whom no charges have been accepted.

2049	All on 'A'.
2050	All on 'A'.
2051	1, 2, 4 on 'A'. 3 on 'S'. The responsibility of this accused has not as yet been sufficiently established for listing him on 'A'. The only charge against him so far is that he handed over to the first accused the key of the jail in which the victim was locked. The War Office should be asked for a clear statement as to whether or not the accused are already in custody.

Notes on the British cases Nos. 2118 to 2136 and on the Addenda to cases Nos.1075, 1743, 1766, 1778 and 1784.

By Egon Schwelb.

1. NEW CASES:

2118 On 'A'.

2119 1 and 2 on 'A'.

2120 'A'. The Accused KINZA belonged to the 610th LANDSCHUTZ Battalion. See affidavit by W.C.Thorne, para.2.

2121 'A'.
The unit to which REUTER belonged is not given, but particulars making his identification possible are given in the affidavit by BURROWES, paras.6 and 8 and in the affidavit by CLARKE, para.4.

2122 1 and 2 on 'A'. 3 on 'C'.

2123 1 and 2 on 'A'. LANGE is stated to have been a member of the local brownshirt party, i.e. probably the S.A. (Affidavit by PEARSE, para.2.) LADWACHE should be LANDWACHE.

2124 1 to 4 on 'A'.

2125 'A'. Particulars leading to the identification of the accused are contained in para.7. of Bell's and in para.6. of HINDLE's affidavit.

2126 'A'.

2127 1 on 'A'. 2 on 'C'.

2128 1 and 2 on 'A'.

2129 1 and 2 on 'A'.

2130 'A'

2131 1 on 'A'.
As to (2), particulars are given in the affidavit by SIMMONDS, para. 14. With the help of the accused (1) who is apparently in allied custody and a witness called Meyers (see para.9 of the same affidavit) it should not be impossible to identify (2).
As to Meyers it is stated by SIMMONDS (para.9) that "he did what he could to make our conditions bearable". In the opinion of WILLIAMSON, on the other hand, he was "in part responsible for the conditions under which we were kept."
It is submitted for consideration whether Meyers should not be listed on 'W'.

2132 'A'. The correct name of the place is:
in Czech: FRYVALDOV, in German: FREIWALDAU.

2133 'A'. The correct rank is OBERSCHUTZE.

2134 1 and 2 on 'A'. 3 on 'C'.

213[illegible]	1 and 2 on 'A'.
21[illegible]	'A'.

2. ADDENDA:

Nos.1075 and 1255.	On 25th July 1945, General Berger (1) was put on 'A', the "other officers, etc" on 'C'. In the addendum 8 new names (2 to 9) are given. The four affidavits establish a good prima facie case against the accused 2 to 5, (MACKENSEN, SWATERLING, WINTERS and GINSCHEL), who should go on 'A'. 2,(MACKENSEN) is already on 'A', (case No.1255). I did not find an allegation against 6 (AACHAUS)(?). As to 7 to 9 the British National Office refers to 'Q' Forms citing SCHUBERT (7), HERREN (8) and MULLER (9) as further accused. Their connection with the criminal activities and the reasons for their responsibility are not stated in the addendum. I would, therefore, propose: 1 and 2 are already on 'A'. 3 to 5 on 'A'. As to 6 to 9, the National Office should be asked to give additional information. In addition to British Prisoners of War, also Russian prisoners were among the victims. See particularly the affidavit by CARBUTT, para. 10. I submit for consideration whether the Soviet authorities should not be informed of the case.
1743	Gefreiter LIMMAR on 'A'. Schlichtling and Rickisch on 'W'.
1766	1 and 2 on 'A'. It is left to the discretion of Committee I whether the witnesses should be listed. The British National Office does not consider their listing necessary.
1778	SCHIMMINGER on 'A'. A separate case charging the guilty civilians will be submitted by the National Office.
1784	1 and 2 on 'A'. Charge against 3 dropped by British National Office.
1908	1 was put on 'A' on 28th November 1945. The British National Office does not want to list LINDHORST. No further action required.
1916	1 was put on 'A' on 28th November 1945. No additional information available as to the place. No further action required.
1922	A separate charge regarding the shooting of Private Clarkson will be presented. No further action required on the present charge.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I.

Notes on Polish, Yugoslav, Netherlands, Norwegian, French and United States Cases.

1) Polish Case.

2244 — 1-5 on 'A'.

2) Yugoslav Cases.

2245 — 1-2 on 'A'.

2246 — On 'A'.

2247 — On 'A'.

2248 — On 'A'.

3) Netherlands Cases.

2359 — 1-2 on 'A'.

2360 — 1-2 on 'A' {for deportation and confiscation of property. There is nothing in the case to establish charges of murder and robbery}.

2361 — On 'A'.

2362 — 1-2 on 'A'.

4) Norwegian Case.

2363 — 1-2 on 'A'.

5) French Cases.

N.B. Classification proposed by the French National Office so far as it differs from that submitted by the Legal Officer is shown in brackets.

2250 — On 'A'.

2251 — 1 - 29 on 'A'.

2252 — 1 - 6 on 'A'.

2253 — 1 - 5 on 'A', 7 - 15 on 'S'

2254 — 'A' on counts 2, 3 and 4 only ('A'for all charges). The facts as presented in the case do not constitute a prima facie case with regard to the alleged murder.

2255 — 1 - 2 on 'A'. The victim of the first crime was an American national.

2256 — 1 on 'A', 2-4 on 'W'.

2257 — 1 - 6 on 'A'.

2258 — On 'A'.

2259 — The allegations that the systematic destruction of St.Malo was not necessitated by strategic reasons, and that the town was outside the zone of military operations are not supported by the facts submitted in the particulars of the case. From the latter it results quite clearly that:

a) St. Malo was on the line of the Allied offensive, was bombarded by Allied planes and finally besieged. On August 13th a truce was agreed upon in order to evacuate and spare the civilian inhabitants.

b) The accused No.1, having been in charge of German Forces, decided on his own initiative or upon orders received from his superiors, to defend the town to the last, and was entitled to do so.

The action taken by the accused is therefore to be regarded as a military necessity unless the French National Office would be in a position to submit facts to the contrary, other than presented in the case.

6) United States Cases.

2305 According to Article 24 of the Geneva Convention 1929 (Amelioration of the Condition of the Wounded and Sick, etc.,) the emblem of the Red Cross shall not be used either in time of peace or in time of war except to protect or to indicate the medical formations and establishments and the personnel and material protected by the Convention. Any action to the contrary should be regarded as an abuse which may take one of two different forms:

a) The emblem is intentionally used on a feigned mission in order that a military operation may be carried out under the protection granted by or due from the enemy to this actually pretended emblem.

b) The emblem is intentionally used as a treacherous way of killing and wounding members of the enemy Army. Such action is forbidden by Article 23 (b) of the Hague Regulations inasmuch as the belligerents have not got an unlimited right as to the choice of means of injuring the enemy (Article 22).

Both forms of abuse may meet with reprisals or with punishment of the offenders.

In view of the fact that the Four-Power Agreement of 8th August, 1945, regards as a war crime the violation of all laws or customs of war, it is submitted to list the accused on 'A' after the case be supplemented by the National Office to the effect that the ambulances commanded by the accused were provided with the Red Cross emblem, which has not been expressly stated.

FOR THE MEETING OF COMMITTEE 1
TO BE HELD

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I

Notes on Cases.
By Dr. J. Litawski

1) Polish Case.

2423 On 'A'. The accused should be listed not only for murder and putting hostages to death, but also for indiscriminate mass arrest, torture of civilians and exaction of illegitimate contribution.

2) Norwegian Cases.

2499 On 'A'

2500 1 - 2 on 'A'.

2501 1 - 2 on 'A'.

2502 1 - 4 on 'A'.

2503 1 - 2 on 'A'.

3) Netherlands Cases.

2460 1 - 3 on 'A'. It appears from the affidavit that General RAUTER should have been charged also.

2461 On 'A'.

2462 On 'A' for deportation, not for murder.

2463 There is nothing in the case to establish a charge of murder. The accused denounced the victim for having committed a crime for which he was sentenced by a legal German Court to eighteen months' imprisonment. On expiry of this sentence which he served in Germany, the victim came back to Holland, and later on was deported to Poland where he died. There is, therefore, no direct connection between the action of the accused and the victim's death, or even his deportation which occurred after eighteen months and was probably caused by the fact that the victim was a Jew.

2464 On 'A' for torture and pillage only. There is nothing in the case to establish a charge of internment under inhuman conditions.

2465 On 'A'.

2466 On 'A'

(a) Addenda and adjourned cases.

2494 This case has been adjourned at the last meeting in order to enable the National Office to submit additional information with regard to the circumstances of the alleged crime, and also to elaborate more clearly the statement as to the responsibility of the accused. This information has not been received as yet.

50 The accused has been already listed on A on the same charges submitted in the main case. The present additif should, therefore, be regarded as an additional charge, and no further action seems to be necessary so far as Committee I is concerned.

438 (a) 1, 10 and 12 on A.
(b) Witnesses Nos.2 and 3 on W.
(c) The accused 2 - 9 and 11 have been already listed on A on charges submitted in the main case and in additif No.1. No further action is , therefore, required except that the name of the accused 5 will be corrected in the next list to read JURA instead of JUND and that of the accused No.7. to read KUDOKE instead of KUDLOCK.
(d) The present annulment by the National Office of previous dossiers 178 and 265 necessitates that the accused EMMER and suspects STRECK and DIEKMANN already listed on A and S respectively should be removed from the Commission's lists, and that AHRENDT should be transferred from List A into List W.

466 A

1023 1 - 9 on A.

1353 This case was considered by the Committee in its two meetings in July and August 1945, and finally adjourned sine die because of the legal problems involved. With regard to these , reference is being made to Committee I documents I/17 and I/17A.

The addendum now submitted by the National Office does not contribute any new information or arguments with regard to facts or legal questions.

1604 HEINSO on A. All others already listed on A or S, no further action is therefore required.

1951 1 - 32 on A, 33 on C.

6) Belgian cases.

475 (Addendum)	KARPINGE on A.
143	To be re-classified from B.1. to A.
1876	1 - 7 on A.
2401	In view of additional information supplied by the National Office, it is submitted to reconsider this case as follows: (a) while supporting its request for listing on A all "Leiters" and "Vertreters" of the Gestapo "Abteilungen" the National Office has not added any substantial information which could justify re-classification of these persons from S to A. The same applies to the accused Nos. 118 and 199 mentioned also in the addendum. As the listing on S is quite sufficient for ensuring that the necessary action be taken by the apprehending authorities against such persons, it is submitted to have them on S except persons mentioned below sub (b) and (c): (b) the accused 79 - 82, 108, 117 and 135-137, to be re-classified from S to A on the strength of information submitted in the addendum, (c) the accused 151, 152 and 178, also from S to A because of the notorious activities of the respective Gestapo departments.

2651	The facts as submitted do not constitute a prima facie case of a war crime. According to Article 53 of the Hague Regulations an army of occupation is entitled to take possession inter alia of means of transport belonging to the State which may be used for military operations. Also all kinds of private means of transport may be seized and made use of for military purposes. The distinction between public and private property of this kind can have a bearing only on the question of compensation.
2652	On 'A'.
2653	1 - 2 on 'A'.
2654	1 - 2 on 'A'.
2655	On 'A'.
2656	It is submitted that the National Office should be asked for additional information as to the responsibility of each of the accused separately.
2657	On 'A'.
2658	1 - 5 on 'A'; 6 - 17 on 'S'.
2659	1 - 7 on 'A'.
2660	On 'S'.
2661	On 'A'.
2662	On 'A'.
2663	On 'A'.
2664	On 'A'.
2665	1 - 2 on 'A'. With regard to the third accused, the National Office should be asked whether he was in the service of the Gestapo or any other enemy organisation.
2666	On 'A'.
2667	On 'A'.
2668	1 - 3 on 'A'.
2669	1 - 4 on 'A'.
2670	On 'A'.
2671	On 'A'.
2672	On 'A'.

4) French Cases (cont:)

2673	On 'A'.
2674	On 'A'.
2675	1 - 5 and 7 on 'A'; 8 on 'S'; 6 on 'C' as the spelling of his name is obviously incorrect.
2676	1 - 24 on 'A'.

5) Czechoslovak Cases.

465 (Addendum)	The charge seems to be insufficiently substantiated with regard to the responsibility of the first accused. His identification data should also be supplemented by indicating the office of which he was the head. It is submitted that the accused 2-47 should be listed on 'A' and 48 on 'C'.
2677	The initial part of the crime alleged in this case was committed before the outbreak of war. From this point of view the case falls partly under the category of charges alleging crimes against humanity which are now under consideration by Committee III. The second part of the case alleges a crime committed during the war but it is not clear whether the final "taking over" of the property was in any way connected with the negotiations which took place in London before the war. Consequently it is not clear in what way the first, second and third accused were implicated and responsible for that crime. It would be necessary to know also in what circumstances and on what legal basis, even if it was a criminal one, the property was"taken over".
2678	On 'A'.
2679	1 - 3 on 'A'. (These accused are not sufficiently identified).
2680	1 - 7 on 'A'.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

Notes on Cases.

By J.Litawski.

1) Netherlands Cases.

2863 — 1 on A. for ill-treatment and deportation only.
2 - 4 on W.

2864 — 5 - 7, 13 and 15 on A for ill-treatment; 18 - 20 on W. As to other accused there is no prima facie case of murder or ill-treatment It appears that the 10 victims were hanged on December 10th upon a death sentence after having been tried by a court martial for sabotage and intelligence with the enemy. In regard to other victims hanged on December 6th, (BOER'S deposition, page 4,) it is not clear whether they were tried.

2865 — On A.

2866 — On S.

2) United Kingdom Cases.

2681 — 1 - 2 on A.

2740 — 1 - 5 on A. As regards the sixth and seventh accused there is nothing in the affidavits to substantiate any charge against them.

2757 — 1 - 2 on A.

2758 — The case appears to be not sufficiently clear as to the alleged murder. It is stated in the evidence that the victim had 3rd degree burns all over his body and other serious injuries, and therefore it is difficult to say on the evidence submitted in the case whether a proper treatment, if accorded to him, would have prevented his death. In my submission, the accused should more properly be listed (onA) for ill-treatment.

2759 — On A.

2760 — On A.

2785 On A.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

Notes on DANISH Cases by J. Litawski

I. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS:

1) Some of the accused are not sufficiently identified in the sense that the offices to which they were attached are not indicated. This applies to the accused:

APEL, BERNTH, DOMINIK, FALKENBERG and PRINZIK

2) From the particulars of the individual cases it appears that some of the accused are already in custody but this is not expressly stated and there is no information as to where they are detained.

3) The majority of individual cases consist of short statements of facts only and no particulars of the alleged crimes ~~have been~~ are submitted. If this would be acceptable to the Committee then all the accused can be listed on 'A' with some exceptions indicated in section II of this paper and subject to reservations submitted therein.

4) There is a number of Germans mentioned in the particulars of individual cases who apparently were involved in the crimes but have not been charged. This applies to the following persons:-

BOVENSIEPEN and RIIS (Burfeind case).
Persons named under 6 in the Jessen case.
BROSAMLE (~~mentioned in the~~ John case).

5) It is not clear what the names listed under 4, 5 and 6 of the individual cases are intended for. Some of them are Germans who were either witnesses to the crimes or accomplices. In the latter category almost all the accused are included and the question therefore arises whether the Committee should list them also as witnesses. As regards the former category there are no sufficient personal data to be shown on the Commission's List.

II. INDIVIDUAL CASES:

JOHN on 'S'

VON KAMPTZ	-	This case is not sufficiently clear and requires more particulars of the alleged crime.
KUNDSEN	-	No charges submitted against him under BLUHME.
LINDEMANN	-	No date of commission of the alleged crime.
MUSSENER	-	On 'A' for ill-treatment only.
NEUHAUS	-	On 'S'
SCHULEIN	-	On 'A' for murder and destruction of property only. Charge for putting hostages to death not substantiated.
THYSSEN	-	On 'A' for murder and deportation only. Charge of torture not substantiated.
WESCHE	-	On 'A' for ill-treatment and destruction of property only. Not for internment of civilians.

2816	1 - 5 and 7 - 9 on 'A'. As to the sixth accused, there is nothing in the case to justify listing him as a war criminal.
2817	On 'A'.
2818	This is not a prima facie case of a war crime. The destruction of the port was carried out at the time of the Allied invasion operations and CHERBOURG was within the zone of those operations. United Kingdom cases involving crimes in concentration camps and the like committed against non-British Nationals.

The following cases have been submitted by the Office of the Judge Advocate General in accordance with the decision reached at the meeting held on 28th. March, 1946 (Minutes No. 56). These consist of lists of defendants accused of war crimes in the British Zone of Occupation and substantiated only by short statements offects. If this form of presentation would be acceptable to the Committee, then it is submitted to list the accused as follows: -

3021 1 - 7 on 'A'

3022 1 and 2 on 'A'

3023 1 to 4 on 'A'

3024 On 'A'

3025 1 - 15 on 'A'

3026 1 - 9 on 'A'

3027 1 - 24 on 'A'

3028 On 'A'

3029 On 'A'

3030 On 'A'

3031 1 - 13 on 'A'

3032 1 - 6 on 'A'

3033 1 and 2 on 'A'

3034 1 and 3 on 'A'; 2 on 'C' as he was found 'not guilty' by the Military Court at Hamburg.

3035 1 - 10 on 'A'

4) Czechoslovak Cases:

a) Addenda:

465 (2) 1 - 14 on 'A'
952 (2) 1 - 25 and 81 - 87 on 'A'; 26 - 80 on 'S'

952 (4) Metzger on 'A'. The witness Götzhaber has not been sufficiently identified.

1960 (2) 1 on 'A'
The accused has already been listed as HERBERLEIN upon the original charge and addendum No. 1. No further action is therefore necessary.

1964 (2) 1 - 31 on 'A'

2679 HUBSCH on 'A'

b) New Cases:

2973 1 - 3 on 'S'

2974 1 - 11 on 'A'

2975 As regards this and the following case it would be premature to list the accused before the Nuremburg trials were completed. Listing the accused on 'S' would practically mean their handing over to the national authority in order to bring them to trial for membership of the S.S. and S.A. before these organisations were declared criminal by the International Military Tribunal. As such a procedure would be inconsistent with Article 10 of the Charter, it is submitted to adjourn the cases until after the Nuremburg trials.

2976 As above under 2975.

2977 1 - 5 on 'A'

2978 1 and 3 - 14 on 'A'; 2 on 'C'; HERBERT on 'W'.

2979 1 - 19 on 'A'

2980 On 'A'

2981 On 'A'

3036 1 and 2 on 'A'

5) Yugoslav Cases:

a) Addenda.

364 — The Commandant of the CHIESANUOVA Camp has already been listed on 'A' as unknown by name. His name has now been established as CAPORALI and should be additionally listed on 'A'.

2566. — Officer Commanding 172 S.S. Division on 'A', others on 'C'

b) New Cases:

2982 — On 'A'

2983 — 1 - 3 on 'A'

2984 — 1 - 3 on 'A'; 4 on 'C'

2985 — 1 and 2 on 'A'; 3 on 'C'

2986 — 1 and 2 on 'A'; 3 - 7 on 'S'

3037 — 1 - 3 on 'A' for murder; 9 and 10 on 'A' for illegal arrest. As regards the accused 4 - 8 the information submitted is not sufficient to judge whether the arrests were illegal or not.

3038 — 1 - 4 and 9 on 'A'; 5 - 7 on 'S'; 8 on 'W'; 10 on 'C'

3039 — 1 on 'A'; 2 on 'S'

3040 — 1 and 2 on 'A'; 3 on 'C'

6) Belgian Cases.

2575 — This case has been adjourned as there was nothing in the charge to establish that the alleged crimes were committed by the accused. The additional information having been supplied it is submitted to list the accused on 'A'.

2988 — 1 - 12 on 'A'

2989 — On 'C'

2990 — On 'A'

2991 — The information submitted is not sufficient to consider the charge as a prima facie case of a war crime.

2992 — 1 and 2 on 'A' for pillage; 3 - 26 on 'T'. The case is not clear as regards the second count.

2993 — 1 on 'A'; 2 on 'T'

2994 — On 'A'

2995 — On 'T'

2996 — On 'T'

2997 — On 'A'

2998 — On 'C'

2999 On 'W'

3000 On 'C'

3001 1 and 2 on 'S'

3002 On 'S'

3003 1 on 'S'; 2 on 'A'

7) Polish Cases.

3019 On 'A'

3020 1 - 3, 5 - 7 and 9 - 13 on 'A'. The fourth and the eighth accused are identical with the third and second respectively.
It appears that HACK and DIEMER-WILLRODA should also be held responsible for the crimes.

COMMITTEE I

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

Notes on Cases

by J. Litawski (Contd)

1) Netherlands cases:

2987	1 and 2 on 'A'
3004	1 and 2 on 'S'
3005	1 - 10 on 'C'; witnesses 1 - 11 on 'W'
3006	1 and 2 on 'A'; 3 on 'W'
3007	1 and 2 on 'A'; witnesses 1 - 4 on 'W'
3008	On 'A'
3009	On 'A'; suspects 1 - 6 on 'S'
3010	1 and 2 on 'A'; 3 on 'W'
3011	1 - 3 on 'A'
3012	1 on 'S'; 2 on 'W'
3013	1 - 6 on 'A'
3014	1 on 'A'; 2 on 'C'
3015	1 on 'A'; 2 on 'C'. No charge appears to be possible against HAUSER as he succeeded the first accused after the material time.
3016	On 'A'
3017	This is a minor case. It is also doubtful whether the accused should be listed as a war criminal for offences committed two years after having deserted from the German Army. As the accused is now in Dutch custody he could be brought to trial without listing him by the Commission.

4) Additional Czechoslovak case:

3041	1 - 9 on 'A', plus KRUGER and HEGER on 'S'.

Committee I

meeting 9th May, 1946.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

Note on Polish Case No. 3018

Comprising 296 Individual Cases.

By J. Litawski

I. Procedure in dealing with the case:

As the general reports and all the individual cases to which the charge refers are available in one copy only, the principal files will be circulated to members of the Committee in turn.

In order to expedite this procedure the members are kindly requested to transmit the files direct to one another in the following order:-

1) Dr. Mayr-Harting
2) Captain Wolff
3) Sir Robert Craigie
4) Monsieur de Baer

In view of the substantial number of cases involved, Monsieur de BAER suggested that only those of the individual cases be discussed by the Committee at the meeting, which might raise special observations or reservations.

If this would be agreeable to the Committee all other cases could be accepted automatically.

It is proposed to place the cases on the Agenda of the Committee I meeting to be held on 9th May, 1946.

II. Note on the Case:

The case is entirely based on the material prepared by the Jewish Agency for Palestine and presented to the Commission in September 1945.

This material has been made an integrant part of the case.

In the meeting held on 26th September, 1945, Committee I took note of the documents received from the Agency and decided to submit to the Commission the question as to the procedure which should be adopted in dealing with these particular documents. It was also decided to contact the Polish Representative on the Commission as to what proposals he could make in that respect and how the material presented by the Jewish Agency for Palestine could best be disposed of by the Commission.

At the Commission meeting of the same day the matter resolved itself in the suggestion that the dossier be passed to the Polish Representative in order that his Office might prepare charges based on these documents for submission to Committee I.

The material presented by the Jewish Agency and partly embodied in the case now submitted by the Polish National Office consists of:

(a) "Reference Material" K & R" i.e. general reports concerning the extermination of Jews in various parts of Poland (pink files marked K, R & S) which give the background and describe general policy and methods of extermination over/....

(b) of 296 individual cases (brown files) each limited to one criminal, containing his personal data and description and a statement of his criminal activities, with cross-reference to the general reports described Sub A.

According to the covering letter received from the Jewish Agency, together with a set of the documents, all the material was prepared over a number of years by its personnel who have special qualifications in this field and is based on a thorough interrogation of Jewish Refugees arriving in Palestine from Europe during the war.

Examination of the material shews that it has been collected and prepared very adequately indeed.

Some of the persons indicated by the Agency and now submitted in the charge, have already been listed by the Commission on charges submitted previously by the Polish National Office and, therefore, no other action with regard to them would be necessary but to register them as having been additionally charged.

With regard to the individual cases it is submitted to list the persons involved as follows:-

On 'B': 18, 53 and 269.

As regards the accused 13, 35, 86, 136, 169, 172, 184, 197, 206 and 254, it is submitted that they have been charged for crimes committed on territory other than Polish i.e. in Czechoslovakia, Germany and Hungary but there is no statement in the respective cases to the effect that any Polish Nationals were among the victims.

3168	On 'A'
3169	On 'A'

c) Cases involving crimes against non-British Nationals:

3029 (Addendum)	1 on 'A'. The second accused has already been listed on the original case.
3167	1 - 10 on 'A'; 11 - 17 on 'S'

3) Yugoslav Cases:

3119 (Partly adjourned)	This case has been adjourned with regard to the first accused as it was not clear why he has been made responsible for demolishing the café. Dr. Zivković took upon himself to submit additional information at the next meeting.
3126	1 - 3 on 'A'
3127	In accordance with the action taken in regard to other similar Yugoslav cases it is submitted to adjourn this case in order that the National Office might be asked for more particulars as to the circumstances in which the alleged crimes were committed and, especially, as to whether or not the bombardment was effected while military operations against regular or partisan forces were in progress, or was directed at any military objectives.
3128	1 and 2 on 'A'. It appears that Camillo VACCA should also have been charged. (A certain VACCA, Christian name not known, Tenente CC. RR. at KISTANJ in 1942 has already been listed on Yugoslav charge No. 1131 but it is not clear whether this data refers to the same person).

3159	On 'A'; (this is a minor case).
3197	It is submitted that seizure of State documents like those described in this case (archives of the Netherlands Foreign Office) is not a war crime under the circumstances in which it was effected. Such documents and archives certainly belong to the category of public property vested with enemy character which a belligerent party is fully entitled to seize, and there is no rule of International Law which could prevent him from doing so. According to Article 53 of the Hague Regulations a belligerent, while occupying enemy territory, may take possession not only of different kinds of goods and movables enumerated therein, but also is entitled to seize everything and anything that he can directly or indirectly make use of for military operations. It is submitted that the occupant is entitled to seize documents and archives of an enemy Foreign Office also in view of the fact that he acquires de jure a temporary right of administration over the occupied territory and its inhabitants, and all lawful steps he takes in the exercise of this right and necessitated by his interest in the maintenance and safety of his army, as well as the realisation of the purpose of war, must be recognised by the legitimate Government after occupation has ceased. The Netherlands Government is, of course, entitled to claim the return of the missing documents.

Netherlands Cases contd/.....

3198	It is submitted that the alleged crimes were committed in Germany and there is no statement to the effect that any Dutch nationals were among the victims.
3199	There is a prima facie case against the accused but his name appears to be quite incorrectly spelt.

3322	1-3 on 'A'.
3323	1-9 on 'A'.

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

3296	As this case alleges crimes against humanity (crimes were committed by Italians against Italians of Yugoslav origin in Italy), it is submitted to refer the case to Committee III for its opinion as to whether or not the alleged crimes should be considered as crimes against humanity and for what reasons.
3297	All persons out of 149 charged individually - on 'A'; all others on 'A' or 'S' according to ~~which~~ category under they have already been listed upon other Governments' charges, with the proviso that persons belonging to this second group and now listed for the first time should go on 'S'.

3457	1-5 on 'A'
3458	1-3 on 'A'
3459	1-2 on 'A'
3460	1-4 on 'A'

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

3461	a)The charge of illegal arrest has not been substantiated. b)There is a prima facie case of deportation, but from the particulars of the case it appears that only the third accused can be made responsible for this crime.
3462	1 on 'A', 2 on 'O'
3463	As none of the charges have been sufficiently substantiated it is submitted to ask the National Office for more particulars of the alleged crimes.
3464	On 'A' for indiscriminate mass arrest and deportation, not for taking hostages.
3465	On 'A'
3466	There can be no charge against the accused as to killing members of the National Liberation Army while the actual fighting was going on. As to shooting of JOVANOVIC it is not clear on what grounds has he been charged, be it for issuing specific orders to kill indiscriminately or for being personally in charge of the unit engaged in this particular operation.

3) NETHERLANDS Cases.

a) Adjourned cases.

3271	See special note circulated separately as Document I/66, and also attached hereto.
3378	This case has been adjourned in order to consider it in the presence of Commander Mouton as the Committee had some doubt whether the facts as alleged constitute a war crime.

b) New cases.

3446	1-11 on 'A' 12-15, 19-26 on 'A'. It appears that either no charges at all or not directly connected with the present case have been brought against the accused 16-18, and 27-33.
3447	1-2 on 'A' 3, 4, 8, 9 on 'S' Charges against the accused 5-7 have not been sufficiently substantiated.
3448	This is not a war crime at all. It is submitted that there was no impropriety in the accused's actions which were permissable and justified. See Article 24 of the Hague Regulations and also Document I/66 referred to above under Case 3271.
3449	As to the first accused it is not sufficiently clear whether the horses were requisitioned or stolen. In any case the charge of exaction of illegitimate or exorbitant contributions has not been substantiated. As to the second accused he could be listed on 'A' for pillage (stealing a pig) if this is not too minor a case.
3450	1 on 'A', 3 on 'C' As to the second accused the charge has not been sufficiently substantiated.
3451	On 'A'

3441	This is a doubtful case.
3442	The responsibility of the accused for the alleged crimes has not been established as there is no statement to the effect that he was in command of the unit. Apart from this, it would appear from the particulars of the case that the victims were killed during a military operation and in course of actual fighting.

NOTES ON THE FRENCH CASES NOS. 3388 TO 3437

By E. Schwelb

No. 3388.

1 to 4 on 'A'

No. 3389.

Actual crimes are charged individually against the following accused:

1, 2, 3, 4, 16, 27, 39, 41.

They should go on 'A'.

Fessen (No.5) was the chief of the Gestapo of Limoges prior to Meier's (No.1) term of office. Though no individual charge is brought personally against him, there appears to be a prima facie case against him qua chief of a unit charged with so great a number of crimes and he should also go on 'A'.

As far as the rest of the 79 accused is concerned, against whom no individual accusations are brought, it would be in accordance with the recent practice of Committee I to list them on "S".

In the following cases the question arises whether list W would not be adequate, instead of list "S".

The particulars of alleged crime create the impression that the destruction of Bourg de Percy was ordered in the course of actual military operations, the civilian population - other than the inmates of the hospital, religious sisters and nurses - having been evacuated. The National Office should be asked to complete the charge by further information, refuting the classification of the act complained of as a military operation.

This case involves several questions, both of fact and of law.

The French National Office charges the accused, General Ramke and Major Haberman, with a breach of the rules relating to the Red Cross. It is not quite clear which provision regarding the Red Cross has been violated in the present case.

The accused officers are charged with having deposited, at a certain sheltered place, munitions and petrol. It is stated that the place was reserved to the civil population and placed under the protection of the Red Cross, and that the distinctive emblem of the Red Cross was placed there. The German Commander maintained the munition depot in spite of protestations by the civilian authorities.

Under the Geneva Convention 1929 the distinctive flag of the Red Cross shall be hoisted only over medical formations and and establishments that are entitled to be respected under the Convention, and with the consent of the military authorities.

It is not stated who placed the place in question under the protection of the Red Cross, who hoisted the Red Cross flag, and it is therefore difficult to judge whether it can be maintained that there was a situation preventing the German Commanders from depositing munitions there.

It will be noted that the disaster occurred not as a consequence of a bombardment or other military attack either by the allies or by the Germans, but as a consequence of the negligence of a German soldier.

It will also be noted that, in addition to 360 civilians, 500 Germans perished in the explosion.

It is suggested that the French National Office should be asked for further information.

COMMITTEE I.

Meeting on 10th or 11th July, 1946.

NOTES ON CASES

By Dr. Litawski, Legal Officer.

1) YUGOSLAV CASES

3470 — 3470 on 'A'.

3471 — There is no statement to the effect that the crimes were committed against Yugoslav citizens.

3472 — On 'A'.

3473 — The victims' arrest was not illegal. As to murder, it has not been stated whether any of the accused were responsible for it.

2) NETHERLANDS CASES.

a) Adjourned Cases.

3273 — This case has been adjourned with regard to the fourth accused as the alleged crimes against him have not been sufficiently substantiated.

Commander Mouton requested that the decision in this case be reconsidered and that the accused be listed on 'S' in view of his own statement on page 3 of the case.

3269 — This case was adjourned for further information to be submitted by the National Office in view of the fact that the alleged crime had not been sufficiently substantiated.

In his letter of 2nd July, 1946, Commander Mouton expressed the opinion that the "punishment of ten months' concentration camp imposed upon the victim was rather out of proportion to the crime of making anti-German remarks. Whether KLOZE knew that by reporting the victim to the authorities it would mean that the victim would be sent to a concentration camp can only be found out, however, by hearing the witness IRMA GOETZE."

For the above reason Commander Mouton would like Committee I to list the above mentioned witness on 'W'.

3271 — This case has been adjourned in order to give members of Committee I more opportunity to study the case and the related Document I/66 (attached hereto).

3379 — This case was adjourned in order that the National Office might be asked for further information as to (a) the complicity of the accused in the general policy and measures introduced by the German authorities in expropriating Jews in Holland, and (b) the real value of the property when acquired by the accused.

Commander Mouton requested that this decision be reconsidered.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

COMMITTEE I.

Note on Dutch Case 3271. (Means of Deception).
By Dr. J. Litawski. Legal Officer.

I. The Dutch Government charges two members of the German armed forces with violating the "International rules of land warfare" in that one of the accused, an officer, gave orders to the second accused, a soldier, to disguise himself as a member of the Royal Mounted Police. The second accused obeyed these orders and both of them, aided by four other German soldiers, were instrumental in taking a Dutch railway bridge on the German-Dutch frontier on the day Germany invaded Holland (10th May 1945), by removing the explosive charges placed there, to forestall a German crossing.

II. The act committed by the accused is an example of the application by a belligerent party of means of deception known in International Law as ruses of war or stratagems. These are deceits employed in the interest of military operations for the purpose of misleading the enemy. Such deceit is of great importance in war and the belligerent parties are allowed to employ to a large extent different sorts of ruses. This contention finds confirmation in Article 24 of the Hague Regulations which says that "Ruses of war and the employment of measures necessary for obtaining information about the enemy and the country are considered permissible".

III. To means of deception belongs inter alia the use of the national flag, the military ensigns and the uniforms of the enemy. As regards this kind of ruses, according to Oppenheim's International Law, theory and practice are unanimous in prohibiting the use of such stratagems during actual attack and defence, since the principle is considered inviolable that during actual fighting belligerent forces ought to be certain who is friend and who is foe.

As to the relevant provision of International Law, in this respect reference is being made to Article 23 (f) of the Hague Regulations which reads as follows:- "In addition to the prohibitions provided by special Conventions, it is particularly forbidden -..... to make improper use of a flag of truce, of the national flag, or of the military insignia and uniform of the enemy, as well as of the distinctive signs of the Geneva Convention". This provision should be, of course, read in conjunction with Article 22 which says that "Belligerents have not got an unlimited right as to the choice of means of injuring the enemy".

Commenting on Article 23 (f), the already quoted authority on International Law stresses that this provision does not prohibit the use of these means of deception without qualification, but only their improper use, thus leaving the question open what uses are proper and what are not.

With regard to this particular aspect, it is to be pointed out that the use of Dutch uniform by the accused was effected at the time when Dutch territory was being invaded and actual fighting was going on, thus qualifying the accused's action as improper.

The impropriety of this act is aggravated by the fact that at the material time Holland was attacked by Germany treacherously without any declaration of war, a circumstance which places the act of the accused on the border of perfidy. Such perfidy, as distinguished from stratagems (ruses, means of deception) is prohibited as constituting a breach of good faith.

From the foregoing it would appear as not controversial that the act committed by the accused, constitutes a violation of the customary and conventional rule of the laws and usages of war as laid down in Article 23(f) of the Hague Regulations.

/committed

IV. There remains the question whether a violation of the laws and usages of war such as alleged in the present case should be considered as a war crime.

In support of a positive answer it may be mentioned that Oppehheim's International Law distinguishes four different kinds of war crimes on account of the essentially different character of the acts, one of them being "Violations of recognised rules regarding warfare committed by individuals who are members of the enemy armed forces".

It is also to be recalled that the Royal Warrant of June 14th, 1945, by which Regulations for the trial of war criminals were issued, expressly provides that "'War crime' means a violation of the laws and usages of war...".

Exactly the same definition has been provided by the Charter of the International Military Tribunal in Article 6 (b) which reads as follows: "The following acts, or any of them, are crimes coming within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal for which there shall be individual responsibility:- war crimes: namely, violation of the laws or customs of war. Such violations shall include, but not be limited to, murder, illtreatment or deportation to slave labour, or for any other purpose, of civilian population of or in occupied territory, murder or ill-treatment of prisoners of war or persons on the seas, killing of hostages, plunder of public or private property, wanton destruction of cities, towns or villages, or devastation not justified by military necessity".

From the latter part of this article it further on follows that not only crimes of the "murder type" but also violations of any other law or custom of war should be considered as a war crime, even though such a violation might constitute a purely technical offence only, which is not exactly the case with regard to this particular charge submitted by the Dutch Government.

a) Adjourned Cases (continued).

3446 This case has been adjourned to enable Commander Mouton to propose a new classification of the persons charged.

The original proposal submitted in my Notes of 4th July, 1946, was as follows:-

1 - 11 on 'A'.

12 - 15 and 19 - 26 on 'S'.

As to the other persons, it appeared that either no charges at all or none directly connected with the present case have been brought against them. (Accused 16 - 18 and 27 - 33).

b) New Cases.

3474 Of all the persons listed on page 1 of the case, only those under 1 - 4 (accused) 12 (suspect) and 32 (witness) are mentioned in the particulars of the case.

From the latter it appears that:

The first accused did not take any part in the fight with the N.F.I., was himself wounded while trying to escape with his woman companion, and definitely was not present when the shooting of 7 victims took place.

As regards the second and fourth accused, it is stated that their photos were recognised as "likenesses of soldiers who were present at the events".

The third accused threw a hand grenade at the lorry and killed no one, but he called his comrades for help.

As to HABEZETTEL, though he is mentioned on page 8, he obviously cannot be regarded as a material witness. The same applies to all the other witnesses.

From the foregoing it follows that only the accused 2 - 4 and HESS could be listed on S and for murder only.

3475 1 - 2 on 'A'.

3476 This is not a war crime. As the victims were members of the underground organisation and supplied information to Germany's enemies, their arrest was justified. It is not known in what circumstances they were put to death.

The accused was a German agent used means of deception which were proper and permissible.

Therefore, neither the charge of murder as such, nor complicity therein has been established.

3477 1 - 2 on 'A' for deportation and internment only - not for murder.

3478 The accused on 'A' if his description is sufficient for identification as there is no such Christian name as "GERRIT".

The proposed witnesses should not be listed as they are not material witnesses and had nothing to do with this case

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION. NO. 67.
COMMITTEE I.

Meeting on 19th July, 1946.

NOTES ON CASES.

By Dr. Litawski, Legal Officer.

---

1) UNITED KINGDOM Cases.

343 (addendum).	1 on 'A' The second accused has already been listed upon this case on 'A' under the name of RAMEZANI.
3521	1-3 on 'A' for ill-treatment.) Crimes against non-British 1 and 2 on 'B' for murder.) nationals.
3522	On 'A'. Crimes against non-British nationals.
3523	On 'A'. Crimes against non-British nationals.
3524	It is doubtful whether this particular case could be qualified as ill-treatment of P.O.W. It is submitted that the offence should more properly be registered under the general category of pillage, and the accused 1-2 listed on 'A'.
3530	1-8 on 'A'
3531	1-6 on 'A'

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

3519	1-2 on 'A' The National Office is requested to supplement the case as to the date of commission of the alleged crimes.
3520	1-2 on 'A'

3) NETHERLANDS Cases.

3379 (adjourned).	This case has been adjourned in order to consider it in the light of precedents (see cases 2605 and 3156 listed on 'A').
3525	1-2 on 'A' 3-4 were not witnesses to the alleged crimes, and therefore they should not be listed. 5 not to be listed as there are other witnesses available for establishing the facts.
3526	The case against the accused has not been established as there is nothing to show that he was responsible in any way for the victims murder.

As the firstwitness is detained in The Hague, the National Office has the opportunity of interrogating him without having him listed by the Commission. In addition, this witness might be able to give information as to the person or persons responsible for the crime.

3527 On 'A' for pillage only.
The accused's complicity in deportation has not been established.

3528 The case has not been established and the accused could not be regarded even as suspects.
It is submitted to list them as witnesses in the hope that further investigation might lead to identification of the perpetrators.

3529 2 on 'A'
The case against the first accused has not been sufficiently established as he neither ordered nor was present when the victim was ill-treated.
As the proposed witness was not present at the relevant time and place, he should not be listed.

4) FRENCH Cases.

3480 On 'A'

3481 1 to be reclassified from'W'to 'A'
2 on 'S'
3-5 on 'A'

3482 On 'A'

3483 It is submitted that this case requires additional information sufficient to establish the accused's responsibility for the crime committed by two soldiers, as it appears, on their own initiative.

3484 The accused's responsibility for deporting the victims has not been established.

3485 1-3 on 'A'

3486 On 'A'

3487 In order to consider the accused's responsibility it would be important to know in what circumstances the alleged crimes were committed.

3488 1-5 on 'A'

3489 As the acts described in this case were committed during a combat between the German forces and a unit of the F.F.I. the case cannot be accepted as a prima facie evidence of the alleged crimes except that of pillage, the latter has not been sufficiently substantiated.

3490 1-4 on 'A'

3491 1-2 on 'A'. (The case to be communicated to the U.K. National Office.

3492 1-4 on 'B'

3493	On 'A'
3494	On 'A'
3495	1-2 on 'A'
3496	On 'A' on the assumption that the accused could not be ignorant of the victims' Asation origin.
3497	On 'A' on the same assumption as the preceding case.
3498	1-6 on 'A' without the above reservation as from the circumstances of the case it must have been obvious to the accused that the victim was of Alsatian origin.
3499	1-2 on 'A'
3500	On 'A'
3501	1 on 'A' 2 to be left out as this person was not witness to the crime.
3502	On 'A'
3503	It is doubtful whether in this particular case the accused can be made responsible for the crimes committed during a combat and presumably not upon his orders.
3504	This case requires some clarification as to whether a) the allegedly stolen articles were not in fact requisitioned for military purposes; b) whether the destruction of property was not necessitated by military reasons; and c) on what grounds the accused have been made responsible for the alleged crimes.
3505	On 'A' for pillage only.
3506	On 'A'
3507	1 on 'A' 2 on 'S' only as it is not clear whether this accused was aware that no trial against the victim was held. Both the accused to be listed on the same assumption as that with regard to the case 3496
3508	On 'A'. (From the particulars of the case it appears that the accused committed the crime just because of the victim's Alsatian origin.
3509	On 'S'
3510	On 'A'
3511	1-5 on 'A'
3512	On 'A'
3513	On 'A'
3514	On 'A' on the same assumption as with regard to the case 3496.
3515	On 'A'
3516	On 'A'
3517	On 'A'

5) BELGIAN Case.

3442 (adjourned). This case has been adjourned on July 4th for additional information as to whether the actual perpetrators belonged to the same unit as the accused (Hitler Jugend Division).
M. de Baer requested to reconsider this decision.

6) CZECHOSLOVAK Cases.

952 (6)(addendum). The National Office is requested to state the date of commission of the alleged crimes as it is quite obvious that these accused could not have committed them at least before September 1st, 1939.

3) NETHERLANDS Cases.

3536 According to the statement made on page 2 of the case by the Netherlands National Office itself all the victims shot as a reprisal measure were persons previously detained in various prisons for crimes punishable by death and on whom this sentence had already been passed. These facts have been fully corroborated by the evidence attached to the case. In view of the foregoing and in order to establish a prima facie case against the accused, the National Office should be requested to submit additional information as to whether or not ~~the~~ death sentences were passed by legally constituted courts, and in ~~the~~ case of a positive answer, whether these sentences were, from the point of view of substantive and adjective law, lawful or not.

3537 On 'W'
The case should be communicated to the U.K. National Office.

3538 On 'A'

3539 This is a prima facie case of ill-treatment and deportation against the first accused only. There is nothing in the case against the second accused apart from the fact that he arrested the victims.

A.G.? 3544 S ✓ From the particulars of the case it appears that the accused 3544 (continued) neither ordered nor participated himself in the crimes and atrocities which were an outcome of internal political friction and tension between the various ethnical and political groups of the Yugoslav population.

It is true that the occupant has the duty to take all steps in his power to(re-establish and)ensure, as far as possible, public order and safety, but the question arises whether and to what extent the Yugoslav territory in question could be considered as an occupied territory in view of the fact that Croatia was at the time an "Independent State" created by Italy. It is therefore not clear whether or not after that fact Italy still considered herself as an occupant of Croatia, and/or to what extent had she relinquished her rights and duties as an occupying power. In this respect the case requires additional information and clarification.
As to the accused, it is submitted that in view of the factual circumstances whatever allegations may be brought against him, in any case he could not be charged with murder, torture and rape.

3545 On 'A'
It appears that GRILLO should also be charged.

3546 1-2 on 'A' for murder, rape and pillage only.

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

3769 1-2 on 'A'

3770 As the accused's functions were that of a liaison officer and no individual charges against him have been submitted, it is proposed to list him on 'S'.

3808 On the face of the particulars as presented in this case it would appear that only the accused 4, 6, 8, 10, 11, 14 and 15 could be listed on 'A' (for murder or ill-treatment of P.O.W. respectively), provided the case be supplemented by a statement to the effect that the victims a) belonged to or were connected with properly organised units of the Yugoslav Army of National Liberation, and b) acquired or were entitled to acquire the status of prisoners of war. The above accused could then be listed as responsible for the sentences mentioned in paragraphs 4(g), (h) and (i); ~~15~~ 6a(l), 6b and 6c; 8(a); 10(c) and (d); 11(c), on the ground that these sentences were either illegal or excessive as the case may be.

It appears that all other sentences do not possess the above qualifications.

5) GREEK Cases.

3671 — This is a collective and general case, comprising 67 accused against whom, though with some exceptions, also individual charges have been submitted (3672-3732). Therefore, all these cases should be examined together as the particulars of alleged crimes and evidence submitted in the main case apply to them as well.

All the accused against whom a prima facie case will be found as established should be listed not only for murder, massacres and systematic terrorism (or complicity in), but also for torture and deportation of civilians (or complicity in).

This applies also to the accused in this case (3671) who should be listed on 'A' for the above crimes.

3672-3732 — I. The individual cases fall into two categories:

a) 3672-3700: persons listed therein are charged either because of the official position held by them at the material time and place, which in view of the number of victims involved constitutes sufficient ground for establishing their responsibility (some exceptions and reservations with regard to some of these cases will be mentioned later); or as leaders of Bulgarian gangs who actually committed the crimes.

b) 3701-3731: the accused are charged as actual perpetrators.

II. In view of all the foregoing and judging upon the merits of each case the submissions as to the individual cases are as follows:

3672-3682	All on 'A'
3683	This case requires some clarification as from the information submitted in the main case under B.3. it appears that this accused held his official position prior to the material time.
3684-3690	All on 'A'
3691	In view of the ecclesiastical profession of the accused this case should be considered as not sufficiently substantiated.
3692-3695	All on 'A'
3696	On 'S'
3697, 3698	In view of the judicial profession of these accused both cases require some additional information as to their responsibility.

3699	On 'A'
3700	On 'S'
3701-3731	All on 'A'
3732	This is a different case from all the others. No specific charges have been brought against this accused, and no qualification as to his criminal responsibility submitted.

III. The following persons mentioned in the main case have not been covered by individual cases and, therefore, should not be listed at this stage until additional information as to their responsibility be submitted by the National Office:

Mentioned in the main case under B 15, C 1, E 2, F 1 and 18.

IV. With regard to a number of accused there is a discrepancy between the main case and the individual cases as to:

a) spelling of names,
b) ranks and official position.

The National Office is requested to advise the Secretariat how this discrepancy is to be cleared up.

3840 This is not a prima facie case against the accused so far as the particular sentence is concerned. It appears that the accused were responsible only for setting up the Military Court in question which in itself could not be considered a crime. It is therefore submitted to adjourn this case and ask the National Office for names of the judges who actually promulgated the death sentence against the victim.

7) NETHERLANDS Cases.

3626 At the meeting on 31st July last, the accused has been listed on 'A' for ill-treatment, but the case was then adjourned as to the second count as some doubt arose whether the charge in this respect is sufficiently substantiated.

It is submitted that from the legal point of view there would be no objection to listing a person on a charge of employing prisoners of war on work in an aeroplane factory as such action constitutes a violation of Art. 31 of the Geneva Convention, 1929, and a war crime.

There is but one question not clear in this case, namely, whether the accused in view of his official position was in fact in any way responsible for the assignment of prisoners to this unauthorised work. The probable presumption would be that he, as a manager of the factory, had nothing to do with the allotment of prisoners to this factory and that the responsibility for this rests exclusively with the military authorities in charge of P.O.W. Camps.

3834 The case, is, of course, not a violation of Art. 41 of the Hague Regulations as neither an armistice nor a capitulation had been agreed upon at the material time between the belligerent forces.

The alleged action constitutes an abuse of the flag of truce itself as distinguished from abuse of the mission by an authorised flag-bearer. The force which sends an authorised flag-bearer to the enemy must, according to the customary rules, take up a corresponding attitude, the force which the flag-bearer leaves being obliged to halt and to cease fire. It constitutes an abuse of the flag of truce if it intentionally fails to do so.

This form of abuse is gross perfidy, and, by analogy to violations of terms of armistice or capitulations, may be met with reprisals,

3834 (continued)	or with punishment of the offenders in case they fall into the hands of the enemy. It is, therefore, submitted to list the accused on 'S' (as requested by the National Office), for abuse of the flag of truce resulting in a heavy death roll and considerable destruction of property. In view of the fact that the children's parents, who were forced to send them to a German school, were themselves only naturalised Dutch of German origin, the charge of attempts to denationalise the inhabitants of occupied territory seems to be at least doubtful.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION. No. 75.

COMMITTEE I.

Meeting on 26th September, 1946.

NOTES ON CASES.

By G. Brand, Assistant Legal Officer.

---

1) UNITED KINGDOM Cases.

4009 — 1: It will be for the Committee to decide whether, irrespective of the question whether or not the airman was actually dead at the time of the cutting of the rope, the first accused should have known that he was not dead. (There is some evidence that the latter was thought to be dead by those present).

2 - 4. It is submitted that the National Office should be asked for further evidence regarding the complicity of the other three accused in the cutting down. Further, the comment set out above would also seem to apply here.

4010 — On 'A'.

4011 — On 'A'.

4041 — 1 and 2 on 'A'.

4050 — It is submitted that this case should be referred back to the National Office for further information to show that the accused was actually implicated in the shooting.

2) FRENCH Cases.

4086 — On 'A'.

4087 — On 'S'.

3) NETHERLANDS Cases.

4074 — On 'A'.

4075 — On 'A'.

4076 — On 'A' for torture of civilians.
In connection with the charge of murder, it is submitted that further evidence of guilt is necessary.

4077 — It is submitted that the accused could be put on 'A' for the confiscation of the six houses. It is suggested, however, that since the case is similar to case No.3627, the following should be the procedure applied:-

(i)....

3) NETHERLANDS Cases (continued).

(i) that the National Office might be asked for further information as to the complicity of the accused in the general policy and measures introduced by the German authorities in expropriating Jews in Holland, and,

(ii) that after additional information is submitted by the National Office, the case might be referred to Committee III for its opinion as to whether or not the alleged crime should be considered as a war crime and for what reasons.

4078 — 1 and 5 on 'A'.
2, 3, 6, 7 and 8. It is submitted that these cases should be adjourned pending the decision of Committee III regarding cases 3627 and 4077 (if the latter is submitted to Committee III).
4 and 9: it is submitted that the National Office should be asked for further information as to the guilt of the accused.
10: Attention is drawn to the fact that KREGERSMAN is a Belgian, and therefore an allied national.
11 on 'W'.

4079 — 1. It is suggested that the National Office be asked for some further evidence regarding the ill-treatment alleged against the first accused.

2. On 'A' for ill-treatment.
It will be for Committee I to decide whether the act of influencing the President of a Court in the exercise of a discretionary power can be regarded as a war crime.

4080 — 1: it is suggested that the National Office be asked for further information regarding the guilt of the first accused.
2 - 3 on 'A'.

4081 — 1 and 2 on 'A'.
3 and 4 on 'W'.

4) YUGOSLAV Cases.

3917 — is placed on the Agenda of this meeting at the request of Dr. MARCOVIC.

b) Addenda.

3121) — The same comment would seem to apply to these three cases.

c)New Cases.

4021	1 on 'A'. 2. It is for Committee I to decide whether the staff of a division are also to be held responsible for the crimes of men belonging to that division. 3 and 4. It is suggested that the National Office should be asked for further details regarding the individual responsibility of these accused.
4022	1 and 14 on 'A'. 5 on 'S'. 2 - 4) It is suggested that the charges against these 6 - 13) should be adjourned and the National Office 15 - 16) asked to supply evidence of their individual responsibility for the crimes committed by troops of the 3rd Battalion.
4082	1, 2, 3 on 'A' for murder. 4 and 5 on 'A' for terrorism. 6 and 7. It is submitted that the National Office should be asked for further evidence connecting these two accused with the crimes alleged.
4083	On 'A'.
4084	On 'A'.
4085	1 and 2: it is suggested that the National Office be asked for further information regarding their personal responsibility for the crimes alleged, their ranks seeming to be insufficient to make them responsible for the acts of the whole battalion.

5 POLISH Cases

4012	1 - 10. The charge is drafted in general terms only, without giving details. If Committee I thinks that the reference to the file of the Public Prosecutor of the Cracow Court is sufficient, then it is suggested that all the accused should be listed on 'A'. If Committee I considers the information given too general, it is suggested that the National Office should be asked for further information.

1) UNITED KINGDOM Cases.

4133	On 'A'
4134	On 'A'

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

4135	1-56 on 'A', if the general statement as to the guilt of the accused 2-56, (see page 4), could be acceptable to the Committee. If not, the latter group should be listed on 'S'.
4136	DOLP and 1-21 on 'A' with the same proviso as in the preceding case. (..... if not, the accused 1, 3-6, 8-19, should be listed on 'S').
4137	1-3 and DOLP on 'A'

3) CZECHOSLOVAK Cases.

4128	On 'A'
4129	On 'A' for complicity in deportation.
4130	It seems that the alleged illegality of the victims' arrest has not been sufficiently substantiated.

4) BELGIAN Cases.

a) Addenda.

2113 (2)	This is an exact duplicate of Addendum No. 1, on which all the accused have already been listed on 30th ~~August~~, 1946. Therefore, no further action is necessary.
3002	1 on 'A' 2 on 'C'

b) New Cases.

4138	On 'A' on counts 2 and 3 only, provided that the case is supplemented by a statement to the effect that the victims were deported on the accused's order.
4139	On 'A' on counts 1 and 3.
4140	On 'A'
4141	On 'A' for torture only. As to the second count, the charge should be adjourned for more particulars.
4142	The case is not complete as to facts and particulars, and should, therefore, be adjourned.
4143	It is suggested to ask the National Office for more particulars in order to substantiate the allegation that there was no military necessity for the destruction of the church. The National Office should also substantiate the charge as to the responsibility of the first two accused for the alleged crime.

5) NETHERLANDS Case.

4144	1-17 and 19-44 on 'A' As to the accused BACKLER (18) the case should be adjourned for further information as the charge against him has not been substantiated.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION. NO. 76.

COMMITTEE I.

Meeting on 3rd October 1946.

NOTES ON CASES.

By G. Brand, Assistant Legal Officer.

---

1) YUGOSLAV Cases.

4097 1-19 on 'A'

2) FRENCH Cases.

(a) addendum.

564 (Addendum 3). Attention is drawn to the fact that KRAUSS is already listed on 'A' for the murder of a French civilian (French Case 2143).

In connection with the present charge, it is submitted that the accused should be listed on 'S'.

(b) New Cases.

4088 1 on 'A'
2-7 on 'S', since it is submitted that their individual complicity does not appear to be sufficiently shown.

4089 On 'A'

4090 On 'S'. The evidence does not appear to show whether the accused was among those who ordered the shooting.

4091 1-4 on 'A'

4092 On 'A'

4093 On 'A'

4094 1 on 'A' on all four charges. (The accused is already listed on 'S'

2 on 'A' for murder.
3 on 'A' S
4. This accused is already listed on 'A' for murder, torturing and deporting civilians.
5-8 On 'S'
9 on 'A' for murder.
10-12 on 'A' S
13 on 'A' on all four charges.

4094 (contd)	14 on 'A' for torturing and devastation. 15 on 'A' for torturing and pillage. 16 on 'S' 17 on 'A' for torturing 18-20 on 'S' 21 on 'A' for torturing 22-25 on 'S' 26 on 'A' on all four charges. 27 on 'A' for torturing 28 on 'A' for murder. 29 on 'A' for murder 30 on 'A' for torturing 31 on 'A' for murder 32 on 'A' for murder and torturing 33 on 'A' for devastation 34 on 'S' for murder
4095	On 'A'
4096	The accused would certainly appear to have committed a common crime, and his opportunity to do so arose out of his official position. It will be for Committee I to decide whether his acts amounted to the commission of the war crimes of pillage and deportation.

3) NETHERLANDS Cases.

4118	On 'A' for deportation of civilians.
4119	On 'A'
4120	1-4 on 'A' for internment of civilians under inhuman conditions. It is submitted that some further evidence is needed of the guilt of 5-7.
4121	On 'A'
4122	1-2. If the Committee is of opinion that the evidence provided is sufficient to identify the accused it is suggested that they be listed on 'S'
4123	1 on 'A' 2-3 on 'W' Attention is drawn to the fact that the name of the second witness BR BRUCHMANN is spelt BRUCHMÜLLER on page 3 of the dossier.
4124	1 and 2 on 'A' Attention is drawn to the fact that 3 and 4 are "presumably Dutch". The acts alleged against them seem to be sufficiently established.
4125	On 'A'
4126	1-2.It is submitted that the simultaneous publication of the two announcements does not seem to be sufficient to give rise to the suspicion that the victims were executed as a reprisal, particularly as the first announcement mentioned a reward which "will be given" for information leading to the arrest of those who killed the police officer.

4126 (contd)	It will be for the Committee to decide, however, whether, prima facie, the sentences passed were not in any ~~way~~ case excessive.
	3-5 on 'W'
4127	1-4 on 'A' 5 on 'W'

4) POLISH Cases.

4098	On 'A'
4099	Attention is drawn to the fact that the witness is not reported to have given any details of the circumstances inwhich the shooting took place. It may therefore be advisable to ask the National Office for further details on this point.
4100	Attention is drawn to the fact that this case is stated to be only partially complete. It will be for Committee I to decide whether it will accept the charge nevertheless.
4101	On 'A'
4102	The comment relating to charge 4100 seems to apply here also.
4103	On 'A'
4104	On 'A'
4105	On 'A'
4106	On 'A'
4107	On 'A'
4108	On 'A'
4109	Committee I may deem it prudent, as a matter of form, to seek assurance from the National Office that the executions mentioned could in no way be regarded as part of a legal process.
4110	On 'A'
4111	On 'A'
4112	On 'A'
4113	On 'A'
4114	On 'A'
4117	On 'A'

5) CZECHOSLOVAK Cases.

a) Adjourned.

4039	It will be for Committee I to determine, in the light of its decision on the case of DURČANSKÝ (No.952 Addendum XI), whether the accused in this case had sufficient enemy character to warrant their being regarded as war criminals.

b) New Cases.

4115	The acts alleged to have been committed by each accused seem to be well established. Attention is drawn to the facts that the offences took place during October, 1938, and that crimes against humanity are charged.
4116	1 and 2 on 'A'

URGENT FRENCH CASES.

1445 (Addendum 2)	It is submitted that the two accused should be listed on either 'A' or 'S' according to whether further information connecting the accused to the crimes committed can be provided during the meeting of Committee I.
4131	On 'A'
4132	On 'A'

NOTES ON THE JUGOSLAV CRIMES 4146

As the rank given and the facts set out on page 2, paragraph 1 of the Charge show, the accused was apparently a member of the Secret Field Police (Geheime Feldpolizei, abbreviated G.F.P.).

The functions of the G.F.P. relevant for the consideration of the case are defined in the German G.F.P. Field Manual as follows:-

(a) The prevention and discovery of espionage and other offences against security in the German Armed Forces as well as of all other military and civilian tendencies and actions within the zone of operations which may be hostile to the Nazi State. Special emphasis is placed on the prevention and prosecution of sabotage, demoralising propaganda and rumour mongering.....

(b) The prevention of civilians from joining in an action against the occupying forces.

(c) The execution of all security measures within the forward and rear zones of operation.....

(e) The execution of all security Police tasks not within the field of action of the Feldgendarmerie (Military Police).

Of some bearing on the case as well appear the following notes in the SHAEF publication "The German Police" issued in April 1945 (para.108):

> "Like the Gestapo, the Secret Field Police may arrest civilians without Court Orders....."
> "...the original clause denying the G.F.P. jurisdiction over matters within the field of the SIPO came to be interpreted so generously in favour of the RSHA that the G.F.P. was in practise deprived of much of its power...."

There is, therefore, no doubt that it was within the power of the G.F.P. to arrest without Court Orders, orders of the SIPO, that is on their own initiative, persons who were suspected of activities against the security of the German Armed Forces or their Allies.- a mere arrest for this or similar reasons cannot be considered in itself as a War Crime.

Persons arrested by the G.F.P. had to be handed over to the SIPO. It was obviously left to the latter to decide their fate (compare the somewhat ~~vague~~ VAGUE passage in paragraph 107, under (c) of the SHAEF publication quoted above which seems to contradict this statement to some degree).

To apply in the Jugoslav case No. 4146 the same principles as in the Czechoslovak Case No.952, it should be remembered that the Czechoslovak case was only concerned (a) with Police Authorities empowered to order protective custody and preventive custody respectively, (b) with the Police Authorities superior to them by which they were directed and controlled and (c) with the Police authorities subordinate to those mentioned under (a) which had the task of suggesting in individual cases either protective custody or preventive custody.

Persons who were taken into protective or preventive custody were to be detained in concentration camps. In the opinion of the Committee, the officials of these Police Authorities, from certain ranks upwards, appeared, therefore, to have a prima facie responsibility for the deportations carried out in their districts of Czechoslovak citizens to various concentration camps.

Of the officials of these Police Authorities which had to arrest the persons ordered to be taken into protective or preventive custody, only the Inspectors (Befehlshaber) or the Ordnungspolizei were placed on list "S" of War Criminals. The Inspector (Befehlshaber) of the Ordnungspolizei was the highest official of the Ordnungspolizei in the Reichsgau (in the territory of the Czechoslovak Republic the highest official of the Ordnungspolizei in the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia).

The rank of the accused corresponds to the lowest rank of the Führerlaufbahn des Gehobenen Dienstes in the Sicherheitspolizei and would in itself, if the same principles as in the Czechoslovak case No.952 were applied, justify the listing of the accused only if the Committee comes to the conclusion that the accused belonged to a Police authority either empowered to order protective or preventive custody or at least in a position to influence decisively another Police Authority so empowered.

NOTES ON CASES.

By Dr. J. Litawski, Legal Officer.

---

1) UNITED KINGDOM Case.

4145 1-4 on 'A'

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

954 (Addendum 3) On 'A' for confiscation of property.

4146 It appears there is some contradiction in the statement on page 1 and the submission on page 2 of the case as in the first instance it is alleged that the Gestapo was responsible for deporting victims to the concentration camp while in the second this responsibility has been attributed to the accused who was not a member of the Gestapo.

In view of the foregoing and taking into account that the mere handing over to the Gestapo of persons rightly or wrongly suspected of espionage and sabotage does not constitute a crime, it would appear that the case requires clarification and further information.

4147 In view of the opening and closing statements on page 2 and 2a it is suggested to list the accused on 'W' only. There is no evidence in this case that the accused was in any way criminally implicated in the crimes committed by General Meissner apart from the fact that he (the accused) was his adjutant.

3) CZECHOSLOVAK Case.

952 (Addendum XII). There is no submission by the National Office on this addendum.

4) BELGIAN Case.

4148 On 'A': 1, 11, 12, 14, 18, 20, 22.
On 'S': 6, 8, 9, 10, 21, 23, 24.
On 'W': 5, 7, 13, 15, 17, 19.

The accused 2, 3, 4 and 16 have already been listed for the same crimes in cases 2401 and 2402.

The above classification follows that decided by the Committee in the analogous Belgian case 2401.

5) NETHERLANDS Cases.

4149 1-2 on 'A'

4150 On 'A'. (U. K. National Office to be notified).

4151 1-2 on 'A'

4152 According to the facts stated in the evidence the cars were not stolen but requisitioned, and the requisition vouchers issued. Therefore, the case is not substantiated.

4153 1-5 on 'A'. As to the sixth accused, the charge has not been substantiated.

Berkeley Square, W.1.

Dear Dr. Litawski,

Enclosed I am sending you my notes on the Jugoslav case No.4146.

I do not know whether the United States' representative will attend to-day's meeting of Committee III. All the other members of Committee I will, I suppose, be present at this meeting so it should be possible to hand them over these notes to-day.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. H. Mayr-Harting.

NOTES ON CASES.

By Dr. J. Litawski, Legal Officer.

1) GREEK Cases.

4163 On 'A' for putting hostages to death.
Regarding the second count it would seem necessary to ask the National Office for more particulars of the crime alleged in order to establish that no military reasons necessitated the destruction.

4164 1-2 on 'A' for indiscriminate mass arrest and putting hostages to death.

2) UNITED KINGDOM Cases.

4160 1-18 on 'A'. (Crimes against non-British nationals).
There is a number of persons mentioned in the affidavits which should have been charged as well (some of them already listed), but the present charge has presumably been confined only to persons now in custody.

4162 1-2 on 'A'
It appears that SCHLICHTEWEG should also have been charged.

3) FRENCH Cases.

686 (Addendum 2). 1-3 on 'A'

4159 On 'A'

4) YUGOSLAV Cases.

4146 This case was adjourned on 16th October for a week for further information as indicated in the Minutes (No. 78). The information asked for has not been received as yet.

4172 On 'A'

4173 On 'A'

4174 1-14 on 'A' for murder and ill-treatment of P.O.W.

7) NETHERLANDS Cases.

4157 In the meeting on 16th October, the case of the accused 3 RFFERT, was adjourned for one week and Dr. Schwelb undertook to report on the decision, if any, of the International Military Tribunal on the question of destruction of dykes.

Dr. Schwelb reports the following: " 1). The Indictment (Cmd.6696) contains, under Count 3, (war crimes), paragraph G on page 27, (Wanton Destruction of Cities, Towns and Villages and Devastation not Justified by Military Necessity), the following accusation:

"In Holland there was most widespread and extensive destruction, not justified by military necessity, including the destruction of harbours, locks, dykes and bridges; immense devastation was also caused by inundations which equally were not justified by military necessity."

2). The only reference to this part of the Indictment contained in the Judgment is to be found on page 16886 of the official transcript, which reads as follows:

"Cities, towns and villages were wantonly destroyed without military justification or necessity".

4176" 1-4 on 'A'

4177 1-2 on 'A'

4178 1 and 3 on 'A') On all counts except that of forced labour as the 2 on 'S') accused were not responsible for enlisting the victims ) into the Todt organisation.

4179 1-3 on 'A'

4180 It seems that none of the charges against the first and fifth accused has been sufficiently substantiated.
2 on 'A' for murder and ill-treatment.
3 on 'A' for murder
4 on 'A' for murder.
Other charges against the accused 2-4 have not been substantiated.

4181 1-5 on 'A'

4182 1-4 on 'S' for pillage only as there is no evidence as to who actually did commit the crime alleged.
5-7 on 'W'

4183 1-2 on 'A'

4184 1-13 on 'A'
18 on 'W'
As to 14-16, it is suggested that the National Office should consider whether it would not be advisable to withdraw the charges as the case against them is certainly too minor a one.

As to the 17th accused, it is not clear whether he has in fact taken any part in the shooting or merely assisted at the execution in his capacity as surgeon.

4253 1-3 on 'A'

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

4207 1 and 4 on 'A'
It is suggested to ask the National Office for more particulars as to the responsibility of the second and third accused as no particulars are submitted with regard to them.

4208 It is not clear what crimes are alleged in this case.

3) NETHERLANDS. Cases.

2864 As it appeared from the case that some of the victims were tried by a German Court Martial for sabotage and intelligence with the enemy, the case was adjourned in the Meeting on 11th April, 1946, in order that the National Office might be asked for further information as to whether there was any justification of such charges and whether the victims were or not members of a properly recognised Resistance Movement.

The National Office was also asked to submit information as to any other circumstances of the alleged trial which might have a bearing on the responsibility of the accused.

The additional information now received from the National Office is submitted for the Committee's consideration.

4249 1 and 3 on 'A'
2 and 4 on 'N' (as both these accused were chauffeurs and no individual charges have been submitted).
As to 5-16 apart from the fact that they were members of the Sonderkommando no information as to their activities or responsibility is available.
17-18 on 'N' as submitted by the National Office.

4250 On 'A' for pillage only.
The charge of unauthorised requisitioning of houses based on the opinion expressed by one of the witnesses cannot be considered as sufficiently established.

4244 In view of the amount of the goods involved it would seem improbable that they have been appropriated by the accused for their own profit. 4211 It is suggested to ask the National Office to substantiate the case with particulars of the alleged activities of the accused.

NOTES ON CASES.

By Dr. J. Litawski, Legal Officer.

NOTE: These are supplementary notes:
Other cases have been dealt with in Notes No.79 circulated for the Meeting originally fixed for 24th October and then postponed to 31st October.

1) POLISH Cases.

The National Office is requested to provide, in all cases, in future, the description of the alleged crime, in the respective section of the Commission's forms (page 1, section 3).

4188 1-2 on 'A' for complicity in illegal arrest and deportation, provided that the charge be limited to denouncing Jews because of their race.

4189 On 'A' for ill-treatment.
As to the second charge it is not established whether the accused was in any way responsible for shooting the victims.

4190 On the face of the particulars submitted in this case it would appear that the accused should be listed on 'A'for ill-treatment only.

4191 1-2 on 'A' for ill-treatment.

4192 1-51 on 'A'
There is no indication as to evidence in support of charges in this case.

2) UNITED KINGDOM Case.

4186 1-13 on 'A'

3) FRENCH Case.

1035 (Addendum) 7, 1-~~7~~ 6 on 'A'
As to 8, 9 and ~~10~~ it seems there is no sufficient ground for listing them on 'A'

4) YUGOSLAV Cases.

4193 1-3 on 'A' for ill-treatment of P.O.Ws (Murder, torture, starvation).

4194 Although no individual charges have been submitted in this case it seems that in view of the number of crimes committed all the accused

4194 (continued)	1-6~~7~~ and General SAUBERZWEIG, in addition, should be listed on 'A'
4195	On 'A'

5) NETHERLANDS Cases.

4196	On 'A' for deportation of civilians.
4197	1 on 'A' ~~2-7~~ 2-7 on 'W'

4199	1-3 on 'A' 4-5 on 'W'
4200	1-2 on 'A' for pillage 5-6 on 'W' Other counts as well as charges against 3-4 seem to be not substantiated.
4201	1-2 on 'A'
4202	1-7 and 13-21 on 'A' 22-25 on 'W' In view of the witness Kraus' statement on page 6 it seems that the case against the accused 8-12 has not been established.

1) YUGOSLAV Cases.

4254	This case was adjourned for the reasons stated in Minutes No. 80 of the last Meeting. A note on the camp referred to in this case will be circulated separately by the Research Office.
4312	1-30 on 'A'
4313	This case requires further investigation as to the accused's rank. The one indicated is equivalent to "Senior Sergeant" and, therefore, it is highly improbable that a person of such a low standing could have had so much responsibility as described in this case.

2) POLISH Case.

4306	On 'A' for ill-treatment of civilians and complicity in deportation.

3402 (addendum)	On 'A'
4271	1-4 on 'A'
4272	Before accepting this case it would be necessary to know whether the accused's action resulted in fact in starvation. On the other hand the accused might as well be listed for wanton destruction of property.
4273	It is suggested that the National Office should be asked to clarify the case as to whether the accused was himself present at the place of commission of the alleged crime.

4292 — 1, 2 and 4 on 'A' as submitted.
It is suggested that before deciding on the responsibility of the third accused for the alleged crimes, the National Office should be asked for additional information as to what exactly were the official responsibilities and the correct rank of this accused.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION. NO. 81.

COMMITTEE I.

14th November 1946.

NOTES ON CASES.

By Dr. J. Litawski, Legal Officer.

---

1) POLISH Case.

4261 — It will be appreciated if the National Office could bring all descriptions of crimes provided in this as well as in all future cases into line with the working list of war crimes (Doc. C.1).

1-19 and 21-85 on 'A'

The charge against the accused No. 20 cannot be considered as a war crime in view of the fact that this accused was himself a prisoner.

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

4146 — On 'A'

4254 — 1-4, 6-8, 11, 12, 128, 129 on 'A'
5, 9, 10, 13-127 on 'S'

4255 — On 'A'

4256 — 2-4 on 'A'
1 and 5 on 'S'

4257 — On 'A'

4258 — On 'A'

4259 — 1 on 'A' for forced labour.
14 on 'A' for torture and ill-treatment.
As to 2-13 it is suggested to ask the National Office for additional information as to which of these accused were concerned in arrests, and for what reasons the latter have been carried out, as well as for further information necessary to substantiate the charge of murder.

3) BELGIAN Cases.

873 (Addendum 1). On 'A' for torture and ill-treatment only as there is no information to substantiate other charges.

Previous incorrect spelling of this accused's name should be removed from the List.

4142 — On 'A' for forced labour and deportation.
As to the other charges it is suggested to ask the National Office for more details.

4260 — On 'A' for torture and indiscriminate mass arrest.

NETHERLANDS Cases.

4262 — 1 on 'A' for illegal expropriation.
2 on 'A' for pillage.
As to 3 there is no sufficient information to substantiate the charges.

4263 — 1 on 'A' for complicity in deportation and pillage.
2 on 'A' for pillage.
As to 3 and 4 there is nothing in the case which could justify putting them on the List of war criminals.
5-6 on 'W'

4264 — It is suggested to adjourn the case sine die as the offence alleged as well as the circumstances of its commission qualifies the case as a minor one, if a war crime at all 4265 — 1 on 'A' for complicity in illegal imprisonment.

3 on 'A' for illegally sentencing to imprisonment.
4-7 on 'W'
As to the second accused no criminal responsibility (for a war crime) can be attributed to him for destroying doctors' certificates as these could not have any bearing on the sentence.

4266 — 1-5 on 'A' on all counts.
6 on 'A' for murder and pillage.
7 on 'A' on counts III and XIII.
8-9, 12-15 and 17-20 as submitted.
As to 7, 11 and 16, charges of murder seem to be not sufficiently substantiated.

4267 — On 'A'

4268 — 1-3 on 'A'
The charge against the fourth accused appears to be not substantiated.

1) UNITED KINGDOM Cases.

4396 1-3 on 'A' for ill-treatment of civilians and directions to give no quarter.

4397 1-19 on 'A'

2) YUGOSLAV Case.

4313 This case has been adjourned for further information as to what was the actual responsibility of this accused and also as to his possible participation in the crimes alleged in view of the fact that the accused's rank as indicated in the charge was equivalent to "Senior Sergeant" and therefore it was highly improbable that a person of such a low standing could have had so much responsibility as submitted.

From the additional information now submitted it appears that the accused was engaged in political activities only and no war crimes could possibly be preferred against him.

b) New Cases.

4398 There appears to be some discrepancy between the charge itself and the evidence. While the former brings charges against personnel of the Geheime Feldpolizei, all affidavits, but two, refer to the Gestapo.

On the other hand it is doubtful whether the Geheime Feldpolizei could be, from a general point of view, regarded as criminally responsible to the same extent and on the same level as the Gestapo, and its personnel listed for the mere membership in that organisation. This is what this case amounts to, as apart from a general statement, it provides only a list of 99 persons, none of them being individually charged with any particular crime.

It is also submitted that the general pattern of criminal

4398 continued.	activities of that body, if that was in fact the case, is not sufficiently substantiated, and the approximate number of all persons victimized by its members has not been stated.
4399	1-2 on 'A' 3-6 on 'B'
4400	1-21 on 'A' All units as such on 'C'
4401	1-12 on 'A'
4402	1 on 'A' as submitted. 3 on 'A' for ill-treatment of P.O.W. As to the second accused, no charges are submitted.
4403	On 'A'
4404	On 'A'

7) NETHERLANDS Cases.

4353	On 'A' on the understanding that the charge is limited to the accused's activities in the "Hollandsche Papier Industrie".
4354	On 'A'
4355	On 'A'
4356	On 'A'
4357	It is suggested to ask the National Office for additional information necessary to establish whether or not the destruction of the quay walls and cranes was order for military reasons.
4358	1-7 on 'A'
4359	On 'A'
4360	It seems that more particulars should be required in order to substantiate the charge of pillage. As the accused was one of the firm's directors since 1925, the National Office should be asked to establish that it was not within his power to transfer the firm's inventory and capital to Germany, and also that the transfer has been prejudicial to the firm's interests.
4361	The case seems to be not sufficiently established: in particular it is not stated why the gin was "seized", i.e. whether it was confiscated or appropriated by the accused. As to the wireless sets, these were presumably officially confiscated by the accused as a penalty for listening to the foreign broadcasts.
4405	There is nothing in the case to establish the accused's responsibility for the murder. As to the second count it is not clear whether the accused's order was in fact carried out.

4406 — 1 on 'A'
2 on 'W'

4407 — 1 and 3 on 'A'
As to the second accused the charge is not substantiated.

4408 — 1-5 on 'A'

4409 — 1 and 3-5 on 'A'
6 on 'W'
It is not clear what is the National Office submission in regard to the second accused as all personnel data referring to him have been erased out in the original copy.

8) CZECHOSLOVAK Case.

4115 — This case has been adjourned in order that the National Office might supplement the charge with additional information necessary to establish (a) whether the crimes alleged were of an isolated character or constituted part of a pattern applied at different times and places and (b) whether they had been executed in connection with the aggressive war. The National Office was also asked to establish the nationality of the accused persons.

In view of the information additionally submitted by the National Office it is proposed to list the accused 1-3 and 6-9 on 'A'

The crimes alleged against the accused 4 and 5 seem to be too minor ones.

NOTES ON CASES.

By Dr. J. Litawski, Legal Officer.

---

1) YUGOSLAV Cases.

4574 On 'S' or 'W'

4575 It is submitted that the particulars contained in the case are not sufficient for establishing the accused's responsibility. The facts stated therein on page 2 deal with the general policy and measures taken by the occupying authorities while attempting to denationalise the inhabitants of Lower Styria. As to the accused himself, his alleged activities are contained only in paragraph 9 on page 2. It is alleged there that the accused set up special courts to deal with questions of race and nationality, but this statement requires some elucidation as such questions were usually dealt with, and decided upon by administrative or political authorities and not by the courts. As to the alleged dismissal of judges and appointment of new ones, the case also requires some more facts and information in order to substantiate such a general statement.

4549 ✓ On 'A' for murder, deportation and rape.

4413	1, 2, 14-18 on 'A' 7, 8, 12, 13 on 'B' 9-11 on 'C' As to 3-6 and 19 no charges are preferred against them. Regarding the last accused it is to be noted that no crimes are alleged to have been committed at VRLIKI BRCKOREK for which this accused could be held responsible in view of his position.
4414	1 and 16 on 'A' As to persons indicated in para. 3 on page 2 the illegality of the arrests is not established. As to the other accused it is doubtful whether the general statement in para. 5 on page 2 is sufficient for listing them.

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

a) Addenda.

954 (IV) adj. On 'A' for attempts to denationalise the inhabitants of occupied territory and confiscation of property.

954 (V) ✓ On 'A' for attempts to denationalise, etc.

954 (VI) adj. The accused is charged in this addendum with a) compulsory enlistment of soldiers among the inhabitants of occupied Slovenia b) atrocities, and c) attempts to denationalise the inhabitants.

Ad. a) In view of the fact that, as stated by the National Office, all Slovene males from 18 to 50 years of age were made subject to the compulsory enlistment and, in fact, called up, it is quite clear that such a general compulsion must have been imposed on the highest level.

As to the question to what extent putting into effect of such a general order by persons of the accused's rank can justify listing them as war criminals must depend on the circumstances and the action taken in fact by the individuals The charge does not provide any information on these points.

Ad. b) The statement in regard to atrocities committed while fighting partisans does not, as it stands, implicate in any way the accused in view of the fact that the "Wehrmannschaft" was divided into a number of "Standarte", and it is not stated either "that the accused himself committed any crimes, nor that the unit under his command took part in the atrocities"

Ad. c) The mere fact that the accused was an editor of the publication in question is not sufficient to list him as a war criminal on this count.

4194 (addendum I) ✓ On 'A'

4618 adj. It is submitted that the accused as a policeman could not have drafted the victim into the German Army. He, presumably, carried out only a police duty in bringing the victim to a military authority, i.e. an action which cannot even be qualified as illegal arrest.

4619 ✓ 1-2 on 'A' on counts I, III and VIII.

4620 ✓ 1-4 on 'A' on all counts except that under XVI.

4594		Before accepting this charge it would be necessary to ask the National Office for a definite statement as to whether any of the objects and articles were removed by the accused from Polish territory and transported to Germany. It is submitted that a mere removal of property from one part of the State's territory to another cannot be qualified as looting.

4608		It is suggested to ask the National Office for more particulars of the alleged crimes, necessary to establish a) that the alleged plunder of cereals was not in fact requisition, b) that placing of the mines was not necessitated by military reasons.

5) NETHERLANDS Cases.

4534 (addendum)		As there is still no evidence available that the victim was in fact ill-treated, there is no ground for changing the original classification. (All persons indicated in the original charge have been listed on 'A').

4210 Taking into consideration that the accused, presumably a Czechoslovak national, made it his profession to denounce people, that he denounced a number of persons to the Gestapo and not to the national police authorities, and therefore must have known very well how his activities would result - it is proposed to list him on 'A'.

4) POLISH Cases.

4187	In the original case Colonel Bohum-Dabrowski had been charged with military collaboration with the German forces during the years 1944-45. This case was adjourned on November 14th, 1946, for further information on actual war crimes committed by the accused, if that was in fact the case, as the Committee was of unanimous opinion that in the case as submitted, no war crime was involved.

The present addendum contains charges against the same Colonel Bohun-Dabrowski, and four other persons in addition, all of ~~which~~ them accused of murder, ill-treatment and looting. The evidence as submitted in this addendum establishes beyond any doubt the responsibility of the first accused for the commission of various crimes of the murder-type. From the particulars of the case it appears, however, that except in one instance only, these crimes had been committed by Poles against Poles in Poland and without any apparent connection or co-operation with German authorities of occupation or in pursuance of the criminal aims and purposes of the latter.

Therefore there would seem to be no ground for qualifying these crimes either as war crimes or crimes against humanity which could fall under the jurisdiction of this Commission.

The one instance as to which exception has been made above is the execution of Soviet P.O.W. carried out on the orders of the first accused (see last Affidavit, page 2). This crime has been substantiated by the evidence of one witness only and if this would be considered by the Committee as sufficient, the first accused could be listed on 'A' for this particular crime only.

As to the responsibility of the accused 2-5 it would seem necessary to have some information as to their complicity in and responsibility for the alleged crimes.

5) CZECHOSLOVAK Cases.

4992	It is proposed to ask the National Office for some particulars of the case, as only a general statement has been provided.
4993	On 'A' for wanton destruction of property.
4994	It is submitted that the accused's activities could not be regarded as criminal and in any case could not be considered as a war crime as far as organising a net-work of agents for the particular purpose stated in the case is concerned. As to the second part of the charge in which it is stated that the accused handed over to the Gestapo lists of the relatives of persons who joined the Czech forces abroad, it would be necessary to know what kind of relations existed between the accused and the Gestapo in this particular matter, and whether the accused did know or could have known that any reprisals would be taken against such persons. It is also pointed out that it is not specifically stated in the case whether any reprisals were in fact taken against such persons and of what they consisted.
4995	On 'A' for murder.
4996	On 'A' for ill-treatment, deportation and complicity in murder.

(166 cases - 924 persons charged).

By Dr. J. Litauski, Legal Officer.

1) YUGOSLAV Cases.

5323 On 'A'

5324 It would appear necessary to ask the National Office for additional information sufficient to establish the accused's direct responsibility for the crimes alleged. The case as it stands establishes only that the accused carried out arrests which in view of the circumstances cannot be considered illegal.

2) FRENCH Cases.

731 (addendum) 1-4 on 'W'

3561 In view of the information additionally submitted in addendum I the Committee in its meeting of 24th April 1947 decided that the original case should be reviewed with the purpose of deleting from the List all the persons charged therein if no additional information was submitted by the National Office by 29th May 1947.

No additional information has been received up to date.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

NO. 105.
COMMITTEE I.
Meeting on 3rd July 1947.

NOTES ON CASES.

(88 cases - 145 persons charged)

By Dr. J. Litawski.

1) NETHERLANDS Cases.

2561 (addendum)	1-8 on 'W'
5705	1 on 'A' for ill-treatment only 2-6 on 'W' As to the charge of complicity in internment there is not sufficient evidence to establish that a war crime had been committed. In particular, it would be necessary to know what anti-German remarks were made by the alleged victims.
5706	1-2 on 'A'
5707	1 on 'A' for ill-treatment and pillage 2-5 on 'W' In view of the fact that the victim was a member of the Resistance Movement and was shot while trying to escape it is difficult to see any ground for accepting the charge of murder. As to the 2nd and 3rd accused, there is not sufficient evidence for listing them even as suspects (on the charge of pillage) and therefore it is suggested to list them as Witnesses only.
5708	On 'W'
5709	On 'A'
5710	On 'A'
5711	On 'A' for ill-treatment only. There is no evidence as to whether the accused himself was responsible for deporting the victim.
5712	1-2 on 'A' 8-15 on 'W' As to 3-7, more information is required to substantiate the charge.
5713	1-3 on 'A'

2) YUGOSLAV Cases.

5631	1-20 on 'A' on all counts except X.

5632 On W — It would appear that none of the charges is sufficiently substantiated and supported by the particulars of the alleged crimes and evidence

5633 On W — It would appear that none of the charges is sufficiently substantiated and supported by the particulars of the alleged crimes and evidence

5634 — 1 on 'S' ? for p.
2 on 'A' for pillage.
The National Office should be asked for more information as to the alleged murder 5635 — On 'A' for ill-treatment, deportation and internment under inhuman conditions.

It would appear that the other charges are not sufficiently substantiated 5636 — The National Office should be asked for more particulars as to the circumstances of the crimes alleged under 1 and 2 on page 2.

The charge under 3 cannot be accepted as a prima facie case of a war crime in view of the accused's position.

5637 — It is suggested to ask the National Office for extracts of evidence indicated on page 3 of the case.

5638 — It is suggested to ask the National Office for specification as to those of the alleged crimes for which the accused should be personally held responsible, and also for more particulars necessary to substantiate the charges.

5697 — The accused's responsibility for the crimes allegedly committed is not sufficiently established and in particular there is no evidence to show on what grounds he is being held responsible.

5698 — Neither the alleged crimes, especially those under XII, XIII, XIV and XV, nor the accused's responsibility for their commission, is satisfactorily substantiated.

5699 — No particulars of the alleged crimes have been submitted in this case.

5700 — The National Office should be asked for particulars and evidence of the alleged crimes.

5701 — There is no evidence in this case necessary to substantiate the alleged crimes.

5702 — On 'A' for ill-treatment only.
As regards the other charges, the accused's responsibility is not substantiated.

5703 — It is suggested to ask the National Office for additional information as to the circumstances in which the alleged crimes were committed.

5704 — On 'A'

/3) CZECHOSLOVAK Case.

5640 — On 'A' for ill-treatment and complicity in deportation.
The illegality of the alleged confiscation is not established and there is no evidence that any pillage had been committed.

COMMITTEE I.
Meeting on 3rd July 1947.

NOTES ON CASES.

By Dr. R. Zivković.

4) POLISH Cases. (Adjourned)

5472 — From the additional information submitted by the National Office (letter of 20th June 1947) it would appear that the accused could eventually be held responsible only for ill-treatment (see last line of the 1st paragraph) and for shooting people, allegedly committed by him according to the 2nd paragraph of the letter. In order to establish the accused's responsibility for the above crimes, it would however be necessary to ask the National Office for more particulars of the crimes and evidence necessary to substantiate them.

(YUGOSLAV Cases continued)

5816 — More details are required both as regards the alleged crime and the guilt of the accused.

5817 — The International Military Tribunal in Nuremberg declared the following in its Judgment (H.M. Stationery Office, Cmd. 6964, p. 66) :

> "... the declaration with respect to the organisations and groups will ... fix the criminality of its members; that definition should exclude persons who had no knowledge of the criminal purposes or acts of the organisation and those who were drafted by the State for membership ... Membership alone is not enough to come within the scope of these declarations."

In this case no evidence has been submitted to support the statement made on p. 2, that "each member knew of these plans and directives and was in agreement with them", and that "the mere appurtenance" to the accused organisation "was in itself a crime".

5818 — The charge should be supplemented by extracts of the orders issued by accused 1, 5 and 6, and by more details regarding the actual part taken in the commission of the alleged crimes by accused 2, 3 and 4.

NOTE The Danish National Office, probably unaware of the ruling of Committee I, has not substantiated the charges below by extracts from statements of witnesses in support of the evidence referred to in its charges.

A) UNITED STATES Cases.

5915-5930 All these cases concern the leading staff of the well-known German armament firm KRUPP of Essen. The charges are of a particularly serious nature and include crimes against peace and crimes against humanity. Although it can be assumed that all cases have been thoroughly investigated and that no charge would have been brought forward without definite prima facie evidence against the accused

(3217-3230 continued) the particulars and evidence in support are admitted in too general terms to enable the Committee to dispose of the cases as they stand in the charge sheets presented for its consideration.

The cases should therefore be adjourned and the United States National Office requested to supplement the charges with fuller details and extracts from evidence both as regards the actual criminal offences and the personal guilt of the accused.

FRENCH CASES

Note: In order to comply with the present requirements of the Committee, and as previously indicated, it would be appreciated if the French National Office could in future ~~furnish~~ submit further evidence in all cases in the form of extracts from statements of witnesses in support of the crimes alleged.

POLISH CASES

NOTE: (See page 4) inserted here

5936 On 'S'. In view of the fact that the charge was mainly based upon the testimony of the accused himself, the National Office was requested (1) to furnish information concerning the circumstances under which the accused made his confession, and (2) whether any other testimony was available in which the accused attempted to justify his alleged acts of ill-treatment.

5939 On 'S' pending submission of further evidence concerning the actual ~~responsibility~~ of the accused for the crimes alleged, apart from his official position; and also further confirmatory evidence of other witnesses with regard to the murder of hospital inmates.

5940 Adjourned for ~~more~~ further information necessary to establish that the accused was an accomplice in the commission of a war crime.

5948 Adjourned in order that the National Office might ~~supply~~ furnish information as to the nationality of the accused, ~~in order to establish whether he was guilty as a war criminal or merely as a traitor. In this connection evidence was requested as to whether the accused had actually assumed German nationality during the war and at the time of the alleged crimes.~~ (See NOTE above) (See NOTE above)

5956 On 'S' pending submission of further evidence that the arrests were not justified by the necessity to suppress disorder.

5957 On 'S' pending submission of further evidence showing that no trials of the victims had taken place and no orders were given for the executions from higher authority.

5961 On 'A' for ill-treatment only. Further evidence was ~~required~~ required in order to substantiate the charge of murder.

5990 1-2 on 'A' for ill-treatment only. Further evidence was required in order to substantiate the charge of murder.

5992 Adjourned. Extracts from documentary evidence were ~~required~~ required in order to establish the personal guilt of the accused.

5993 Adjourned for information as to the nationality of the accused, ~~in order to establish whether they were guilty as war criminals or merely as traitors. In this connection evidence was required as to whether the accused had actually assumed German nationality during the war at the time of the alleged crime.~~ Extracts from evidence in support of each of the accused were also required.

5994 Rejected. The charge seemed to warrant only treason and not a war crime.

5999 Adjourned. More information was required in order to substantiate the charge of murder. Information was also required concerning the circumstances under which the letter of the accused's wife was written, and whether or not it was written to the accused personally.

6029 Adjourned for further extracts from the testimony of additional witnesses. Information was also required as to the nationality of the accused, ~~in order to establish whether he was guilty of a war crime or merely as a traitor. In this connection evidence was required as to whether the accused had actually assumed German nationality during the war at the time of the alleged crime.~~ Further extracts from evidence in support of the accused were also required.

NOTE The Committee would appreciate if in all future cases involving individuals of Polish nationality, the National Office would indicate whether the individuals concerned still retained their Polish nationality ~~during the time of the alleged crimes,~~ or whether they had assumed German nationality during the war and at the time of the alleged crimes.

It is further requested that with regard to the submission of evidence in support of alleged crimes, the Polish National Office would submit such evidence from more than one witness,

POLISH Cases 6067-6158 (By Dr. R. Ivković)

6067 Adjourn. The activities of the accused appear to be those of a spy, which does not represent in itself a war crime. However, should the National Office be in a position to prove that the accused denounced innocent persons with a view to cause commission of war crimes against them, the case can be reconsidered.

6068 Adjourn. Information is required as to the nationality of the accused. The case as it stands shows beyond doubt only one point: that the accused prepared lists of persons to be arrested, serving as an agent of the enemy. His connection with actual war crimes committed subsequent to the arrests is not shown.
Consequently, if the accused is of Polish nationality the charge warrants an act of treason and not a war crime.

6152 Adjourn. Accused 1-3 are charged with the same types of crimes, committed at the same place and during the same period of time, as the three accused in charge 6150. Therefore their connection with the latter should be shown, namely whether BAMBERGER served at the same time as SOHN and TEUFEL and in what capacity. SOHN is described as head of the Gestapo at Sejherowo and TEUFEL as having the rank of Oberstumfuehrer, whereas no place of service is indicated for BAMBERGER. Similar considerations apply to KUEPKE, described only as an SS-man

As regards the third accused in this charge, SENDE, information is required as to whether he knowingly provided transport for the killing of the victims

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.
NOTES ON CASES.
(31 cases - 101 persons charged).

By Dr. B. IVSIVIC.

NO.132.
Meeting on Thursday 4th March, 1948.

COMMITTEE I.

1) ETHIOPIA Cases.

7878 In this case Marshal P. Badoglio is held responsible, in his capacity as Commander-in-Chief of the Italian Forces operating in Ethiopia, for acts alleged to represent deliberate bombardments of hospitals and of undefended places, as well as for the use of poisonous gases and for wanton destruction of religious buildings.

On the face of the evidence submitted it is questionable whether acts incriminated under XXIII (hospitals), XIX (undefended places) and XX (religious buildings) were committed upon the instructions or with the knowledge and consent of the accused, so as to implicate him as personally responsible. In some cases it is also questionable whether bombardments were carried out in such a manner as to amount to the corresponding violations of the Hague Regulations. This can be illustrated with the bombing of the Swedish ambulance on 30.12.1935, described in Appendix I, p.4-11. It should be noted, however, that in regard to clear war crimes, there were trials in which it was declared that, irrespective of whether commanders did or did not issue orders for the commission of crimes, it was their duty to watch over their subordinates and undertake steps to prevent crimes from being perpetrated. The Japanese general Yamashita was convicted on this ground for a series of violations committed by his troops.

(See Note) Such debatable issues do not stand in regard to the use of poisonous gases, which represent in all cases a clear violation of the laws of warfare when applied by the aggressor, and for which primary responsibility lies upon the Commanders.

It is therefore submitted that the accused can be listed on 'A' on this count.

7879 The accused, General Graziani, is charged with a far larger number of crimes than the accused in the preceding case, and in addition evidence is submitted concerning orders personally issued by him. Orders such as those in Appendix A, d) or Appendix J, b), including among those to be shot without trial individuals "who are suspected of bad faith" or "all chiefs and notables" are undoubtedly of a criminal nature. Cases of massacres of innocent inhabitants are clearly established by evidence furnished by the accused himself (e.g. telegrams in Appendix D under b) and c), p.2), as well as by evidence from other sources (e.g. Appendix E). The use of poisonous gases is admitted by the accused even in respect of the civilian population (e.g. Appendix M.a) and Appendix P a) and b). The evidence submitted warrants the accused's listing on 'A' for the following war crimes, I, III, VII, VIII, XVIII, XX, XXVI.

/regarding the massacres in Addis Ababa

7880 No specific charges are laid against the accused. In view of the reference made to the case against Graziani it would appear that the accused is charged for complicity on account of his position (Minister for the Colonies). From the evidence submitted against Graziani it appears that the latter made reports to the accused in connection with the crimes committed. It is, however, not clear whether it was within the accused's competence to interfere with Graziani's command, and if so, whether he did or did not take steps to prevent crimes from being committed. The case should, consequently, be adjourned sine die for lack of evidence.

/in the crimes perpetrated by Graziani

7881 The accused is charged for complicity in the massacres which took place in Addis Ababa in February 1937. No evidence, however, is submitted to prove the accused's guilt. The case should, therefore, be adjourned sine die for lack of evidence.

7882 Part of the evidence submitted shows that the accused was responsible for the summary shooting of "rebels", that is of Ethiopian subjects who did

882 (Add.2) Adjourn. The National Office is not right in assuming that mere membership in an organisation declared criminal by the Nuremberg Tribunal is a war crime in itself. For the purpose of listing the accused and according to the rules laid down by the Nuremberg Tribunal in its Judgment, it is necessary to submit prima facie evidence showing that the accused knew of the criminal purpose or acts of the organisation or was personally implicated in the comission of specific crimes.

It appears, however, that under Art.10 of the Nuremberg Charter and as a consequence of the rules laid down by the above Tribunal in its Judgment, the Belgian authorities are in any case entitled to bring the accused to trial before the competent court, and that it is up to the court to decide whether it will admit the case on the basis of a presumption of guilt of the accused deriving from his membership in the criminal organisation. It would appear that the effect of a declaration of criminality by the Nuremberg Tribunal is to create such a presumption and to free the prosecution from proving anything else than the fact that the accused was a member of the organisation. In all such cases the accused is entitled and expected to submit evidence disproving the presumption established against him on account of his membership

6346 ✓ 1-4 on 'A'

6347 This is one of the cases for which the National Office had been requested to submit a general report containing more details on how and on what basis German "Verwalters" of Dutch property managed to acquire ownership after the property under their administration

1 : A
2 : W

In this charge a prima facie case seems to be established in view of the following:- (a) The sum paid for the factory was taken from the capital belonging to the business; (b) The purchasing price paid was equal to the sum earned in one single year by the business; (c) During the period of administration by the accused the earnings dropped sharply, whereas it rose again after he "bought" the firm.

Providing these facts are corroborated by clear evidence, the removal of all the machinery to Germany by the accused would represent a clear case of pillage.

The National Office should accordingly be requested to submit extracts from the evidence in support of the above allegal facts.

6385 2 on 'A' for confiscation
6 on 'B'

The particulars do not seem to warrant a prima facie case against the other accused. Namely, there is no definite evidence that accused 1 or 5 were involved in the confiscation, or that accused 4 made abuses in ordering requisitions of houses. Neither is there prima facie evidence showing that accused 2,3,5, and 6 did actually commit acts of pillage. This part of the charge should accordingly be adjourned.

6386 ✓ 1 on 'A' for ill-treatment
2 on 'B'

6387 1-2 on 'A' for pillage.

6387 ✓ No evidence is submitted to show that accused 3 took part in the pillage apart from having received gifts from accused 2.

6388 Reject. The charge deals with "pillage" or "plunder" by purchases made on the Black Market. According to the Report of Committee III as adopted by the Commission on 18th June, 1947, (Doc. C.339(1)) it is essential in such cases to establish that the purchasing on the Black Market was part of a policy conducted from high level.

Facts submitted in this charge seem to show, on the contrary, that the accused operated a private "racket" business by abusing the confidence of the German authorities.

Consequently, it appears that, though elements of a clear criminal activity are at hand, they do not constitute a war crime.

6389 ✓ 1-3 on 'A'
4-6 on 'B'

6390 ✓ 1 on 'A' for ill-treatment.

The evidence submitted in respect of the sewing-machines is not sufficient to show that this was a case of pillage. Consequently, this case involving accused 2 and 3 should be adjourned.

b) YUGOSLAV Cases.

Together with the present batch of cases, the following letter explaining the position in regard to the evidence in support of charges, has been received from the Yugoslav National Office, and is brought to the attention of the Committee:

"We have in this office a large number of charges, probably between 300-400, which were prepared in Belgrade before the Commission decided that additional evidence, such as extracts from statements, etc., should be included in the charge. We have written to Belgrade to ask for the information required, but to collect this extra evidence from the files, make the necessary translations, etc., will take, we think, at least 2-3 months.

"These charges have, of course, been drawn up on the basis of substantial evidence which is in the possession of our State Commission, and in view of this we are proposing to submit a number of charges to the Commission each week, as we feel it will be easier for your office, as well as our own, to do this rather than to send in a very large number at one time, and at a much later date.

"We trust you will agree to this proposal, and in the meantime we will endeavour to obtain the required evidence."

NEW CASES.

6245 ✓ 1-3 on 'A' for pillage

6246 ✓ 1-4 on 'A'

6247 A This is one of the cases for which the National Office had been requested to submit a general report containing more details on how and on what basis German "Verwalters" of Dutch property managed to acquire ownership ~~of~~ the property under their administration

In this charge a prima facie case seems to be established in view of the following:- (a) The sum paid for the factory was taken from the capital belonging to the business; (b) The purchasing price paid was equal to the sum earned in one single year by the business; (c) During the period of administration by the accused the earnings dropped sharply, whereas they rose again after he "bought" the firm.

Providing these facts are corroborated by clear evidence, the removal of all the machinery to Germany by the accused would represent a clear case of pillage.

The National Office should accordingly be requested to submit extracts from the evidence in support of the above alleged facts.

6385 V 1 or 5 for confiscation
2 on 'A' for confiscation
6 on 'W'
3 or 4 for pillage

The particulars do not seem to warrant a prima facie case against the other accused. Namely, there is no definite evidence that accused 1 or 5 were involved in the confiscations, or that accused 4 made abuses in ordering requisitions of houses. Neither is there prima facie evidence showing that accused 2,3,5, and 6 did actually commit acts of pillage. This part of the charge should accordingly be adjourned.

6386 V 1 on 'A' for ill-treatment

6387 V 1-2 on 'A' for pillage. W

No evidence is submitted to show that accused 3 took part in the pillage apart from having received gifts from accused 2.

6388 V Adjourned. ~~Reject~~. The charge deals with "pillage" or "plunder" by purchases made on the Black Market. According to the Report of Committee III as adopted by the Commission on 18th June, 1947, (Doc. C.260(1) it is essential in such cases to establish that the purchasing on the Black Market was part of a policy conducted from high level.

Facts submitted in this charge seem to show, on the contrary, that the accused operated a private "racket" business by abusing the confidence of the German authorities.

Consequently, it appears that, though elements of a clear criminal activity are at hand, they do not constitute a war crime.

6521 — 1-2 on 'A';
As to 3 these appears to be no grounds for listing him as a war criminal. It is not stated that this accused was a member of an enemy organisation, nor does the fact that he had just joined the other accused in ordinary stealing constitute sufficient basis for qualifying the otherwise criminal act perpetrated by him as a war crime.

6522 — 1-2 on 'A'

6524 — 1-6 on 'A'
7-8 on 'W'

6525 — 1-2 on ~~'W'~~ A
3 on 'W'

6526 — Reject, as it appears that the orders were issued and carried out in connection with military operations and for military reasons. In addition, there is no allegation that any persons were victimised in any specific way, nor any particular damage caused.

6527 — 1-3 on 'A'

6528 — 1-2 on 'A';
there is no evidence against the 3rd accused

6529 — On 'A' on counts IX and XIII only

6530 — 1 on 'A' for wanton destruction of property;
~~2-6 on 'W'~~ (the case of pillage in regard to the 2nd accused is not established; and the statement on p. 3 in respect of the 3rd accused seems to be too general for listing him even as a suspect)

Adjourned.

6498 — This case was adjourned for a week in order to enable the Secretariat to establish whether any evidence against the accused could be found in the Research Office, and also whether he could not be identified with any person of the same name already listed by the Commission. adj

The findings are the following:-

a) There is no evidence in the Research Office against this accused;

b) There is no person of the name of FISCHER listed in connection with the Gestapo in Warsaw.

Before accepting this case it would therefore be necessary to ask the National Office for more information necessary to substantiate the allegation that FISCHER "bears the entire responsibility" for the destruction of the Warsaw Ghetto and the extermination of its Jewish inmates.

2) POLISH Case.

5349 This case was brought before Committee I for re-consideration in connection with a letter from the Judge Advocate's Office dated July 29th, 1947, and circulated as Doc. I/92.

At its meeting held on 30th July, 1947, the Committee decided to request the Polish National Office for additional information regarding the guilt of the accused.

The National Office has now submitted the information required.

On the other hand, a second letter has been received from the J.A.G. Office, dated 29th September, 1947, forwarding the translation of an affidavit containing a statement by the accused in lieu of an oath, which reads:

TRANSLATION. AFFIDAVIT.

"I declare herewith in lieu of an oath:

"I did not cause the arrest of four members of my firm "Ostdruck" Vereinigte Buchdruckerein in Pabianitze/Lodz. On the contrary I did all to have them released. In spite of its being forbidden I granted the Polish workers christmas-gratifications which I paid with money of my own. I was inflicted with disciplinary punishment by the DAF for having treated the Polish workers in the same way as the German workers. So I bought for instance additional food, and when required I granted the workers additional free time within working-hours, in order to make it possible for them to procure food. In my firm at Helmstedt I have billeted the Polish workers in private lodgings in order to save them from living in a camp. Ill-treatment or any such thing never took place in my firm. I did not interfer with listening to foreign radio in my firm. The meaning of an affidavit in lieu of an oath is known to me as well as the consequences of giving a false declaration".

FISCHBEK, 26-8-47. Signed PAUL KNULL. Born 18-8-1915.
Helmstedt/Braunschweig. Rosmarienstr.6.
The above signature was given at my being present.

7058 The Charges.

SD + SIPO & KRIPO

This charge concerns 197 members of the Gestapo, at RADOM and KIELCE. It appears that the various charges are divided as follows:

1-113, 144 A
114-143 S
145-192 ✓

(a) All accused are charged with conspiracy to commit the war crimes enumerated from the war crimes list under I, III, VII, XIII, and XIV.

(b) The accused 1-113 are charged with illegal arrest, and deportation to concentration camps.

(c) The accused 114-197 are charged with membership in the above organisation.

(d) Certain details are given in respect of accused 1, 2, 34, 66, and 69, 86, 87 and 94. These details consist in that it is stated that the names of the above accused appear in documents made by the Gestapo at Radom and Kielce, containing instructions regarding the disposal of the alleged victims in particular cases and showing that the latter had been kept in prison and/or transferred to concentration camps.

The Evidence.

(a) A large number of documentary evidence in support has been submitted, mainly in the German language. For those the Polish National Office states that it contains "affidavits concerning each of the accused, giving details of his criminal activities, and based on the minutes of examinations of the personal dossiers of the inmates of the Gestapo prison in Radom; evidence of a former Gestapo man in Radom (Willy WILHELM) ; copies of arrest warrants and execution orders signed by the accused; and the original description of the organisation's structure, scope of work and ~~duties~~ duties of the Gestapo in Radom as a whole".

(b) For the accused 1-113 it is stated that their signatures appear on a number of documents relating to the detention of persons in the prison at Radom and to their deportation to concentration camps.

(c) For the accused 114-197 it is stated that the witness Willy WILHELM testified to their membership in the Sicherheitspolizei at Radom.

Recommendations.

(a) It is submitted that this Commission cannot deal with the charge of conspiracy to commit war crimes or crimes against humanity, this count having been dismissed by the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg as not falling within the terms of the Nuremberg Charter.

(b) It is also submitted that, until prima facie evidence is furnished regarding the personal guilt of accused 114-197 for specific crimes, it would not be possible to list them for membership in the Gestapo. According to the Judgment of the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg the mere fact of having been a member of an organisation declared criminal is not sufficient to treat the accused as war criminals.

(c) The only accused indicated with sufficient precision as having been at the head of the said Gestapo is accused 144. He could be listed on 'A'.

(d) If the statements regarding the accused 1-113, in particular regarding accused 1, 2, 34, 66, 69, 86, 87, and 94, are considered to provide sufficient prima facie evidence that they had actually been involved in the carrying out of illegal arrests and/or deportation to concentration camps, these accused could be listed on 'A'

(e) The National Office should be requested to supplement the charge in respect of the other accused by submitting statements showing whether the evidence presented contains, as stated, prima facie proof of their personal guilt for specific crimes.

7066 (continued) Note:

All the accused were members of the Gestapo in various parts of France. A large number have already been tried, found guilty and sentenced by the French Courts.

Some were executed, some died during detention and some are serving prison sentences or awaiting the implementation of the punishments pronounced against them when apprehended.

All accused are described as having formed part of an Einsatzgruppe (III), ~~subsidized~~ sub-divided in three Einsatzkommandos.

The sentences pronounced and the notorious criminal nature of Einsatzgruppen make it unnecessary to attempt to establish a specific crime against each of the accused.

In this case their membership is a sufficient prima facie evidence against everyone of them.

No. 1 - 5 years

No. 6 - 10 years
No. 7 - 7 years

A

For accused No. 3 ([illegible]), mis-trial was declared in connection with his serious and continuing illness. Accused No. 9 ([illegible]) committed suicide and no sentence was delivered.

3.9.5

If the National Office wishes to list these accused, those condemned are recommended for 'A'. Pending submission of more direct evidence regarding the personal guilt of accused 3 and 9 they could be listed on 'B'.

For the accused mentioned under No. 10, no names are provided, excepting two individuals for whom it is not stated to which "sondergericht" they belonged. The evidence against them establishes a clear prima facie case of criminal sentences pronounced by each of the respective courts in which they served. Cf. p. 26 of the charge it is stated that they could all be identified and their names supplied. It is suggested that the National Office be requested to do so and that the case be adjourned as far as these accused are concerned.

See Note

5) French Cases.

7068 This case was adjourned in order to classify the accused according to whether there were specific crimes stated against them, or whether they had already been tried and sentenced by the French courts. All such accused are recommended for list 'A'. The rest are recommended for list 'B'.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

NO. 126.
COMMITTEE I.
Meeting on 8th January 1948.

NOTES ON CASES.

(55 (89) cases - 675 persons charged).

By Dr. R. Živković.

1) BELGIAN Cases.

Addenda

W

981 (Addendum 2) Adjourn. No particulars could be found in the main charge or in the first Addendum regarding the alleged criminal execution of the 3 Luxembourg citizens for which the accused is charged. The National Office should supplement this addendum with such particulars in order to enable the Committee to judge upon the guilt of the accused.

✓ 1108 (Add.3): 1-5 on 'A'
(Add.4): On 'W'
(Add.5): 1 adjourn for more particulars, and for qualifying the charge
2 on 'W'

✓ 3173 (Add.2) On 'A'

New Cases.

✓ 7226 On 'A'

✓ 7227 Adjourn. The case should be supplemented with fuller details of the circumstances in which the accused took part in the alleged crimes. Particulars are required to prove that they shared responsibility for the subsequent death of the victims. The wearing of allied uniforms in carrying out counter-espionage can represent an unlawful means of deception and thus represent a war crime in itself. Particulars are required to show which of the accused used this means and in what actual circumstances. As to using Allied nationals as counter espionage agents it is difficult to agree with the thesis of the National Office that it represents a violation of Article 46 of the Hague Regulations. Such act is illegal on the part of the Allied nationals and represents treason.

/ 7228 On 'A'

2) DANISH Cases.

The National Office has submitted the evidence required in respect of 47 cases examined by the Committee on 10th July 1947.

The evidence in support of cases where the accused were listed on 'A' fully justifies the decisions of the Committee. This concerns the following cases:

5715, 5716, 5718, 5720, 5722, 5723, 5726, 5727, 5729, 5730, 5731, 5732, 5733, 5739, 5741, 5743, 5744, 5746, 5748, 5749, 5750, 5751, 5752, 5754, 5755, 5757, 5758, 5759, 5760.

In the following cases the accused were listed on 'S' and should now be placed on list 'A':

5737 and 5756

The following cases were adjourned and it is now recommended that they be decided upon as follows:

5714 on 'A'

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

No. 127.
COMMITTEE I.
Meeting on 9th January 1948.

NOTES ON CASES.

(65 cases - 175 persons charged)

By Dr. J. LITAWSKI.

5699	On 'A'
6233	This case was adjourned on September 4th, 1947, for more information as to facts and evidence in support. It is submitted that the present addendum does not supply such information.
954 (Add.VII)	Adjourn in order to enable the National Office to submit extracts from the report of the accused of May 30th, 1941.
6272 (Add.I)	On 'A'
7244	On 'S' for ill-treatment

✓	7245	Adjourn for further information as to: a) which of the accused personally took part in the punitive expedition, b) on what ground the accused 19-39 have been charged in this case.
✓	7246	Adj. From the particulars of the case and also in view of the official position of the accused it would appear that he cannot be held responsible for the crimes committed.
✓	7247	Adj. It appears that the accused is personally connected only with the crimes alleged under 6 and 10, and with arresting people in some of the other charges. As the shooting of partisans occurred during the fight which was going on between the Liberation forces and the Germans, it is difficult, on the information submitted, to establish whether a war crime has been committed. The National Office should be asked for further information as to circumstances in which these acts were committed.
✓	7248	Adj. Unless the National Office is in the position to establish the responsibility of the accused for some particular war crimes committed, his activities of an intelligence officer cannot be qualified as criminal and the charge preferred against him considered as a prima facie case of a war crime
✓	7249	On 'S'. (The accused has not been connected with any particular crime, and it is not known whether he personally conducted the operations or issued orders to commit the crimes alleged)
✓	7250	On ' A'

5) POLISH Cases.

7150 — This case was adjourned in the meeting of 18th December 1947 for further information necessary to substantiate the responsibility of the sixth accused by indicating the competence and activities of the Holzwirtschaft Department and → in connection with the [illegible] exploitation of Polish forestry.

The Committee also requested that the circular of Göring of 1940 laying down the principles and general policy of economic exploitation in Poland be circulated to members by the Secretariat.

(7150 contd). No additional information has been received from the National Office in regard to the sixth accused.

As regards Göring's circular the following information is submitted:

The circular which provided the clearest definition of the aims and objects of German policy in the so-called General Government was a strictly secret circular issued on January 25 1940 by Govenor General Frank by order of Field Marshal Göring. The latter who was responsible for carrying out the Four Years Plan, literally instructed all the subordinate organs in the General Government inter alia to increase the felling of timber for export to Germany with utter disregard for all the principles of rational forest economy. The relevant paragraph of the circular reads in translation as follows:

> "Forests are to be exploited to the utmost and normal principles of forestry discontinued for the time being, this with the object of providing about 1,000,000 cubic metres of sawn wood, 1.2 million cubic metres of pit-props, and 0.4 million cubic metres of pulp-wood for export to Germany".

It is submitted to list the accused as follows:

1-5 and 7-11 on 'A'
6 on 'W'

7253 On 'A' (Priority Case).

7257 On 'A'

7258 On 'A'

7259 On 'A'

7260 On 'A'

7261 1 and 3 on 'A' for ill-treatment

In regard to accused 2 and 4 as well as to charges of illegal arrests and complicity in murder there is some doubt as to whether sufficient ground exists for accepting the case as it stands. In particular it appears that arrests were carried out by other persons than the accused and that in each case there was some justification for it. As regards trials and sentences passed by the Sondergericht it is doubtful whether in these particular cases the accused could be held responsible as accomplices

7262 The National Office is requested to state on what ground it proposes to consider the alleged crimes as war crimes

7292 On 'A'

7293 1-2 on 'A' for deliberate starvation of civilians.
As to 3-5 the National Office is requested to substantiate the responsibility of these accused for the crimes alleged, especially with regard to their official position.

7352 Adjourn. This case comprises a series of arrests and deportations in direct connection with measures undertaken by the Germans in order to suppress the activities of the French resistance movement. In this respect the case is not supported by evidence showing that the arrested and deported persons were innocent, taking no part in the resistance movement.

There are, besides, several cases of killing members of the resistance movement. These cases should be supplemented with fuller particulars concerning the circumstances in which the killings took place, and, if possible, with the names of those who committed them.

New Cases

7377 On 'A'

7378 On 'A'

7379 The following accused are specifically named by the witnesses, whereas the others are not:
3-4, 16, 18-20, 32, 38-39, 44-46, 54, 60-61, 63-66.
However, since the place of the crimes was an extermination camp, where a very large number of people, including women and children, was murdered, and since all accused, but three (48, 55, 61), were members of the S.S., it is recommended that they all be listed on 'A'.

7380 1-13 on 'A'

7381 This charge deals with the slave labour of Polish citizens. The accused are divided in the following groups:

(a) Chief administrators of the scheme (1-25);

(b) Factory owners who used Poles as slave labour (26-122);

(c) German foremen and overseers (123-139);

(d) Politischer Leiter (140-210);

(e) Arbeiterkolonnenführer (211-297);

(f) Medical officers (298-322);

(g) Personnel of "Stelle O" (323-335);

(h) Other accused (336-374).

At the head of the list is Fritz SAUKEL, who was sentenced to death by the Nuremberg Tribunal and executed.

Charges against accused 1-335 are contained in the statement of witness F. SCHMIER, but no particulars are given as to how the witness learned of the accused's guilt. Neither does the witness describe in more detail specific cases of the accused's criminal activities individually, which he describes in general terms only.

Charges against accused 336-374 are contained in the statement of witness J. TOMASZKIEWICZ, and names of other witnesses are mentioned without extracts from their statements.

All charges can be divided into two main parts:

(a) Charges against accused responsible for the policy and executive operations in using Polish slave labour, which implicate the chief administrators (1-25) and the factory owners (26-122).

(b) Charges against accused who actually ill-treated Polish workers (123-374)

As regards part (a) above, it seems safe to assume that the following bear responsibility for using Poles as slave labour on account of their official position:

2, 4-7, 11-14, 25: A — Forced labour

1, 3, 8-10, 15-24: adj. to —

26-122: S for compl. in forced Labour +

- 1-2, 4-7, 11-14, 25. They could be listed on 'A'. Until submission of more evidence the remainder in this group (3, 8-10, 15-24) should be adjourned.
Factory owners (26-122) could be listed on 'S', pending submission of more details regarding their personal guilt.

123-335: S

As regards part (b), crimes against accused ~~26~~ 123-335 are described in general terms, but are all related to acts of ill-treatment (beating, whipping, torture, "medical" ill-treatment). In face of such evidence there is a choice between 'S' and ~~'A'~~.

336-374: A ✓

Crimes against accused 336-374 are specified individually, so that they can be listed on 'A'.

The accused was actively engaged as liaison between certain Sokol groups whose members he provoked to give away information, & then denounced them to the Gestapo.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.
NOTES ON CASES.
(31 cases - 101 persons charged).

By Dr. R. ZIVKOVIC.

NO.139.
Meeting on Thursday 4th March, 1948.

COMMITTEE I.

1) ETHIOPIAN Cases.

7878 In this case Marshal P. Badoglio is held responsible, in his capacity as Commander-in-Chief of the Italian Forces operating in Ethiopia, for acts alleged to represent deliberate bombardments of hospitals and of undefended places, as well as for the use of poisonous gases and for wanton destruction of religious buildings.

On the face of the evidence submitted it is questionable whether acts incriminated under XXIII (hospitals), XIX (undefended places) and XX (religious buildings) were committed upon the instructions or with the knowledge and consent of the accused, so as to implicate him as personally responsible. In some cases it is also questionable whether bombardments were carried out in such a manner as to amount to the corresponding violations of the Hague Regulations. This can be illustrated with the bombing of the Swedish ambulance on 30.12.1935, described in Appendix I, p.4-11. It should be noted, however, that in regard to clear war crimes, there were trials in which it was declared that, irrespective of whether commanders did or did not issue orders for the commission of crimes, it was their duty to watch over their subordinates and undertake steps to prevent crimes from being perpetrated. The Japanese general Yamashito was convicted on this ground for a series of violations committed by his troops.

Such debatable issues do not stand in regard to the use of poisonous gases, which represent in all cases a clear violation of the laws of warfare when applied by the aggressor, and for which primary responsibility lies upon the Commanders.

It is therefore submitted that the accused can be listed on 'A' on this count.

7879 The accused, General Graziani, is charged with a far larger number of crimes than the accused in the preceding case, and in addition evidence is submitted concerning orders personally issued by him. Orders such as those in Appendix A, d) or Appendix J, b), including among those to be shot without trial individuals "who are suspected of bad faith" or "all chiefs and notables" are undoubtedly of a criminal nature. Cases of massacres of innocent inhabitants are clearly established by evidence furnished by the accused himself (e.g. telegrams in Appendix D under b) and c), p.2), as well as by evidence from other sources (e.g. Appendix E). The use of poisonous gases is admitted by the accused even in respect of the civilian population (e.g. Appendix N.a) and Appendix P a) and b). The evidence submitted warrants the accused's listing on 'A' for the following war crimes, I, III, VII, VIII, XVIII, XX, XXVI. ~~XIII mass-murder~~ pillage

/regarding the massacres in Addis Ababa

7880 No specific charges are laid against the accused. In view of the reference made to the case against Graziani it would appear that the accused is charged for complicity on account of his position (Minister for the ~~Colour~~ Colonies). From the evidence submitted against Graziani it appears that the latter made reports to the accused in connection with the crimes committed. It is, however, not clear whether it was within the accused's competence to interfere with Graziani's command, and if so, whether he did or did not take steps to prevent crimes from being committed. The case should, consequently, be adjourned sine die for lack of evidence.

/in the crimes perpetrated by Graziani

7881 The accused is charged for complicity in the massacres which took place in Addis Ababa in February 1937. No evidence, however, is submitted to prove the accused's guilt. The case should, therefore, be adjourned sine die for lack of evidence.

7882 Part of the evidence submitted shows that the accused was responsible for the summary shooting of "rebels", that is of Ethiopian combatants who did

(ETHIOPIAN Cases Continued)

7882 contd. not surrender as a result of the official end of hostilities in Ethiopia, as proclaimed by the Italian command. Such shootings appear to amount to war crimes. The accused should be listed on 'A' for murder only.

7883 On 'A' for use of poisonous gases (Appendix E). The other evidence is not conclusive enough to prove that the accused's acts amount to war crimes

7884 On 'A' on all counts except XIX.

7885 On 'A' on all counts except XIX

7886 On 'A'

7887 Adjourned sine die. No conclusive evidence is submitted proving the accused's guilt in connection with the alleged crimes.

Addenda.

874 (Add.1) 1 on 'A'
2 on 'W'

884 (Add.2) Adjourn. The National Office is not right in assuming that mere membership in an organisation declared criminal by the Nuremberg Tribunal is a war crime in itself. For the purpose of listing the accused and according to the rules laid down by the Nuremberg Tribunal in its Judgment, it is necessary to submit prima facie evidence showing that the accused knew of the criminal purpose or acts of the organisation or was personally implicated in the commission of specific crimes.

It appears, however, that under Art.10 of the Nuremberg Charter and as a consequence of the rules laid down by the above Tribunal in its Judgment, the Belgian authorities are in any case entitled to bring the accused to trial before the competent court, and that it is up to the court to decide whether it will admit the case on the basis of a presumption of guilt of the accused deriving from his membership in the criminal organisation. It would appear that the effect of a declaration of criminality by the Nuremberg Tribunal is to create such a presumption and to free the prosecution from proving anything else than the fact that the accused was a member of the organisation. In all such cases the accused is entitled and expected to submit evidence disproving the presumption established against him on account of his membership

2096 (Add.1) Both accused have already been listed: 1 on 'A' and 2 on 'S'. The additional evidence submitted does not seem to warrant a revision of the previous decision

POLISH Cases 6067-6158 (By Dr. R. Živković)

6067 Adjourn. The activities of the accused appear to be those of a spy, which does not represent in itself a war crime. However, should the National Office be in a position to prove that the accused denounced innocent persons with a view to cause commission of war crimes against them, the case can be reconsidered.

6068 Adjourn. Information is required as to the nationality of the accused. The case as it stands shows beyond doubt only one point: that the accused prepared lists of persons to be arrested, serving as an agent of the enemy. His connection with actual war crimes committed subsequent to the arrests is not shown.
Consequently, if the accused is of Polish nationality the charge warrants an act of treason and not a war crime.

In the matter of the shooting of Private Casey on the 28th August 1941 at Stalag IV D at Muehlberg in Saxony.

Attached is copy of a note of information as to the circumstances in which Private Casey was shot. The information seems to strengthen the case against the accused since it shows clearly that there was no grave danger such as the existence of an epidemic might be considered to amount to. This is noted without intention to suggest that the use of fire arms would have been justified even if there had been a danger of diphtheria as alleged by the German Authorities.

COMMENT.

BRITISH PRISONER SHOT BY GERMAN GUARDS.

The writer is a repatriated French prisoner, having been wounded in the 1914-1918 war. He risks the censorship to give the following information. (Letter has not previously been censored).

Translation :-

"The prisoners from Crete, 17 officers and 1000 men arrived in August last at the camp at Muhlberg in Saxony in a state of unimaginable exhaustion - 80 days without food. The 3000 French of Stalag IV D spontaneously took steps to help them In all the huts baskets were placed to receive gifts. A few hours later, the French, themselves in a state of extreme privation, had collected an appreciable weight of biscuits, sugar, jam, sardines, tobacco ..... At once Jerry, to stop such fraternisation, decided there was danger of diphtheria, and put the new arrivals in quarantine. In spite of the sentries' rifle shots the exchanges through the barbed wire continued. So it was that a private was killed by a straight shot, at the window of his room. He was called Casey".

Note re UK - G/B52. Commission's Reference ~~176~~/UK/G/52

In the matter of the shooting of Lieutenant Dees on the 25th January 1941 at Oflag VII C/H at Laufen in Bavaria.

Attached is a memorandum from the German Foreign Office dated July 15th, 1941 and a statement of the case by the American Change d'Affaires on behalf of the protecting power.

If the statements contained in these papers be compared with the affidavit of Captain Hussey it will be found that substantial differences exist between them.

It is submitted, however, that whatever may ultimately be found to be the fact the accused cannot escape responsibility.

As regards the Commandant, he was responsible for the issue of an illegal order which was not necessary. Or if it could be argued that it was legitimate it would only have had a legitimate application to the part of the camp which overlooked the road. It could have had no legitimate application to the part of the camp which overlooked the country.

If Lieutenant Dees did in fact look out of the window as both the German account and the American account state was the fact the order was directly responsible for his being shot by the sentry. If on the other hand as Hussey states, he did not lean out of the window, even if the sentry fired in consequence of an error of judgment it must be conceded that he would not have fired but for the order which involves the Commandant though possibly in less degree. That would be a matter for the Court to decide after having examined all the facts.

As regards the sentry the findings of fact would determine the degree of his liability without relieving him of liability.

MEMORANDUM

The Foreign Office has the honor to inform the American Embassy, in reply to the Memoranda of February 18, 1941, No. 552, and of April 16, 1941, No. 2075, regarding the death of the captive British Lieutenant DEES, as follows :

In the prisoner of war camp OFLAG VII C, because of its situation in the immediate vicinity of public traffic roads and dwelling houses, an order was in effect since February 1940, when Polish officers were lodged there, according to which prisoners of war were not allowed to lean out of windows. The guards had orders to act against violations in any given case by making use of their guns.

The captive British Lieutenant Dees, on January 25, 1941, when he leaned out of a window, had been warned by the guard, Corporal Kistler, who shouted at him. As the prisoner did not pay attention to the warning, the guard fired a short as a warning, which hit in the immediate vicinity of the window. When the prisoner remained where he was, the guard fired a second shot, which hit the prisoner and killed him. Criminal proceedings were instituted against the guard on the grounds of use of arms contrary to law, but they were suspended, because the court decided that the defendant in firing the two shots at the prisoner had acted in accordance with the order given him as guard by the commander. The German High Command has rescinded the order obligating the guards in cases like the foregoing to make use of their guns. The camp commander has been dismissed from his post.

IMMEDIATE

RBI - 2734.

The American Charge d'Affaires presents his compliments to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and has the honor to transcribe below the text of a telegram received from the American Embassy at Berlin under date of February 11, 1941 :-

"Regret to state that Lieutenant Dees, British prisoner of war at Oflag VII C/H, was shot by German sentry January 25, 2.30 p.m. and died a few moments later. Embassy representative visited this camp January 30 and learned following details: Fatal shooting followed series of incidents wherein British prisoners infringed strict camp regulations which forbade them from leaning out from camp windows. These incidents were included in camp report dated September last year and communication 172 P.O.W. December six. (Mr. Johnson's note RBI-2265 of January 13, 1941). Tension between prisoners of war and their German guards had been caused as a result of strict enforcement of this regulation but following December visit of Embassy representative during which this regulation was made clear to all prisoners while guards were instructed to shout "zurueck" before firing it was hoped that matter had been settled satisfactorily. On his own admission Brigadier Nicholson however stated that British prisoners New Year's Eve drank too much beer and were rowdy, causing friction with German officers and guards. Early in January prisoners on several occasions taunted guards verbally and placed plates and pieces of paper in camp windows as targets for sentries. Brigadier Nicholson further admits that several days prior to fatal shooting a British officer threw a beer mug at a German sentry, said missile which was potentially dangerous landing within one yard of his feet. Reasons for these incidents which contributed to unfriendly atmosphere at the camp and formed the background of the shooting are believed to be alleged infractions of Geneva Convention by Camp Commander which have been called to attention of Berlin authorities by this Embassy and news of recent British victories in Africa which may have stimulated prisoners and weakened their discipline. Dees was not implicated in any of the aforementioned incidents and was not known personally to the sentry who killed him. January 25 2.30 p.m. Dees was standing at window of third storey lavatory sketching a view of the Bavarian mountains and nearby river, said window commands splendid view and camp Commander has encouraged sketching by the prisoners, having sponsored exhibition of such drawings. Sentry standing in watch tower approximately eighty yards away shouted to Dees"zurueck" and then blew a whistle. His shout and whistle apparently not heard by Dees but were noticed by two British prisoners, Lieutenant Pattullo and Major Seth-Smith, standing courtyard below the window, who called to Dees from a distance of approximately fifty yards. These witnesses add that victim was apparently oblivious to all the warnings. Embassy representative who stood at the window and later in the watch tower and who blew the sentry's whistle is of the opinion that Dees in fact may not have heard the various signals if engrossed in his work and in view of Brigadier Nicholson's statement that at the time of shooting the wind was blowing from the window to the sentry. Sentry believed Dees was leaning out of the window although this opinion not held by the two British witnesses, nevertheless he fired to kill in accordance with his orders. Bullet hit window sill within two feet of Dees who then according to all accounts jumped and leaned well out of the window in an effort to see where the shot struck. This action was definitely a violation of the regulations. Sentry fired a second time, his bullet penetrating Dees' right cheek below cheekbone and passing through back of his head. He fell unconscious and died shortly after. His body was examined by German and British physicians and was accorded suitable burial. Brigadier Nicholson and Brigadier Eden believe Dees was not leaning out of the window at time of first shooting. They with their fellow nationals resent the regulation which they claim provides death penalty for petty infraction and which allows or requires that sentry be judge and executioner. German authorities agree that regulation is severe and advance no argument that it is justifiable, they add however that it is well known and they refuse for reasons of prestige now to rescind it, they state further that sentry performed his duty and will be subject to no penalty. It is obvious from the position of the window and from sketch held in victim's hand at time of his death that prisoner was not attempting escape or to communicate with German civilians. Embassy representative has suggested that light grills be erected at all windows which will admit light and air but will prevent it is hoped repetition of accident. Appropriate regional authorities in Munich have approved suggestion. Similar request being forwarded to Berlin authorities.

On January thirtieth, that is approximately the time of the Embassy inspector's visit to Oflag VII C/H, the Prisoner of War Section of the German High Command telephoned the Embassy for the first time to make a statement regarding the shooting of Lieutenant Dees on January 25. The head of the section stated that standing regulations at the camp prohibited officer prisoners from leaning out of the windows in order to prevent their communication with the civil population in the adjacent street. However, in disregard of such regulations many officers on learning of Italian reverses in North Africa had leaned out of the windows to shout the news to the German passers by in the street below. The German guard had immediately shouted warning but not being able to restore order had sent out a warning shot which hit the camp building, whereupon the officers had drawn back from the window. Lieutenant Dees however, animated apparently by the desire to see what damage the shot had done to the outside wall, had leaned out again, whereupon the guard had shot a second time, hitting him in the head with fatal results. The German officer giving the information by telephone stated that he desired it to reach the Embassy prior to any account from another source. This oral account which was not confirmed by Embassy representative who interviewed camp authorities and British prisoners has not been supplemented by any written communication. MORRIS"

In the matter of reprisals at Oflag IX AH on or about the 30th September 1942 at Spangenburg bei Kassel.

1. It appears that the first accused was promoted to the rank of Field Marshal after the 1940 campaign in France. Though I have not been able to confirm this officially, I have come across it in a book which appears to be accurate.

2. The members of Committee 1 expressed a wish to be supplied with information as to the circumstances of the alleged improper treatment of German P/W on board H.M.T. PASTEUR. I, therefore, attach note embodying the conclusions reached by a Court of Enquiry.

In doing so I respectfully point out that even if the treatment of German P/W on board H.M.T. PASTEUR was open to criticism, it would not justify the reprisals. Article 1 of the Geneva Convention 1924 expressly removes prisoners of war from the field of reprisals. It is submitted, therefore, that there can be no question that the reprisals in Oflag IX AH were illegal. The above information is submitted, therefore, for information and not in the judgment of the National Office as having any bearing on the case.

UK - G/B53.

Note.

With reference to this case of reprisals reported by Major-General V.M. Fortune in consequence of alleged improper treatment of German prisoners of war on board H.M.T. Pasteur, the matter was investigated and a report is available in the Prisoners of War Department.

The court of inquiry was assembled at sea on board H.M.T.Pasteur on March 15th 1942 and was expressed to be for the purpose of investigating and reporting upon the circumstances in which the German prisoners of war on board H.M.T.Pasteur were deprived of personal effects, contrary to Article 6 of the International Convention relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War, Geneva 1929.

Thirteen witnesses were examined, with the result appearing below.

The Court having read the foregoing summarises it in the following report:-

1. It is clearly established by 1st Witness that a search of all P.O.W'S was both urgent and necessary.

2. The method of search does not appear to have been sufficiently controlled, 2nd, 9th, 12th and 13th Witnesses.

3. Sentries do not appear to have carried out their duties where posted, 2nd, 9th and 13th Witnesses.

4. Sentries do not appear to have been posted on 'B' Deck - 5th and 12th Witnesses although 7th and 8th Witness found R.A.F. Police on duty on 'B' deck.

5. Officers' kits from D.1 and D.2 Cells and Guard Room were looted in the main between 10.00 hrs and 11.00 hrs. 12th March - 2nd and 13th Witnesses.

6. Considerable looting took place of these same kits after their removal to 'B' Deck - 7th and 8th Witnesses.

7. The kits of other ranks P.O.W's were looted between 10.00 hrs and 16.00 hrs, 12th March 1942 and looting took place on 'B' Deck - 12th Witness.

Alfred Dagobar BERNDT
Ministerial Director and S.S. Brigadaf'hrer of the Allgemeine S.S.

May 1944

In Brandenburg area

1. Murder of prisoner of war

Breach of Usages and Laws of Warfare and in particular of Article 2 of the Geneva Convention 1929 relating to Prisoners of War.

Murder

In May 1944 near Neu Ruppin, Brandenburg the accused shot and killed an allied airman who was being conducted by a military guard to a police station.

In May 1944 an allied bomber was shot down near Neu Ruppin, Brandenburg, Germany. One of the crew was captured by two Landwacht guards and was being taken by them to the nearest police station. While the airman and guards were on the road they were passed by a large car. The car stopped, the accused, S.S. Brigadef'hrer BERNDT, got out and came up and enquired from the guards whom they had with them. They replied he was an allied airman. The accused returned to his car and fetched a revolver and said he was going to shoot the airman. The two guards protested that the airman was a prisoner of war under military protection. The accused then told the guards to get out of the way and that if they did not he would shoot them as well. The accused then shot the airman with his revolver and killed him.

The evidence in this case at present is the result of interrogation of German prisoners of war. Herewith are -

(1) Report of the interrogation of Obstlt. d. Luftw. E. KILLINGER who was Commandant of Dulag Luft, and

(2) Notes on the interrogation of Gen. Maj. WESTHOFF who was Inspector of Prisoner of War Camps in Germany.

The accused S.S. Brigadef'hrer BERNDT is No. 8 on the United Nations War Crimes Commission List, No. 9 being second list of German War Criminals holding key positions.

The Swiss Government have been requested by the Foreign Office to furnish the name of a witness of the incident the name having been withheld for the duration of the war.

If the facts are substantiated there can be no defence.

The evidence appears to be sufficient to establish the charge and identification, at present not quite clear, is expected to be established by the further witness. In any case the description is such that ultimate identification would seem to be assured.

Report on interrogation of PW 639,
Obstlt. d. Luftw. Erich KILLINGER

SHOOTING OF ENGLISH PILOT IN AREA BRANDENBURG - MAY 43:

Allied airmen shot down over German territory were duly reported to OBERURSEL by the I c of the Luftgau HOMBURG. In one such message it was stated that one (or two) English pilots were to be brought to OBERURSEL. The message went on to say that on the way to OBERURSEL the car with the prisoner or prisoners was overtaken by a lorry and both cars came to a standstill. An SS-Brigadeführer jumped out of the lorry and requested the guards to shoot the prisoners. When they refused, the SS Brigfue, whose name PW believes to have been BEKKER, fetched a revolver from his lorry and shot the prisoner or prisoners himself. PW does not know where this happened but believes that it was observed by local farmers who worked nearby. The I c of the Luftgau HOMBURG, Oberst HUSEN, should be able to give further details, especially regarding the place of the shooting. PW thinks that it could have taken place about 2 years ago. His Adjutant, Lt. BOETTNER, should be able to give further information.

PW thinks that a name he has given in a previous interrogation, that of BRINKMANN, is wrong and should be substituted by the name of BEKKER.

PW reported this message by phone to his superior authorities in BERLIN and later in writing to the Luftwaffen Fuehrungs Stab. Some time later PW went there himself and demanded action to be taken in the case. This was promised but PW never heard anything further.

Although he himself had no right to report the matter directly to GOERING, he requested that this should be done by his superior authority.

PW did not know GOERING personally, but he attended one lecture given by the Marshall at OBERSALZBERG and had seen him on one or two occasions.

Notes obtained on SS Brigadeführer BERNDT.

PW met a Brigaf BERNDT at a conference in the Parteikanzlei where BERNDT was acting as GOEBBELS representative. PW assumes that this is the same man about whom later a report was sent to him as Chef des Kgfw but who was then described as a member of the RSHA.

A report was received by PW (then Chef des Kgfw) from a Camp Comd (PW believes it was from the camp at LUCKENWALDE) stating that 2 Landwacht guards had captured an American (?) airman who had been shot down nr NEU RUPPIN. They were taking him in to the nearest police station, when a large car passed them on the road. The car stopped, and an SS officer, who later gave his name as Brigaf BERNDT, got down, and coming back to the 3 men, asked the guard who they had got with them. They replied that it was a shot down airman. Whereupon the SS offr returned to the car, in which a woman was sitting, fetched his revolver, and coming back said that he was going to shoot the PW. The 2 guards protested, that the PW was under military protection, and stood in front of him, between PW and BERNDT. The SS offr then told them to get out of the way, that he was from the RSHA, and that if they did not move, he would shoot them as well. After the shooting the Landwacht soldiers got the SS offrs name, and made their report.

PW immediately informed AWA of the matter, and at the same time told them that he had reported the case to the RSHA (he cannot state which Abt of the RSHA, as this matter was handled by KRAFT). It was several months before a reply was received, when the RSHA replied as follows: "Es ist festgestellt worden, dass der Mann auf der Flucht erschossen wurde". (It has been established that the prisoner was shot trying to escape.) Here the matter rested. PW also states that he remembers discussing this matter with Assessor SCHOLL of the Auswärtigen Amt and from this he assumes that the matter must have been officially reported by his dept to the Auswartigen Amt. In this case the Auswärtigen Amt would also have received from PW's dept a copy of the RSHA reply. The whole affair would have been handled by Obstlt KRAFFT.

When asked why BERNDT was not at once brought before a military Court Martial, PW states that the Army had no power to bring a SS member before a military court.

Colonel H.A.Wade,
Research Officer,
United Nations War Crimes Commission,
Lansdowne House,
Berkeley Square,
W.1.

Dear Colonel Wade,

At the meeting of Committee I, held on the 14th November, 1946, during the discussion of the Yugoslav charge No.4254 I was requested to put at the disposal of the Secretariat of the Commission our material concerning the Strafgefangenenlager Nord.

I am, therefore, enclosing the following:

(1) A report of our Investigation Team in Oeynhausen of January 23rd, 1946;
(2) A list (of part) of the officials of the Strafgefangenenlager Nord;
(3) 16 Protocols taken by the British Military authorities in Norway with former inmates of this camp;
(4) A copy of a letter of the Czechoslovak Investigation Team in Oeynhausen to A(PW4), HQ, BAOR, dated 21st Jan.46, ref.no.:VZ-17/46 (Czsk).

Even this obviously incomplete material will, I believe, show:
(a) That internments in the Strafgefangenenlager Nord were solely based on sentences of German Civil Courts. The Strafgefangenenlager Nord cannot, therefore, be technically considered as concentration camp. It is further improbable that prisoners of war were held in this camp.

(b) That mainly German subjects were interned in the Straf[illegible]enen-lager Nord. In the letter of the Czechoslovak Investigation [illegible]am in Oeynhausen of 23.1.1946 (Encl.1) under b) it is mentioned that besides there were allied nationals in this camp, amongst whom Czechoslovaks were in majority. The quoted letter speaks of Frenchmen and Poles (not of Yugoslavs) and states that altogether 30 Czechoslovak subjects were interned in Strafgefangenenlager Nord.

c) That the so-called Strafgefangenenlager Nord consisted of a number of separate camps. The material at my disposal shows the names of 13 or 14 such camps. Probably not more than five or six officials were responsible for the central administration, that is to say, for the administration of all camps belonging to the Strafgefangenenlager Nord. The others may have been responsible for the administration of this or that particular camp only.

Czechoslovak citizens were in two or three of these camps. We have, therefore, charged (viz. Czechoslovak charge No.3872)- apart from the persons responsible for the central administration - some of the officials of two or three particular camps only.

More complete than ours is, no doubt, the material of the War Crimes Investigation Branch, British Liberation Forces Norway, Ref.No.WC I/B/670 which is to be found in the hands of A(PS4) HQ, BAOR. From this material, I suppose, one can gather in which of the camps belonging to the Strafgefangenenlager Nord Yugoslav citizens were interned and which officials can be held responsible for the conditions in these camps. It would, therefore, be of some interest for the Committee to see the material mentioned above.

I regret that owing to shortage of staff I am unable to send you translations or at least copies of our material and that I have to ask you to return the enclosures of this letter at a time convenient to you.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. H. Mayr-Harting

Dostavil se ke mně pp. Humphries, britský důstojník War Crimes Investigation Branch, British Liberation Forces Norway, a předal mně 2 obsáhlé spisy a různé volné, obsahující výsledky vyšetřování poměrů v Stre[illegible]lage Nord v severním Norsku.

K věcí informací přikládám: A. Jmenný seznam 36 dřívějších funkcionářů Stre[illegible]lage Nord, z nichž jest 16 usvědčeno z různých zločinů /vraždy a týrání/ proti internovaným členům koncentračního tábora a 20 ze zločinů proti majetku. Většina těchto osvědčení má k tíži ostrovní tábor v nejbližším okolí a tábor na Liebechu, ale mnoho z dalekosáhlých. B. Opisy osudů protokolů, kterými jednotlivé jsou usvědčeni ze spáchání zločinů proti čl. [illegible] příslušným. C. Opis rozsudku vydaného a hledaného jednosloveného, jenž jsem obdržel po studiu spisu britským důstojníkem A./P.S.4/. D. Opisy textu Reporta, který jsem na základě [illegible] sepsal o podrobném výslechu svědka pana [illegible], který se osobně zúčastnil v různých zločinech proti čsl. státním příslušníkům, v tomto ohledu [illegible].

Jmenovaný sdělil mi, že [illegible] odešel, tak mých osob na jiném převzal a zařídil [illegible] ostrovního tábora. Upozornil jsem [illegible], že by, a [illegible] ostrovního tábora. Výsledek [illegible] jsem [illegible], jak [illegible] č. [illegible] vzhledem [illegible] na [illegible] Československa.

V [illegible] přípisu [illegible] tyto informace:

a. V Stre[illegible]lage Nord byli internováni hlavně němečtí pol. vězňové, mezi tolik jiných počet spojenců příslušníků /Francouzů a Poláci/, převážná většina však z nich byli Čechoslováci /asi 30/. To jest vše závod, což britské úřady [illegible] o účasti na [illegible] na [illegible].

Ostatní osoby uvedené na seznamu A se vesměs v této době nacházejí [illegible] vyšetřování. Domnívám se, že čsl. úřady budou míti zájem na jejich vydání a soudní v Československu. Proti [illegible] chatelům dosud neuzavřeným, jejichž vina vyplývá nejlépe z přiložených protokolů, jsou vydány Wanted Reports /příloha D/.

f. Měl jsem další rozhovor s p. soudcem J.A.C., Group-Captain Summerhoff, který poukázal na to, že jest všeobecný zájem právní a britských okupačních úřadů - i úřadů procesně z určitých odborů spravedlnosti - aby těchto vlastní jednou [illegible] soudní. Podnikání jsem přesvědčen na [illegible] a [illegible] čsl. zákonů. Pokud se na [illegible] svědků, budou snad podle mého soudu stačit dosud provedené důkazy a příp. další důkazy by [illegible] v ČSR v těchto svědků, [illegible] v ČSR. Druhá [illegible] podle názoru Group-Captain Summerhoff - [illegible] by měl [illegible] svědků [illegible] - jest, že čs. soudy budou [illegible] stíhané čs. válečné zločiny; v kterémžto případě [illegible] pouze se vydání dosud dopadených pachatelů trestných činů proti čs. státním příslušníkům a v zájmu ujednocení celé procedury by snad bylo zákonno vydání se vydání svědků, kteří by měli původní kompletní soudy budou mít [illegible] k dispozici.

Upozornil jsem na to, že v této otázce nemohu samostatně rozhodnouti a že si musím vyžádati příslušný pokyn svých nadřízených úřadů. Dohodli jsme se pak na tom, že mi oznámím nejdéle do 14 dnů postoj a návrhy našich úřadů. Prosím proto, aby této věci byla [illegible] zvláštní.

Prosím o sdělení: 1. ze výdání kterých v tomto případě uvedených pachatelů mám žádati. 2. souhlasíte-li s postupem mnou navrženým ohledně svědků. 3. má-li býti případné projednáván přímo čsl. soudem hromadně nebo pouze ohledně pachatelů čsl. vál. zločinů.

.: Ja, von dem Obw. Riedel, was ich mit eigenen Augen sah.

.: Wie geschah das?

.: Auf der Arbeitsstelle in Sandvik konnte Paus auf einmal nicht mehr arbeiten und klagte eber Fussschmerzen. Dem Riedel wurde dies von einen anderen Beamten gesagt, dass Paus nur arkieren wurde. Daraufhin ging Riedel zu Paus und forderte ihn auf zu arbeiten und schlug ls dieser den Befehl nicht ausfuehren konnte mit den Gewehrkolben auf ihn ein bis er zu- sammenbrach.

.: Haben Sie die vorstehenden Angaben nach bestem Wissen und Gewissen gemacht und sind Sie ereit dieselben an Eides statt zu versichern?

.: Jawohl, ich versichere dies hiermit an Eides statt.

Dr. Heins Bischoff
Lagerarzt
Strafgefangenenlager Trondheim.

Trondheim, den 16.4.1949.

Bericht ueber die wegen Nicht-Einweisung der Strafgefangenen und ihre Folgen.

Der folgende Bericht erfasst lediglich die Zeit meiner Zugehoerigkeit zu dem Strafgefangenenlager Nord d.h. von 24.Juli 1943 bis zum 11.August 1945. Ich war stets als Lagerarzt eingesetzt und hatte so auf Grund der woechentlichen Gesundheitspolizeilichen und der taeglichen Revierstunden beste und uebergenaue Gelegenheit, mich ueber den rapiden Kraefteverfall sehr wieder und staerker Bevoelkerung, des Ernaehrungszustandes aller Insassen zu informieren. Bereits nach kurzer Zeit ging ich daran, die Ursache hierfuer zu finden, da ich ja alle Anstrengungen machen musste, weitere Erkrankungen fuer zu befuerchtende Todesfaelle gaben zu koennen. In meinem Bereich befanden sich drei Lager mit einer durchschnittlichen Belegung von 800 Strafgefangenen. In den drei Lagern wurden von mir stationaer ohne 3.000 Gefangene und ca 30.000 Ambulante behandelt. Vorherrschend waren Unterernaehrungen mit allgemeiner Koerperschwaeche, Erkrankungen, Lungenentzuendungen, Tbc. Erkrankungen, Nierenentzuendungen erschwerten die Bedingungen im Verhaeltnis zu den pausenlosen, sinnlosen und unmenschlichen Arbeitseinsaetzen von durchschnittlich 12 Stunden viel zu gering zu sein, als dass die Dauer ohne schwerste Folgen fuer die Gesundheit der Gefangenen zu bleiben, sodass ich ///////// eine betruegerische Handlung der Anstaltsbehoerden vermutete. Die Bestaetigung erhielt ich dadurch, dass beim Besuch des Anstaltsvorstandes oder anderen Verantwortlicher ganz andere bedeutend groessere Portionen angegeben und dicker und kalorienreicher gekocht wurde. Da aber haeufig unvermutet Kontrollen durch Lagerbesichtigungen stattfanden, ergibt sich die logische Folgerung, dass saemtliche 28 Tage lang die Gefangenen /// um ihren zustaendigen Verpflegungssatz betrogen wurden. Im Januar 1944 stellte ich den Rechnungsfuehrer Obw.Stoeren deswegen zur Rede und ersuchte ihn um dringend notwendige Verbesserung der Verpflegung. Als einzige Antwort darauf wurde ich von ihm verpruegelt. So erhielten beispielsweise in dem Lager wo ich wirkte (Disziplin) die Gefangenen laufend taeglich woechentlich nachtuber als 10 bis 15 Gramm Butter pro Tag, obwohl ihnen 30 Gramm zustanden. Das warme Essen bestand gleichbleibend in einem duennfluessigen, fettlosen und fleischlosen Eintopfgericht. Dieselben Rationen sollen in den anderen Lagern geherrscht haben. Es leuchtet jedem Laien /// und sachlich denkenden ein, dass bei dieser fuer die menschliche Ernaehrung vollkommen unzureichenden Verpflegung schon bei Ruhe und erst recht bei diesen erhoehten Arbeitseinsatz, ganz zu schweigen von der noch niederdrueckenden psychischen Stimmung die Gefangenen sehr rasch totalen Kraefteverfall bezw. den Tode entgegengefuehrt werden mussten. Wenig bekannt ist, dass diese mangelhafte Ernaehrung und damit verbundene Unterernaehrung durch beabsichtigliche unverantwortliche Verbreitung der Widerstandskraft folgende gehaeuft aufgetretenen Krankheiten, die teilweise fuer den Rest ihrer Leben zu Krueppeln und Leidenden machte, verursachte: Erfrierungen mit Gliedamputationen, Lungenentzuendungen mit Herzmuskelschaedigung, in Folge Verlust saemtlicher bezw. der meisten Zaehne entstandene chronische Magenleiden durch Unterernaehrung entstandene Herzmuskelschwaeche, chronische Nierenentzuendung, Aktivierung von alten tuberkuloesen Prozessen und Knochenbruechen. So gingen allein von 1.200 Strafgefangenen 380 darunter viele Auslaender als Unterernaehrte, total Entkraeftete und Krueppel nach Deutschland, weil Sie fuer einen Arbeitseinsatz fuer lange, bezw. unbestimmte Zeit nie mehr in Frage kamen. Verstorben sind in der gleichen Zeit aus gleicher Ursache etwa 39 Gefangene. Das letzte Opfer des Verpflegungsbetruges war der Strafgefangene Traut im Strafgefangenenlager Dreiwik. Hatten es die Gefangenen nicht unter groessten Schwierigkeiten und Strafen immer wieder verstanden und unternommen, sich Nahrungsmittel auf ihren Arbeitsstellen von Norwegern oder Wehrmachtsangehoerigen zu erbetteln, so waeren noch weitere Hunderte an totaler Entkraeftung verstorben. Viele machten sich aus Hunger der Flucht oder des Diebstahls schuldig und wurden dafuer hart bestraft. Es durfte aber der Diebstahl eines hungernden nicht bestraft werden, solange nicht bestraft wird, einen Menschen hungern zu lassen. Und fuer diese Handlung kamen auf Grund laufender Lebensmittel Diebstaehle Eigentum der Strafgefangenen nach meinem Dafuerhalten folgende Beamte in Frage:

Trondenes, den 16.8.1945.

Es erscheint der Zeuge Dr. Heinz BISCHOFF, geb. am 7.11.1916 in Brockau Kreis Breslau, Staatsangehoerigkeit Reichsdeutscher, Beruf: praktischer Arzt, Wohnort: Sommerfeld/Niederlausitz, Neue Bahnhofstr. 4, Dienstgrad bei der deutschen Wehrmacht: Assistenzarzt der Reserve und gibt folgenden Bericht sowie die anschliessenden Antworten auf Befragen zu Protokoll:

Frage: Warum sind Sie bestraft worden?
Antwort: Wegen Kriegswirtschaftsverbrechen.
F.: Wann kamen Sie zu den Strafgefangenenlagern Nord?
A.: Am 24. Juli 1943 nach Alta Norwegen.
F.: Was fuer einen Bericht haben Sie abzugeben?
A.: Den folgenden: In Oktober 1943 traf der Strafgefangene Kalina /tschechoslowakischer Staatsbuerger/ vom Lager Okselv in einem Sanitaetskraftwagen tot in Alta ein. Es ist anzunehmen, dass die Behandlung im Lagerrevier Okselv keine Rettung mehr bringen konnte. Um sich einer Verantwortung zu entziehen, lud man diesen Schwerkranken bei sicher bereits beginnendem Todeskampf in einen Sanitaetskraftwagen, trotzdem man wissen musste, dass der Tod jeden Moment eintreten konnte. Aehnliche Faelle ereigneten sich in diesem Lager oefters /z.B. der Gefangene Förster im Oktober 1943/. Die einzige Schuld liegt meines Ermessens nur bei dem dortigen Sanitaetsbeamten, Obw. Cremer. Wie weit er die Begutachtung und Behandlungsvorschlaege des dortigen Gefangenenarztes Dr. Tittel beruecksichtigte und anerkannte ist mir nicht bekannt. Jedenfalls waere vielen Gefangenen bei rechtzeitiger Ueberweisung in ein Lazarett, bzw. richtiger Diagnose und umfassender Gegenwartstherapie unter sachlicher Beruecksichtigung der einzelnen, erfahrungsgemaess selten lebensgefaehrlich verlaufenden, Krankheitsformen, das Leben gerettet worden.
F.: Haben Sie ausser den bisher gemachten Aussagen ueber die Zustaende des Lagerreviers Okselv noch etwas zu erwaehnen?
A.: Es war typisch fuer das Lagerrevier Okselv, dass die meisten kranken Gefangenen bereits am Tage ihrer Revieraufnahme verstarben, z.B. Gef. Polet /angebliche Todesursache: allgemeine Koerperschwaeche, Gef. Pawella /tschechoslowakischer Staatsbuerger/ im Oktober 1943 /angebliche Todesursache: allgemeine Koerperschwaeche/. Die bescheinigte Todesursache hatte den die Todesbescheinigung unterzeichnenden Reg. Med. Rat Dr. Thum veranlassen muessen eine genaue Untersuchung und eventuelle strafrechtliche Verfolgung der Schuldigen durchzusetzen, was jedoch nie geschah. Dahinter steckte meiner Meinung nach die starke Beeinflussung durch den Vorstand, O.R.R. Schlager, dahingehend, dass es um diese Menschen ja nicht Schade sei.
F.: War Cremer alleinig fuer diese Zustaende verantwortlich?
A.: In erster Linie ja, allerdings hat er ohne Zweifel unter dem Druck des Hptw. Greve gestanden, der ihn bei selbstaendigem positiven Handeln seines Postens enthoben haette.
F.: War Cremer unmittelbar dem Greve unterstellt?
A.: Als Abteilungsleiter musste er ihm taeglich Meldung ueber Hptw. Zimmermann als Lagerleiter machen, wobei sich bedauerlicherweise Zimmermann auf die Seite von Greve stellte.
F.: Wissen Sie ob Tittel sich ueber den Druck den Cremer auf ihn ausgeuebt hat beschwert hat?
A.: Ich hatte im Lager Aisarvive einmal Gelegenheit ihn zu sprechen und konnte seinen Aeusserungen entnehmen, dass ein ruhiges Verhaeltnis zwischen Beiden nur moeglich war, durch scheinbare oder tatsaechliche Willensbeugung des Tittel.
F.: Haben Sie die vorstehenden Aeusserungen nach besten Wissen und Gewissen gemacht und sind Sie bereit dieselben an Eides statt zu versichern?
A.: Jawohl, ich versichere dies hiermit an Eides statt.

Tro denes, den 18. August 1945.

- Name: W r a m p e Vorname: Karl
Geburtstag u. Ort: 1.7.06 in Detmold in Lippe
Staatsangehoerigkeit: Reichsdeutscher
Letzter Dienstgrad: Gefreiter
Letzte Anschrift: Hannover, Vgg Podbielskistr. 14.
Strafart: para. 175
Strafdauer: 2 1/2 Jahre Zuchthaus
In Norwegen seit: September 1941
Gelandet in Norwegen: 26. September 1942.

Ich erhebe folgende Anklage gegen den Verw. Sekretaer Muckelbauer, Obw. Hans Lang und Obw. Paul Brode wegen Betruges.

Zur Sache: Von November 1944 bis zur August 1945 war ich in dem Straflager Trondenes als Beamten und Gefangenen endlich eingesetzt. Als Gefangener war ich gezwungen, mich den Anordnungen der Beamten zu fuegen. Ein von mir einmalig gemachter Einspruch in Verpflegungsangelegenheiten hatte zur Folge, dass die Beamten mir mit einer Ablosung drohten.
Bei jeder Dekade wurde von der Zentralverwaltung ein Rechnungseinsatz ausgearbeitet in die Lagerkueche gegeben. Dieser Plan war allerdings nur auf dem Papier vorhanden, denn ich durfte fuer die Gefangenen nicht die darin aufgeteilten Lebensmittel verwenden, sondern musste einen grossen Teil dieser den Gefangenen zustehenden Lebensmittel fuer die Speisen der Beamten verwenden. Ganz abgesehen von frueheren Betruegereien will ich nur hier das Lager Trondenes in Betracht ziehen. Der Speiseplan war fuer die Beamten und die Gefangenen in letzter Zeit gleich. Die Gefangenen bekamen allerdings nur eine duenne Eintopfsuppe, waehrend die Beamten taeglich getrennte Gerichte bekamen, ausser vielleicht einmal die Woche eine Eintopfspeise mit den erlesensten Zutaten. Der Zucker wurde den Gefangenen fast vollkommen entzogen. Derselbe wurde fuer die Teufelsbost und fuer Puddings und Kuchen verwandt. Zusaetzlich erhielten die Beamten ausserdem noch Zucker woechentlich in Natura. Allsonntaeglich erhielten die Beamten Kuchen oder Torte, welche selbstredend auch von dem Mehl der Gefangenen gebacken werden musst n. Auch an den Geburtstagen der Beamten wurden die fabelhaftesten Torten gebacken. Obw. Lang meldete allerdings taeglich den Geschaeftszimmer der Zentralverwaltung, dass nach dem Speiseplan auch fuer die Beamten gekocht worden sei, jedoch war diese Meldung jedesmal falsch, da ich ja gezwungen worden war, taeglich getrennt die besten Gerichte herzustellen. Von den dem gesamten Lager von der Marineintendentur am Tage der Kapitulation zugewiesenen erstklassigen Verpflegung in Dosen und ausserdem Schinken und Speck, haben die Gefangenen ausser minderwertigen Krappen, einigen Dosen Oelsardinen und etwas Dosenmilch nichts erhalten. Die ganzen Lebensmittel wurden restlos fuer die Beamten verbraucht. Es ging sogar so weit, dass die Beamten ganze Dosen Butter, Kueratchen, Pakete Kuerfelzucker, Milch ausserdem noch bekamen, damit die Bestaende verringert wurden.
Von der den Gefangenen zustehenden taeglichen Butterration wurde staendig ein Teil zurueckbehalten und den Gefangenen gesagt, dass diese zurueckbehaltene Butter fuer die Speisen der Gefangenen verwendet worden sei. Dieses entspricht nicht den Tatsachen, Wahrheit ist allerdings, dass diese den Gefangenen entzogene Butter fuer die Beamtenspeisen /Braten etc./ verwendet worden ist.
Wir in der Kueche bekamen die ganzen Lebensmittel fuer eine Dekade herunter von der Verwaltung. Es leuchtet natuerlich jedem ein, dass, wenn die Dekade zu Ende war auch diese Lebensmittel zu Ende sein mussten. Tatsache ist, dass noch ein grosser Teil uebrig geblieben war, der dann fuer die Beamten verwendet wurde. Die von der Intendentur fuer das ganze Lager empfangenen Gewuerze wurden auch den Gefangenen entzogen, ausser den weniger wertvollen Gewuerzen wie Knoblauch, Petersilie und Bohnenkraut. Als sich die Gefangenen darueber erregten, dass trotz der gleichen Verpflegungssaetze die Beamten in Saus und Braus lebten, wurde die Beamtenkueche einfach aus der Lager verlegt, damit die Gefangenen das Beamtenessen nicht mehr sehen. Ich wurde nun gezwungen, die Beamtenkueche ausserhalb des Lagers weiterzufuehren und musste ich in noch verschwenderischer Weise kochen. Diesen Anordnungen musste ich mich unter allen Umstaenden fuegen, da Sekretaer Muckelbauer mir mit Arrest drohte und verbat mir, jemals das Lager zu betreten, damit ich den Lager von dem Leben und Treiben der Beamten keine Mitteilung machen konnte.
Die von Obw. Lang gemeldeten und von Sekretaer Muckelbauer abgesetzten ca. 134 kg Zucker sind nicht wie angegeben worden ist, durch Maeuse entstanden durch Steinschlag beim Minensprengen verdorben, sondern im Laufe der Zeit fuer die Beamten verbraucht worden.
Diese obige Aussage versichere ich an Eides statt, indem ich mir der Tragweite einer eidesstattlichen Versicherung vollauf bewusst bin.

Trondenes, den 16. 8. 1945.

Es erscheint der Zeuge Hugo STEINMANN, geb. am 16.11.1910 in Stadtlohn in Westfalen, Staatsangehoerigkeit: Deutscher, Beruf: Bauer und Kontor, wohnhaft: Stadtlohn in Westfalen, [illegible] Nr. 8 und gibt auf Befragen folgendes zu Protokoll:

F.: Wann sind Sie verurteilt?
A.: Wegen fortgesetzter Nachrede und Beleidigung gegen einen Vorgesetzten.
F.: Wann waren Sie in den Gefangenenlagern Norwegens?
A.: Ab 8. September 1942 nach Finnmark.
F.: Gegen wen und weshalb erheben Sie Anklage?
A.: Gegen den ehem. Ernst Greve wegen Terrorisierung und Lebensmittelbetrug, welche Vergehen mehrere Todesfaelle zur Folge hatten.
F.: Wie begruenden Sie Ihre Anklage?
A.: Im Sommer 1943 wurde eine Strassenstrecke zwischen Lavdal und Alsvaag von ca. 12 km neu gebaut, wobei ungefaehr 1.000 Gefangene eingesetzt waren. Die sich beim Bau ergebenden Schwierigkeiten hatten nur durch Anforderung von neuen Arbeitskraeften behoben werden koennen. Statt dessen schaffte Greve, der als Abteilungsleiter die Aufsicht ueber die eingesetzten Gefangenen fuehrte, den Ausgleich durch Mehrarbeit der Gefangenen. Greve forderte 12 und mehrstuendige Arbeitszeit und dabei Arbeitsleistungen, die an das Unmoegliche grenzten. Die Folge war, dass die Gefangenen koerperlich stark herunter kamen und sich nach Einsatzverpflegung sehnten. Statt dessen gab Greve der Kueche in Gefangenenlager Oksely den Befehl, einen Teil der den Gefangenen zustehenden Verpflegung den Deutschen zu geben. Weitere Folge davon: die Gefangenen konnten die Leistungsforderungen nicht mehr schaffen wurden krank und die ersten Todesfaelle stellten sich ein. Der Sommer ging seinem Ende entgegen und die Strasse war noch nicht fertig. Eines Tages brachte Greve auf der Strassenstrecke, wo ich als Kolonnenvorarbeiter beschaeftigt war, mir gegenueber zum Ausdruck, dass die Strasse vor Einbruch des Frostes fertig werden muesse, dabei kaeme es auf einen Toten mehr oder weniger nicht an. Mit allen ihm zur Verfuegung stehenden Mitteln setzte er seine erhoehten Forderungen durch. Die Folge war, weitere Todesfaelle, ungezaehlte Krankheitsfaelle und 200 Gefangene, die koerperlich soweit herunter waren, dass sie auch zu den leichtesten Arbeiten nicht mehr herangezogen werden konnten und dann von Reg.Med.Rat Dr. Thurn als nicht mehr einsatzfaehig nach Deutschland zurucktransportiert wurden.
F.: Welches Sanitaetspersonal koennte den damaligen Gesundheitszustand bezeugen?
A.: 1. die Gefangenenaerzte Dr. Tittel und Dr. Bischoff, 2. die Gefangenensanitaeter Hans Bulgus und Walter Heiler.
F.: Welche Lager kamen fuer diesen Arbeitseinsatz in Frage?
A.: Die Lager Oksely, Vuggenes, Alsvaag, Cimbarassa, Dreidal und Oksberg.
F.: Halten Sie Greve allein fuer diese Folgen verantwortlich?
A.: Ja, ich hoerte unter anderem, wie er zu den Sanitaetsbeamten des Lagers Oksely, Obw. Cremer, aeusserte, dass er wenn irgend moeglich keine Kranken in das Revier aufnehmen solle, sondern alles auf die Strecke zu schicken habe.
F.: Bestand die Belegschaft, die zum Arbeitseinsatz auf dieser Strecke eingesetzt war nur aus deutschen Gefangenen?
A.: Nein, es befanden sich in jedem Lager auch auslaendische Gefangene, im Lager Oksely waren allein ueber 30 Tschechen und mehrere andere Auslaender.
F.: Koennen Sie die Namen von Auslaendern erwaehnen, die erstens an dieser Arbeitsmethode zu Grunde gegangen sind und zweitens auf den "Krueckentransport" nach Deutschland zurueckgesandt worden sind?
A.: Der Tschechische Kaufmann ist dort verstorben; auf dem "Krueckentransport" befanden sich ebenfalls mehrere Auslaender, deren Namen mir jedoch nicht mehr gelaeufig sind.
F.: Welche Schaeden haben diese Krueppel erlitten?
A.: Die genauen Ergebnisse sind mir bei den Auslaendern nicht bekannt, jedoch bestand jede "Kruecke" nur noch aus Haut und Knochen. Als Beispiel moechte ich den deutschen Gefangenen Karl Zirpel anfuehren, der frueher ein erstklassiger Autoschlosser war und nachdem er Kruecke geworden war sich zwar koerperlich wieder erholte, aber seiner Fachkenntnisse vollkommen verlustig ging.
F.: Was ist bis zum Abtransport mit den Krueppeln geschehen?
A.: Sie mussten nach wie vor arbeiten und wer die Arbeit nicht leisten konnte wurde durch Schlaege dazu gezwungen.
F.: Welche Beamten haben sich daran beteiligt?
A.: Die Obw. Matthiessen, Göb, Cremer, Buss, Braun, Erdmann und noch einige andere, an deren Namen ich mich jetzt nicht erinnere. Ich habe die Vorgenannten saemtlichst selbst schlagen gesehen.
F.: War der Greve davon unterrichtet?
A.: Wie mir Beamte /Fast alle vorstehenden/ mitgeteilt haben, wurde das Schlagen durch Greve direkt befohlen um die Arbeit mit allen Mitteln zur Vollendung zu bringen.

F.: Sind Sie der Meinung, daß der Vorstand oberhalb von dem Vorgehen Greves unterrichtet gewesen ist?
A.: Ja, weil erstens der Vorstand, Oberregierungsrat Schlieger und Reg.Med.Rat Dr. Thurn fast wöchentlich die Strecke abfuhren, um sich von dem Fort schreiten der Arbeiten und dem Gesundheitszustand der Gefangenen durch Augenschein zu ueberzeugen. Zweitens, weil die Kruekken zur Zentrale nach Alta geschafft wurden und von dort kraeftige Gefangene dagegen ausgetauscht wurden.
F.: Inwieweit hatten die Lagerleiter diese Zustaende vermeiden koennen?
A.: Vor allen dadurch, dass sie die laufenden Verpflegungsbetruege unterbunden hatten /s.F. Lagerleiter Rptw. Zimmermann und Lager Zuggenen I.Hptw. Hoalbeck/.
F.: Wer war der Koch, der Ihnen die Mitteilungen ueber die Verpflegungsbetruege machte?
A.: Es waren 3 Koeche, die Gefangenen Ernst Stegemann, Theodor Herzt und Johann Meyerheinrich.
F.: Haben Sie die vorstehenden Angaben nach besten Wissen und Gewissen gemacht und sind Sie bereit dieselben an Eides statt zu versichern?
A.: Jawohl ich versichere dies hiermit an Eides statt.

F.: Wann sind Sie verurteilt?
A.: Wegen Diebstahl.
F.: Wann kamen Sie zu den Strafgefangenenlagern Nord?
A.: Am 24. September 1942 nach Bjoervik.
F.: Was wissen Sie ueber die Einstellung des Insp. Bauer, Otto den auslaendischen Gefangenen gegenueber?
A.: Ich weiss, dass Bauer denselben feindlich gesinnt war und unter anderen folgende Aeusserungen machte: "Nachdem nun die Alarmkompanie weggegangen ist, will ich auch die restlichen verlaesslichen Gefangenen einer kurzen militaerischen Ausbildung unterziehen, um ihnen im Bedarfsfalle die Waffe in die Hand zu druecken." Auf die Frage des Strafgefangenen Leopold Goosmann, was denn mit den Auslaendern und den Kruekken werde antwortete Bauer: "Mit diesen machen wir nicht viel Umstaende die werden im Wasser runtergejagt und hinterruecks mit einer Salve niedergemaeht." Diese Aeusserungen machte Bauer am 24.4.1945 auf der Baracke 9 im Lager Trondenes.
F.: Sind Sie der Meinung, dass Bauer diese Massnahme im Ernstfalle durchgefuehrt haette?
A.: Jawohl, er war durch und durch sadistisch veranlagt, was er u.a. damit kundtat, indem er sich aeusserte, er werde in hiesigen Lager das gleiche System einfuehren, wie in Russland in seinen Lagern.
F.: Ist Ihnen bekannt, in welchen Lager Bauer in Russland taetig war und was fuer Methoden er dort angewendt haben soll?
A.: Das Lager duerfte in der Nache von Kiew gelegen haben und die dortigen russischen Kriegsgefangenen hat er, wie er mir selbst sagte, nur durch Fesselung an Haenden und Fuessen, sowie Erschiessungen zur Vollstreckung der Lagerdisziplin gebracht.
F.: Haben Sie die vorstehenden Angaben nach besten Wissen und Gewissen gemacht und sind Sie bereit dieselben an Eides statt zu versichern?
A.: Jawohl, ich versichere dies hiermit an Eides statt.

Arzt, Wohnort: Sarstedt/Kreis Hildesheim, Neue Bahnhofstr. 4, Dienstgrad bei der Deutschen Wehrmacht: Assistenzarzt der Reserve und gibt folgendes zu Protokoll:

F.: Wann wurden Sie verurteilt?
A.: Wegen Kriegswirtschaftsverbrechen.
F.: Wann kamen Sie zu den Strafgefangenen Nord?
A.: Am 24. Juli 1943 nach Alta Bootsmorgen.
F.: Haben Sie dort einen Dr. Titel gekannt?
A.: Ja, ich arbeitete zu der Zeit als er im Lager Oksfjv als Arzt taetig war als Arzt im Sanitaetsrevier Alta.
F.: Wissen Sie wo sich Dr. Titel jetzt aufhaelt?
A.: Soweit mir bekannt in Berlin. Er verbuesste seine Strafe dort in Berlin-Plotzensee.
F.: Warum wurde er verurteilt?
A.: Wegen gewerbsmaessiger Abtreibung zu 7 Jahren Zuchthaus.
F.: Sind Ihnen die Todesfaelle des Lagers Oksfjv bekannt geworden?
A.: Ja, besonders auffallend hier ich war die hohe prozentuale Beteiligung dieses Lagers, die weit ueber das Normalmass hinausging, und der allgemein stark reduzierte Koerperzustand der Gefangenen.
F.: Woher wissen Sie das?
A.: Weil mir die Leichen selbst zu Gesicht kamen und erst bei uns die Einsargung vorgenommen wurde.
F.: Wer war damals Lagerleiter in Oksfjv?
A.: Der Uptw. Zimmermann.
F.: War der Uptw. Greve dann dort?
A.: Das Lager Oksfjv unterstand dem Uptw. Greve als Abteilungsleiter.
F.: Ist Ihnen bekannt, dass Gefangene in Oksfjv an einer Spritze verstorben sind?
A.: Davon weiss ich nichts.
F.: Haben Sie die Leichen obduziert?
A.: Nein, sie wurden auf Anordnung des Regierungsmedizinalrats Dr. Thurn nur oberflaechlich untersucht.
F.: Wie sind die Leichen von Oksfjv angekommen?
A.: In primitiv zusammengeschlagenen Holzverschlaegen und splitternackt.
F.: Woran sind Ihrer Meinung nach die Toten verstorben?
A.: An Unterernaehrung und totaler Entkraeftung.
F.: Wer musste die Todesbescheinigungen ausstellen?
A.: Der Reg.Med.Rat Dr. Thurn.
F.: Kannten Sie den Obw. Theodor Cramer?
A.: Jawohl, er war der Sanitaetsbeamte des Lagers Oksfjv.
F.: Was fuer Spritzen wurden gewoehnlich in den Lagern verabfolgt?
A.: Herzanregungsmittel /Strophantin/.
F.: Benutzte Titel die gleichen Mittel wie Sie?
A.: Nein, soweit mir durch den Strafgefangenen Ernst Stegemann bekannt ist, verwendete er hauptsaechlich Kampferoel intravenoes.
F.: Welche Wirkungen konnten durch eine solche Spritze hervorgerufen werden?
A.: Die Art der Wirkung war abhaengig: 1. von der Dosierung der Spritze, 2. von der Zeitspanne in der das Medikament verabfolgt wurde /zu schnelles spritzen/ und 3. von dem Koerperzustand und Organbefund. Treten diese 3 Faell in falscher bzw. bejahender Form auf, so kommt es zu einer entgegengesetzten Wirkung, in diesen Falle zu einen sofortigen Tod.
F.: Sind Sie der Meinung, dass es noetig sei einen Patienten Fuesse und Haende festzuhalten, nachdem er eine solche Spritze erhielt?
A.: Irgendwelche Hilfe oder Unterstuetzung, z.B. Festhalten der Fuesse und Haende, ist bei einer sachgemaessen Verabfolgung einer solchen Spritze nicht erforderlich.
F.: Wuerde bei unsachgemaesser Verabfolgung der Spritze eine solche Handlungsweise notwendig sein?
A.: Jawohl.
F.: Ist gewoehnlich vor einer solchen Spritze ein Schlafmittel zu geben?
A.: Nein, das ist nicht ueblich.
F.: Wenn einer vorher ein Schlafmittel bekommen hat und eingeschlafen ist, halten Sie es dann fuer moeglich, dass eine Kampferspritze Erregung hervorruft?
A.: Jawohl, das ist ein ursaechlicher Zusammenhang, weil Kampfer ein Antagonist von jeden Schlafmittel ist, je mehr Ueberdosierung, desto staerker die Erregung.

F.: Halten Sie die Verabfolgung von Kampfer bei koerperlich schwachen Menschen fuer angebracht
A.: Nein.
F.: Hat Ihnen der Titel von Spritzen erzaehlt, die er auf Befehl von Gremer verabfolgen musste?
A.: Nein.
F.: Wie sieht eine Kampferoelspritze aus?
A.: Durchsichtig, farblos und oelig.
F.: Ist ein milchiger Satz in der Spritze moeglich?
A.: Ja, bei Beruehrung mit Wasser, ein typisches Zeichen fuer Kampferoel.
F.: Sind Sie der Meinung, dass Kampferoel als toedliche Injektion in Frage kommt?
A.: Ja, ein jedes Gift bei falscher Anwendung.
F.: Haben Sie die vorstehenden Angaben nach bestem Wissen und Gewissen gemacht und sind Sie bereit dieselben an Eides statt zu versichern?
A.: Jawohl, ich versichere dies hiermit an Eides statt.

F.: Wann kamen Sie zu den Strafgefangenen Lager Nord?
A.: Im Juli 1943 nach Alta Norwegen.
F.: Gegen wen und weshalb erheben Sie Anklage?
A.: Gegen den Obw. GSb wegen Misshandlung im Lager Franken im Herbst 1944.
F.: Was ereignete sich dort?
A.: Wir hatten auf einem Arbeitskommando zwischen Franken und Reisewerre Graeben zu schaufeln und hierbei hatte der Strafgefangene Jaroslav Hnik die Frau nicht genug/ zu tun. Er war ein schwaechlicher Mensch. GSb sagte zu ihm er solle mehr arbeiten. Hnik sagte er koenne es nicht. Daraufhin schlug GSb, der keinerlei Antwort duldete mit den Karabinerkolben auf Hnik so ein, indem er dem Kopf, die Arme und den Ruecken mit den Kolben bearbeitete, bis Hnik schwer blutend zusammenbrach.
F.: Haben Sie noch andere aehnliche Vorfaelle beobachten koennen?
A.: Ja, ein bis zwei Tage spaeter schlug GSb den franzoesischen Strafgefangenen Etzel, der sehr schwach war und bereits mehrfach deswegen im Revier gelegen hatte mit einer Schaufel so auf den Kopf und das Gesicht, dass derselbe aus mehreren Wunden blutend zusammenbrach. GSb schlug auch weiterhin auf ihn ein und trat ihn mit den Fuessen. Der Etzel war so schwach, dass ersich nicht mehr erheben konnte. Denn versuchte GSb ihn zur Arbeitsstelle zu schleppen.
F.: Haben Sie solche Vorfaelle noch mehr gesehen?
A.: Ja, GSb schlug einige Gefangene ohne jegliche Unterschiede und erst wenn er Blut sah, war er zufrieden.
F.: Wie weit waren Sie bei den obigen geschilderten Vorfaellen entfernt?
A.: Jeweils ca. 30 m.
F.: Wer hat diese Vorfaelle noch gesehen?
A.: Das ganze Kommando, ich kann mich aber ausser an den Strafgefangenen Gollert an keinen anderen erinnern.
F.: Was geschah, wenn diese Opfer sich krank zu melden versuchten?
A.: Sie wurden nicht in das Revier aufgenommen, bekamen nur einen leichten Verband und mussten weiter arbeiten.
F.: Haben Sie die vorstehenden Angaben nach besten Wissen und Gewissen gemacht und sind Sie bereit dieselben an Eides statt zu versichern?

Frage: Warum sind Sie verurteilt worden?

Antwort: Wegen Vergehens gegen die Volksschaedlingsverordnung.

F.: Wann kamen Sie zu den Strafgefangenen Lagern Nord?

A.: Im Juli 1943 nach Alta Nordnorwegen und von dort sofort weiter nach dem Lager Oksolv. Nach Trondenes kam ich im November 1944.

F.: Gegen wen und warum erhoben Sie Anklage?

A.: Gegen den Hptw. Brünning wegen Schlaegerei gegen den Strafgefangenen Karel Maixner aus Lazni Belohrad, Čechy.

F.: Wann war das?

A.: Gegen Ende Januar 1945 im Lager Trondenes.

F.: Was ereignete sich dort?

A.: Maixner war im Lager mit leichter Arbeit beschaeftigt, weil er bei der Arbeit auf dem Schiff durch einen Sturz verungluckt war. Er fegte den Hof. Als Brünning dies sah kam er aus der Lagerkanzlei heraus und rief zu Maixner: "Du tschechischer Hund ich leine Dich laufen!". Maixner, der nicht schneller laufen konnte wurde daraufhin mit einem dicken Knueppel auf den Ruecken und die Beine geschlagen, sodass er nur noch auf allen vieren kriechen konnte. Brünning schlug ununterbrochen weiter auf Maixner ein. Die Prozedur dauerte ungefaehr 2 Stunden. Dann fiel Maixner vollstaendig um und wurde besinnungslos.

F.: Was geschah dann?

A.: Brünning rief 2 Gefangene, die Maixner in die Baracke 9 des Lagers tragen mussten. Hier liess er ihn ueber eine Bank legen und liess ihn noch 50 Schlaege mit den Knueppel durch den Stubenaeltesten geben.

F.: Waren Sie selbst dabei?

A.: Ja, ich folgte in die Baracke nach, da ich sehen wollte, was weiter mit Maixner geschah.

F.: Haben Sie persoenlich etwas gegen die Schlaegerei unternommen?

A.: Ja- ich ging zu Brünning und sagte ihm, dass Maixner krank sei und er ihn nicht schlagen solle. Darauf sagte Bruenning zu mir: "Du bist genau so ein Tschechenhund, scher Dich weg".

F.: Versuchten Sie sonst noch etwas zu tun?

A.: Ja, erst ging ich zu Obw. Crämer und meldete ihm den Vorfall, da er mein Werkmeister war. Crämer sagte woertlich zu mir: "Das interessiert mich nicht, das ist nicht meine Sache". Dann ging ich in das Krankenrevier zu Hptw. Buchwald um zu fragen ob er schon etwas in der Sache Maixner getan habe. Als ich hoerte, dass das nicht der Fall war bat ich ihn sich Maixner anzusehen, weil er bewusstlos war und einen halbtoten Eindruck machte. Buchwald kam mit dem Gefangenenarzt Bischoff zur Baracke und der letztere gab Maixner 2 Spritzen in beide Unterarme. Daraufhin wurde er in das Revier getragen.

F.: Wie lange war er im Revier?

A.: Ca. 5 Wochen bis zu seinem Abtransport nach Deutschland am 9.3.1945.

F.: Welches waren die Folgen fuer Maixner?

A.: Er hatte grosse Schmerzen und sein Ruecken war so angeschwollen, dass er nicht darauf liegen konnte.

F.: Haben andere Gefangene den Vorfall gesehen?

A.: Alle gefangenen der Baracke 9 und die tschechischen Gefangenen Jan Paus und Karel Masek aus Praha X.

F.: Sind Ihnen noch weitere solche Vorfaelle bekannt?

A.: Bruenning war bekannt als grosser Sadist und ich selbst habe mehrere unbedeutendere Schlaegereien von ihm gesehen.

F.: War Maixner frueher schon nach seinem Unfall im Revier gewesen?

A.: Ja, aber er war vor der endgueltigen Heilung von Buchwald herausgeworfen worden.

F.: Haben Sie die vorstehenden Angaben nach besten Wissen und Gewissen gemacht und sind Sie bereit dieselben an Eides statt zu versichern?

A.: Jawohl, ich versichere dies hiermit an Eides statt.

Trondenes, den 1 .August 1945.

Name: Wiedlacher
Vornamen: Gustav
Geburtstag u.-Ort: .7.01 in Ga[illegible]ruck
Staatsangehoerigkeit: Reichsdeutscher
Letzter Dienstgrad: Pionier
Heimatanschrift: Gablbruck, Hellmichstr. 4.
Strafart: mild[illegible]erlicher Diebstahl
Strafdauer: ein Jahr Zuchthaus
In Norwegen seit: September 1942
Gelandet in Norwegen: 25.September 1942.

Ich erhebe folgende Anklage gegen den Verm.Inspektor Nickelbauer, Ob. Hans Lang und Obw. Paul Brode wegen Betrugs.
Zur Sache: Von November 1943 bis zum August 1945 war ich in dem Straflager Trondenes als Beamten und Gefangenenkoch eingesetzt. Als Gefangener war ich gezwungen mich den Anordnungen der Beamten zu fuegen. Es war mir einmal ein geschickter Einbruch in Verpflegungsangelegenheiten zur Folge, dass die Beamten mir mit einer Ablosung drohten. Bei jeder Dekade wurde von der Zentralverwaltung ein Kochungsplan ausgearbeitet in die Lagerkueche gegeben. Dieser Plan war allerdings nur ein Befehl entweder, dem ich durfte fuer die Gefangenen nicht die darin zugeteilten Lebensmittel verwenden, sondern musste einen grossen Teil dieser den Gefangenen entzogenen Lebensmittel fuer die Speisen der Beamten verwenden. Ganz abgesehen von frueheren Betrugereien will ich nur hier das Lager Trondenes in Betracht ziehen. Der Speiseplan war fuer die Beamten und die Gefangenen in letzter Zeit gleich. Die Gefangenen bekamen allerdings nur eine Suenne Eintopfspeise, waehrend die Beamten taeglich getrennte Gerichte bekamen ausser vielleicht einmal die Woche eine Eintopfspeise mit den erlaubten Zutaten. Der Zucker wurde den Gefangenen fast vollkommen entzogen. Derselbe wurde fuer die Beamtenkost und fuer Puddings und Kuchen verwandt. Ausser sich erhielten die Beamten ausserdem noch Zucker wochentlich in Natura. Allsonntaglich erhielten die Beamten Kuchen oder Torte, welche selbstredend auch von dem Mehl der Gefangenen gebacken werden mussten. Auch zu den Geburtstagen der Beamten wurden die fabelhaftesten Torten gebacken. Obw. Land meldete allerdings taeglich den Geschaeftszimmer der Zentralverwaltung, dass nach den Speiseplan auch fuer die Beamten gekocht worden sei, jedoch war diese Meldung jedesmal falsch, da ich ja gezwungen worden war, taeglich getrennt die besten Gerichte herzustellen. Von den den gesamten Lager von der Marineintendantur am Tage der Kapitulation zugewiesenen erstklassigsten Verpflegungen Dosen und ausserdem Schinken und Speck haben die Gefangenen ausser minderwertigen Dropsen einigen Dosen Oelsardinen und etwas Milch nichts erhielten. Die ganzen Lebensmittel wurden restlos fuer die Beamten /[illegible]/ verbraucht. Es ging sogar soweit dass die Beamten ganze Dosen Butter, Wuerstchen, Pakete Wuerfelzucker, Milch ausserdem noch bekamen, damit die Bestaende verringert wurden. Von der den Gefangenen zustehenden taeglichen Butterration wurde staendig ein Teil zurueckbehalten und den Gefangenen gesagt, dass diese zurueckbehaltene Butter fuer die Speisen der Gefangenen verwandet worden sei. Dieses entspricht nicht den Tatsachen. Wahrheit ist allerdings, dass dieselben Gefangenen entzogene Butter fuer die Beamtenspeisen /Braten etc./ verwandet worden ist.
Hier in der Kueche bekamen die gesamten Lebensmittel fuer eine Dekade herunter von der Verwaltung. Es leuchtet natuerlich jeden ein, dass wenn die Dekade zu Ende war, auch diese Lebensmittel zu Ende sein mussten. Wahrheit ist, dass noch ein grosser Teil uebrig geblieben war, der dann fuer die Beamten verwendet wurde. Die von der Intendentur fuer das ganze Lager empfangener Gewuerze wurden auch den Gefangenen entzogen, ausser den wenigen wertvolleren Gewuerzen wie Zwiebel und Petersilie und Bohnenkraut. Als sich die Gefangenen darueber erregten, dass trotz der gleichen Verpflegungssaetze die Beamten in Saus und Braus lebten wurde die Beamtenkueche einfach von dem Lager verlegt, damit die Gefangenen das Beamtenessen nicht mehr sehen. Ich wurde nun gezwungen in die Beamtenkueche ausserhalb des Lager weiterzufahren und musste /ich in noch verbrecherischer Weise kochen. Diesen Anordnungen ich mich unter allen Umstaenden fuegen, da Sekretaer Nickelbauer mir mit Arrest verbat mir, jemals das Lager zu betreten, damit ich in dem Lager von den Leb der Beamten keine Mitteilung machen konnte.
Die von Obw. Lang gemeldeten und von Sekretaer Nickelbauer abgestempelten [illegible] sind nicht wie angegeben worden ist durch Naesse entstanden durch [illegible] sprengen verdorben, sondern im Laufe der Zeit [illegible]
Diese obige Aussage versichere ich an Eides stattlichen Versicherung vollauf bewusst b

28 JAN 1946 B-16(ii)

Subject: Case No.WC I/B/670
Strafgefangenenlager NORD.

Ref.No.: VZ-17/46/Czsk/

To: A./P.S.4/,
H.Q. British Army of the Rhine,
B. A. O. R.

1. After having studied the case No. WC I/B/670 dealing with War Crimes in the Strafgefangenenlager NORD /penal camp North/, I arrived at viewing the position from the Czsk. War Crimes Standpoint in the following light:

2. There were, at various times more than 30 Czsk. nationals imprisoned in Strafgefangenenlager Nord, the majority for so called political offences.

3. The investigations conducted resulted hitherto in giving clear evidence of the following crimes against Czs . nationals:

A. Murder of the Czsk. national KALINA, very likely another murder of PAVELKA, equally of Czsk. nationality/ viz statement Dr. Bischoff/.

B. 5 cases of serious illtreatments of the Czsk. nationals Karel MAIKNER, Václav MAKRLÍK, Václav Koudelka, Jaroslav HNÍK, Jan PAUS /viz statements of Kantor František, Paus Jan, Philippinski, Makrlík Václav, Hoffmann Adolf, Koudelka Václav, Zapletal Bohuslav, Gellert Paul/.

4. The prison officials implicated in the crime ad 3. A. are: Regierungsmedizinalrat Dr. Thurn, O.R.R. Schlager, Oberwachtmeister Cremer. Their responsibility is laid down in the statement of Dr. Bischoff. As all these 3 above mentioned are still at large, I have made out the respective Wanted Reports.

5. The prison officials responsible for the illtreatment mentioned sub 3.B are, as far as it had been established hitherto: Hauptwachtmeister Bruenning, Stange, Oberwachtmeister Riedel, Fitterer and Göb. As none of these is under detention, I am issuing Wanted Reports.

6. The person, responsible for the general policy which let to the appalling conditions in the Strafgefangenenlager Nord is Verwaltungsinspektor Otto Bauer /viz statement Dr. Bischoff/. His activities and neglects effected all non-german convicts, the majority of whom seems to have been Czechs. This man being already under arrest, is therefore wanted for trial in Czechoslovakia.

7. According to the statement of Hugo Stegemann, the following prison officials are guilty of overwork and slavelabour of the undernourished convicts in Strafgefangenenlager Nord: Hptw. Greve, Ow. Matthiesen, Göb, Buss and the already mentioned Dr. Thurn and Schlager. Of these Obw. Matthiesen is under arrest and he is most likely to be wanted by Czechoslovakia. As to the rest of them, I shall make out Wanted Reports.

8. The statements of Karl Wrampe and Dr. Bischoff give evidence of the fact that the following persons have to be held responsible for repeated thefts of food which was the property of the prisoners, what certainly helped to bring about the deplorable state of health of the convicts: Verwaltungssekretaer Muckelbauer, Obw. Hans Lang, Reese, Hans Mueller, Stöxen, Brill, Pietsch, Senftleben a Reppe// Brands.

Muckelbauer, Lang, Brill, Pietsch, Senftleben are under arrest and likely to be most interesting for Czechoslovakia.

9. It is felt, however, that the whole case needs for the Czsk. War Crimes point of view some clarification in general and that it should be amplified namely as to the implications of the activities ad 7. and 8. on Czsk. convicts. Only 5 Czechs could be interrogated and the rest of them have been repatriated already to Czechoslovakia, where they will be easily available for statements. It is feasible, that these statements will bring to light many new aspects of the case.

10. I am approaching to this intent Czak. authorities, asking at the same time for instructions, whether they are interested in the transfer of the whole lot, what I don't consider very likely with respect to the above sketched legal position, or whether they want only those of them who perpetrated specific Czs. War Crimes.

11. Summary:

A. Of the perpetrators under arrest wanted by the Czak. War Crimes Mission at present: Verwaltungsinspektor Otto BAUER.

After consultation with the Czak. Legal Authorities likely to be wanted: MUCKELBAUER, LANG, BRILL, PIETSCH, SENFTLEBEN, MATTHIESEN.

B. Of those still at large: Wanted Reports issued for CREMER, SCHLAGER, THURN, BRUENNING, RIEDEL, STANGE , GOB, FITTERER.

This list is likely to be extended by further names after completion of statements by Czech witnesses.

12. Will you please notify this mission what further procedure in this case you suggest.

The individuals listed above are guilty of innumerable crimes including murder, systematic terrorism, mass arrests, departations and destruction of property.

The Jugoslav State Commission:

28th August, 1945.

The Italian authorities ruthlessly persecuted the Slav population in the provinces known as Venetia Giulia, Trieste and Istria ever since they acquired them. The forcible denationalisation of Slavs under Italian rule was carried out silently. With the occupation of the western part of Jugoslavia and with the encouragement of the initial successes in this war, the persecution of the Slavs under Italian rule became more cruel. Jugoslavs who were Italian subjects were denied all rights as citizens and were persecuted quite openly. As a result of this Italian policy a large proportion of the Jugoslav population of Venetia Giulia and Istria rose to arms and became an integral part of the Jugoslav Liberation Army. The investigation of the crimes committed by the Italian authorities as a reprisal for the rising of the Slav population under Italian rule is so far incomplete, but from the following instances some idea of the criminal methods employed by the Italians can be derived.

1. On the 4th July 1942, Carabinieri of Pola, acting on the orders of CORTE, arrested 45 Jugoslavs from various municipalities of Istria. Among those who were arrested were: Franc KOMER of PAZIN. Atilij ZOVIC of PAZIN, Viktor MARESIC of PAZIN. On the 14th July the Carabinieri arrested 21 other Jugoslavs from Istria. All these arrests were illegal.

2. Alberto FERRERO, as Commander of the XXIII Army Corps at SNEZNIK (near RJEKA) ordered the execution of an 18 year old boy, Josip VRH. The execution was carried out by shooting in the back, on the 16th July 1942.

On the 18th July 1942, in the course of mopping up operations in the woods of Sighkleno, near SUSAK, three Partisans were captured and shot on the spot in accordance with the orders issued by FERRERO.

3. The Commander of the "NOVARA" Division (name not known) the Commander of the 153 Inf. Regt. (name not known) and the Commander of the 255 Inf. Regt. (name not known) - listed in this charge under 3, 4, & 5 - are responsible for the following crimes:-

Troops of the 153 Inf. Regt. burnt to the ground the house of Antonija LOGAR on the 19th July 1942, at the orders of the Commander of the 153 Inf. Regt.

Soldiers of the 255 Inf. Regt. shot two farmers, Josip INGANO and Ivan PANGARO in the village SEMOZANCE (near Trieste) on the 2nd August 1942 because they were found in the street after curfew. On the same day, soldiers of the same regiment shot an artist, Metodi SIMONI, in the village KRUSEVJE near HRENOVICA. They also shot Alojz KRALJ in the village SERANE and seriously wounded Josip SEVERIN in the village VELIKO BRDO.

4. The Segretario Politico Fascista di Mattuglie (Matulje) near Fiume, who is listed in this charge under 6, is responsible for the following crimes:-

On the 7th July 1942, police agents and carabinieri broke into the house of Jakob BRAJAN in MATULJE where they ill-treated and wounded Viktor BRESCIC and Miro SRAKALIC, students from ZAGREB. The Carabinieri arrested them, together with Joahim JURDENA, and on taking them away, burnt down Jakob BRAJAN's house, on the instructions of the Political Secretary in question.

Evidence is based on captured official documents of the Comando Difesa Territoriale and others, and on the sworn statements of a number of witnesses.

3. The Commander of the "NOVARA" Division (name not known) the Commander of the 153 Inf. Regt. (name not known) and the Commander of the 255 Inf. Regt. (name not known) - listed in this charge under 3, 4, & 5 - are responsible for the following crimes:-

Troops of the 153 Inf. Regt. burnt to the ground the house of Antonija LOGAR on the 19th July 1942, at the orders of the Commander of the 153 Inf. Regt.

Soldiers of the 255 Inf. Regt. shot two farmers, Josip INGANO and Ivan PANGARO in the village SESLJAN (near Trieste) on the 2nd August 1942 because they were found in the street after curfew. On the same day, soldiers of the same regiment shot an artist, Metodi KEKOVI, in the village PRESEKJE near REPENTABA. They also shot Alojz KRALJ in the village STRAZA and seriously wounded Josip SEVERIN in the village VELIKO BRDO.

4. The Segretario Politico Fascista di Mattuglie (Matulje) near Fiume, who is listed in this charge under 6, is responsible for the following crimes:-

On the 7th July 1942, police agents and carabinieri broke into the house of Jakob BRAJAN in MATULJE where they ill-treated and wounded Viktor BRESCIC and Miro BRAKALIC, students from ZAGREB. The Carabinieri arrested them, together with Joahim JURDANA, and on taking them away, burnt down Jakob BRAJAN's house, on the instructions of the Political Secretary in question.

Evidence is based on captured official documents of the Comando Difesa Territoriale and others, and on the sworn statements of a number of witnesses.

28th August, 1945.

The Italian authorities ruthlessly persecuted the Slav population in the provinces known as Venetia Giulia, Trieste and Istria ever since they acquired them. The forcible denationalisation of Slavs under Italian rule was carried out silently. With the occupation of the western part of Jugoslavia and with the encouragement of the initial successes in this war, the persecution of the Slavs under Italian rule became more cruel. Jugoslavs who were Italian subjects were denied all rights as citizens and were persecuted quite openly. As a result of this Italian policy a large proportion of the Jugoslav population of Venetia Giulia and Istria rose to arms and became an integral part of the Jugoslav Liberation Army. The investigation of the crimes committed by the Italian authorities as a reprisal for the rising of the Slav population under Italian rule is so far incomplete, but from the following instances some idea of the criminal methods employed by the Italians can be derived.

1. On the 4th July 1942, Carabinieri of Pola, acting on the orders of CORTE, arrested 45 Jugoslavs from various municipalities of Istria. Among those who were arrested were: Franc KOMER of PAZIN. Atilij ZOVIC of PAZIN, Viktor MARKSIC of PAZIN. On the 14th July the Carabinieri arrested 21 other Jugoslavs from Istria. All these arrests were illegal.

The Jugoslav State Commission:

29th August, 1945.

This charge deals with a number of crimes committed by the Italians during this war against the Jugoslav population in the provinces known as VENEZIA GIULIA, TRIESTE AND ISTRIA.

It is a known fact that the Italian authorities secretly persecuted the Slav population of the above-named provinces long before this war and, after the occupation of regions within the frontier of Jugoslavia proper, they did not even try to hide their policy of terrorism and denationalisation of the Jugoslav minority in Italy. Encouraged by the initial successes of the Axis, the Italian authorities, both civil and military, deprived the Jugoslavs of Italy of all the protection and rights which the latter should have enjoyed in accordance with the treaties. Moreover, the Italian authorities, after the Jugoslavs of Italy rose to arms in consequence of this Italian policy and became part of the Jugoslav National Army of Liberation, applied to the Jugoslav citizens of Italy the same criminal methods which they had employed in the case of the inhabitants of the conquered parts of Jugoslavia proper.

Investigation of these crimes is far from complete and only a fragmentary picture can be provided so far. However, in this charge there are some cases from which some particulars of Italian criminal methods can be collected.

BERGONZI, ZICCAVO and PARRONI of the Difesa Territoriale at Videm (Udine) were especially responsible for introducing, during 1941-42, the same drastic measures against the Jugoslav population of Venetia Giulia as those in force against the inhabitants of Jugoslavia proper. They ordered the shooting of hostages and of members of the Jugoslav Army of Liberation, the burning down of villages and mass deportations. Units under their command committed the following crimes:-

In July 1942, Herman FURLAN of Gozna near VIPAVA (Vipacc) a soldier of the Jugoslav Army, was captured and shot.

On the 21st July 1942, seven Jugoslav soldiers were captured during the mopping up operations in the sector Vipava-Nanos and shot on the spot. Their houses were burnt down on the same day.

On the 24th August 1942, the so-called Partisan SABA, a Jugoslav soldier, was captured and shot.

Between the 10th and 15th September 1942, the squadristi burnt down several houses in the village GRAHOVO near GORIZIA in revenge because seven young Slovenes had joined the Partisans in the woods.

On the 28th and 29th September, 67 relatives in all of those who had joined the Jugoslav Army were arrested and sent to concentration camps.

On the 1st October 1942 a number of families, whose members were with the Jugoslav Army, were deported from the municipality of TRNOVO (Montespino). 17 families were also deported from the municipality of St. Peter near Gorizia (Gorica).

On the 7th November 1942 Franc MASLO and Hedvik MASLO, Jugoslav soldiers, of Monfarte del Timavo, and a woman Partisan were captured and shot.

On the 26th November 1942 about 50 relatives of Partisans were arrested and deported from PODGRAD near Gorizia.

In December 1942 a number of punitive expeditions, so-called "rastrellamenti" were carried out against villages in the area of GORIZIA, TOLMIN, and IDRIA. Houses were burnt down and a number of persons were shot or deported.

On the 5th December 1942, 16 more relatives of Partisans were arrested and deported from the "rastrellamento" areas.

Evidence, now in the possession of the State Commission, consists of the sworn statements of witnesses and captured Italian official documents of the Comando Difesa Territoriale, Udine and others.

JOURNAL DU DROIT INTERNATIONAL (TOME 42 - 1915).

(Par Ed. Clunet)

DE L'APPLICATION DU DROIT PENAL AUX FAITS DE GUERRE.(1)

(par Louis Renault)

Je me propose de rechercher la mesure dans laquelle le droit pénal est applicable aux faits de guerre. Je ne veux pas formuler ici une protestation contre l'ensemble des actes imputables aux armées allemandes et autrichiennes : cette protestation a été produite sous diverses formes et par plusieurs sociétés savantes particulièrement qualifiées pour cela. Je veux faire un exposé tout juridique, en termes très simples, des principales questions à résoudre dans le domaine indiqué par le titre même de cet article. Pour résoudre cet important et délicat problème, je crois qu'il faut la collaboration du droit international et du droit pénal; j'estime que le droit international doit d'abord indiquer les limites dans lesquelles le droit pénal doit ou peut se mouvoir. Il y a, en outre des questions qui tiennent à la technique proprement dite du droit criminel comme celles qui concernent la détermination des juridictions compétentes, de la procédure. Je ne donnerai à ce sujet que des indications sommaires, me considérant pas comme suffisamment préparé pour approfondir ces questions.

Si ce sujet n'a pas, à mon avis, été encore complètement traité, il n'est pas tout à fait nouveau; la plupart des auteurs qui se sont occupés du droit des gens ne manquent pas de faire remarquer qu'il y a bien des actes commis en temps de guerre qui ne doivent pas être considérés purement et simplement comme des "faits de guerre", mais qui peuvent tomber sous les incriminations du droit pénal. Je prends, par exemple, dans les constatations faites par certains auteurs, celle de M. Pérod-Giraud, qui a résumé la doctrine généralement suivie (2) :

"Les actes de pillage, les vols, des dévastations commis par des soldats des troupes ennemies sur le territoire envahi et à plus forte raison sur le territoire occupé sont des actes de brigandage que l'état de guerre ne saurait justifier. Ils sont formellement interdits et punis par les diverses législations.

"Les actes individuels de vol et de brigandage commis par des soldats ennemis n'en conservent pas moins leur caractère criminel, quoique commis pendant la guerre."

Il est bien énoncé par l'auteur qu'il ne suffit pas que des faits soient commis pendant la guerre pour qu'ils échappent à une répression générale pénale. Cependant le problème n'est pas nettement dégagé par lui; il dit bien que ce sont des faits criminels qui doivent être punis, mais par qui? à qui appartient la compétence pour punir ces faits? C'est justement le point essentiel sur lequel j'insisterai, point qui n'est pas indiqué (3)

(3) Un auteur peu lu aujourd'hui et auquel je ne me suis référé qu'après avoir achevé mon travail, Achille Morin (Les lois relatives à la guerre, Paris, Cosse Marchal et Billard, (1873, 2 in-8°), a cependant très nettement aperçu le problème. V. notamment tome, 2 p.436. Les meurtres, blessures, non justifiés par le droit international, sont des actions coupables

Les faits de la présente guerre ont donné à cette question une ampleur extraordinaire, et il n'est pas étonnant qu'on s'en soit préoccupé en différents milieux. Je crois que, malgré tout ce qui a été dit ou écrit à ce sujet, il y a encore beaucoup à faire pour élucider la doctrine et diriger la pratique. Je n'ai pas la prétention d'épuiser le sujet, je me propose simplement de classer les diverses difficultés qui se présentent en indiquant les principaux motifs de décision.

Dans le élements de la question à résoudre, semble entrer la définition même de la guerre. Qu'est-ce donc que la guerre? La meilleure définition en a été donnée non par un jurisconsulte, mais par un militaire, le fameux général Clausewitz : c'est un ensemble d'actes de violence au moyen desquels chaque belligérants cherche à imposer sa volonté à l'autre. Peut-on penser à réglementer de pareils actes, à leur tracer des limites? Sans doute, il est facile de dire inter arma silent leges ou, comme font les Allemands en réponse aux victimes de leurs atrocités, "Krieg ist Krieg." La guerre autorise tout et dispense de toute justification; il suffit d'être vainqueur.

Notre sentiment instinctif de justice proteste contre une pareille doctrine, comme les faits le démontrent. Par exemple, quand, à la nouvelle d'une bataille dans laquelle des milliers de vies humaines ont été sacrifiées de part et d'autre, on éprouve un sentiment de vive douleur, mais c'est un sentiment de douleur simplement, il ne s'y joint pas une irritation, une indignation contre l'adversaire; au contraire, nous apprenons un fait qui a eu pour victime une seule personne, mais nous avons la conviction que ce fait est manifestement injuste, que le droit de cette personne, de cette victime, a été méconnu, nous éprouvons alors une véritable indignation.

Nous apprenons notamment qu'un jeune homme a été fusillé parce qu'il a refusé de trahir sa patrie, d'indiquer où se trouvaient les troupes de son pays dans le voisinage, nous sommes révoltés et nous considérons l'ennemi comme un criminel. Il est évident qu'il y a là chez nous un sentiment de révolte qui nous fait honneur; cela prouve qu'il n'y a pas à tenir compte seulement de l'élément matériel d'un fait, mais de l'élément moral. Je prends le cas du Lusitania : si ce fait a produit une profonde émotion dans le monde entier, c'est moins à cause du nombre des victimes qu'à cause du procédé à la suite duquel elles ont succombé. C'est l'élément moral qui entre alors en jeu, c'est le procédé criminel qui indigne en même temps que le résultat afflige. Le caractère du belligérant qui peut commettre une atrocité de ce genre apparaît dans toute son horreur comme se mettant en dehors des lois de l'humanité. Le nombre et la nationalité des victimes peuvent être des circonstances aggravantes, ce ne sont pas des éléments essentiels.

Dans le réglement de La Haye sur les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, il y a un article 23 qui a une importance capitale :

"Les belligérants n'ont pas un droit illimité quant au choix des moyens de nuire à l'ennemi."

C'est sur ce principe fondamental que repose toute la réglementation du droit de la guerre. Quel compte les Allemands ont-ils tenu de cette disposition dans la guerre sur terre, sur mer, dans l'air? Les rapports faits au nom des commission d'enquête, soit en France, soit en Belgique, soit en Angleterre, répondent à la question dans des termes qui doivent être tenues pour telles par les deux belligérants, par l'armée dont un soldat compromet l'honneur par celle dont un membre a été victime. Il y a lieu de faire une application normale du droit pénal.

que je n'ai pas besoin de rappeler ; ils constatent des faits invraisemblables par leur caractère odieux. Cependant, c'est seulement si l'on tient compte de cette idée essentielle que véritablement l'homme se distingue de la brute et que la guerre peut être considérée comme un événement anormal, mais acceptable dans la vie internationale. Il y a bien longtemps que l'on a fait remarquer que c'est à la condition de l'observation de certaines règles que la guerre pouvait se distinguer de la barbarie. Voici ce que disait Fénelon:

"Il y a les lois de la guerre qu'il ne faut pas regarder moins religieusement que celles de la paix, autrement la guerre ne serait plus qu'un brigandage inhumain, qu'une série perpétuelle d'assassinats, d'abominations et de barbaries."

Cette citation est empruntée à son "Examen de conscience d'un roi". La même assertion peut être répétée dans les mêmes termes, et elle est aussi vraie aujourd'hui qu'elle l'était aux XVIIme. siècle.

On a donc établi des limitations à l'action des belligérants. Sous l'empire de quelle idée? sous l'empire d'une idée très prosaïque, très terre à terre, si l'on veut, mais qui n'en est pas moins juste : c'est que les peuples qui sont exposés à se faire la guerre ont intérêt à se protéger, réciproquement, contre les abus de la force. Tous les Etats risquent d'être engagés dans une guerre; on ne sait pas, le cas échéant, lequel sera le vainqueur, lequel sera le vaincu; du reste, en dehors de la victoire définitive, il y a la victoire temporaire qui peut exister sur tel ou tel point. Eh bien, en vue de cette situation, des risques éventuels, une espèce de société d'assurance mutuelle contre les abus de la force intervient en ce sens que chacun renonce à user de sa liberté dans tel ou tel sens, à la condition que l'adversaire s'engage à agir de même et à se soumettre aux mêmes restrictions. Ce que je viens de dire est la formule même donnée par M. de Martens à La Haye, en 1899; il disait : Nous formons une société, on est libre d'y entrer ou de n'y pas entrer, mais, si on y entre, on en accepte les statuts et on doit en observer les dispositions.

Des règles ont donc été posées. La question - c'est celle qui se présente pour toutes les règles du droit des gens - la question est de savoir quelle en est la sanction. Y a-t-il même une sanction possible? Il n'y a pas de sanction directe et il ne peut pas y en avoir par une raison sur laquelle je reviendrai, parce que je crois qu'elle a été méconnue dans certaines propositions, c'est qu'il n'y a pas de droit pénal possible d'Etat à Etat. A mon avis, un Etat n'a pas le droit de punir un autre Etat, un belligérant n'a pas le droit de punir un autre belligérant (1). Il convient de remarquer le sens dans lequel je prends cela : un belligérant, c'est l'Etat lui-même qui est en guerre. Je pose en principe qu'il n'y a pas de droit de punir possible en pareil cas, parce qu'il n'y a pas de supérieur. Sans doute, fréquemment les Etats parlent de châtiment à infliger à leurs adversaires; c'est une expression qu'il ne faut pas prendre au pied de la lettre et au sens juridique.

On dit : oui, sans doute, il n'y a pas de sanction directe, mais il y a des sanctions indirectes possibles. Quelles sont-elles? La sanction indirecte sur laquelle on a

(1) En ce sens, Achille Morin, op. cit., I, p. 60; Collectivement considérée, aucune nation n'est justiciable de l'ennemi, celui- ci fût-il vainqueur et son chef eût-il voulu se dire haut justicier. Il en est autrement à l'égard de chaque individu personnellement coupable.

compté pendant longtemps d'une manière un peu trop candide, c'est l'opinion publique; on a pensé que, dans cette société que l'on supposait formée entre les Etats civilisés, un associé ne pourrait pas se mettre hors du droit commun par sa conduite sans être immédiatement disqualifié par le membres de la même société; il pourrait se faire que les autres membres ne lui sautassent pas au collet et n'employassent pas les moyens nécessaires pour le mettre directement à la raison, mais encore pensait-on que ces membres exprimeraient un jugement et n'accepteraient pas sans mot dire la violation qui aurait été faite. Eh bien, on a vu comment les neutres se sont conduits pendant la guerre actuelle et avec quelle indifférence les infractions les plus scandaleuses au droits des gens, comme la violation de la neutralité de la Belgique, ont été acceptées par les chancelleries. Dans certains pays, on a poussé l'idée de la prétendue neutralité à garder jusqu'à blâmer les particuliers qui exprimaient leur opinion sur les faits de la guerre et n'hésitaient pas à condamner ce qui leur paraissait répréhensible; on appelait cela la "neutralité morale"; c'est l'immoralité la plus certaine qui était ainsi professée. C'est seulement quand les intérêts directs des neutres ont été directement atteints par la conduite criminelle de certains belligérants qu'ils ont paru s'émouvoir et qu'ils ont cru nécessaire de rappeler qu'il y avait un droit des gens.

Alors, l'opinion publique étant indifférente ou impuissante, quelles sont les autres sanctions indirectes? Ce sont les représailles? Je ne fais ici que les mentionner; nous sommes en dehors du droit pénal, nous sommes même en dehors du droit, quand on parle de représailles, on commet un acte injuste en soi. Il s'agit de savoir si on peut commettre un acte contraire au droit des gens, non pas simplement dans un sentiment de vengeance, mais pour obtenir que la conduite de l'adversaire change et soit désormais conforme au droit des gens. Voilà l'idée de la représaille : c'est un acte injuste qui répond à un autre acte injuste.

Un exemple très significatif va faire ressortir ce caractère des représailles. En 1812, la Grande-Bretagne était en guerre avec les Etats-Unis; il y avait beaucoup d'individus nés dans la Grande-Bretagne, qui l'avaient quitée très jeunes, étaient allés s'établir aux Etats-Unis et s'y étaient fait naturaliser; malgré cela, en vertu de la législation alors en vigueur et qui a subsisté jusqu'en 1870, ces individus étaient restés sujets britanniques au regard de la Grande-Bretagne; en droit, celle-ci pouvait donc regarder comme des traîtres les individus de cette qualité qu'elle rencontrait sur les flottes ou dans les armées américaines. Elle déclara, en effet, qu'elle ne les traiterait pas comme des prisonniers de guerre, mais comme des criminels, par conséquent qu'on les fusillerait. Qu'a fait l'Amérique pour se protéger contre un pareil procédé qui la révoltait? Elle a dit que, pour chaque prisonnier américain qui serait fusillé dans ces conditions-là, on fusillerait trois prisonniers anglais. On ne peut pas dire que l'Amérique aurait fait un acte de justice en pareil cas, elle proférait une menace qui avait pour but de la protéger, mais il s'agissait d'un acte injuste répondant à un autre acte injuste. Cet acte eût été injuste dans le cas particulier surtout, parce que les individus qui en auraient souffert étaient innocents des faits dont on se plaignait. La différence essentielle qu'il y a entre la sanction dont je vais parler et les représailles, c'est que, précisément, les représailles s'appliquent à des innocents; c'est ce que disent et répètent à chaque instant les Allemands, quand ils prennent des mesures contre des villages, où a été commis un acte dont ils se plaignent à tort ou à raison.

Dans quelle mesure alors exercer les représailles? Il n'y a aucune disposition de droit international sur ce sujet. On avait essayé de réglementer la matière à Bruxelles en 1874 et on y a renoncé. Dans des conférences composées de militaires, de diplomates et de jurisconsultes, on fait quelquefois de phrases; on déclara sacrifier les dispositions relatives aux représailles sur l'autel de l'humanité, ce qui n'avait aucun sens, puisqu'on ne supprimait pas les représailles en en supprimant la réglementation.

J'arrive à une sanction directe. Quelle peut-elle être? Cette sanction directe consiste à punir les auteurs des faits commis en violation du droit des gens; je suis alors tout à fait dans le coeur même du sujet. Il n'y a rien là de commun avec les représailles, précisément parce qu'il s'agit de faire oeuvre de justice et de punir des coupables. L'idée générale est extrêmement simple : la plupart des faits de guerre, si on les considère en eux-mêmes et abstraction faite de l'intention qui y a présidé, contiennent tous les éléments de faits criminels; suivant les cas, ce seront des assassinats, des meurtres, qui enlève le caractère criminel, c'est la conformité des actes violents auxquels je viens de faire allusion avec le droit international. Mais qu'arrive-t-il dans le cas contraire, dans le cas où ils ne sont pas conformes au droit international? Qu'arrive-t-il surtout lorsque le droit international réprouve d'une manière formelle ces actes-là? Il reste le fait brutal contenant, comme je le disais, les éléments suffisants pour caractériser un acte criminel au point de vue de l'application du droit pénal. A cela rien de choquant. Il semble qu'un guerrier loyal a intérêt à se distinguer d'un lâche assassin ou d'un pillard. On doit établir une ligne de démarcation entre ceux qui agissent d'une façon violente, mais correcte et ceux qui agissent d'une façon régulière, et ceux qui ne se soumettent à aucune loi.

Il faut remarquer, comme je le disais tout à l'heure, que depuis longtemps, les auteurs reconnaissent en général que des actes de guerre ou plus exactement des actes commis pendant la guerre ne sont pas nécessairement des "faits de guerre" dans le sens technique de l'expression, mais peuvent être des actes criminels. J'ai relevé un certain nombre de passages en ce sens dans le Manuel allemand des lois de la guerre; par exemple, ce manuel énumère une série d'interdictions, comme celles qui concernent l'emploi de certaines armes, le meurtre de blessés incapables de combattre et de prisonniers, le refus de faire quartier à des soldats qui ont déposé les armes et se sont rendus, et il ajoute :

"Quiconque contreviendrait à ces dispositions en serait responsable devant son pays. S'il était fait prisonnier, il serait passible d'un châtiment militaire." (Les lois de la guerre continentale, traduction Carpentier, p. 23)

Ceci est extrêmement important, puisque le texte suppose qu'un militaire allemand qui fait commis les faits énumérés, serait responsable devant son pays, et que, s'il était prisonnier, il serait passible d'un châtiment militaire; c'est qu'on admet qu'il pourrait être puni non pas seulement par l'autorité militaire dont il dépend, mais par l'adversaire. Cette constatation est très importante pour la suite de mon exposé.

Je lis dans le même manuel un passage qui doit paraître d'une amère ironie en présence des faits constatés dans les rapports officiels :

"De ce qui précède, il résulte, en ce qui touche la situation personnelle des habitants du pays occupé, le droit pour eux de n'être pas molestés dans leur corps et dans leurs biens, non plus que dans leur honneur et leur liberté, et le fait que tout meurtre injustifié, toute vexation dolosive ou due à la négligence, toute lésion, tout trouble de la paix domestique, toute atteinte à la famille, à l'honneur, aux bonnes moeurs et, en général, toute attaque ou violence criminelle ou contraire au droit, sont aussi punissables que s'ils avaient pour objet des habitants du pays de l'envahisseur." (op. cit. p. 105.)

Une dernière citation pour finir :

"La propriété privée mobilière, qui était considérée jadis et sans aucune objection comme le butin du vainqueur, est réputée aujourd'hui inviolable. On considère donc comme un vol criminel et punissable suivant les circonstances qui l'ont accompagné, l'enlèvement d'argent, de montres, de bijoux et d'autres objets de valeur."(Op. cit., p. 131.)

Je n'ai pas à rapprocher la pratique allemande des préceptes du grand état-major; je ne fais pas ici de réquisitoire, je me borne à présenter une thèse juridique. Je m'appuie sur le témoignage très significatif du manual allemand pour établir qu'il ne faut pas regarder comme relevant uniquement du droit international et de la morale tous les actes constituant des atrocités; il ne suffit pas de dire "c'est la guerre" pour écarter toutes les accusations; le droit pénal peut intervenir, il s'agit de savoir de la part de qui.

Chaque belligérant a le droit et le devoir d'empêcher ses troupes de commettre des actes criminels, de les punir si elles en ont commis; aucun doute possible à ce sujet; on peut dire qu'il y a même intérêt pour chaque belligérants à ce que ses troupes se comportent correctement. Son droit ne saurait s'arrêter là ; chaque belligérant doit avoir la faculté d'édicter des peines contre ceux qui, dans la sphère de sa compétence, commettent des faits qu'il a le droit de considérer comme illicites. J'appelle l'attention sur ce point, parce que je crois qu'il y a là quelque chose qui vaut la peine d'être relevé. Je dis que chaque belligérant a le droit de punir les faits qui, dans la sphère de sa juridiction, peuvent être considérés par lui comme des faits illicites, et un changement considérable a été produit par l'adoption du Règlement de La Haye. Là se manifeste le lien qui existe et dont je parlais au début, entre le droit pénal et le droit international.

Avant qu'il y eût des règles expresses, des règles écrites sur la conduite de la guerre, je ne crois pas qu'on ait pu soutenir que tout était licite, permis, dans les rapports des belligérants entre eux ou avec la populations des pays ennemis; mais, évidemment, il y avait une part d'arbitraire dans l'appréciation de chacun. Un belligérant pouvait considérer comme rentrant dans sa liberté d'action des actes que l'autre considérait comme excessifs, et alors, si l'un des belligérants voulait punir certains faits qu'il considérait comme excédant les limites tracées par la coutume, il pouvait se voir interdit par l'adversaire qui disait : vous considérez comme criminels des faits que je regarde comme licites; sur quoi vous fondez-vous pour dire que ces faits excèdent la mesure des violences que la pratique, que la coutume admettent pour les belligérants? Il ne pouvait pas toujours être répondu à la question d'une façon absolument précise et décisive. Eh bien, la situation a complètement changé depuis l'adoption du Règlement de La Haye, parce que, avec ce règlement qui édicte certaines injonctions, qui défend certains actes, il y a un criterium convenu, accepté par les deux belligérants et qu'aucun d'eux n'a le droit de décliner. Un belligérant peut dire avec autorité. : Je considère ces faits comme illicites, parce qu'ils sortent des limites qui ont été admises d'un commun accord entre nous. Voilà pourquoi je parlais du lien qui existe entre le droit pénal et le droit international; le droit international ici fixe les limites dans lesquelles peut se mouvoir le droit pénal, et, malgré les critiques acerbes formulées contre le droit écrit en général, le Règlement de La Haye en particulier, il est difficile de nier que celui-ci rende un service appréciable. Là où le droit international constaté par le Règlement condamne certains faits, déclare qu'ils sont illicites, le droit pénal peut librement intervenir. Si l'on allègue que telle disposition est trop vague, peut-on soutenir sérieusement qu'une simple coutume aurait plus de précision et permettrait une notion plus efficace?

Après ces idées générales, un peu théoriques, j'arrive à quelque chose de plus pratique, que j'emprunte à la Convention de Genève, révisée en 1906 (promulguée en France par décret du 30 août 1913, v. texte Clunet 1913, p. 1505), dont l'article 28 est ainsi conçu :

"Les gouvernements signataires s'engagent également à prendre ou à proposer à leurs législatures, en cas d'insuffisance de leurs lois pénales militaires, les mesures nécessaires pour réprimer, en temps de guerre, les actes individuels de pillage et de mauvais traitements envers des blessés et malades des armées, ainsi que pour punir, comme usurpation d'insignes militaires, l'usage abusif du drapeau et du brassard de la Croix-Rouge par des militaires ou des particuliers non protégés par la présente convention.

"Ils se communiqueront, par l'intermédiaire du Conseil fédéral suisse, les dispositions relatives à cette répression, au plus tard dans les cinq ans de la ratification de la présente Convention."

Le rapport fait à la Conférence de Genève commente ainsi cet article :

"On peut supposer des militaires maltraitant ou dépouillant des blessés, se servant des insignes de la Convention auxquels ils n'ont pas droit, pour se protéger ou pour protéger l'endroit où ils se trouvent. Il y a là des actes individuels que chaque gouvernement doit être à même de réprimer. Sans doute certains d'entre eux sont déjà prévus par les divers codes de justice militaire ou le Code pénal ordinaire; il est possible qu'ils ne le soient pas tous, et alors la législation doit être complétée de manière à assurer une répression indispensable."

Ainsi donc la Convention de Genève prévoit une répression pénale pour les actes contraires à ses dispositions; elle ne prévoit pas qu'une loi nouvelle sera faite nécessairement; il pouvait se faire qu'il y eût déjà des dispositions suffisantes dans les législations, mais il pouvait y avoir des lacunes ou des dispositions insuffisantes, et alors il fallait combler ces lacunes et renforcer les législations. C'est ce que nous avons fait par la loi du 24 juillet 1913, qui a eu pour but précisément d'appliquer cet article de la Convention de Genève et, par conséquent, de sanctionner les prescriptions de cette Convention.

Voyons l'application possible de l'article 28. Chaque belligérant doit assurer l'observation de la Convention par ses troupes; c'est la première chose qui se présente à l'esprit, c'est un devoir pour lui, comme je le disais d'une façon générale.

J'ajoute qu'il a aussi le droit d'assurer l'observation des dispositions de la Convention de Genève par les troupes ennemies; il serait singulier, en effet, que, si un fait contraire à la Convention se passe dans sa sphère d'action, il pût seulement punir ses troupes et ne pût pas punir les troupes de l'adversaire qui commettraient le même fait. C'est dans cet esprit qu'a été rédigée la loi du 24 juillet 1913 dont voici l'article 4 :

"L'article 248 du Code de justice militaire est modifié comme il suit :

"Art. 248. - Tout individu qui, dans la zone d'opération d'une force militaire en campagne,

"Dépouille un militaire blessé, malade ou mort, est puni de la réclusion, sans préjudice de l'application du paragraphe final de l'article 248 précédent;

"Exerce, sur un militaire blessé ou malade, pour le dépouiller, des violences aggravant sont état, est puni de mort;

"Commet par cruauté des violences sur un militaire blessé ou malade, hors d'état de se défendre, est puni de réclusion. Les articles du Code pénal ordinaire relatifs aux coups et blessures volontaires, au meurtre et à l'assassinat, sont applicables toutes les fois qu'en raison des circonstance les peines qui y sont portées sont plus fortes que la peine portée au présent paragraphe."

Comme on le voit, "tout individu", c'est une expression assez large qui ne comprend pas simplement les individus qui dépendent de l'armée française, mais encore les individus, militaires ou non, qui agissent dans ses zones d'opérations en commettant les actes qui sont prévus, par suite les militaires ennemis. Il est bien naturel que, pour la répression des infractions commises à son détriment, un belligérant ne soit pas tenu à s'en rapporter à son adversaire.

La même chose se trouve dans l'article 5 :

"L'article 266 du Code de justice militaire pour l'armée de terre est applicable, en temps de guerre avec des puissances signataires de la Convention signée à Genève le 6 juillet 1906 ou y ayant adhéré, à tout individu qui, dans la zone d'opérations d'une force militaire en campagne, emploie publiquement, sans en avoir le droit, le brassard, le drapeau ou l'emblème de la Croix-Rouge ou des brassards, drapeaux ou emblèmes y assimilés en exécution de l'article 16 ci-après. Dans ce cas, les art. 63,64,68 et 198 du même code sont applicables à tout individu, non militaire ni assimilé aux militaires."

Il y a la même expression élastique et très appréhensive que je signalais tout à l'heure.

Dans le Règlement de La Haye sur les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, il n'y a pas de disposition correspondante; on n'a pas prévu le cas où des violations de la Convention seraient commises, et on n'a pas dit que les gouvernements signataires devraient faire des lois répressives dans le cas où leurs législations présentes serait insuffisantes (1). Pour quoi n'y a-t-il rien? Il ne faut pas chercher beaucoup, en ce sens que je crois que simplement on n'a pas pensé à la chose en 1899; en 1907, on aurait pu y penser, parce que l'on avait le précédent de la Convention de Genève, l'article 28, mais, en 1907, on a passé très rapidement sur le Règlement, on a fait des remaniements retouches sur un ou deux points de détail, et cette question de droit pénal, il faut le dire franchement, n'a pas été aperçue. On a bien songé cependant au cas d'inobservation du règlement, mais uniquement au point de vue de la responsabilité civile. L'article 3 de la Convention dit à cet effet : "La partie belligérante qui violerait les dispositions du dit règlement sera tenue à indemnité, s'il y a lieu. Elle sera responsable de tous actes commis par les personnes faisant partie de sa force armée."

(1) On a cité des dispositions du règlement qui ont bien un caractère pénal, mais qui ne rentrent pas dans notre ordre d'idées : art. 30 "L'espion pris sur le fait ne pourra être "puni sans jugement préalable" simple mesure de protection pour écarter les exécutions sommaires; art. 41 "La violation des clauses de l'armistice par des particuliers agissant de leur propre initiative, donne droit seulement à réclamer la punition des coupables et, s'il y a lieu, une indemnité pour les pertes éprouvées." On veut seulement limiter l'effet de la violation individuelle et empêcher que celle-ci ne serve de prétexte à la rupture de l'armistice. Art. 56, al. 2 "Toute saisie, destruction ou dégradation intentionnelle de semblables établissements, de monuments historiques, d'oeuvres d'art et de science, est interdite et doit être poursuivie." Le règlement veut souligner le respect dû aux objets énumérés, en indiquant que le belligérant doit non seulement en interdire la destruction ou la détérioration, mais la poursuivre. C'est donc seulement dans un cas très particulier qu'une pénalité est prévue pour un fait contraire aux prescriptions du règlement.

Il est assez curieux de constater que cette question avait été soulevée en 1874. Il y eut alors à Bruxelles une Conférence sur les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, qui avait été provoquée par la Russie et qui a adopté un projet de déclaration qui a servi de base essentielle au règlement accepté en 1899. Je n'ai pas à rechercher pourquoi la conférence de Bruxelles n'a pas abouti et pourquoi son texte est resté à l'état de projet; mais, dans les procès-verbaux, je trouve qu'un délégué français, le général Arnaudeau, avait émis un voeu tendant à ce que les puissances s'entendissent pour établir la concordance des modes de répression prescrits par leur code militaire et pour rechercher ensemble les bases d'un accord, pour qu'il y eût proportion entre les pénalités édictées pour les violations du droit international. On a trouvé la proposition très intéressante, mais on a pensé que peut-être elle sortait des limites de la compétence de la conférence, et il n'en a rien été de plus. Mais je remarque que, si le général Arnaudeau pensait qu'il y avait lieu d'établir une concordance entre les diverses législations pénales, c'est qu'il considérait comme allant de soi que, le cas échéant, un belligérant pouvait appliquer sa législation pénale à des sujets d'un autre belligérant, sans quoi on ne comprendrait pas l'idée d'une concordance. Si chaque belligérant ne garde que le pouvoir de punir les militaires qui dépendent de lui, il peut les punir comme il veut; ce n'est pas une question internationale, c'est à lui à régler la situation pour son armée en tenant compte de ses propres idées. Je le répète, à mon avis, la proposition du général Arnaudeau impliquait forcément la possibilité de l'application du droit pénal par un belligérant aux soldats de l'autre belligérant.

Je crois donc que, malgré le silence du règlement de 1899, revisé en 1907, il n'y a pas de raison pour écarter l'application du droit pénal à des faits de guerre, et ici je reprends la distinction déjà faite : il est bien certain que chaque belligérant a le droit et le devoir de réprimer les infractions commises par ses troupes, spécialement les faits de pillage. Cela est dit avec insistance dans les Instructions américaines de 1863. Je citerai notamment l'article 47 :

"Les crimes prévus par les lois pénales, tels que l'incendie, le meurtre, la mutilation, les coups et blessures, le vol à main armée, la soustraction, le vol de nuit avec effraction, le faux et le rapt, s'ils sont commis par un soldat américain sur territoire ennemi, contre les habitants de ce territoire, ne sont pas seulement punissables des mêmes peines qu'aux Etats-Unis. Dans tous les cas où ils n'entraînent pas la peine de mort, le maximum de la peine sera appliqué."

Voir aussi dans le même sens les articles 44 et 46.

Un belligérant ne peut-il réprimer également un acte de ce genre commis par des soldats ennemis? C'est là la question. Pourquoi non? A mon avis, il y a exactement les raisons que j'ai indiquées à propos de la violation de la Convention de Genève. J'ai dit que les termes de cette Convention étaient généraux et supposaient que l'application des pénalités à édicter pouvait concerner ceux qui se seraient rendus coupables des infractions prévues, quels qu'ils fussent. On ne peut pas restreindre pour un Etat la possibilité de punir au cas où il s'agit d'individus qui dépendent directement de lui.

Les Instructions américaines sont formelles sur ce point :

"Quiconque blesse intentionnellement l'ennemi déjà réduit complètement à l'impuissance, le tue ou ordonne de le tuer, ou encourage ses soldats à le tuer, sera mis à mort, si sa culpabilité est démontrée, soit qu'il appartienne à l'armée des Etats-Unis, ou qu'il soit un ennemi capturé après avoir commis son crime." (art. 71.)

On reconnaît bien que la juridiction de l'armée à laquelle appartient le délinquant est compétente pour connaître du fait qui lui est reproché, mais l'on semble croire que la compétence de cette juridiction est exclusive et ne se concilie pas avec la juridiction concurrente de l'armée adverse. Si cel était vrai, cela serait très grave, puisque tout le système que je m'efforce de reconstruire serait renversé. Quelle garantie offrirait l'application du droit pénal aux crimes commis en temps de guerre, si cette application ne pouvait être faite que par l'armée à laquelle appartiennent les criminels? On voit que les Instructions américaines sont formelle pour rejeter une telle manière de voir.

La plupart des infractions au Règlement de la Haye peuvent tomber sous l'application du Code de justice militaire ou du Code pénal; il faut, en effet, tenir compte de l'article 267 du Code de justice militaire (1) qui renvoie au Code pénal pour les faits qui ne seraient pas prévus par le Code de justice militaire. Il y a des cas dans lesquels un acte commis en temps de guerre peut constituer un véritable assassinat ou un meurtre, par exemple, un individu a fait signe qu'il se rendait, et, au moment où on va prendre possession de lui, il tue celui qui s'avance; à mon avis, c'est incontestablement un meurtre; on pourrait même dire que c'est un assassinat, parce qu'il a prémédité son acte. Les faits de droit commun rentrent sous l'application du droit pénal (pillages, incendies, coups et blessures, violences) et on peut s'étonner que, dans une proposition de loi, on ait jugé nécessaire de dire que l'article 332 du Code pénal est applicable au belligérant qui aura commis le crime de viol; il n'y a pas besoin de prévoir cet article, à raison de ce que l'article 267 du Code de justice militaire dit qu'on complète ce Code par le Code pénal.

Dans le passé, la question ne s'est jamais présentée bien nettement, pas même, il me semble, pendant la guerre de 1870, où cependant tant d'atrocités avaient déjà été commises; après cette guerre, il y a eu des cas assez rares dans lesquels des tribunaux français eurent à caractériser des faits commis par des soldats allemands, notamment des faits de pillage, pour punir des Français qui s'en étaient rendus coupables. Des habitants, qui avaient aidé les soldats à voler, se défendaient en disant : " c'était la guerre, nous avons cru que tout était permis"; leurs défenseurs ne prétendaient pas que leur conduite fût autrement digne d'approbation, mais enfin ils disaient qu'elle ne tombait pas sous le coup de la loi pénale, parce que le fait auquel ils avaient été associés n'était pas punissable. Les diverses juridictions saisies ont admis qu'il y avait crime ou délit de vol ou pillage dans le fait, par des soldats ennemis, agissant isolément et sans réquisition, d'avoir enlevé par force de la cave d'un particulier les vins et les liqueurs qu'il y tenait enfermés. Si ces militaires ont échappé, par l'effet de l'occupation, à la juridiction des tribunaux français, ceux-ci n'en sont pas moins compétents pour apprécier et qualifier le fait des complices ayant aidé à la perpétration et pour leur appliquer les dispositions pénales qui réprimant les délits commis sur le territoire français (1).

(1) "Les Tribunaux militaires appliquent les peines portées par les lois pénales ordinaires à tous les crimes ou délits non prévus par le présent Code, et, dans ce cas, s'il existe des circonstances atténuantes, il est fait application aux militaires de l'article 463 du Code pénal."

Je parlais tout à l'heure des faits - les plus nombreux et les plus pratiques - qui peuvent rentrer sous l'application du Code pénal ordinaire, je songeais au fait du Lusitania et à des faits analogues. Tout le monde a pensé que, véritablement, il n'y avait pas là un fait de guerre normal, mais comment le caractériser? Immédiatement (cela a couru dans les journaux) on a dit : c'est un fait de piraterie, ce sont des pirates! Cela a eu beaucoup de succès, parce que le mot "pirates" est une expression infamante désignant des criminels qui opèrent sur mer; mais cela n'a vraiment pas de sens en droit; la piraterie est le brigandage maritime. Ce n'est pas un acte de brigandage que commettent les sous-marins qui, sans avis préalable, font sauter des bâtiments de commerce; ils ne se proposent pas une déprédation. Si nous voulons appliquer le droit pénal, il faut l'appliquer tel qu'il est, nous ne pouvons pas l'appliquer en le déformant. Je crois, d'ailleurs, que l'incrimination pour assassinat serait absolument fondée; dans l'espèce, les commandants du sous-marin ont, en dehors des règles du droit des gens, sacrifié des vies humaines, ils ont tué d'une façon préméditée; tous les éléments de l'assassinat sont réunis; il n'est pas besoin d'une incrimination spéciale (2).

Pour certains faits, même odieux, il y a quelquefois doute. J'en indique un, parce que j'ai été étonné de voir des criminalistes autorisés avoir des scrupules à ce sujet : c'est le fait par des officiers, des soldats allemands, de mettre devant eux des civils pour leur servir de bouclier. A mon avis, c'est un des faits les plus odieux qu'on puisse imaginer. Sec-que le droit commun suffit pour le réprimer? Je sais qu'on a hésité à admettre l'incrimination. Les journaux ont bien annoncé que des individus inculpés de faits de ce genre étaient poursuivis devant un conseil de guerre; mais on n'en a plus entendu parler. Il me semble qu'il ne faudrait pas mettre beaucoup de bonne volonté pour faire rentrer cela dans l'assassinat ou dans le meurtre.

Il est très possible qu'il y ait d'autres faits odieux, contraires au règlement de La Haye et qui ne tomberaient pas sous le coup d'une disposition du Code de justice militaire ou du Code pénal. Il faudrait un travail très prolongé, pour passer en revue tous les faits graves prévus par le règlement de La Haye et voir si nous trouvons, pour chacun d'eux, dans notre législation une disposition pénale correspondante.

Pour l'application même de la législation existante, il y a un point très délicat qui vaut la peine qu'on y réfléchisse. J'ai dit qu'il faut appliquer le Code de justice militaire complété par le Code pénal; dans le

(1) Trib. corr. des Andelys, 6 mai 1871 : "Si une cause de force majeure paralyse la poursuite à l'égard des auteurs principaux, le fait de vol n'en existe pas moins avec son caractère et ceux qui ont aidé à le préparer ou à le consommer n'en sont pas moins coupables" - Rouen, le 16 juin 1871 : "Les actes auxquels D.. a été prêté son concours, accomplis en dehors de toute réquisition par des soldats agissant isolément, ne constituent en réalité que des faits de pillage réprouvés et condamnés par les lois de toutes les nations civilisées." La Chambre criminelle a rejeté, par arrêt du 15 décembre 1871 (S. 1872 1.46); le pourvoi interjeté contre cet arrêt. Si, en fait, après la guerre, les soldats auteurs principaux avaient été sous l'action de la juridiction française, celle-ci aurait été incontestablement compétente pour les juger.

(2) Cf. Clunet, la guerre maritime à l'allemande et la piraterie, le "Temps", 28 mars 1915.

Code de justice militaire, il y a d s dispositions d'ordre divers : certaines ne peuvent s'appliquer qu'à de militaire français, celles, par exemple, qui prévoient la désertion ou bien l'insulte aux supérieurs; il y en a qui, d'une manière générale, peuvent être appliquées à toute personne, parce qu'elles ne font aucune allusion au caractère du délinquant, comme celles que je citais plus haut, qui visent "tout individu". Enfin, il y a des dispositions qui frappent des faits commis par des militaires de peines plus fortes que celles qui résultaraient du droit commun.

Art. 248, al.3 :
"Est puni de la peine de la réclusion et, en cas de circonstances atténuantes, d'un emprisonnement d'un an à cinq ans, tout militaire qui commet un vol au préjudice de l'habitant chez lequel il est logé."

Art. 250 :
"Est puni de mort, avec dégradation militaire, tout pillage ou dégât de denrées, marchandises ou effets, commis par des militaires en bandes, soit avec des armes ou à force ouverte, soit avec bris de portes et clôtures extérieures, soit avec violences envers les personnes.
"Le pillage en bande est puni de la réclusion, dans tous les autres cas.
"Néanmoins, si, dans les cas prévus par le premier paragraphe, il existe parmi les coupables un ou plusieurs instigateurs, un ou plusieurs militaires pourvus de grades, la peine de mort n'est infligée qu'aux instigateurs et aux militaires les plus élevés en grade. Les autres coupables sont punis de la peine des travaux forcés à temps."

Voilà donc des faits punis plus gravement parce qu'ils sont commis par des militaires! Quel est ici le sens du mot "militaires"? S'agit-il de militaires, quels qu'ils soient, ou seulement de militaires français? Je pose la question qui peut paraître délicate, parce que deux considérations en sens contraire se présentent à l'esprit. Le Code de justice militaire a été fait pour l'armée française; quand ce Code parle de militaires, on doit supposer tout naturellement qu'il s'agit de militaires français. Mais la raison qui, en fait, l'emporterait probablement, c'est qu'il n'y a pas de motifs pour qu'on soit plus indulgent pour les militaires ennemis que pour les militaires français. (1) Je crois que la question n'a pas été prévue par les auteurs et je ne sais si les tribunaux ont eu à s'en préoccuper.

Une proposition de loi a été faite au mois de janvier 1915 sur le sujet que je traite ici; elle est soumise à la commission de législation de la Chambre des députés. Le titre en est un peu compliqué :

(1) Un ami, particulièrement compétent en la matière, me dit que la question est tranchée par les art. 17 et 56 dern. parag. du Code de justice militaire qui assimilent les prisonniers de guerre à des militaires. Ces articles ne statuent, il est vrai, que sur la compétence et la composition du conseil de guerre; mais, d'après l'art. 196, le Tribunal compétent applique aux militaires et aux individus assimilés aux militaires les peines prononcées par les lois militaires.

"Proposition portant application des articles 23, 25, 27, 28, 44, 46, 47 des conventions internationales, signées à La Haye les 29 juillet 1899 et 18 octobre 1907, concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre et des articles 1er. et 2 de la Convention internationale signée à La Haye le 18 octobre 1907, concernant les droits et devoirs des puissances et des personnes neutres en temps de guerre sur terre."

Cette proposition est très touffue, elle peut donner lieu à diverses critiques dont j'indiquerai quelques-unes, mais elle a un point de départ excellent en ce que l'auteur affirme nettement qu'il n'y a pas besoin de créer pour l'Etat le droit de punir en pareil cas.

"Point de doute sur le droit, pour l'Etat français, de poursuivre et de punir sur son ennemi les violations des lois de la guerre. - L'objet de cette proposition n'est donc pas de conférer à l'Etat un droit qu'il a incontestablement, mais de donner à ce droit comme base, non plus le seul vouloir d'un Etat, mais l'accord international d'où sont résultées les conventions de 1899 et de 1907 sur les lois et coutumes de la guerre, de mettre au point à cet effet notre législation pénale et de renforcer certaines pénalités manifestement insuffisantes."

Comme je l'ai fait remarquer, il est possible qu'il y ait des lacunes à combler dans notre législation pour atteindre tous les faits répréhensibles commis par des militaires au mépris du droit international, qu'il y ait aussi à renforcer des pénalités reconnues insuffisantes par suite de l'expérience, que même notre loi du 24 juillet 1913 ait besoin d'être revisée à ce point de vue. Il y aurait à se livrer à un travail d'ensemble très délicat, très minutieux, et, par suite, assez long. Je répète que notre législation, telle qu'elle est, permet d'atteindre la plupart des faits dont nous avons à nous plaindre.

Est-il nécessaire de faire actuellement cet effort pour certains faits qui peuvent ne pas être prévus ou être insuffisamment punis? A mon sens, ce serait inopportun et même très dangereux; voici pourquoi : ce serait une législation qui aurait l'air d'être faite ab irato. Il y aurait cet inconvénient de permettre la confusion entre notre législation normale en vertu de laquelle nos conseils de guerre agissent dès à présent et cette législation nouvelle. Nos adversaires confondraient tout et diraient aux neutres : voyez, on poursuit nos soldats, nos officiers en vertu d'une législation bâtie de toute pièces, faite sous le coup de l'irritation produite par les événements de la guerre; cette législation ne saurait avoir aucune valeur morale. Je trouve donc qu'il serait très fâcheux à plus sure points de vue de légiférer en ce moment; de plus, si la législation appliquée aux actes de guerre peut avoir l'air d'être une législation nouvelle, elle semblerait ne pouvoir concerner que les faits commis depuis la promulgation de cette législation même, tandis que, du moment que c'est en vertu du droit commun que nous agissons, nous avons le droit de sévir contre les faits qui se sont produits depuis le commencement de la guerre, sans qu'il y ait rétroactivité.

Je conclus donc : il n'y a qu'une difficulté matérielle pour l'application de nos lois pénales aux actes contraires au droit des gens commis par des militaires ennemis, à savoir de constater ces actes et d'en identifier les auteurs, mais c'est une difficulté de fait et non une difficulté juridique.

La Convention de Genève parle de la répression des actes individuels commis en contravention à ses dispositions; il y a là une qualification essentielle à mon avis, sur laquelle je dois insister, parce que c'est plus du droit international que du droit pénal. Au contraire de ce qui semble avoir été l'opinion de M. Engerand, il faut distinguer avec soin la responsabilité pénale et la responsabilité politique. J'ai dit au début qu'un Etat n'a pas le droit d'en punir un autre, que le droit de punir ne s'exerce pas d'Etat à Etat. Dans la terminologie politique, on parle bien de punir son adversaire, de lui faire subir un châtiment exemplaire, ce sont là de pures phrases, des mots, des images, qui ne répondent à aucune idée juridique; le droit de punir ne saurait exister en pareil cas. Au contraire, l'article 2 de la proposition de M. Engerand est ainsi conçu :

"En temps de guerre avec des puissances signataires de la Convention internationale signée à La Haye, le 18 octobre 1907, concernant les droits et devoirs des puissances et des personnes neutres, la pénalité du paragraphe premier de l'article 236 du Code de justice militaire pour l'armée de terre (abus d'autorité) est applicable au belligérant qui aura intentionnellement fait passer sur le territoire d'une puissance neutre ses troupes ou ses convois soit de munitions, soit d'approvisionnements."

On comprend l'article 236 réprimant un grave fait d'indiscipline, celui d'un chef militaire qui, sans provocation, ordre ou autorisation, dirige ou fait diriger une attaque à main armée contre des sujets alliés ou neutres, qui commet un acte d'hostilité sur un territoire allié ou neutre. Mais cela n'a rien de commun avec la situation prévue dans la proposition de loi.

Va-t-on poursuivre les officiers qui, par ordre de leur gouvernement, amènent leurs troupes sur le territoire neutre? Qui est seul responsable en pareil cas? C'est évidemment le gouvernement qui a ordonné de violer la neutralité; la responsabilité politique, engagée au premier chef par la violation flagrante du droit des gens, se double-t-elle d'une responsabilité pénale? Cela me paraît bien hardi. Il est vrai que même un jurisconsulte, ou du moins je le suppose tel (il s'agit d'un auteur anonyme), dans un article intéressant, publié dans la "Revue d'Edimbourg" du mois d'octobre 1914, termine son article de la manière suivante :

"L'invasion de la Belgique n'était pas "un acte de guerre", mais un "acte criminel".

Il se place bien au point de vue juridique.

"Et les nations du monde doivent chercher les moyens de faire que les auteurs d'un tel acte soient jugés et punis.(1)

Ce sera peut-être le droit de l'avenir, d'un avenir que je ne verrai pas, mais, quant à présent, si nous voulons appliquer des règles de droit, je dois dire que je ne comprends pas le fonctionnement du droit pénal en pareil cas.

Il y a pourtant un précédent, c'est ce qui s'est passé récemment en Angleterre à propos du Lusitania. Le crime commis contre le Lusitania a été l'objet d'une enquête et le verdict du juge nous est rapporté dans les termes suivants :

"Ce crime effroyable viole le droit des gens et les conventions de tous les Etats civilisés.

"Nous portons donc contre les officiers du sous-marin allemand, contre l'empereur et le gouvernement de l'Allemagne qui leur en ont donné l'ordre, l'accusation d'assassinat en bloc."

C'est conforme à l'opinion exprimée dans cet article de la "Revue d'Edimbourg." Le jury a considéré qu'il y avait ou un fait criminel, et il est remonté dans les responsabilités jusqu'au chef responsable; mais j'avoue que, dans le domaine du droit positif, du droit actuel, je ne me sens pas autorisé à exprimer une opinion dans ce sens. J'ajoute qu'il ne faut nullement considérer ce verdict comme un acte d'accusation devant donner lieu à des poursuites. C'est une simple manifestation, une satisfaction donnée à l'opinion publique.

J'aborde un autre ordre d'idées : il sera bien difficile de saisir les auteurs des actes criminels, même dans le cas où on les aurait identifiés. On sait que des troupes allemandes ont passé dans tels villages, qu'elles étaient commandées par tel chef qui a ordonné ou qui a laissé faire, on nomme les chefs dans le rapport qui a été fait au nom de la commission d'enquête organisée par le gouvernement, il y a un certain nombre de généraux même qui sont indiqués. (V. dans l'intéressant ouvrage de Léon Vacano, "Les Cruautés allemandes", réquisitoire d'un neutre, l'énumération contenue aux pages 286 et suivantes.) Ces chefs, ces généraux, on ne les a pas en son pouvoir, comment faire? Ce n'est plus à mon avis une question de droit, c'est plutôt une question d'opportunité. On ne peut pas leur mettre la main dessus pour les juger contradictoirement, mais ne pourrait-on pas les poursuivre par contumace? On en a parlé dans la presse à plusieurs reprises, et M. Engerand le suppose, mais il tire de la condamnation par contumace qui pourrait intervenir des conséquences qui ne me semblent pas admissibles. Il y a eu, il n'y a pas longtemps, à la Société d'Economie sociale, une discussion dans laquelle on a parlé de cette question, mais, je le répète, à mon avis, c'est une question d'opportunité; du moment où nous avons le droit de juger certains faits, nous pouvons les juger par contumace aussi bien que contradictoirement; la reconnaissance du droit de punir doit avoir les mêmes conséquences.

Maintenant, y a-t-il utilité à procéder de cette façon-là et à prononcer des condamnations par contumace qui sembleraient illusoires? Il est permis d'en douter. On pourrait peut-être ordonner une information de manière à relever des preuves dont on se servirait le cas échéant. Sous quelle forme s'en servirait-on? Ici encore se pose une question très délicate qui a été également agitée à la Société d'Economie sociale : est-ce que les questions que nous agitons en ce moment se présenteront après la paix comme elles se présentent aujourd'hui? Sans doute, après la paix, il y aura parfois plus de facilité matérielle pour recueillir des preuves, ordonner des informations, entendre des témoins qui aujourd'hui n'osent parler, etc.. D'autre part, on a fait allusion à une clause qui ne se trouve pas toujours, qui se trouve souvent dans les traités de paix, qui n'est pas toujours formulée de la même façon (1) et dont on exagère parfois la portée; je veux parler de la "clause d'amnistie", d'après laquelle chacun des belligérants renonce à incriminer les actes de son adversaire ou ceux qui ont pris parti contre lui. Il y a des cas dans lesquels cela se comprend très bien, par exemple dans les anciennes guerres contre la Turquie; une portion du pays se soulève contre son souverain légal et fait cause commune avec l'envahisseur; le souverain légal rentre en possession du territoire momentanément envahi par son adversaire; alors le souverain légal est tenté, quand il le peut, de sévir contre ses sujets infidèles; il faut remarquer que ce ne sont pas toujours des sujets déloyaux au sens absolu du mot, que les plus nobles sentiments ont pu les inspirer, mais enfin, au point de vue du souverain légal, ce sont des sujets infidèles et criminels. On conçoit alors que l'adversaire ne veuille pas abandonner purement et simplement aux vengeances de l'autre belligérant ceux qui l'ont servi. Voilà de quelle façon s'explique la clause d'amnistie pour des faits politiques, des actes de rébellion; cela n'a rien de commun avec l'ordre d'idées dans lequel je me place actuellement, et je souhaite vivement pour mon compte qu'il n'y ait pas de clause d'amnistie dans un sens absolu. Il est difficile de soutenir qu'il suffit que la paix internationale intervienne pour que le voile soit jeté sur toutes les horreurs dont nous avons été victimes, parce que, à mon avis, ce n'est pas simplement en ce qui nous concerne, c'est en ce qui concerne le monde entier, que la proclamation de l'impunité serait immorale et scandaleuse. Conçoit-on les auteurs de certaines atrocités libres de venir sans risque sur le théâtre de leurs forfaits? Ce serait un bien grand sacrifice imposé par la politique à la justice et à la morale.

(1) Traité de Prague (1866) entre l'Autriche et la Prusse :Aucun habitant des Duchés de Holstein et de Slesvig et aucun sujet de l'Empereur d'Autriche et le Roi de Prusse ne seront poursuivis, inquiétés ou repris dans leur personne et leurs biens pour leur conduite politique pendant les derniers événements et pendant la guerre." (Art. 10.)
Traité de Francfort (10 mai 1871) : "Aucun habitant des territoires cédés ne pourra être poursuivi, inquiété ou recherché dans sa personne ou dans ses biens à raison de ses actes politiques ou militaires pendant la guerre." (art. 2.)

Il y en a qui sont tellement pénétrés de cette idée que j'ai reçu, il y a déjà longtemps, une lettre d'un homme pour lequel j'ai grande estime et qui proposait que, dans le traité de paix, on eût une clause par laquelle nous exigerions la remise des principaux coupables. Je ne vois vraiment pas un gouvernement, même vaincu, consentant une pareille clause; ce serait l'abdication de toute dignité, d'autant plus que, presque toujours, c'est par ordre supérieur que les infractions au droit des gens ont été commises. J'ai trouvé la proposition excessive tout en comprenant le sentiment qui l'a inspirée. Je le cite, parce qu'elle montre bien à quel point les hommes affamés de justice, révoltés de ce qui s'est passé, désirent que les monstruosités dont les Français et les Belges ont été victimes ne restent pas impunies.

Y a-t-il une sanction internationale possible? Je ne donne pas de solution pratique, d'autant plus que je suis ici en dehors du sujet très délimité que je me suis proposé de traiter. Mon confrère et collègue, M. André Weiss, dans un article paru dans le "Temps" (numéro du 1er mai 1915), penserait à une sanction internationale qui serait une condamnation pécuniaire obtenue dans certaines conditions.

J'indique en quelques mots l'opinion très ingénieuse de M. Weiss. Il part de l'art. 3 de la convention de La Haye sur les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, qui, à la demande de la délégation allemande, a posé ces deux règles que la partie belligérante qui violerait les dispositions du règlement sera tenue à indemnité, s'il y a lieu, et qu'elle sera responsable de tous actes commis par les personnes faisant partie de la force armée. Il oppose que la responsabilité pécuniaire ainsi consacrée ne crée aucun rapport de droit entre l'Etat qui en est tenu et les particuliers dans l'intérêt duquels elle existe. C'est à l'Etat dont ils relèvent à faire valoir leurs griefs contre l'Etat débiteur et à réclamer pour eux une indemnité. Cette indemnité peut être stipulée dans le traité de paix, indépendamment de l'indemnité de guerre proprement dite; à défaut d'une entente, il y aurait recours à un arbitrage et ce serait la solution préférée de M. Weiss : "Il suffit pas, en effet, de faire supporter à l'Allemagne vaincue la rançon matérielle de ses crimes, sous forme de contribution pécuniaire. Il importe que le monde civilisé connaisse les procédés de cette guerre auxquels elle a eu recours, et qu'il en assure l'horreur. Cette publicité nécessaire, cette publicité vengeresse sera la meilleure sanction du droit des gens insulté." Je fais remarquer que, dans cette proposition que je ne discute pas, il ne s'agit pas d'une peine à infliger, mais d'une réparation pécuniaire à obtenir.

Je rentre dans le domaine du droit pénal et j'arrive à une des questions les plus délicates, soulevées par ce fait que les inculpés, en pareil cas, peuvent alléguer et allèguent ordinairement qu'ils ont agi par ordre. Dans certains cas, cela pourra être invraisemblable, mais, dans certains cas, cela pourra être vrai. Il y a tout d'abord une question de preuve : suffira-t-il d'alléguer qu'on a agi par ordre? Faudra-t-il en rapporter la preuve? J'ai vu dans des documents qui sont passés sous mes yeux la mention d'un fait qui va souligner cela : une ville belge avait été occupée par les Allemands et reprise par les Belges; ceux-ci alors se saisissent notamment de celui qui gouvernait pendant l'occupation allemande et lui reprochent tels et tels actes qu'il a commis; ce qu'il y avait de plus grave peut-être était le fait que l'on avait pris, comme cela a eu lieu dans certaines de nos villes, en grande partie la population mâle adulte et qu'on l'avait emmenée en Allemagne.

L'officier allemand aurait répondu en niant la plupart des faits reprochés; le dernier, il l'avouait en disant : oui, c'est contraire au droit des gens, je le sais bien, je suis docteur en droit, aussi n'ai-je voulu faire cela que sur l'ordre formel du général gouverneur de Bruxelles. Eh bien, était-il punissable, L'affirmative ne va pas sans difficulté. Il y a, en cette matière, deux considérations dont il faut tenir compte. La première, c'est que la discipline militaire est une chose absolument indispensable, que l'on ne peut pas admettre que des soldats, des sous-officiers, même des officiers, discutent les ordres qui leur sont donnés, parce qu'ils ne peuvent pas toujours se rendre compte de l'illégalité de ces ordres. Il ne faut pas croire que la connaissance des divers textes de La Haye est répandue dans les armées, comme elle devrait l'être (peut-être aurait-on bien fait de s'en occuper un peu plus) et, par conséquent, il peut se faire, dans beaucoup de cas, que, de très bonne foi, les subalternes aient cru qu'ils n'avaient qu'à obéir et qu'ils agissaient correctement en le faisant.

Puis, il y a autre chose : quand même, le cas échéant, les subalternes seraient convaincus de l'illégalité de l'ordre qui leur est donné, cela suffirait-il pour les rendre punissables? Il faut tenir compte de ce que le subalterne n'a pas la faculté d'obéir ou de ne pas obéir, il agit sous une contrainte immédiate, il sera souvent exécuté sur le champ s'il n'obéit pas, ou, dans tous les cas, il sera exposé à une peine grave. Il peut alors invoquer le fait de la contrainte prévu par les diverses législations. (Voir art. 64 de notre Code pénal). Ainsi se trouve singulièrement réduite, en fait, l'étendue d'application du droit pénal à de tels actes de guerre.

Je sais bien qu'alors, en présence de difficultés de ce genre, on se moque des jurisconsultes qui les signalent, on dénonce la fâcheuse tendance que nous avons en France à jouer le rôle de dupes, on se plaint qu'on invoque en faveur de nos détrousseurs tantôt des subtilités juridiques, tantôt une sorte de sensibilité qui ne sert que contre nous et n'est jamais invoquée qu'à notre détriment. Eh bien, il faut s'expliquer sérieusement : ces reproches ne me touchent pas du tout, ils n'ont aucune valeur et voici pourquoi. On dit :

ce sont des bandits, contre des bandits tout est permis. Oui, c'est possible, mais ne dites pas, en vous affranchissant des règles juridiques ordinaires, que vous faites de la justice, vous ne devez pas confondre les deux choses. Agissez par représailles, si vous voulez, je ne dis pas que vous aurez tort; vous ne serez pas en dehors du droit des gens, vous serez en dehors du droit pénal, mais, si vous prétendez appliquer ce droit, faites-le en vous conformant à ses principes; vous ne pouvez condamner un individu dont la culpabilité individuelle n'est pas établie d'après les règles ordinaires; la violence et l'arbitraire prennent un caractère particulièrement odieux, si on leur met un masque judiciaire, si on a l'air de faire de la justice, quand en définitive on n'en fait pas.

Par conséquent, je crois que les jurisconsultes et les magistrats doivent s'en tenir très fermement à l'application des principes du droit; puis, si cette application des principes du droit n'est pas suffisante pour donner une légitime satisfaction à l'opinion publique irritée des atrocités commises, les autorités compétentes peuvent employer d'autres moyens. Il n'y a pas une option à faire entre l'application du droit pénal et les représailles; les deux choses peuvent parfaitement se combiner. Vous appliquez le droit pénal dans le cas où vous saisissez les auteurs des actes illicites, où vous pouvez établir leur responsabilité; cela ne vous empêchera pas de recourir à ce moyen extrême des représailles dont j'ai signalé le caractère grave, de manière à ce que l'effet voulu soit produit, à ce que l'ennemi soit détourné de continuer les procédés dont on se plaint; mais, je le répète, il ne faut pas faire de représailles au moyen de la justice; ce serait la pire chose qu'on puisse imaginer, ce serait nous déconsidérer.

Il reste un dernier ordre de questions qui est encore plus de la technique juridique que ce que je viens de dire jusqu'à présent; le droit pénal entrant en jeu pour des faits de guerre, qui sera chargé de l'application? Quelles seront les autorités compétentes? S'il s'agit de faits commis sur le territoire français, à mon avis, il n'y a pas de difficulté; l'autorité française est compétente jure loci. Supposons les faits commis à l'étranger; je n'hésiterais pas à dire qu'il faudrait distinguer suivant qu'il s'agit de faits commis dans la zone des opérations de l'armée ou en dehors de cette zone; s'il s'agit de faits commis dans la zone des opérations de l'armée (expression employée dans la loi de 1913), les individus qui sont dans cette zone tombent sous le coup de la juridiction criminelle française qui y opère, sans qu'il y ait à distinguer suivant leur nationalité. Ce sont les criminalistes et les magistrats qui seraient plus compétents que moi pour entrer ici dans des détails.

Je crois avoir indiqué les principales questions, très délicates, qui peuvent se présenter dans la matière, objet de ce travail; malheureusement, la conclusion est que ce sera dans des cas relativement rares qu'il y aura possibilité de mettre la main sur des prisonniers qu'on identifiera comme auteurs de tels ou tels faits. Voilà pratiquement comment les questions se présentent, mais enfin il est bon tout de même que ces questions soient soulevées, qu'il y ait une solution théorique adoptée sur laquelle, le cas échéant, la pratique se guidera. Les circonstances peuvent faire que tel coupable tombe entre nos mains; alors, nous pourrons en toute conscience lui appliquer la peine qu'il mérite. Si nous ne pouvons pas identifier, justifier la responsabilité en tenant compte de ce que j'ai dit au sujet de la discipline et de la contrainte, le seul moyen sera celui des représailles. Je souhaite vivement que l'on en use le moins possible, tout en ne voulant pas faire de sensiblerie, et que nous ne gâtions pas le bon renom que nous nous sommes acquis. Il ne faut pas que nous commettions des actes tels que des neutres malveillant pourraient ensuite faire une confusion comme je le signalais tous à l'heure pour la législation, et dire : ons commis de part et d'autre dans cette guerre des actes épouvantables. On mettrait les belligérants sur le même pied, malgré la différence de leur conduite, et, au bout d'un certain temps, on ne saurait pas qui a commencé, qui a pris l'initiative de ces actes et qui n'a fait que répondre et se protéger. Il faut éviter que nous puissions tomber sous une inculpation pareille et être confondus avec les propagateurs de la "kultur".

REVUE GENERALE DE DROIT INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC

TOME 24 - 1917.

DE LA SANCTION DES INFRACTIONS AU DROIT DES GENS COMMISES, AU COURS DE LA GUERRE EUROPEENNE, PAR LES EMPIRES DU CENTRE

Par A. MERIGNHAC
(RP. 5/50)

Sommaire. Par. I. La responsabilité civile. Les dommages-intérêts. - Par. II. Les représailles. - Par. III. Les mesures de coercition autres que les représailles. - Par. IV. La responsabilité pénale. Par. V. Les mesures d'après-guerre.

L'un des problèmes les plus délicats que pose la guerre actuelle est assurément celui des sanctions nécessaires que comportent les infractions réitérées et systématiques au droit des gens commises par les Allemands et leurs alliés au cours des hostilités sur tous les théâtres de la guerre.

Notre intention n'est point de passer en revue ces infractions qui atteignent toutes les parties du droit international public. Elles ont été soigneusement exposées, soit dans les rapports officiels publiés par les gouvernements alliés, soit dans un grand nombre d'études déjà parues à ce sujet et largement vulgarisées par la voie de la presse; nous comptons nous borner ici à l'examen des sanctions, ce qui n'est pas, comme nous le disions en commençant, le moindre des problèmes à résoudre. La question des sanctions a trouvé l'Europe absolument désemparée, sans législation coutumière ou écrite; c'est qu'en effet nul ne pouvait prévoir jusqu'à quel degré d'horreur, de cruauté et d'inconscience monterait la Kultur austro-allemande unie à la férocité bulgare et turque. De propos délibéré, les Empires du centre et leurs dignes acolytes ont foulé aux pieds toutes les lois internes et externes sans hésiter devant des faits qualifiés crimes et délits par leurs propres législations et qu'ils réprimaient sévèrement sur leur territoire en temps de paix à l'égard de leurs propres sujets. En sorte que l'on se trouve en présence d'actes punissables d'après la théorie et la pratique criminelles de ceux qui les ont perpétrés et qu'ils n'hésitent pas à considérer comme devenus tout à coup licites en raison de l'état de guerre.

Cette conception monstrueuse en vertu de laquelle la guerre autorise tous les excès et fait remonter l'homme à la bestialité primitive est, au surplus, absolument fausse et condamnée par les peuples civilisés contemporains, car la guerre n'abolit pas, tant s'en faut, tout sentiment humain chez les combattants; elle est, au contraire, entre ennemis généreux et même simplement humains, une école de loyauté et de dévouement; l'emploi de la force n'exclut nullement la pitié même sur le champ de bataille. A plus forte raison, quand l'action a pris fin, n'est-elle point incompatible avec le sentiment de commisération que provoque l'aspect de l'ennemi désarmé, surtout quand il est malade ou blessé. A plus forte raison le combattant est-il porté, par les tendances naturelles du coeur, à s'abstenir de toutes violences vis-à-vis des populations désarmées, principalement des vieillards, des femmes et des enfants!

Certes, les faits odieux avaient été commis aussi au cours des guerres passées, et c'est pour en éviter le retour qu'ont été portées les lois internationales qui ont trouvé leur dernière expression dans les conventions de la Haye de 1899 et de 1907, et dans d'autres documents

tels que les conventions de Genève sur le service hospitalier. Mais on se trouvait généralement en présence de faits isolés dus à l'ardeur de la lutte et aux instincts sauvages de quelques combattants; ce n'était point cette méconnaissance voulue de toutes les lois et de la coutume élaborées par le droit des gens, cette violation constante et par ordre de toutes les conventions au bas desquelles les Empires du centre avaient apposé leur signature. C'est en vertu d'un plan préconçu de terreur et de vandalisme que les soldats teutons et leurs chefs se sont conduits comme des brutes, abdiquant toute dignité humaine et méritant les pires châtiments. La conduite des Prussiens en 1870-1871 aurait dû déjà nous fixer sur leur mentalité; mais leurs excès au cours de 1914, 1915 et 1916 ont dépassé largement les prévisions que l'on aurait pu retirer de la guerre franco-allemande. Et c'est ce qui explique que des sanctions appropriées à leurs actes n'aient point été prévues par les puissances signataires des conventions de la Haye. Généralement la clause dite d'amnistie insérée dans les traités de paix effaçait les souvenirs des faits de guerre entre peuples qui s'étaient, au cours des hostilités, conduits d'une façon généralement correcte; la vie internationale alors reprenait son cours normal. Pour en donner un exemple tiré des guerres les plus récentes, le dernier conflit
7 russo-japonais, si aigu qu'il ait été, n'a point empêché les deux adversaires de s'unir dans une étroite alliance qui a permis à la Russie d'obtenir du Japon le concours le plus précieux dans le conflit actuel.

Quoi qu'il en soit, la seule sanction prévue par la Conférence de la Haye de 1907, et d'ordre purement civil, est celle de l'art. 3 de la convention promulguant le règlement relatif aux lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, article sur lequel nous allons insister ci-après. Il y faut joindre, dans les autres accords internationaux, l'article 29 de la convention de Genève révisée en 1906. Ce texte, à la différence de l'art. 3 de la convention de la Haye, vise une responsabilité pénale pour infractions aux lois du service hospitalier.

Ces deux sanctions - la première purement civile, la seconde limitée à un ordre d'idées fort restreint - sont-elles les seules que l'on puisse invoquer contre les faits punissables commis par nos adversaires? Non, à coup sûr; le droit public international coutumier prévoit, en effet, les représailles; et d'autre part, les Etats peuvent recourir à d'autre mesures de coercition qui pourraient leur paraître utiles, par exemple à la rupture des relations diplomatiques jusqu'à ce que la répression nécessaire soit intervenue.

Si les sanctions que nous venons d'indiquer étaient les seules, il faut avouer qu'elles seraient bien insuffisantes et que la conscience universelle, révoltée par les crimes des Austro-Allemands et de leurs alliés, ne comprendrait pas que ce qui est crime ou délit certain pour un particulier durant la paix devint tout à coup chose licite - et même glorieuse suivant la mentalité allemande - à raison de l'état de guerre. C'est qu'en effet, d'après un principe admis par toutes les législations positives criminelles, tout fait punissable engendre au profit de la victime deux actions : l'une civile, en réparation du dommage causé, et l'autre publique, aboutissant, dans l'intérêt de l'ordre social menacé, au châtiment, par des peines appropriées, de l'agent punissable. Il n'est pas possible que cette dualité indispensable ne se rencontre pas dans la communauté des nations comme elle se rencontre dans les nations elles-mêmes. Qu'un monarque, un chef d'armée, un officier supérieur ou autre, un sous-officier ou soldat jouisse paisiblement après la paix du produit de son vol; qu'il ne soit pas inquiété à raison des plus grandes atrocités par lui commises, voilà ce qui est impossible, à moins de décréter la faillite de la justice dans le milieux international. Des idées générales exposées, suivons maintenant l'étude des diverses sanctions à appliquer aux crimes et délits commis par nos adversaires au cours de la présente guerre.

0 Par. I

La responsabilité civile. - Les dommages-intérêts.

Suivant les lois pénales internes, tout fait punissable oblige celui q i l'a commis à réparation vis-à-vis de la victime. La responsabilité civile peut frapper d'abord l'auteur du fait, et, de plus, s'étendre, dans des circonstances spéciales, à ceux qui ont donné l'ordre ou qui ont, sur l'agent punissable, une autorité de surveillance et de commandement. Or cette autorité existe surtout dans les armées, où l'obéissance et la discipline constituent le devoir principal de l'inférieur vis-à-vis des supérieurs.

Sur ces données est intervenu l'article 3 de la convention de la Haye de 1907 qui promulgue le règlement concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, texte ainsi conçu : "La partie belligérante qui violerait les dispositions du règlement sera tenue à indemnité s'il y a lieu, et rendue responsable de tous actes commis par des personnes faisant partie de sa force armée".

Par une ironie singulière des choses, c'est à la demande formelle de la délégation allemande qu'a été introduite cette disposition, dont, par avance, le Kaiser, l'Etat-Major et les grands chefs se proposaient de ne tenir aucun compte comme de tout le reste du bagage législatif international (1). Le grand Etat-Major germanique, dans une publication devenue célèbre (2) et à laquelle nous avons consacré une des premières études qui aient paru à ce sujet (3), affait affecté un mépris profond pour toutes les lois de la guerre en général et spécialement pour les prescriptions de la Haye. L'on s'était ému avec raison de cette attitude, car, tandis que les autres Etats faisaient passer ces prescriptions dans leurs règlements militaires, les règlements austro-allemands ne les mentionnaient même pas (4). Et nous faisions observer, dans la conclusion de l'étude précitée, que la mentalité des grands chefs allemands posait un formidable point d'interrogation pour tous ceux qui, Français ou autres, auraient affaire à l'Allemagne dans les guerres future (5). Il est probable qu'à la Haye, en 1907, des explications auraît été demandées aux délégués austro-allemands relativement aux point qui précèdent; et c'est pour les éviter que ces délégués ont proposé le vote de l'article 3 précité destiné à masquer les intentions véritables de l'Allemagne, par une de ces manoeuvres hypocrites avec lesquelles la guerre actuelle nous a familiarisés.

Quelle est la portée exacte de l'article 3? Il paraît à peu près impossible de ramener ses dispositions à effet au cours de la guerre; à la paix, il pourra, si les Alliés victorieux font le nécessaire, produire des résultats sensibles; et les auteurs des faits dommageables auront à répondre de leurs actes vis-à-vis de leurs victimes par l'entremise de leur gouvernement déclaré responsable de leurs faits et gestes. Cette responsabilité globale permettra des recours qui ne se fussent que très difficilement exercés au cas où il aurait fallu rechercher directement les agents responsables restés le plus souvent inconnus.

En principe, c'est la victime du fait dommageable qui a seule qualité pour agir; toutefois notre collègue de la Faculté de Paris, M. Weiss, estime que l'action devrait, en l'espèce, être intentée par l'Etat dont relèvent les victimes contre l'Etat dont les agents responsables sont les ressortissants. L'action serait donc exercée d'Etat à Etat, solutionnée soit à l'amiable, soit, en cas de contestation, par la voie arbitrale. (6) Ce procédé aurait le grand avantage de permettre une solution plus rapide des affaires, les réclamations étant présentées en bloc ou tout au moins par catégories. Et, d'autre part, l'Etat aurait évidemment une autorité beaucoup plus grande pour obtenir justice que le simple particulier. Ce dernier, d'autre part, économiserait ainsi des frais considérables; enfin ces frais eux-mêmes seraient très diminués par ce fait que les diverses catégories de demandes seraient réunies en une procédure unique.

Par. II

Les représailles.

La matière des représailles est une de celles qui ont soulevé le plus de difficultés dans le droit international. Elles ont, en effet, des inconvénients graves dont le principal consiste en ce qu'il est extrêmement difficile de les proportionner aux faits dont on se plaint. D'autre part, elles atteignent le plus souvent des gens inoffensifs et totalement étrangers aux actes incriminés. Enfin, elles attirent d'autre représailles qui deviennent de plus en plus dures et grâce auxquelles le conflit se transforme en une série d'excès continus et systématiques ramenant aux atrocités des guerres primitives d'extermination.

Et cependant les représailles ont été admises à toutes les époques et sont aujourd'hui autorisées par la coutume internationale; on essaya vainement de les réglementer, en 1874, à Bruxelles, et l'on y renonça devant les difficultés de l'entreprise; les Conférences de la Haye de 1899 et de 1907 ont également gardé le silence en ce qui les concerne, probablement pour le même motif.

Certains auteurs croient inutile et même mauvaise toute réglementation des représailles, en partant de ce point de vue qu'il convient de les proscrire purement et simplement en raison des inconvénients signalés ci-dessus; or, en les réglementant, on les autoriserait d'une manière implicite. (1) Cette manière de voir ne serait fondée que si l'on pouvait supprimer la chose en effaçant le mot; mais, puisque les représailles restent, il importe de les assujettir à des règles fixes et précises (2). A défaut de loi écrite, la coutume internationale admet généralement les propositions suivantes : 1°. Les représailles ne consistent en aucun point en actes cruels, inhumains et condamnés par les lois générales de la guerre, par exemple en pillage et mise à sac des localités prises d'assaut, assassinat d'êtres inoffensifs, attentats contre les personnes, destruction automatiques des biens, emploi du poison et des armes et engins illicites suivant le droit de la guerre, etc....- 2°. Les représailles seront proportionnées à l'acte dont on se plaint; constituant, en effet, un moyen de coercition et de ripôte, elles doivent autant que possible se modeler sur cet acte et prendre fin dès que le dommage visé aura été réparé ou la satisfaction réclamée obtenue. - 3°. Les représailles seront ordonnées autant que possible par un chef d'armée ou de corps d'armée ou un officier supérieur. Elles se rattacheront, par un lien étroit, aux temps, milieux et circonstances qui les provoquent sans qu'il soit permis de remonter aux faits déjà anciens et spécialement à ceux des guerres antérieures. 4°. Les représailles ne seront exercées que sur les agents responsables des actes dommageables et jamais sur les populations inoffensives qui doivent être mises à l'écart des conséquences de la guerre envisagée comme un rapport d'Etat à Etat. Si ces populations prenaient part à la guerre, ce n'est pour par représailles qu'il

11 faudrait procéder; on devrait leur appliquer la loi martiale suivant les formes de la justice militaire. En tout cas, les non-combattants, auteurs des actes incriminés, devraient être seuls frappés et aucune responsabilité ne saurait de ce chef peser sur leurs concitoyens. Agir autrement ramènerait aux excès des guerres anciennes, dans lesquelles le conflit se généralisait à toute la nation et causait le plus souvent la ruine et la dévastation du pays. (1)

Tels sont les principes admis par la coutume internationale relativement aux représailles; ils ont été, comme toutes les autres règles conventionnelles ou coutumières, systématiquement méconnus par les Empires du centre. De propos délibéré, tous les excès par eux commis ont été qualifiés de représailles, dans l'exécution desquelles, du reste, aucune autre règle n'a prévalu que le bon plaisir. Sous cette appellation commode se dissimulaient en réalité des actes de haine et de vengeance motivés soit par l'exaspération que causait la défaite, soit par l'intention de terroriser les belligérants et les neutres grâce au pillage, aux attentats contre les personnes et à tous autres procédés inspirés du même esprit, soit enfin par la volonté de détruire tout ce qu'on serait obligé de rendre à la paix et anéantir à la fois les choses et les gens. C'était la paraphrase de la parole prêtée au plus haut des chefsennemis à propos de l'Alsace et de la Lorraine : "Si je les rends, je les rendrai nues comme la main!"

Cette conduite rappelait, du reste, bien qu'avec une moindre envergure, celle tenue en 1870-1871; les excès de toute sorte commis au cours de la guerre franco-allemande, sous le masque des représailles, ont laissé, dans l'esprit des contemporains, un souvenir d'horreur ineffaçable. Les responsabilités collectives furent exigées en règle générale; toute commune ou agglomération était impitoyablement rendue responsable d'actes, souvent fictifs, commis sur son territoire ou à proximité. Ces responsabilités se traduisaient, comme aujourd'hui, par des indemnités excessives,- car l'Allemand ne dédaigne aucun profit et ramasse l'argent dans le sang, - soit par le meurtre, après une sanglante parodie judiciaire, d'infortunés que leurs bourreaux savaient le plus souvent être innocents! (2)

12 Ces atrocités avaient tellement frappé les esprits que le règlement de la Haye concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, bien qu'il garde le silence, comme il a été dit, au sujet des représailles, a cru cependant devoir condamner le système des responsabilités collectives,en décidant, dans son article 50, qu'aucune peine pécuniaire collective ou autre ne pourra être édictée contre les populations à raison de faits individuels dont elles ne pourraient être considérées comme solidairement responsables.

Comme nous l'avons fait remarquer ci-dessus, les atrocités de la guerre de 1870-1871 ont été largement dépassées sur tous les théâtres de la guerre actuelle. En Belgique, en Serbie, en Pologne, en Grèce, en Roumanie, en Arménie et dans les départements français envahis, les actes les plus odieux ont été commis sous le nom de représailles. La guerre sous-marine et les raids des Zeppelins sur l'Angleterre ont été notamment, à chaque manifestation nouvelle, présentés au peuple allemand comme des représailles dirigées contre l'Angleterre qui se proposait d'affamer l'Allemagne sans aucu e espèce de droit, alors qu'elle ne faisait, en somme, qu'user légitimement de sa suprématie sur mer. M. de Bülow, dans une interview au correspondant de "Chicago Daily News", a, d'autre part, présenté le blocus de l'Allemagne par les flottes alliées comme des représailles contre la guerre sous-marine décrétée le 4 février 1915; et il prétend que le blocus doit cesser avec l'arrêt de cette guerre sous-marine (1). Egalement ont été qualifiées de représailles les abominables déportations, hors des villes de Lille, Roubaix et Tourcoing, d'une masse de plus de 25.000 habitants de nos départements envahis! Il est vrai que, devant l'indignation générale, les Allemands ont invoqué la nécessité des travaux agricoles. Misérable prétexte imaginé après coup et qui n'a trompé personne chez les belligérants et chez les neutres de bonne foi!

Les choses en sont arrivées à un degré tel et l'opinion publique a été tellement surexcitée par tous les faits que nous venons de rappeler, et principalement par la guerre sous-marine, les raids des Zeppelins et les déportations en masse des populations des pays envahis, que certains publicistes ont pressé les Alliés de répondre du tac au tac par tous les moyens en leur pouvoir sans se préoccuper du point de savoir si ces moyens étaient ou non autorisés par le droit international. Ainsi, malgré la seconde déclaration de la Haye de 1899, on aurait procédé à l'émission des gaz asphyxiants et délétères (2) et l'on aurait bombardé par la voie aérienne les villes allemandes non défendues, en dépit de l'art. 25 du Règlement concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre qui déclare ce bombardement illicite.

Dans une lettre adressée au Times du 18 janvier 1916, le célèbre romancier A. Conan Doyle proposait d'enrayer les attentats des Zeppelins sur l'Angleterre par des jets de bombes aériennes sur les grands centres de populations de l'Allemagne : Wiesbaden, Bonn, Francfort, Coblentz, Cologne, que pourraient facilement atteindre des aviateurs partis de Nancy. Et l'on sait que l'un de nos aviateurs a récemment pu survoler Berlin en laissant tomber des proclamations dans lesquelles la population était avertie qu'on lui cachait systématiquement la vérité au sujet des opérations de guerre. Les représailles auraient donc pu être facilement réalisées même sur la capitale prussienne.

Les représailles proposées auraient eu un double but : punir d'abord des actes inqualifiables, contraires à toutes les prescriptions du droit des gens et de l'humanité; et, en second lieu, empêcher leur renouvellement, l'Allemagne étant prévenue que chacun de ses raids serait suivi de riposte. "Le Hun", disait M. Conan Doyle, dans son langage imagé, "n'est formidable que lorsqu'il croit pouvoir terroriser avec impunité. "Fer et sang" n'est sa devise qu'autant que c'est fer à lui et sang d'un autre". Le général Turner a donné sa complète approbation à la proposition de Conan Doyle, qui, au contraire, a été combattue, au nom de la loyauté et de la dignité du peuple anglais, par le jurisconsulte sir Edward et par certains officiers anglais, suivant lesquels il valait mieux employer les avions aux efforts militaires nécessaires qu'au massacre de gens inoffensifs. (1) A la suite de l'usage des gaz asphyxiants et délétères par les troupes du Kaiser, le ministère anglais de la guerre annonça que des mesures seraient prises pour répondre à cet acte prohibé par les lois de la guerre. Un peu plus tard, le 1er. juin 1915, le gouvern. de la R.F. a adressé aux puissances étrangères, à raison des mêmes faits, un Mémorandum dans lequel, après avoir rappelé une note n°.32 émanant du Quartier général de la 2e armée et datée de St.Quentin, du 16.10.19 note dans laquelle est recommandé l'emploi des liquides enflam- (1), mé, il conclut en ces termes : "Aucun gouvernement ne saurait, sans compromettre la sécurité de ses troupes, rester sans défense contre de semblables raffinements de barbarie. En conséquence, le gouvernement de la République entend, en n'inspirant uniquement de ses besoins militaires, recourir à tous les moyens qui lui paraîtront propres à mettre les soldats et les autorités militaires allemands hors d'état de commettre leurs méfaits et leurs meurtres".

(2) Journal des débats du 4 février 1916.

14 A la suite du bombardement aérien des villes ouvertes françaises telles que Bar-le-Duc, Amiens, Hazebrouck, Epernay, Reims, Lunéville, Saint-Dié, etc. etc., et du traitement abominable infligé aux habitants de nos département du Nord, dont nous avons parlé ci-dessus, un certain nombre d'organes de la presse de France ont également poussé le gouvernement à entrer dans la voie des représailles, ce qu'il a fini par faire, en procédant non point, comme nos ennemis, par tactique générale, mais seulement par mesures exceptionnelles. Après avoir été déjà l'objet d'un premier bombardement qui avait jeté dans la terreur tous les habitants, la ville de Carlsruhe a été bombardée une seconde fois le 22 juin 1916. Nos ennemis, en accusant la mort ou les blessures de 257 personnes, ont cru devoir dénoncer au monde avec leur cynisme habituel : "la scélératesse de ce bombardement, sans aucun but militaire, d'une ville ouverte", en passant bien entendu sous silence leurs propres raids sur les villes ouvertes et les campagnes de France et d'Angleterre. Le communiqué français du 29 juin qui annonçait le bombardement de Carlruhe mettait au point, comme il convenait, dans les termes suivants, la situation véritable faussée comme toujours par la presse allemande : "Notre longue abstention a suffi pour montrer au monde le degré de notre patience et notre désir d'éviter aux populations paisibles les horreurs de la guerre. Mais il est impossible - et il serait funeste - de laisser un ennemi sans scrupules multiplier ses attentats dans l'assurance de l'impunité. Dans l'avenir, notre conduite sera réglée sur celle de nos adversaires. Ils subiront les représailles dont ils nous imposent l'obligation. (1)

x

Cet exemple n'est point resté isolé et divers bombardements de représailles ont été effectués par les escadrilles alliées. Le fait s'était, du reste, déjà produit avant le raid du 22 juin; c'est ainsi qu'en représailles des bombardements sur les villes ouvertes et les populations civiles françaises et anglaises, une escadrille de neuf avions avait survolé, le 13 septembre 1915, la ville de Trèves sur laquelle avaient été lancées une centaine de bombes. La gare et la banque de l'Empire avaient été nettement atteintes (2). Et le 23 septembre de la même année, avait eu lieu le bombardement de Stuttgart dirigé principalement contre le Palais royal et la gare (3).

Le 16 septembre 1916, des avions français ont bombardé Sofia
15 en représailles des bombardements de Bucarest. Les avions français ont laissé tomber une proclamation aux Bulgares ainsi conçue : "Habitants de Sofia, nos avions ont pour règle de conduite de ne bombarder que les établissements militaires et ceux servant à la défense nationale. Les Zeppelins et aéroplanes allemands lancent cependant des bombes sur Salonique et Bucarest, assassinant dans ces villes des vieillards, des femmes et des enfants. C'est une barbarie dont les Allemands seuls sont capables. Des faits semblables, des crimes pareils appellent une vengeance. Habitants de Sofia, votre ville expie aujourd'hui les crimes de vos alliés. Si pareils crimes se renouvellent, ils seront suivis de la même punition" (4). Une dépêche Wolff du 17 novembre 1916 a annoncé que le capt. de Beauchamps a survolé Munich [illegible] explosibles dont la fabrication n'a point lieu dans leurs établissements et qui infligent des maux épouvantables sans que l'issue générale des opérations en soit influencée. Il ont donc respecté la troisième déclaration de la Haye de 1899 qui interdit ce genre de projectiles dont leur adversaires ont fait et font un usage constant et qui est passé à l'état de règle absolue chez les Autrichiens. (1) Mais, dans l'impossibilité où ils étaient d'arrêter les masses ennemies couvertes par le rideau des gaz asphyxiants et délétères, ils se sont vus dans la nécessité de refouler, par le même moyen, les vagues d'assaut. Des renseignements reçus de Petrograd en juillet 1916 ont fait connaître que les Russes se servent d'un nouveau gaz asphyxiant dont les effets sont terribles et qui a beaucoup contribué à leur succès. La particularité de ce nouveau gaz est qu'il n'existe pas d'antidote capable d'en supprimer ou d'en atténuer les conséquences; les masques ordinaires ne suffisent pas, et il faut des casques spéciaux que seuls les Russes possèdent.

Ainsi la démence allemande, après avoir imaginé pour arriver à ses fins tout ce que peut inventer la sauvagerie la plus diabolique, en est arrivée à voir se tourner contre elle ses propres inventions perfectionnées par ses ennemis en état de légitime défense. C'est ce que constatait mélancoliquement la presse allemande au cours de 1916, sans avouer cependant qu'au fond les Allemands eux-mêmes avaient été les premiers instigateurs des moyens de guerre dont ils se plaignaient.

16 Si nous analysons maintenant les représailles soit au point de vue général, soit en ce qui concerne les faits de la guerre européenne, nous aboutirons à la distinction suivante. Une première catégorie de représailles embrasse ces actes devant lesquels les Empires du centre n'ont pas reculé et qui sont tellement odieux que leur accomplissement ravale le combattant au niveau de la brute. Tels sont les dévastations systématiques des pays occupés, la mise à mort ou la déportation en masse de la population, les attentats dirigés par les occupants contre les vieillards, les femmes et les enfants - non point par voie de conséquence d'un bombardement ou de tout autre acte de guerre - mais délibérement et froidement par la main même du soldat, les tortures infligées aux malades et blessés, le meutre des captifs et des notables, le placement des otages en avant des troupes sur la ligne de feu, le vol des propriétés privées, etc. De ces représailles - si tant est qu'elles méritent ce nom (2) et dont les Alliés ne se sont jamais rendus coupables - l'emploi ne peut se légitimer par aucun prétexte chez des combattants civilisés. Point n'est besoin pour les interdire de dispositions conventionnelles ou coutumières; l'humanité seule suffit à les empêcher. Seuls des apaches internationaux peuvent se les permettre et s'en faire gloire. Notre mentalité, sur ce point, quoi qu'ils puissent faire, ne sera jamais celle des Allemands et de leurs acolytes.

Une seconde catégorie de représailles consiste dans les moyens de guerre interdits par les prohibitions conventionnelles ou coutumières pour des motifs d'humanité et de loyauté, telles que les bombardements des villes ouvertes ou des points des villes fortifiées occupés par la population civile, l'usage des gaz asphyxiants et délétères, etc...En ce qui concerne ces représailles, il convient tout d'abord de remarquer que les Alliés ont été dégagés par les procédés de leurs adversaires de l'obligation de se conformer aux déclarations et conventions qui les avaient interdites. Les accords, en effet, nationaux ou internationaux, ne sont obligatoires qu'à charge d'exécution réciproque par toutes les parties contractantes; et leur violation ayant été alléguée par son ennemis les a rendus caducs (1).

17 Reste l'objection tirée de ce que, ces représailles ayant été interdites au motif de loyauté et d'humanité, l'être humain doit à sa dignité personnelle de continuer à s'en abstenir, quelle que puisse être la conduite de son adversaire. A cet égard, il convient de faire remarquer que certains procédés de guerre unanimement acceptés sont, à tout prendre, autrement dangereux et inhumains, par exemple les torpilles et les mines flottantes qui vouent à la mort la plus affreuse ceux qui montent le navire. Le torpillage, en juin 1916, du bâtiment qui portait Lord Kitchener et son Etat-major a produit un effet autrement désastreux que les raids des Zeppelins sur l'Angleterre, dont certains n'ont fait que peu de dégâts et de victimes, et d'autres point du tout. On peut, d'autre part, grâce aux progrès de la science moderne, se défendre contre les Zeppelins et les gaz délétères, tandis qu'il est à peu près impossible de se garer de la torpille ou de la mine. La perte du vaisseau qui portait Lord Kitchener en est un exemple, car il est probable que les précautions prises pour le garantir de tout accident avaient dépassé de beaucoup celles concernant les autres transports.

Et, malgré tout, persiste l'objection : il ne convient pas de faire, même à des barbares, une guerre de barbares. Tuer, même sans les viser directement et sans les apercevoir, des êtres inoffensifs, surtout des femmes et des enfants, détruire les oeuvres d'art qui sont le patrimoine de l'humanité tout entière et dans lesquelles s'incarnent le génie et le souvenir du passé, ne convient point au caractère loyal et généreux des races civilisées qui doivent affirmer leur supériorité intellectuelle par des actes et non

(1) Nous faisons donc, en l'espèce, l'application du principe de la condition résolutoire tacite contenue dans tout contrat synallagmatique, principe de justice et de bon sens admis par les législations positive (V. notamment art. 1184 du code civil français et 32 du code civil allemand) et également accepté dans les rapports entre Etats. V. Conf. Bonfils-Fauchille, op. cit., nº. 859; Merignhac, op. cit., 2e. partie, p. 636 et suiv.

Toutefois, certains auteurs ont repoussé cette manière de voir. Suivant eux, il faudrait appliquer ici les formes de la dénonciation diplomatique; en l'espèce, la dénonciation, suivant l'art. 3 de la convention de la Haye proclamant le règlement annexe concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, devrait être notifiée par écrit au gouvernement des Pays-Bas et par celui-ci communiquée aux autres puissances. Enfin elle ne produirait son effet qu'à l'égard de la partie renonçante et seulement un an après la notification. V. conf. Clunet, dans le feuilleton du Temps du 5 janvier 1918 et Barthélemy, dans le Journal du droit international, t. XLIII (1916), p. 1473 et suiv.

Nous estimons, au contraire, que la formalité de la dénonciation n'a pas à intervenir en l'espèce. Elle suppose, en effet, des parties contractantes loyales et soucieuses de faire honneur à leurs engagements, l'une ou plusieurs d'entre elles se voyant dans l'obligation de se séparer des autres pour des raisons particulières. Mais quand un des Etats signataires commence, sans se conformer en rien aux formalités de l'article 3, par violer la convention, on n'est plus alors sous l'empire de ces prescriptions écartées par l'adversaire lui-même et l'on retombe sous l'application du droit commun, c'est-à-dire de la condition résolutoire tacite. Faire, au surplus, état, en l'espèce, de l'article 3 précité conduirait à ce résultat singulier que la France et ses alliés seraient obligés pendant un an d'exécuter la convention dont leurs adversaires se délieraient immédiatement et par leur volonté unilatérale. Qui voudrait accepter pareille situation?

par des phrases creuses. Détruire la cathédrale de Cologne serait un acte aussi stupide que la destruction de la cathédrale de Reims ou de Santa Maria Formosa. Laissons les barbares viser St. Marc et ne salissons point notre réputation séculaire par un vandalisme que l'histoire flétrira avec horreur et dégoût.

A coup sûr, de pareils sentiments ne sauraient laisser indifférents les juristes des pays alliés qui réprouvent, en général, les moyens de représailles contraires à la loyauté et à l'humanité. Il est toutefois assez piquant de constater que les écrits des docteurs d'outre-Rhin et les théories du grand Etat-major allemand lui-même pourraient leur offrir un moyen de justifier en l'espèce, les représailles dont s'agit. Ces docteurs, suivis par le grand Etat-Major, ont, en effet, imaginé une distinction entre ce qu'ils appellent le droit de la guerre normalement applicable (Kriegsmanier ou Kriegsbrauch) et les dérogations à cette loi dans des cas prévus par la raison de guerre (ratio belli Kriegsraison). Et ainsi la raison de guerre permettrait de recourir aux divers procédés prohibés par la loi normale, par exemple à l'incendie, au pillage, à la dévastation systématique du pays, aux otages, à la mise à mort des particuliers, etc... quand l'occupant se croirait obligé de frapper de terreur son ennemi par tous les moyens et dans l'intérêt de sa sécurité, motifs généralement invoqués par les Allemands à l'appui des représailles telles qu'ils les comprennent (1).

Les juristes des pays alliés ont généralement protesté contre un système qui est la négation même du droit de la guerre, dont les principes les plus essentiels sont ainsi livrés aux complet arbitraire des chefs militaires et qui, en définitive, ne fait qu'appliquer en la circonstance la maxime que : "La fin justifie les moyens" (2). Une fois que la loi de la guerre a été acceptée, il convient de l'appliquer sans exception, car, en la violant sous des prétextes les plus souvent apparents, on en revient aux abominations des luttes anciennes qui démontrent mieux que tout raisonnement, la nécessité d'un droit de la guerre fixe et invariable. Au surplus, avec la distinction proposée, qui se a juge du point de savoir si l'on est ou non en présence de la nécessité absolue qui justifierait les exceptions apportées
19. au droit de la guerre? Seul le belligérant pourra en décider et il invoquera la raison d'Etat à tout propos, se couvrant de ce prétexte commode pour tout légitimer. On a vu qu'à cet égard les chefs allemands étaient passés maîtres.

En laissant aux juristes germaniques leur distinction entre la loi normale de la guerre et la raison de guerre, on doit cependant tenir compte d'une considération primordiale et vitale pour les pays intéressés. Dans les contrées par eux envahies, les Allemands et leurs alliés poursuivent, nous l'avons dit, une oeuvre systématique. Il ne s'agit plus de représailles ainsi qu'ils les qualifient à tort, mais d'une destruction systématique des biens et des personnes, de façon à laisser le pays ruiné et dépeuplé pour pouvoir empêcher tout relèvement et toute revanche et permettre de repeupler au moyen de colonies empruntées à la race élue. C'est en vertu de la même idée que les mauvais traitements de toute sorte unis au manque complet d'hygiène et à l'insuffisance de nourriture tendent, suivant l'aveu même de nos ennemis, à nous rendre des prisonniers voués à la tuberculose et à toutes les maladies anémiantes, de façon à ce qu'après la paix ils s'éteignent peu à peu et soient, en tout cas, incapables de travailler et surtout de repeupler. Tel est le plan suivi en France envahie, en Belgique, en Serbie, en Pologne, en Arménie, dans la Grèce prétendue bulgare et même dans les parties non allemandes de la monarchie dualiste. C'est, au surplus, ce qu'a fait la Prusse, dans toute son histoire, exterminant et refoulant peu à peu les populations slaves par une germanisation à outrance.

Et dès lors, la question qui se pose est celle de savoir si l'on ne doit pas essayer de déjouer ce calcul par tous les moyens dans l'intérêt suprême des races menacées. Parmi les devoirs essentiels des Etats, admis par tous les juristes internationaux allemands ou autres, figure, au premier plan, le droit d'existence et de conservation de soi-même. En vertu de ce droit, un Etat est autorisé à recourir à toutes les mesures de nature à sauvegarder son entité physique ou morale, à écarter tout mal ou tout danger actuel ou éventuel (1). Si, en temps de paix, le devoir de conservation autorise à voir un casus belli dans une concentration menaçante de troupes sur une frontière, à plus forte raison, en temps de guerre, des actes semblables à ceux commis par les Empires du centre doivent-ils être réprimés par tous les moyens; et l'abstention pour un Etat équivaut à un véritable suicide. Dès lors, les représailles, envisagées non plus comme des actes blâmables de vengeance, apparaissant, au contraire, comme une application du devoir de conservation de l'Etat menacé; en n'y recourant point, ce dernier manque à sa responsabilité vis-à-vis de la nation, car il lui est interdit de laisser péricliter le dépôt qui lui a été confié. Par là, on le voit, sans faire échec le moins du monde aux règles humanitaires du droit public international, se légitiment les représailles des Alliés par tous les moyens en leur pouvoir. En les exerçant, ils cherchent à atténuer le mal que leurs adversaires font aux biens et aux personnes, mal qui peut devenir irréparable et aller jusqu'à l'extinction presque complète de la race, comme cela a eu lieu pour les Arméniens. Loin de s'atténuer, ces représailles devraient être poussées à l'extrême et, comme il était dit dans le communiqué français précité du 29 juin relatif au bombardement de Carlsruhe, les adversaires devraient, à chaque nouvelle illégalité de leur part, subir les représailles dont ils ont eux-mêmes imposé l'obligation. Si ce plan était systématiquement suivi, on épargnerait peut-être beaucoup de ruines et de vies humaines car, dans sa froide cruauté, le Teuton n'a garde d'oublier son intérêt. Il a suffi d'une simple protestation, pourtant bien peu énergique, des Etats-Unis pour tempérer l'abominable guerre sous-marine qui a coûté la vie à tant de gens inoffensifs!

A côté des représailles cruelles, inhumaines mais nécessaires dont nous venons de parler, il en existe d'autres auxquelles les Alliés peuvent également avoir recours sans qu'on puisse élever à leur égard la moindre objection. Celles-là, à plus forte raison, devraient être poussées à l'extrême en prenant garde pourtant de ne point léser, en provoquant des contre-représailles, les intérêts des nationaux. Serait-il possible, par exemple, de confisquer les propriétés appartenant aux nationaux ennemis comme il en a été question souvent en France et en Angleterre? Oui sûrement; en effet, l'article 46, par. 2 du règlement de la Haye concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre dit bien que "la propriété privée ne peut être confisquée". Mais, comme nous l'avons dit, nos ennemis, en méconnaissant ce principe dans les régions envahies où le pillage et le vol ont été méthodiquement organisés, nous ont délié de tout respect vis-à-vis de ce texte. Seulement les gouvernements ont à se demander si la confiscation réciproque des biens que leurs nationaux possèdent en soi-ennemi n'aurait pas des résultats pires que la mesure par eux prise. Et c'est probablement ce qui a fait hésiter et fait hésiter encore; c'est ainsi qu'en raison de l'importance des intérêts français en Allemagne, il n'a point été donné suite à une proposition de loi de M.G. Berry
21 interdisant aux sujets ennemis de posséder des propriétés en France et dans nos colonies. (2)

(2) Chamb. des Dép., séance du 22.12.1914.- Le Portugal ayant saisi des biens appartenant à des s. allemands, l'Allemagne a pris, au cours de 1916, les mesures de représailles suivantes : Les payements à dest. du Portugal sont interdits; les propriétés portug. en Allem. sont soumises à l'obligation de la déclaration; les entreprises portugaises en Allem. peuvent être mises sous séquestre. En ce qui concerne la liquidation des fortunes portug. en Allem., le gouv. impérial s'est réservé de prendre une décision lorsque le résultat de sa dernière protestation pourra être apprécié.

Une Note de l'Agence Stéfani du 12 octobre 1916 annonçait que le gouvernement italien avait fait procéder à la saisie des propriétés, sises en territoire occupé, de certains personnages autrichiens, tels que les Comtes de Thun et Taxis, de Vallée Cassina, de Christalnigg, de Wuhensfeld, etc..., ainsi que des propriétés du Club alpin austro-allemand et du prieuré de Saint-Martin du di Catrozza dont le prieur était le Comte de Wools Collaredo. En tout cas, on peut sans difficulté procéder à la confiscation des biens appartenant à l'Etat ennemi par mesure de représailles; et c'est ce que l'Italie encore n'a point hésité à faire à l'égard du Palais de Venise occupé par l'ambassade autrichienne près le Vatican (décret du 25 août 1916).

Si l'on hésite, en raison des contre-représailles, à s'emparer des biens des sujets ennemis, on peut tout au moins les mettre sous séquestre, afin qu'ils ne puissent être vendus et liquidés et que l'Etat ennemi n'en retire des ressources. La mesure peut être prise soit spontanément, soit à titre de représailles. Dans le courant de septembre 1914, des maisons allemandes, dont les chefs avaient rejoint leur poste à l'ennemi, présentèrent au tribunal civil de la Seine des requêtes tendant à la nomination d'administrateurs judiciaires dont la mission aurait été de continuer les opérations commerciales et de gérer leurs intérêts. En présence de l'inconscience d'une pareille demande, le gouvernement français prit le décret du 27 septembre 1914, ratifié par la loi du 4 avril 1915, relativement aux sujets austro-allemands. Les dispositions en furent étendues aux sujets bulgares par un autre décret du 7 novembre de la même année (1).

L'article 1er. du décret de 1914 prohibe tout commerce avec les sujets ennemis et interdit à ces sujets de se livrer, directement ou par personne interposée, à tout commerce sur un territoire français ou de protectorat français. Et, suivant l'article 2, est nul et non avenu, comme contraire à l'ordre public, tout acte ou contrat passé soit en territoire français ou de protectorat français par toute personne, soit en tous lieux par les Français et protégés français avec des sujets des pays ennemis ou des personnes y résidant. La loi précitée du 4 avril, qui ratifie les décrets, sanctionne leurs dispositions par des pénalités fort sévères.

En exécution du décret du 27 septembre 1914, une circulaire du garde des sceaux du 13 octobre prescrivit la saisie et la mise sous séquestre de tous les biens appartenant aux maisons ennemies pratiquant commerce, industrie ou agriculture en France. On remarquera que cette institution du séquestre ne se présente nullement comme une mesure d'exception au droit commun, car une décision concertée des Départements des finances et de la justice des 15-16 octobre 1914 dispose qu'on prendra, en s'inspirant, par analogie, de celles habituellement appliquées en cas de succession vacante.

/relativement aux biens sises très toutes les mesures, appropriées

Dans un article dans la Gazette du Palais du 19 juillet 1916, M. Vuillaume, administrateur honoraire des finances, met fort bien en relief le caractère du séquestre que nous venons d'indiquer. L'immobilisation des biens des particuliers ennemis, dit-il, et leur conservation constituent un otage économique entre nos mains. Sans l'immobilisation et l'arrêt des industries et des commerces, le décret du 27 septembre 1914 restait lettre morte; car, sans la mise des biens aux mains de la justice, on aurait bientôt abouti à des liquidations hâtives et ruineuses; on aurait compromis l'actif à liquider; on aurait ruiné nos propres industriels et commerçants par une concurrence inopportune; et on aurait provoqué des représailles impitoyables envers les biens de nos nationaux propriétaires ou actionnaires dans les pays ennemis.

M. Villaume indique, dans son exposé des intentions du gouvernement, la pensée maîtresse qui a présidé à l'organisation du séquestre : la mesure a été surtout conservatoire, de façon à respecter tous les droits acquis et à éviter des représailles. Pouvait-on, dès lors, incriminer cette mesure du séquestre comme contraire au droit des gens? Comme il fallait s'y attendre, la presse allemande, avec sa mauvaise foi habituelle, n'y a pas manqué. Le 30 novembre 1914, la Gazette de Francfort publiait une note officielle, dans laquelle il était exposé que les décisions du gouvernement français tendaient à dilapider les biens allemands; qu'elles apparaissaient comme nettement contraires au droit public international et de nature à motiver des représailles particulièrement sévères.

Il convient d'ajouter que le décret du 27 septembre 1914, en exécution duquel avait été institué le séquestre des biens étrangers, était intervenu après une décision du Bundesrath ou Conseil fédéral de l'Empire allemand, qui avait interdit, en vertu d'une loi du 4 août précédent, de faire valoir ses droits patrimoniaux devant les tribunaux allemands sans autorisation du chancelier à toute personne domiciliée à l'étranger. Avec son hyperprécision coutumière, le gouvernement allemand englobait dans une formule générale les sujets des puissances alliées, qui, au fond, étaient uniquement visés. Il violait, du reste, à cet égard, une fois de plus le règlement de la Haye concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, dont l'art. 23, par.h., ajouté en 1907, à la demande de l'Allemagne elle-même, pour écarter la pratique anglaise contraire, interdit de déclarer éteints, suspendus ou non recevables en justice, les droits des nationaux de la partie adverse (1).

Plus tard, un décret du 4 septembre 1914 soumit au régime du séquestre les biens et entreprises des Français en Allemagne, avec des peines formidables en cas de contraventions, peines pouvant monter jusqu'à 30.000 marks d'amende et trois ans de prison. Un autre décret du 26 novembre vint encore aggraver les premières prohibitions.

Dès lors, le décret français du 27 septembre 1914 pouvait être envisagé comme une riposte aux mesures que nous venons de signaler. Et encore la chose n'était-elle exacte que relativement au séquestre. Le décret français, en effet, ne vise pas l'action en justice et se borne, comme on l'a vu, à supprimer les relations commerciales entre les sujets des belligérants. En cela il se présente non point comme une application de l'idée de représailles, mais comme une mise à exécution des règles générales du droit international du temps de guerre, lequel interdit, en cas d'hostilités, le commerce avec l'ennemi pour les motifs suivants : 1°. il serait inadmissible que des particuliers pussent réaliser des gains par des opérations illicites avec les sujets ennemis, les intérêts privés devant s'effacer devant les intérêts généraux; 2°. le commerce serait trop porté à sacrifier les intérêts du pays aux siens propres; ses agissements généraient peut-être les opérations militaires, divulgueraient, par des indiscrétions de correspondance voulues ou inconscientes, le secret des mouvements de l'armée et alimenteraient les ressources de l'adversaire utilisant, comme l'a fait l'Allemagne, toutes les disponibilités sans exception en faveur de l'armée, même au détriment de la population civile (2).

L'interprétation que nous donnons du décret français du 27 septembre 1914 limité à la prohibition des rapports commerciaux a soulevé une vive polémique, et des décisions judiciaires nombreuses ont été rendues soit dans le sens restrictif que nous adoptons, soit dans le sens de l'extension aux relations civiles et même à l'action en justice (1). Quoi qu'il en soit de ces interprétations divergentes, il est certain que les Allemands avaient pris les devants et que nous n'avons fait que les suivre dans la voie qu'il nous avaient tracée. Et encore avons-nous apporté, dans la matière du séquestre, des atténuations sensibles à leurs procédés brutaux. En effet, les biens de nos compatriotes en Allemagne ont été affectés par les séquestres à des buts de guerre; nos entreprises ont aidé dû contribuer aux emprunts nationaux allemands et servir à la défense. D'une manière générale, les biens des Français ont été livrés au complet caprice des séquestres, sorte de gérants officiels agissant sous l'impulsion gouvernementale et ne présentant aucune garantie d'indépendance, de loyauté et d'intégrité. Au contraire, chez nous les séquestres sont des mandataires judiciaires soumis au droit commun constamment surveillés et contrôlés par les tribunaux et le parquet et ne pouvant liquider que dans les conditions légales et avec une autorisation spéciale. Les affaires industrielles françaises fort importantes, et qui montaient à près de trois milliards de francs, ont été ainsi livrées à des administrateurs exempts de tout scrupule, choisis par les préfets parmi les hommes d'affaires souvent tarés, mais bien notés au point de vue politique et chauvin. Dans quel état nos compatriotes retrouveront-ils leurs intérêts après la guerre et combien la conduite ignoble des Allemands légitime bien toutes les représailles (2) !

Ces représailles notamment pouvaient-elles aller jusqu'à la suppression complète de toute action en justice par une mesure pareille inverse à celle qu'avait prise autrefois le gouvernement français contre les Anglais dans l'arrêté du 19 messidor an XI? A coup sûr, la France aurait pu, ainsi qu'il a été dit ci-dessus, considérer comme lettre morte l'article 23, par. h précité du règlement de la Haye, puisque la conduite de l'Allemagne l'avait, sur ce point, déliée de toute obligation. Mais, en ce cas, il aurait fallu faire une exception en faveur des Alsaciens-Lorrains comme pour les séquestres dont ils sont dispensés dans des conditions déterminées (3). Des distinctions auraient été également nécessaires relativement aux Polonais, aux Tchèques, aux Roumains, de Transylvanie, aux Serbes de Hongrie, aux Danois des Duchés, aux Arméniens, etc.. Tous ces ressortissants des pays ennemis abhorrent, en effet, le joug despotique et humiliant qui les asservit et sont, au fond, sans pouvoir le manifester, des partisans dévoués de la cause des Alliés (4).

Les explications qui précèdent montrent que les représailles peuvent jouer un rôle important dans les rapports des belligérants. Les Alliés y ont eu recours dans les circonstances que nous avons indiquées ci-dessus; et, exercées avec plus de rigueur, elles auraient probablement arrêté les Allemands dans beaucoup de manifestations de leur brutalité systématique. On en a la preuve dans

On en a la preuve dans ce fait que la menace de représailles de la part des gouvernements français et anglais a suffi pour obtenir un certain adoucissement dans la condition misérable des prisonniers de guerre, la suppression des fameux camps de représailles de Pologne et de Courlande et le rapatriement auparavant vainement demandé de 4.000 Français du corps sanitaire, médecins, brancardiers et infirmiers détenus en Allemagne au mépris de toutes les conventions internationales. Ces derniers résultats réalisés par l'entremise du gouvernement espagnol ont été annoncés officiellement au début d'octobre 1916 à la Commission parlementaire française des affaires extérieures.

C'est encore la crainte des représailles qui a contraint le gouvernement ottoman à retirer de la ligne de feu les otages français et anglais qu'il y avait envoyés. La Sublime Porte fut, en effet, informée le 11 mai 1915, par l'intermédiaire des Etats-Unis, que les gouvernements français et anglais tiendraient comme personnellement responsables sur leur tête de tout dommage causé à des sujets français ou anglais le Sultan, le grand Vizir, les membres du gouvernement et les commandants des troupes. La menace eut son effet immédiat et les otages furent ramenés à Constantinople (1).

26 Il a, d'autre part, suffi d'une simple protestation, pourtant peu énergique, du 20 avril 1916, émanée des Etats-Unis, pour tempérer l'abominable guerre sous-marine qui a coûté la vie à tant d'êtres inoffensifs. Egalement, quand il fut question en Allemagne de faire subir au capitaine anglais Blaikis, cdt. le "Caledonia", qui avait éperonné un sous-marin allemand, le sort du capitaine Fryatt condamné à mort et exécuté pour le même fait, le gouvernement anglais fit savoir à Berlin que des représailles seraient exécutées exercées contre des otages allemands de marque détenus en Angleterre, parmi lesquels se trouvait le lieutenant von Tirpitz, fils du grand chef de la guerre sous-marine. Et immédiatement le gouvernement allemand découvrit que le capitaine Blaikis ne pouvait passer en jugement parce que le "Caledonia", étant un croiseur cuirassé auxiliaire, avait le droit de se défendre. Les mesures de coercition autres que les représailles.

Le nombre des moyens coercitifs que peut employer un Etat pour amener son adversaire à résipiscence, en dehors des actes de guerre proprement dits, est illimité et dépend des temps, des lieux et des circonstances; certains de ces moyens peuvent se produire en état de paix comme en état de guerre. L'un des principaux consiste dans l'embargo, en vertu duquel sont retenus des vaisseaux et leur cargaison dans les ports et eaux territoriales soit en prévision d'une guerre, soit au cours d'une guerre déclarée. Dans ce dernier cas, l'embargo constitue une sorte de représailles, puisqu'on y a recours à raison de faits dont on se plaint de la part de l'adversaire.

Avant la déclaration de guerre à lui adressée par l'Allemagne le 9 mars 1916, le Portugal aurait pu s'emparer des vaisseaux allemands qui se trouvaient dans ses ports à titre de représailles de l'attaque sans déclaration de guerre de postes coloniaux portugais aux mois d'octobre 1914 et janvier 1915, en considérant cette attaque injustifiée comme équivalant à déclaration.

a préféré employer la voie de la réquisition, en agissant en vertu soit de la vieille coutume de l'angarie, soit d'un traité passé avec l'Allemagne à la date du 30 novembre 1908; et c'est ce fait qui a amené la déclaration de guerre précitée de l'Allemagne. (1)

Un autre moyen de coercition consiste dans la menace de continuation de l'interruption de s relations diplomatiques après la guerre tant que certaines satisfactions n'auront pas été données. A la suite de l'assassinat du capitaine anglais Fryatt, commandant le navire "Brussels", accusé d'avoir violé les lois de la guerre en se défendant contre un sous-marin et exécuté, après une parodie de justice, à la fin de juillet 1916, sir Edward Carson, dans une interview donnée au Matin et publiée dans le numéro du 12 août de ce journal, préconisait, comme sanction aux actes de l'Allemagne, le refus de reprendre après la guerre les relations diplomatiques tant que les auteurs des forfaits dans le genre de celui qui avait coûté la vie au capitaine Fryatt n'auraient pas été punis. Le gouvernement anglais a donné son adhésion à cette proposition. A la Chambre des communes, dans la séance du 16 août, à une demande de sir Carson, M. Asquith a répondu, aux applaudissements de toute l'assemblée, que les relations diplomatiques ne seraient pas reprises tant que les auteurs du meutre du marin anglais n'auraient pas été châtiés. Et il a laissé comprendre que cette conduite pourrait bien être imitée par les autres nations alliées qui ont souffert de brutalités encore plus graves et sur une échelle plus étendue que l'Angleterre.

Cette sanction des crimes allemands, si elles se généralise comme il faut l'espérer et si tous les Alliés ne consentent à reprendre les relations diplomatiques après la guerre qu'après le châtiment de tous les coupables, quels que soient leur culpabilité et leur rang social, peut avoir des conséquences considérables. En effet, un pays privé de relations diplomatiques avec la presque totalité des Etats ne pourrait plus accomplir sa mission sociale. Il perdrait ainsi tous droits et prérogatives grâce auxquels une nation peut exister et se développer. Il ne pourrait plus conclure les traités qui embrassent toutes les manifestations de la vie internationale et sont aussi nécessaires aux Etats que les contrats aux particuliers. Il serait privé du droit de légation actif et passif; or, les agents diplomatiques sont les intermédiaires indispensables grâce auxquels sont traités les multiples problèmes qui se produisent incessamment dans la communauté des nations. On doit même supposer qu'on empêcherait également la reprise des relations consulaires; car les consuls ne pourraient être admis là où les agents diplomatiques, leurs chefs, ne le seraient pas; et, au surplus, ils seraient inutiles dans une organisation où tous rapports feraient défaut. La puissance frappée d'un pareil ostracisme serait placée dans une condition à peu près semblable à celle des anciens monarques retranchés de la société chrétienne par l'excommunication majeure et que l'on considérait comme des pestiférés. Fatalement, au bout de peu de temps, elle serait obligée de venir à résipiscence et d'accepter toutes les exigences de ses adversaires.

La menace de l'Angleterre était certes redoutable; et pourtant on voit qu'elle n'a point fait reculer l'Allemagne d'un pas dans la voie criminelle qu'elle s'est irrévocablement tracée. Il convient donc, en dehors de moyens impersonnels comme les représailles et la non reprise des relations diplomatiques ou de l'action civile qu'elle juge probablement impraticable et qui, en tout cas, ne touchera que les intérêts pécuniaires, de la frapper à l'endroit sensible, en infligeant les pénalités voulues à tous ceux qui les auront méritées.

Par. IV

La responsabilité pénale.

Nous arrivons ici au point le plus délicat de la matière des sanctions relatives aux crimes des Allemands et de leurs alliés au cours de la guerre européenne. Comme nous l'avons dit ci-dessus, les lois internationales sont muettes et l'article 3 de la convention promulguant le règlement concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre ne vise qu'une responsabilité civile en dommages-intérêts très atténuée et peu définie, à laquelle il convient de joindre la disposition de l'article 28 de la convention de Genève.

De ce silence les lois internationales faut-il conclure à une absence complète de sanction pénale? Si telle était la solution, elle serait tellement monstrueuse que la conscience du monde civilisé la repousserait sans une ombre d'hésitation. D'autant plus que la plupart des crimes commis au cours de la guerre constituent des actes répréhensibles au point de vue du droit criminel interne des combattants. En sorte qu'on en arriverait, en ne les punissant pas, à ce résultat singulier et inadmissible que des pénalités normalement applicables en temps de paix cesseraient d'être à raison de la guerre. Et cette conclusion que la justice condamne ne peut s'appuyer sur aucune loi internationale, car le droit des gens n'enseigne nullement que ce qui est punissable et délictueux durant la paix devient licite et innocent au cours des hostilités.

Tout le monde est donc d'accord qu'une sanction pénale s'impose. Mais quelle sera cette sanction? Par qui les crimes seront-ils jugés et punis? Dans quelle mesure l'ordre des supérieurs excusera-t-il les faits punissables? Sur tous ces points règne une grande incertitude 29 et les opinions les plus opposées se sont produites. La question a provoqué de nombreux articles dans la presse et dans les revues, et a donné lieu à des débats approfondis à la Société générale des prisons sur les rapports de MM. Louis Renault et Garraud (1), et à la Société d'économie sociale sur une communication de M. Engerand (2). Examinons successivement les divers aspects du problème.

Le principe de la responsabilité pénale pour faits de guerre avait été déjà aperçu et dégagé par un certain nombre de juristes du siècle dernier (3) et est aujourd'hui admis, comme nous l'avons dit ci-dessus, par les auteurs contemporains. Il a été consacré par le grand Etat-major allemand lui-même qui déclare expressément, à propos des moyens de guerre prohibés tels que l'emploi du poison, l'assassinat, la mise à mort des blessés et prisonniers, le refus de faire quartier, le vol, le pillage, etc.. que : "quiconque contreviendrait à ces dispositions en serait responsable devant son pays et, s'il était fait prisonnier, serait passible d'un châtiment militaire (4). De même le grand Etat-major affirme que, la propriété privée mobilière étant aujourd'hui inviolable, l'enlèvement des objets de valeur constitue un vol criminel et punissable (5). Il ajoute que les chefs allemands ont à punir sans faiblesse les infractions à la prohibition du pillage même après la guerre (6); que le traitement le plus impitoyable doit être appliqué à ce qu'il appelle "l'horrible racaille ordinairement désignée sous le nom de hyènes du champ de bataille, qui dépouille, maltraite ou même assassine les soldats désarmés". (7) Ainsi, d'accord avec la doctrine générale, le grand Etat-major déclare punissables les actes commis au cours de la guerre qui sont envisagés comme délits par les lois ordinaires des Etats civilisés. Il ne s'explique pas sans doute sur le point de savoir qui sera chargé de punir les faits; mais il semble bien admettre, par la généralité des termes dont il se sert, que les tribunaux compétents ne seront 60 pas seulement les tribunaux nationaux du coupable, mais encore tous ceux qui pourraient être saisis en raison des circonstances, d'est-à-dire toute autorité territoriale dont la loi aurait été violée par les actes incriminés.

Comment donc se fait-il que les conventions de la Haye de 1899 et de 1907 n'aient point porté des dispositions pénales qui n'auraient dû soulever aucune difficulté dans leur principe, même pour les Allemands, puisque le grand Etat-major était lui-même convaincu de leur bien fondé? Tout simplement, dit M. Renault, parce qu'on n'y a point pensé, étant donné même le souvenir des excès de 1870-1871, car les faits de la présente guerre ont fait prendre à la question une ampleur que nul auparavant n'aurait pu soupçonner (8). Pourtant on aurait pu songer, en 1907, à la nécessité de la sanction à raison du précédent de la convention de Genève révisée de 1906. Le texte de l'article 28 de la convention nouvelle porte que : "Les gouvernements signataires s'engagent à prendre ou à proposer à leurs législatures, au cas d'insuffisance de leurs lois pénales militaires, les mesures nécessaires pour réprimer, en temps de guerre, les actes individuels de pillage et de mauvais traitements envers des blessés et malades des armées, ainsi que pour punir, comme usurpation d'insignes militaires, l'usage abusif du drapeau et du brassard de la Croix-Rouge par des militaires ou des particuliers non protégés par la présente convention". Il est dit, dans le rapport présenté à la Conférence de Genève par M. Louis Renault, que chaque gouvernement doit être à même de réprimer les actes des militaires maltraitant ou dépouillant des blessés ou faisant un usage abusif des insignes de la convention. Le rapport ajoute qu'il est possible que ces actes soient déjà prévus par les divers codes de justice militaire ou par le code pénal ordinaire et que, s'il en est différemment, il convient de voter les mesures destinées à assurer la répression.

Ainsi le seul texte international concernant les répressions pénales qui ait été élaboré, non seulement ne bannit pas l'application des législations pénales nationales, mais, au contraire, y renvoie formellement; et c'est seulement quand elles sont insuffisantes qu'intervient la loi spéciale de sanction. Il en a été ainsi en 61 France où les articles 4 et 5 de la loi du 24 juillet 1913 ont modifié les articles 249 et 266 du code de justice militaire pour l'armée de terre, en y faisant rentrer les dispositions pénales nécessaires pour réprimer les infractions à la convention hospitalière. On remarque donc que la sanction d'un délit international est assurée par une disposition législative interne, ce qui implique l'acceptation de cette législation en principe pour les infractions commises par les armées. Et, d'autre part, M. Renault fait observer avec raison que l'emploi du mot "tout individu" dans les articles 249 et 266 modifiés par la loi nouvelle est assez large pour englober à la fois les personnes faisant partie de l'armée française, et encore tous les individus, militaires ou non, même ressortissants de l'autre belligérant, qui se rendraient coupables des faits prévus par l'article 28 précité (9). C'est donc la démonstration évidente que les divers Etats ont accepté sans difficulté, dans le seul texte international sur la matière, l'application de la loi du belligérant sur le sol ou dans les armées duquel les faits punissables se sont produits; et c'était chose nécessaire, car un belligérant, pour la répression de ces faits qui intéressent au plus haut chef son ordre public, ne saurait être tenu de s'en rapporter à son adversaire. Il convient donc de généraliser le principe qui sert de base à l'article 82, étant donnée la considération d'ordre supérieur sur lequel elle est basée.

Le principe une fois posé, examinons les divers cas qui peuvent se présenter. En premier lieu, il convient d'attribuer le droit de répression sur les soldats et ressortissants de toute espèce, coupables de faits punissables, aux juridictions nationales. Ainsi, s'agissant de méfaits commis par un sujet français militaire ou civil en France, à Salonique ou dans tout autre pays occupé par nos troupes, nos juridictions sont compétentes. Il en sera de même des juridictions ennemies pour faits commis dans les mêmes conditions par leurs ressortissants. La proposition qui précède est universellement admise et figure dans les Instructions pour le gouvernement des armées des Etats-Unis en campagne de 1863. Et même l'article 47 de ces Instructions punit de peines plus sévères les faits commis en territoire ennemi que ceux perpétrés en territoire national.

Arrivons maintenant à la compétence des juridictions ennemies. Il s'agira, par exemple, de vols et attentats aux personnes commis par des Allemands ou des alliés des Allemands dans les départements français envahis, en Belgique, en Pologne, en Serbie. Les coupables pourront-ils, en ce cas, être jugés et punis par les juridictions françaises, belges russes, serbes? La question peut paraître 32 douteuse, étant donné que les agents punissables sont déjà justiciables de leurs propres juridictions comme il a été dit ci-dessus. Nous croyons cependant qu'il faut se prononcer en faveur de l'opinion qui admet la compétence des juridictions des pays occupés, sans toutefois, comme on va le voir, écarter absolument les juridictions de l'occupant.

En effet, suivant la doctrine moderne, l'occupation du pays ne met point fin à la souveraineté du pouvoir originaire. L'occupant n'exerce qu'une autorité de fait limitée à la période de l'occupation. Le souverain légal reste donc investi du droit de justice et rien ne saurait l'empêcher de l'exercer quand une circonstance quelconque - par exemple la captivité - met en son pouvoir l'auteur du fait punissable (1). En ce sens, on l'a vu, l'article 28 de la convention de Genève de 1906 suppose que l'application des pénalités par lui prévues peut avoir lieu à quelque armée et nationalité qu'appartiennent les coupables. Les Instructions américaine précitées admettent également cette généralité dans leur article 71. On remarquera, du reste, à cet égard, comme il a été dit ci-dessus, que la plupart des infractions punissables du temps de guerre rentrent également dans celles prévues par toutes les législations criminelles internes. Il y a, à ce sujet, une pénétration nécessaire de toutes les lois pénales qui ne sauraient avoir un caractère différent suivant les temps, lieux et la condition des agents punissables. Ainsi, dans cet ordre d'idées, l'article 267 du code de justice militaire français dispose que les tribunaux militaires appliqueront les lois pénales ordinaires à tous les crimes et délits non prévus par ce code de justice militaire.

Par suite, bien que la juridiction de l'armée à laquelle appartient le délinquant soit compétente pour connaître du fait qui lui est reproché, cette compétence n'exclut nullement celle du lieu où le fait a été commis. Si la première juridiction était exclusivement compétente, on en arriverait le plus souvent à de véritables déni de justice. En effet, on sait que les Allemands et leurs alliés, loin de punir les crimes commis par leurs troupes, les glorifient; et si, par hasard, des poursuites étaient intentées, la pénalité prononcée serait dérisoire. Il est donc indispensable qu'il y ait concurrence de juridictions; la compétence territoriale n'est nullement effacée par celle de l'armée d'occupation; et, si cette dernière a statué, il ne saurait y avoir autorité de chose jugée empêchant une poursuite nouvelle. En effet, si cette autorité de chose jugée peut se concevoir au regard des décisions des tribunaux répressifs étrangers dans des conditions particulières (V. conf.

33 art. 5. code instruction criminelle), la même solution ne saurait être étendue à l'hypothèse de sentences rendues pendant la guerre, étant donné que l'application du droit pénal aux crimes commis en temps de guerre n'offrirait aucune garantie si elle devait être faite par les juridictions de l'armée à laquelle appartiennent les criminels (1). Les juridictions de l'armée adverse auront donc toute liberté pour juger le fait punissable comme si aucune sentence ennemies n'était déjà intervenue, sauf, en cas de condamnation, à voir si la peine était réellement proportionnée à l'acte et si le condamné l'a effectivement subie. Bien mieux, s'il y avait à choisir, la préférence devrait être donnée à la juridiction du pays sur le territoire duquel l'infraction a eu lieu, car c'est là que l'ordre public a reçu la plus grave atteinte (2).

La concurrence des juridictions a été admise dans la discussion qui a eu lieu à la Société générale des prisons; et M. Renault a exposé, à la séance du 19 janvier 1916, que, dans l'affaire des déserteurs de Casablanca de 1908, le tribunal arbitral de la Haye, dont il faisait partie, a rendu, le 23 mai 1909, une sentence où cette concurrence est admise. Il s'agissait, en l'espèce, de déserteurs allemands de la Légion étrangère française réclamés à la fois, au point de vue de la compétence pénale, par le consul allemand et par le Conseil de guerre français. La juridiction de la Haye, partant du principe de la concurrence des juridictions, décida qu'il fallait tenir compte des circonstances du fait pour déterminer la préférence (3). Ainsi la justice est complètement satisfaite; aucun des deux pays ne perd ses droits; et si la condamnation prononcée par les tribunaux de l'un a été véritablement sérieuse et suivie d'exécution, le pouvoir exécutif de l'autre pourra en tenir tel compte qu'il appartiendra pour éviter la double répression (V. com. les art. 5 et 7 du code français d'instruction criminelle).

Le silence de la concurrence des juridictions est implicitement admis par les lois pénales nationales relatives aux faits de guerre. Ces lois, sans préjudice des droits de la juridiction nationale 34 des inculpés, visent, en effet, d'une manière générale, l'attribution des poursuites aux autorités compétentes jure loci. Ainsi la loi du 24 juillet 1913 indiquée ci-dessus, modifiant les articles 249 et 266 de notre code de justice militaire, punit les infractions à la convention de Genève commises dans la zone d'opérations des forces militaires et s'applique à tout individu coupable de l'infraction. D'autre part, les articles 246 et 250 du même code de justice militaire répriment les vols, pillages, dégâts de denrées, marchandises ou effets commis par des militaires en général. Il faut donc reconnaître que les textes bien que concernant normalement des militaires français, peuvent cependant, à raison de leur allure générale, être étendus à tous les agents punissables en dépit de la maxime que les pénalités sont de droit étroit. En effet, ils visent la sécurité de la zone d'opérations et les bons rapports des habitants avec les troupes, en sorte que ce motif amène à appliquer les pénalités prévues par cela seul que les faits punissables se sont produits ci sans tenir compte de la nationalité des auteurs. Négligeant la personnalité du coupable, ils visent uniquement le fait pris en lui-même, en raison de ses conséquences essentiellement nocives. (1)

Joutons que les prisonniers de guerre sont assimilés aux militaires de l'armée qui les détient par les textes spéciaux qui les régissent et nous réservons, bien entendu, des dispositions particulières prises à leur égard et qui pourraient déroger au droit commun (V. conf. art. 17, 56 in fine et 196 du code de justice militaire). Or, c'est le plus souvent par la captivité que les coupables ennemis deviennent justiciables de nos juridictions pénales.

On s'est demandé si les textes que nous venons de citer et spécialement l'article 56 in fine rendent les ennemis justiciables de nos juridictions même pour des crimes ou délits antérieurs à la captivité. M. Dumas (2) déclare la question délicate parce que, la compétence se fixant au jour de l'infraction, il lui paraît difficile d'appliquer l'article 56 pour un fait commis au moment où ce texte ne jouait pas contre lui. Il admet pourtant l'application du texte en se basant sur la déclaration de l'état de siège, conformément à l'idée émise par le commandant Julien et citée à la note 1 de la page précédente. Quant à nous, nous estimons, avec M. Garraud (3), que l'article 56 peut fort bien intervenir en l'espèce, car il saisit, par sa généralité même, tous les actes imputables aux prisonniers.

Les tribunaux français n'ont point hésité à appliquer dans le passé les dispositions des lois pénales dans les conditions qui viennent d'être indiquées aux militaires des armées ennemies d'occupation. M. Renault cite en ce sens des décisions diverses et particulièrement la suivante relative à la guerre franco-allemande. Il s'agissait, dans l'espèce, de vol et de pillage imputables à des soldats allemands qui avaient échappé, par le fait de l'occupation, à notre justice répressive. Partant de ce point de vue que, s'ils avaient pu être arrêtés, ils auraient été justiciables des tribunaux français, les juges ont cru pouvoir condamner leurs complices suivant les dispositions qui visent les faits punissables commis en territoire français (4).

La jurisprudence inaugurée à l'occasion de la guerre de 1870-1871 s'est renouvelée à propos de celle de 1914-1917; et nos tribunaux n'ont point hésité davantage à se saisir des faits punissables commis par des militaires étrangers (5). M. Garraud, dans son rapport précité (6), cite une poursuite relatée par le Temps des 28 février et 1er. mars 1915 et dans le Journal du droit international de la même année (p. 54 et suiv.). Le Conseil de guerre de la 10e. région siégeant à Rennes a condamné à mort, le 26 février 1915, un soldat saxon pour pillage en bande, incendie volontaire et assassinat de blessés sur le champ de bataille, pillage de denrées, tous faits commis en territoire allié belge (7). Le Conseil de guerre de la 17e région, siégeant à Toulouse, a eu à statuer sur le cas du lieutenant allemand de réserve, Erler Willi, originaire de Sprottau (Silésie), professeur d'école de filles et résidant à Nordhausen (Saxe prussienne), officier de réserve au 27e. régiment d'infanterie allemand, prisonnier de guerre interné au 91ème dépôt de Cahors. Le 2 septembre 1914, à Creil, Erler, à la tête d'une avant-garde, s'avança jusqu'à l'Oise. Ayant trouvé les ponts coupés, il se replia; mais, peu après, un coup de feu partit d'une maison et blessa un de ses hommes qui mourut dans la soirée. Erler, ayant rencontré

Mais il aboutit au même résultat par l'application de l'art. 64 du code de justice militaire combiné avec la déclaration d'état de siège. L'art. 64 porte : que sont justiciables des Conseils de guerre les étrangers quand ils ont commis, en territoire français, mais en présence de l'ennemi, des crimes ou délits prévus par le code de justice militaire. Or la déclaration d'état de siège du 2 août 1914 ayant mis le territoire français entier en état de siège et la France n'ayant pas perdu sa souveraineté sur les régions occupées, l'art. 64 serait applicable. presqu'aussitôt le gros de son bataillon resté en arrière, rendit compte de ce qui s'était passé au capitaine commandant ce bataillon et lui demanda des ordres; le capitaine lui ordonna de mettre le feu à la maison. Erler, y ayant pénétré, la trouva occupée par des soldats allemands. C'était la preuve à peu près certaine que le coup de feu (comme cela arrivait le plus souvent à propos de prétendus francs-tireurs que la peur ou le mensonge allemand voyait partout alors qu'ils n'existaient nulle part) provenait de soldats ivres ou ayant voulu, suivant leur coutume invétérée, justifier des représailles criminelles par le prétexte que les habitants ou des partisans avaient tiré sur les troupes allemandes. Erler mit le feu aux rideaux, ce qui provoqua l'incendie de l'immeuble. Le 16 juillet 1915, le Conseil de guerre a condamné Erler à 20 ans de travaux forcés et à la dégradation militaire pour avoir, le 2 septembre 1914, à Creil, mis volontairement le feu à une maison appartenant à M. Mahieux, propriétaire dans la dite ville et située rue Gambetta, nos. 44 et 46 (application del'art. 434, code pénal). On remarquera que le Conseil n'a pas hésité à prononcer non seulement les peines de droit commun, mais encore celle de la dégradation militaire qui semble ne pouvoir guère être appliquée qu'à des soldats nationaux, car il paraît difficile d'enlever un grade que l'on n'a point conféré. Quoi qu'il en soit, le Conseil a jugé que les lois pénales françaises saisissaient complètement le prévenu de nationalité étrangère quand il tombait au pouvoir de l'armée du pays occupé.

Les Conseils de guerre ont donc prononcé, sur l'ensemble du territoire, un certain nombre de condamnations à raison des diverses infractions commises par les Allemands. Mr. Garraud (8) estime que les poursuites ont été trop peu nombreuses, et il a raison au point de vue absolu, car il n'y avait point à hésiter devant l'application énergique de l'une des rares sanctions qui étaient entre nos mains. Il est vrai que l'on redoutait de provoquer des représailles dont auraient pâti nos malheureux concitoyens prisonniers en Allemagne; et c'est pour ce motif qu'on a poursuivi seulement dans les cas où il était impossible d'agir différemment.

L'Angleterre est allée plus loin en remontant à la source même de la responsabilité qui découlait des ordres donnés par le Kaiser et les chefs militaires. Dans l'affaire du "Lusitania", le jury anglais a rendu un verdict de meurtre et déclaré responsable l'Empereur et le gouvernement allemand qui avaient donné l'ordre des assassinats en bloc. Logiquement la Grande-Bretagne aurait dû déclarer criminels de droit commun et juger comme tels les officiers et les équipages des Zeppelins capturés qui avaient commis les crimes d'assassinat contre des personnes inoffensives et de destruction des propriétés privées habitées. Elle aurait d'autant plus dû agir de la sorte que les autorités allemandes n'ont point hésité à mettre à mort, comme il a été dit ci-dessus, le capitaine Fryatt, coupable simplement de s'être défendu contre les sous-marins. Or, si le capitaine anglais a pu ainsi être mis en jugement et condamné contre toute justice, combien, à plus forte raison, méritaient la mort ceux qui étaient venus, au mépris de toutes les lois de la guerre et de l'humanité, assassiner les populations inoffensives du Royaume-Uni. Et pourtant l'Angleterre a traité ceux qui montaient les Zeppelins comme des prisonniers de guerre, à leur grande surprise, paraît-il. Elle a probablement craint elle aussi, de provoquer des représailles contre ses propres prisonniers. Mais le meurtre judiciaire du capitaine Fryatt a bien dû lui montrer que ses adversaires ne reculeraient devant rien et que toutes les mesures de tolérance qu'elle pourrait prendre ne viseraient qu'à accréditer en Allemagne l'opinion que les Anglais avaient peur et qu'il fallait, par suite, frapper toujours plus fort. Peut-être, au contraire, que le jugement et l'exécution des officiers et des équipages des dirigeables auraient eu pour résultat de raréfier les incursions aériennes en présence du traitement impitoyable réservé aux pirates de l'air (1).

Comme il fallait s'y attendre, le principe de la concurrence des juridictions a été nié par les théoriciens allemands; la compétence exclusive de l'armée d'occupation a été soutenue notamment par la Société internationale de droit comparé et d'économie politique de Berlin, suivant laquelle : "Le soldat en territoire ennemi est sous la juridiction de ses lois nationales; il ne saurait donc être passible d'une double 38 juridiction pénale. Aussi longtemps qu'il est sous les drapeaux, le soldat demeure dans on pays". A cette déclaration de principe, les publicistes allemands ajoutent cette paraphrase : "Le soldat accusé de vol, incendie, etc... ne peut s'attendre à un jugement équitable de la part des tribunaux ennemis. Il faut le protéger contre des jugements iniques (2). Ainsi le droit et l'équité imposeraient une juridiction unique et exclusive; et cette juridiction serait naturellement, pour l'Allemagne, celle de ses propres tribunaux.

Nous sommes loin d'être aussi exclusifs que la Société internationale allemande, puisque nous admettons la concurrence des juridictions. Si l'Allemagne avait puni comme il convenait ses officiers et soldats coupables, nous ne réclamerions point des punitions nouvelles. Or, si l'on met de côté quelques condamnations prononcées contre des officiers pillards dans des circonstances par trop révoltantes, aucune sanction n'a atteint les coupables austro-allemands. Von Bissing, le tyran de la malheureuse Belgique, a fait connaître, en février 1916, le nombre des condamnations et acquittements prononcés par les tribunaux dont il est le digne organisateur. Il y avait eu 3.305 condamnations, 492 acquittements et 2.850 arrêts de poursuites. Nous ne pouvons si ne souhaitons contrôler ces chiffres; nous ferons seulement observer que les condamnations ont frappé exclusivement les Belges, tandis que les acquittements bénéficiaient aux Allemands devant ces prétendus tribunaux composés de soudards et non de juristes (3).

Comment, du reste, pouvait-il en être différemment puisque c'est par ordre que se sont produits les actes les plus odieux, tels que l'emprisonnement de Mme. Carton de Wiart, les déportations des avocats, magistrats, bourgmestres et notables les plus éminents de Belgique, les assassinats juridiques de Miss Cavell, du capitaine Fryatt, de Cesare Battisti, du maire Odent et de tant d'autres victimes innocentes. Combien fut différente la conduite des Français à Berlin en 1806 : le gouverneur Clarke et le commandant de la place Hulin réprimaient impitoyablement tous les excès; le public s'adressait à eux en confiance, et ils étaient devenus

(1) Il est vrai que les menaces dirigées contre les officiers et matelots qui montaient les sous-marins allemands n'ont été d'aucune efficacité. La Grande-Bretagne avait fait connaître qu'elle se proposait de ne point accorder le traitement des prisonniers ordinaires aux trente-neuf officiers et marins qui montaient l'U-B, sauvés des flots par le dévouement des marins britanniques, après avoir accompli leur abominable besogne. Immédiatement, une Note allemande du 14 avril 1915, adressée à l'ambassade des E.U. à Berlin, communiqua les noms de 7 capitaines et de 32 l'out. anglais emprisonnés dans les casernes spéciales de détention en représailles de la menace anglaise. La Note allemande exaltait le courage et la parfaite loyauté des pirates qu'elle avait l'audace de comparer aux officiers brit. appartenant tous à des corps d'élite et n'ayant jamais donné leur concours qu'à des actes licites et avouables absolument populaires (1).

Laquelle naïveté, d'autre part, faudrait-il être doué pour se fier à la justice allemande en présence de la façon dont sont justifiés les faits les plus abominables de la guerre. Nous prendrons comme exemple la dernière brochure relative à la Belgique et parue en Juillet 1916, du professeur Clémen, qui fait autorité dans les milieux influents d'outre-Rhin. A Louvain, c'est une attaque des francs-tireurs belges qui a fait tout le mal, quand tout démontre au contraire que l'incendie était prémédité. Pour les bombardements de Reims, l'Etat-major, la mort dans l'âme, a été obligé d'envoyer un obus - le docteur ne parle pas des autres - sur la tour Nord de la cathédrale où avait été installé un poste d'observation. L'auteur oublie volontairement la déclaration de M. Bartlett constatant l'acharnement avec lequel l'édifice fut visé d'une manière continue et régulière, bien que couvert par le pavillon de la Croix-Rouge pour lequel, on le sait, les Allemands ont le plus profond dédain.

Quant aux Halles d'Ypres, où l'intention criminelle est nettement prouvée, le docteur n'allègue même pas une excuse et se borne à célébrer, sur le mode lyrique, l'audace et la précision du tir! Il ne restait plus aux Allemands qu'à faire une exposition des ruines; et c'est ce qu'avec leur jactance inconsciente ils n'ont point hésité à faire en inaugurant, en mai 1916, au Kunstgewerbemuseum de Francfort, ce qu'ils ont appelé une exposition d'art! (2).

Par tout ce qui précède on peut se rendre compte qu'il est facile de rétorquer l'argument de la Société internationale allemande. Si elle redoute des jugements iniques de la part de nos tribunaux, nous sommes encore plus fondés à craindre, de la part de nos adversaires, un véritable déni de justice. En tout cas, nous basant sur la façon dont administrateurs, juristes et juges ennemis comprennent leur mission dans les pays envahis, nous sommes parfaitement autorisés à repousser la prétendue justice offerte par les Allemands, qui glorifient les crimes au lieu de les réprimer, qui acclament comme héros de l'air et de la mer les équipages des Zeppelins et des sous-marins et les décorent de la croix de fer au milieu de l'enthousiasme populaire! Nous continuerons à lui préférer notre justice qui sait être impartiale comme le prouvent les nombreux acquittements dont ont bénéficié des soldats allemands même en présence des circonstances douteuses. Et, au point de vue juridique, nous n'hésitons point à maintenir, pour les motifs indiqués ci-dessus, le principe de la concurrence des juridictions qui, en fait, devient un principe d'exclusivisme, étant donnée la façon dont les Allemands parodient la justice!

Nous avons supposé, dans les explications qui précèdent, que le coupable présumé était déféré à la juridiction du pays occupé sur le sol duquel il avait commis l'infraction; en sera-t-il de même en pays allié? Oui relativement à la France, à la Belgique et à la Grande-Bretagne, car il est intervenu, aux dates des 14 août 1914 et 20 janvier 1916 entre la Belgique et la France et à la date du 16 décembre 1915 entre la France et la Grande-Bretagne, des accords destinés, pour assurer la répression des actes dommageables aux deux armées, à reconnaître la juridiction de chacune d'elles quant aux faits susceptibles de lui nuire, sans tenir compte du territoire où cette armée se trouve et de la nationalité de l'inculpé. En ce qui concerne les autres pays alliés à la France, la juridiction française serait également compétente pour les motifs indiqués ci-dessus si les actes répréhensibles avaient été commis dans une zone par nous occupée ou si les inculpés avaient été faits par nous prisonniers de guerre.

x

Nous aboutissons donc à cette constatation pour la première des hypothèses par nous envisagée que nos tribunaux criminels sont compétents pour juger toutes les infractions soit à la législation militaire, soit au droit pénal général, s'agissant de militaires ou de toutes autres personnes, à quelque nationalité que les agents punissables appartiennent, quand il s'agit de faits commis dans la zone d'occupation des armées.

Le drpit commun suffit donc et il n'est nullement nécessaire pour le moment du moins, de faire une loi spéciale. C'est pour ce motif que les juristes n'ont point approuvé en général la proposition Engerand, déposée sur le bureau de la Chambre des députés le 14 janvier 1915, proposition prévoyant les qualifications, les peines, la procédure et la compétence, instituant, en un mot, un code complet concernant les faits punissables commis par des officiers et des soldats ennemis (1). Sans doute, comme le fait remarquer M. Renault, "il est possible qu'il y ait des lacunes à combler dans notre législation pour atteindre tous les faits répréhensibles commis par des militaires au mépris du droit international; qu'il y ait aussi des pénalités reconnues insuffisantes par suite de l'expérience; que même notre loi du 24 juillet 1913 ait besoin d'être revisée à ce point de vue". Mais il ajoute : "Notre législation telle qu'elle est permet d'atteindre la plupart des faits dont nous avons à nous plaindre." Notre savant maître 41 condamne toute codification actuelle sur ce point, car ce serait une entreprise qui aurait l'air d'être faite ab irato; et nos adversaires ne manqueraient pas d'exploiter contre nous la législation nouvelle auprès des neutres, en la présentant comme bâtie de toutes pièces par les événements de la guerre et comme n'ayant, dès lors, aucune valeur morale (2).

En somme, de l'avis commun, le droit pénal général permet d'atteindre les faits punissables qui nous occupent; et c'est seulement à la paix qu'il conviendra de combler les quelques lacunes qui pourront y être observées; retenons simplement ce fait que nos tribunaux criminels sont parfaitement armés, si le gouvernement donne les instructions nécessaires, pour qu'ils soient saisis quant le besoin s'en fera sentir.

Et la considération qui précède nous permet d'indiquer quelle est celle de nos juridictions criminelles qu'il faut considérer comme compétente. Ce ne seront point les tribunaux ordinaires, mais bien les Conseils de guerre. On est, en effet, en présence, soit de faits de guerre certains, soit de faits ayant avec la guerre un rapport évident et étroit, un rapport de cause à effet, en sorte que la juridiction créée pour l'armée, et qui s'impose en temps de guerre à raison de la prépondérance nécessaire de l'élément militaire, doit fonctionner exclusivement. Il n'y a là, du reste, que l'application des principes de la loi martiale, qui, en vertu de la déclaration de guerre, devient la loi normale des combattants (3).

Cette loi sera applicable sans difficulté à ceux que les circonstances, par exemple la captivité, mettront aux mains des juridictions compétentes. Quant à ceux qui n'auraient point été pris, la question de savoir si l'on peut les juger et les condamner par contumace soulève des difficultés qui seront étudiées ci-après en thèse générale.

Supposons maintenant que les crimes et délits qui ont été commis contre des nationaux des puissances alliées ne sont point prévus par les lois pénales d'une manière expresse. Il s'agit, par exemple, du fait par les officiers ou les soldats allemands de se servir d'otages comme de boucliers en avant des troupes ou de forcer des civils à coopérer à des actes contraires à leur pays, tels que construction de tranchées ou de retranchements, fabrication d'armes et munitions, etc..., en contradiction avec l'art. 52 du règlement de la Haye concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre, qui interdit de contraindre les populations à prendre part aux opérations de guerre contre leur patrie. On peut encore envisager la déportation en dehors de leur domicile des habitants, comme cela s'est passé à Lille, Roubaix, Tourcoing et en Belgique occupée. En présence de ces faits odieux et généralement de tous autres réprouvés par le droit des gens et les Conférences de la Haye, certains juristes ont hésité à admettre les poursuites parce que le texte des lois pénales serait muet à leur égard. M. Renault, en indiquant le doute qui peut s'élever sur ce point, fait observer que certains des faits qui viennent d'être mentionnés lui paraissents des plus odieux qu'on puisse imaginer. Il ajoute qu'on a hésité à admettre l'incrimination; que les journaux ont annoncé que des individus inculpés de faits pareils étaient poursuivis devant les Conseils de guerre sans qu'il ait été donné suite. Et il est d'avis qu'il ne faudrait pas mettre beaucoup de bonne volonté pour faire rentrer ces actes dans l'assassinat ou le meurtre (1). Nous sommes parfaitement de cet avis (2), car, par exemple, exposer sur un individu à être fusillé sans droit équivaut exactement à le fusiller soi-même. Ajoutons que les autres faits dont nous avons parlé constituent également des violences contre les personnes punissables sous le vocable d'arrestations illégales et séquestrations. En somme, on trouve fort bien, si on veut la chercher dans l'arsenal de nos lois pénales civiles ou militaires, l'inculpation adéquate à l'acte. Et, s'il fallait quelque peu étendre la portée de nos lois pénales contrairement au mode normal d'interprétation, nous nous y résoudrions sans la moindre hésitation, car il nous semble que la règle suivant laquelle le doute s'interprète en faveur de l'accusé n'est point faite pour les bandits à face humaine dont l'histoire vengeresse livrera plus tard les exploits à l'indignation du monde civilisé!

Arrivons au cas où les faits punissables ont été commis en dehors de toute juridiction territoriale de la France ou des nations alliées, par exemple aux crimes commis par les Allemands et leurs alliés à l'égard de prisonniers, tels que les abominables punitions devenues de véritables tourments pour les captifs ou les assassinats commis plus ou moins juridiquement, comme ceux de Miss Cavell et du capitaine Fryatt. En ce cas, les puissances auxquelles appartiennent les victimes sont-elles autorisées à poursuivre et à punir les coupables, à supposer qu'ils leur soudent entre les mains ou à les condamner par contumace si l'on admet cette procédure dont le bien fondé sera discuté ci-après? Etudions, à cet égard, les principes de la législation criminelle française. L'article 7 du code d'instruction criminelle admet que 43 les crimes commis à l'étranger sont punissables en France lorsqu'ils ont été commis par un étranger, seulement quand ils sont attentatoires à la sûreté ou au crédit de l'Etat français. Dans la discussion qui a eu lieu, dans la séance du 10 janvier 1910, à la société générale des prisons, M. Glunet a émis l'avis que les actes commis contre nos prisonniers violent l'ordre public français et portent atteinte à l'autorité publique française, ce qui légitimerait la compétence de la juridiction française. A cette interprétation qu'il qualifiait lui-même "d'un peu subtile", M. Garraud a répondu qu'il serait difficile de donner un pareil motif à un membre d'un Conseil de guerre (1).

L'article 7 du code d'instruction criminelle, sur lequel roule toute la discussion, vise les faits attentatoires à la sûreté de l'Etat français et non ceux qui auraient le même caractère vis-à-vis des particuliers. M. Garraud fait observer à cet égard que nous aurions eu peut-être intérêt à punir l'étranger coupable quand la victime est un particulier de nationalité française, mais que la loi de 1866 n'est point allée jusque-là. La loi ne parle que des intérêts étatiques et il n'est pas possible, par suite, de l'étendre aux intérêts privés (2).

Cette interprétation semble très exacte pour le temps de paix; dans la période normale et tranquille où les peuples vivent généralement en bonne intelligence, on peut considérer comme défendable la solution qui refuse de punir des faits attentatoires aux intérêts de nos nationaux parce que le pays sur le sol duquel ils ont été commis s'empressera le plus souvent de les punir lui-même, afin qu'on lui rende la réciprocité. On a donc pu, sans grand dommage pour les Français à l'étranger, négliger de leur donner une protection, utile sans doute, mais non indispensable.

Transportons-nous maintenant en temps de guerre et surtout de guerre conduite de la façon sauvage et abominable qui est celle des Allemands et de leurs alliés. Peut-on se fier à la répression qu'ils pratiqueront au regard des faits punissables commis vis-à-vis de nos nationaux, spécialement de nos prisonniers et otages? Non sûrement; la répression n'existera jamais, puisque c'est par ordre du gouvernement que ces faits ont été perpétrés et que leurs auteurs, loin d'être poursuivis et même blâmés, sont couverts de louanges proportionnelles à leur férocité. Croit-on qu'en présence d'une pareille hypothèse, le législateur de 1860 n'aurait point - ce qui lui était bien facile - réservé la poursuite relativement aux faits attentatoires aux intérêts des particuliers comme il l'a fait pour l'Etat?

Allons plus loin : les faits en question font courir le plus 44 grand danger à notre race, puisqu'ils tendent - ce dont l'Allemand n'est publiquement vanté - à ne nous restituer que des prisonniers ou des otages énervés, rongés par la tuberculose, incapables de vivre désormais la vie normale, de reprendre leur labeur ancien et surtout de continuer la race. Croit-on que l'intérêt de l'Etat ne soit pas en jeu et qu'en réprimant des faits attentatoires à la sûreté de leurs sujets les pouvoirs publics ne punissent pas en même temps des atteintes à la sûreté du pays? La ruine des intérêts particuliers devient ici tellement systématique et dangereuse qu'elle se transforme en ruine des intérêts nationaux, car, en somme, les intérêts privés envisagés dans leur ensemble ne sont autre chose que les intérêts publics.

Si l'on accepte la manière de voir que nous venons d'exposer, on arrive à cette conclusion que l'article 7 du code d'instruction criminelle devient nettement applicable. Au surplus, la "sûreté de l'Etat" est un de ces termes élastiques qui ne comportent point d'interprétation rigide et qui, au contraire, ont cet avantage de se plier aux circonstances. La sûreté de l'Etat peut se trouver compromise par un acte déterminé dans telle ou telle hypothèse alors qu'elle ne le sera point par le même acte dans telle ou telle autre. Et le conflit actuel nous fournit un exemple probant. Si les Austro-Allemands s'étaient battus en peuples civilisés, respectant les lois de la guerre, il se seraient empressés de punir d'eux-mêmes les infractions punissables qui, du reste, auraient été l'exception. Et la pensée de faire intervenir les juridictions des Alliés ne serait venue à personne, car la sûreté de l'Etat n'aurait été en rien compromise. Au contraire, nos ennemis ont fait la guerre en sauvage et de façon telle qu'elle est devenue attentatoire à la sûreté des biens et des personnes pris en masse et partant à la sûreté de l'Etat. Dès lors est née la pensée toute naturelle de garantir cette sûreté en utilisant l'article 7 du code d'instruction criminelle.

On retrouve l'expression de lois de sûreté dans le paragraphe 1er. de l'article 3 du code civil, aux termes duquel « les lois de police et de sûreté obligent tous ceux qui habitent le territoire. Ces lois, qui constituent une branche des lois d'ordre public, comprennent, de l'avis général, toutes les dispositions relatives à la conservation et à la défense de l'Etat ainsi qu'aux mesures destinées à assurer ce résultat. C'est donc une même pensée de défense et de sécurité sociales qui a dicté les deux dispositions analogues de l'article 3 du code civil pour l'intérieur, et de l'article 7 du code d'instruction criminelle pour l'extérieur. Les deux textes comportent, dès lors, une même méthode d'interprétation. Or tous les auteurs(1) qui ont commenté l'article 3 s'accordent à reconnaître que les lois visées par le paragraphe 1er. de ce texte ont en vue la sûreté des personnes et des propriétés prises dans leur ensemble, car toutes les atteintes à cette sûreté compromettraient, par la force des choses, la sûreté de l'Etat lui-même. Dès lors, si la nécessité de protéger la sûreté de l'Etat, en protégeant la sûreté de la masse des personnes et des propriétés, a nécessité l'application des lois protégeant dans ce but à toutes personnes habitant le territoire même étrangères, par une raison identique, les étrangers, dans leur propre pays, devront être justiciables de l'article 7 du code d'instruction criminelle toutes les fois que la sûreté de l'Etat sera menacée par des atteintes aux intérêts de nos nationaux. Et nous avons facilement démontré, croyons-nous, que tel était bien le caractère de la guerre actuelle (2).

Nous avons supposé dans les explications qui précèdent que la condamnation prononcée par nos tribunaux était contradictoire, s'agissant d'individus en notre pouvoir pour un motif quelconque, spécialement par suite de la captivité. Dans l'hypothèse contraire, peut-on poursuivre et condamner par contumace les auteurs des faits punissables? La question est douteuse et a donné lieu à controverse. On a objecté qu'il serait difficile d'instaurer la procédure par défaut parce que les auteurs des crimes et délits seraient difficilement connus et identifiés. L'objection n'est point décisive, car on connaît déjà les noms et la qualité de beaucoup des tristes héros des atrocités commises dans les pays envahis, par les proclamations, les ordres du jour, les enquêtes faites par les soins des gouvernements des victimes, les témoignages recueillis, les papiers, lettres et autres documents trouvés ou saisis dans les bagages et sur les malades et prisonniers, tous éléments de preuve auxquels se joindraient les investigations personnelles des magistrats (1). On a objecté en outre que la condamnation qui pourrait intervenir contre un chef militaire encore à la tête 46 d'une armée pourrait provoquer l'hilarité et couvrir, par suite, les Alliés de ridicule (?). Nous ne saurions partager cet avis; il est bien évident que c'est seulement quand l'Allemagne aura été réduite à merci que les condamnations par contumace pourront être exécutées. Mais une sentence mettant en lumière les excès commis ne semblerait point ridicule aux yeux des honnêtes gens chez les belligérants et les neutres. Elle aurait, au contraire, cet effet salutaire de montrer que les Alliés ont confiance dans le triomphe définitif du bon droit et de la justice, puisqu'ils n'hésitent pas à prononcer des peines dont leur victoire seule assurera l'exécution; le dédain et le scepticisme n'existeraient que chez nos ennemis et leur opinion nous est naturellement indifférente. Au surplus, après la jactance des premiers jours, commencerait bientôt à germer dans l'esprit des agents responsables la crainte d'être enfin livrés à ceux qui les ont jugés dignes des pires châtiments. Et cette crainte salutaire ferait peut-être réfléchir ceux qui seraient tentés de suivre l'exemple de devanciers déjà condamnés. En se multipliant, les condamnations par contumace amèneraient peut-être la peur qui est pour beaucoup le commencement de la sagesse; et ce ne serait pas un médiocre résultat.

Plus grave est l'objection aux termes de laquelle la condamnation par contumace suppose la fuite, la désobéissance, la rébellion à la loi. Or cette rébellion ne saurait être imputable au soldat ou au chef ennemi qui ne peut quitter l'armée pour répondre à la convocation de nos juridictions (3). Le code d'instruction criminelle français semble bien favoriser l'objection, car ses articles 468 et 469 donnent à la Cour le droit d'admettre, en faveur du prévenu, l'excuse tirée de l'absence du territoire européen de la France ou de l'impossibilité de se présenter. La juridiction française saisie, ne pouvant ignorer l'empêchement absolu et involontaire qui existe pour l'inculpé ennemi, devrait donc surseoir jusqu'au moment où il pourrait se présenter, c'est-à-dire ordinairement jusqu'à la paix, ce qui équivaudrait à l'abandon de la poursuite par contumace.

Enfin la clause d'amnistie que l'on retrouve souvent dans les traités de paix et par laquelle on renonce de part et d'autre à incriminer les actes accomplis au cours de la guerre (4) ne trouvera-t-elle point place dans le traité qui suivra la paix? M. Renault proteste à juste titre, avec la plus grande indignation, 47 contre l'insertion de cette clause, car, dit-il, "ce n'est pas seulement en ce qui nous concerne, c'est en ce qui concerne le monde entier que la proclamation de l'impunité serait immorale et scandaleuse " (5) Et le savant n'hésite pas à affirmer la possi-bilité de la condamnation par contumace, car suivant lui, "du moment que nous avons le droit de juger certains faits, nous pouvons les juger par contumace aussi bien que contradictoirement; la reconnaissance du droit de punir doit avoir les mêmes conséquences (1).

Après avoir admis le principe de la poursuite par contumace, M. Garraud (2) est toutefois d'avis qu'il y a là plutôt une question d'opportunité que de droit, et c'est là, croyons-nous, qu'est la vérité. Or la condamnation par contumace ne paraît guère opportune : l'instruction sera difficile à mener en l'absence de l'intéressé; les preuves manqueront ou seront difficiles à réunir; les témoins, sous l'empire de la crainte, ne déposeront point en pleine indépendance. D'autre part, la condamnation intervenue sans la présence de l'inculpé sera forcément, sinon suspecte, tout au moins plus ou moins équivoque. Enfin, comme nous l'avons dit, c'est seulement à la paix que la condamnation pourra être exécutée. Pour ces motifs, mieux vaut attendre la cessation des hostilités, quitte, quand la chose paraît nécessaire, à poser simplement le principe de responsabilité, comme l'a fait le jury anglais dans l'affaire des Zeppelins.

En attendant, rien n'empêche d'ouvrir une instruction judiciaire pour rassembler les preuves qui pourraient disparaître et de former le dossier de l'affaire à utiliser plus tard. C'est à cette mesure conservatoire qu'il convient, suivant nous, de se borner si l'on veut faire quelque chose de sérieux et de précis.

Il convient de signaler également ici l'application possible de la loi française du 23 juillet 1916, qui permet à toute victime d'un crime ou d'un délit commis dans les territoires occupés par l'ennemi et qui se trouve dans l'impossibilité de saisir la juridiction compétente, de déférer la connaissance du fait punissable à l'autorité judiciaire du siège de sa résidence. Cette dernière fera toutes les diligences nécessaires à l'effet de déférer les coupables ou complices aux tribunaux compétents.

48 Dans son rapport précité à la Société générale des prisons, notre collègue, M. Garraud, distingue deux catégories de faits punissables : "les uns collectifs, dont la responsabilité entière et directe pèse sur la nation ennemie; les autres individuels, commis par des officiers, des soldats isolés ou en groupes commandés ou non par leurs chefs. C'est à ce second groupe de faits seulement qu'il pourrait être question d'appliquer le droit pénal. Le premier échapperait à ses sanctions. Ce n'est pas qu'une nation ne puisse commettre des crimes, Mais, dans le cas même où, par suite de traités conclus entre Etats, la violation des engagements pris par l'un d'eux vis-à-vis de l'autre entraînerait cette classification, il ne resterait à l'Etat victime qu'à user de représailles. C'est ajoute M. Garraud, qu'il est de l'essence du droit de punir d'être le fait d'un pouvoir supérieur; et, dans la sphère des rapports entre les nations qui sont égales, indépendantes et souveraines, un pouvoir supérieur chargé de constater les crimes, de les poursuivre et de les punir n'existe malheureusement pas encore. La défense et la vengeance sont, dans ce cas, les seules réactions du droit violé dans les rapports des nations (3).

En temps de paix on admet généralement qu'un Etat ne saurait être justiciable des tribunaux étrangers quand il est assigné en tant que représentant les intérêts généraux et pour des obligations d'ordre public. L'immunité de juridiction s'impose en ce cas, car on est en présence d'actes de gouvernement accomplis dans le plein et entier exercice de la souveraineté. Le droit de souveraineté et d'indépendance interdit donc toute action en justice. Ainsi, si un particulier se plaint du dommage à lui causé par application de mesures de salut public, telles que l'état de siège, les réquisitions militaires, la répression des rébellions et émeutes, l'incompétence du tribunal saisi s'impose d'autant plus qu'en pareil cas les tribunaux sont d'ordinaire incompétents pour juger les actes du gouvernement national. La doctrine et la jurisprudence sont également généralement d'accord sur ce point (1). Mais il est alors permis d'agir par la voie diplomatique, de demander des explications et des réparations; et, si satisfaction n'est point donnée, en des cas particulièrement graves, peut se produire le casus belli qui amènera le conflit entre les Etats.

Or actuellement les faits collectifs dont nous nous occupons se produisent en temps de guerre dans une période où tous les privilèges diplomatiques de l'adversaire sont suspendus. C'est par la violence que seront obtenues, en cas de victoire, les satisfactions vainement réclamées avant la guerre par les voies amiables; c'est par la force que seront aussi nécessairement 49 réprimés tous les actes dommageables commis pendant le conflit. C'est par la force encore que seront imposées les décisions des juridictions devant lesquelles auront été traduits les chefs et soldats ennemis. Il convient donc de rechercher les auteurs des faits délictueux sans s'arrêter au mobile qui a pu les inspirer et sans distinguer entre les faits ayant un caractère politique et les autres; la théorie de l'acte de gouvernement est une théorie de paix, qui disparaît au cours des hostilités. Quant aux auteurs des faits dits collectifs, on les retrouvera, aussi bien que ceux des faits individuels, à la condition de vouloir nettement atteindre les coupables, si haut placés soient-ils : chefs d'Etat, chanceliers, ministres, généraux, commandants d'armées ou de troupes, qui ont donné les ordres de commettre les faits collectifs incriminés. Prenons, par exemple, la violation de la neutralité belge; c'est là, à coup sûr, l'un des plus odieux méfaits qu'aura à enregistrer l'histoire. Et pourtant la violation des traités internationaux n'est point envisagée comme punissable par les lois criminelles nationales ou internationales. Mais la violation du sol belge a engendré toutes les atrocités dont ce malheureux pays a été l'objet et qui, celles-là, sont bien punissables. Il suffira donc de rechercher ceux qui ont donné les ordres et les ont exécutés, sans souci d'une prétendue inviolabilité diplomatique que personne ne comprendrait. Sans doute, la poursuite par contumace serait inopportune ici comme relativement aux autres hypothèses pour les motifs ci-dessus indiqués; mais, à la paix, les Alliés victorieux devront rechercher et appliquer sans faiblesse toutes les responsabilités civiles et criminelles, quelles qu'en soient l'origine et la cause, qui auront été encourues par tous les agents punissables sans exception.

Il arrivera le plus souvent que les officiers et soldats ennemis poursuivis devant les tribunaux pour faits délictueux allégueront les ordres donnés; une double question se pose alors : 1°. faudra-t-il rapporter la preuve ou suffira-t-il d'alléguer l'ordre; 2°. en supposant l'ordre rapporté ou présumé, celui qui aurait fait que s'y conformer pourra-t-il bénéficier de l'excuse tirée de l'article 64 de notre code pénal aux termes duquel il n'y a crime ni délit lorsque le prévenu a été contraint par une force à laquelle il n'a pu résister?

Quelquefois la preuve pourra être rapportée; elle résultera, par exemple, d'ordres écrits, de proclamations, d'ordres du jour. Mais, d'ordinaire, l'agent punissable - le soldat surtout - ne pourra invoquer que des ordres verbaux, et l'on sera partagé entre 50 deux sentiments contraires. Si l'on réfléchit à la mentalité des soldats et des chefs à qui on a enseigné que tout était permis vis-à-vis de l'ennemi, on supposera qu'ils n'avaient nullement besoin d'ordres pour agir comme ils l'ont fait. Et, d'autre part, les ordres voulus pourront également être présumés dans la plupart des hypothèses, étant donnée la façon de conduire la guerre des Austro-Allemands avec le système de terreur et de violence dont ils usent systématiquement. Quoi qu'il en soit, le plus souvent, à tort ou à raison, les agents incriminés ont allégué l'ordre formel à eux donné, comme il fallait s'y attendre; et dans certains cas, on était tenté de croire à la sincérité de l'excuse. C'est ainsi que, dans la séance du 8 février 1915 de la Société d'économie sociale, le commandant Jullien, parlant d'une affaire dans laquelle il avait été rapporteur au deuxième Conseil de guerre de Paris, a raconté qu'un prisonnier de guerre, garçon fort intelligent, dessinateur d'une grosse maison industrielle de Hambourg, lui avait affirmé qu'en arrivant au village belge de Bermau, près de Visé, le général avit donné l'ordre, en réponse à quelques coups de feu qui avaient été tirés on ne savait trop par qui, de fusiller les hommes et de commencer le pillage. Et le prisonnier ajouta avec gravité : "Chez nous il ne fait pas bon, quand un chef donne un ordre, de ne pas l'exécuter" (1).

En supposant l'ordre de commettre le fait punissable donné au prévenu, la question vraiment délicate est celle de savoir si le soldat ou l'officier qui s'est borné à obéir est punissable ou si l'on ne doit pas considérer que la responsabilité unique incombe au donneur de l'ordre. On a fait observer, en faveur des subalternes qui ont obéi, que la discipline militaire est une chose absolument indispensable; que des soldats, des sous-officiers et même des officiers ne peuvent point discuter les ordres qui leur sont donnés, dont souvent, du reste, ils ne comprennent pas l'illégalité. On a ajouté que, quand même les subalternes seraient convaincus de cette illégalité, il faut tenir compte de ce qu'ils n'ont pas la faculté d'obéir ou de ne pas obéir; qu'ils agissent sous le coup d'une contrainte immédiate, car, s'ils n'obéissaient pas, ils seraient fusillés sur le champ ou passibles de peines graves. Et, avec cette manière de voir, l'article 64 du code pénal paraît pleinement applicable aux inculpés. (2).

Il convient tout d'abord de remarquer que le plus ignorant des soldats ennemis a, comme toute créature humaine, la notion du bien 51 et du mal et qu'en violant, massacrant, pillant, volant, il sait fort bien qu'il fait une chose défendue par la loi naturelle et la conscience. Quels que soient les ordres donnés, il comprend qu'il accomplit un acte défendu en obéissant. Mais dit-on, même en comprenant qu'il fait mal, il doit obéir. Soit; cependant, si l'on met de côté les actes dont les chefs surveilleront en personne l'exécution, comme l'incendie systématique des maisons de telle localité ou l'exécution d'ennemis en service commandé, la plupart des autres faits sont des actes accomplis isolément, au gré de l'individu et où l'abstention lui devient chose relativement facile. Bien qu'on lui ait ordonné de tirer sur les fugitifs, d'effectuer des vols et des attentats aux mœurs, le soldat pourra fort bien tirer à côté, ne point violer, ne point piller, ne point incendier. Et s'il le fait, alors que sans grand risque il pourrait s'abstenir, il devient pleinement responsable, car on ne peut plus parler de contrainte immédiate. Le libre arbitre reprend son empire; et la vérité est que, dans l'accomplissement de ces actes inouïs et aux reproches, les austro-Allemands et leurs alliés ont autant obéi à leurs instincts de brutes que les ordres donnés par leurs chefs.

Enfin, si l'on pousse les choses à l'extrême, en remontant de grade en grade, on ne trouvera guère plus que le Kaiser comme responsable. C'était ce que disait dans les termes suivants le commandant Julien dans la séance sus-indiquée de la Société d'économie sociale (1) : "A mon avis, il faut rechercher plus haut que l'individu, auteur matériel du fait reproché; il faut rechercher les chefs; le chef en chef nous irons très haut. Dans l'armée allemande il y a un chef suprême, c'est le Kaiser. Il nous reste à savoir si c'est cette personnalité que vous voulez traduire devant un Conseil de guerre. Savons-nous, par exemple, si le général Steingel que l'on accuse d'avoir lancé une proclamation dans laquelle il ordonnait à ses troupes de ne plus faire de quartier a été désavoué? Nous n'en savons rien; s'il ne l'a pas été, il est certain que cette proclamationest arrivée aux oreilles du Kaiser et c'est lui le chef responsable..."

Or, il est évident que le Kaiser a tout connu et, peut-on même dire, tout ordonné. Sans doute il n'a point donné tous les ordres barbares reprochés à ses généraux; mais ceux-ci savaient qu'ils agissaient en parfaite harmonie avec lui; ils n'étaient que les exécuteurs des hautes ou basses oeuvres décrétées par leur maître. Ce dernier a félicité, décoré ou fait monter en grade tous ceux qui se sont signalés par leur férocité. Il a été publié beaucoup de documents qui prouvent jusqu'à l'évidence ce que nous venons d'avancer; mais il en est un particulièrement significatif qui les résume tous et qui, dès le début de la guerre, a légitimé par avance tout ce qui pourrait être fait de pire. C'est une lettre adressée par Guillaume II à François-Joseph dans les premiers jours du conflit et où l'on retrouve le passage suivant : " Mon âme se déchire; mais il faut tout mettre à feu et à sang : égorger hommes et femmes, enfants et vieillards, ne laisser debout ni un arbre, ni une maison. Avec ces procédés de terreur, les seuls capables de frapper un peuple aussi dégénéré que le peuple français, la guerre finira avant deux mois. Tandis que si j'ai des égards humanitaires, elle peut se prolonger pendant des années. Malgré toute ma répugnance, j'ai donc dû choisir le premier système qui épargnera beaucoup de sang, bien que les apparences puissent faire croire le contraire" (2).

Ainsi voici la preuve faite; l'Empereur le déclare lui-même, il a choisi le premier système comme il l'appelle, et ses subordonnés n'ont eu qu'à marcher dans la voie par lui tracée. Dès lors, si nous appliquons l'article 64 du code pénal, nous n'aurons plus qu'un seul coupable à juger : leKaiser. Et encore invoquera-t-il aussi l'article 64. C'est, en effet, non point par sa propre volonté qu'il a agi ainsi, puisque son "âme se déchire". Mais il obéit à la loi de salut public. Il n'accomplit pas un acte personnel mais un acte collectif, un acte de gouvernement. Au besoin affirmera-t-il que c'est le vieux Dieu lui-même qui a donné l'ordre qu'il n'a fait qu'exécuter et que c'est par conséquent Dieu seul qui est responsable. Et, si singulière que la chose puisse paraître, il est évident qu'il y aurait une part de vérité dans cette défense. L'Empereur, en effet, n'est pas l'auteur de la mentalité allemande de la guerre impitoyable; elle existait bien avant lui; elle était dans la conscience de la nation, dans les écrits de ses publicistes, dans les moeurs de son armée au même titre que la conviction des destinées supérieures de l'Allemagne. Guillaume II l'a donc subie de plein gré, mais il ne l'a point inventée.

(2) Lettre publiée dans le nr. 310 du Bulletin de l'oeuvre des écoles d'Orient, dirigée par M. Charmetant.

Au fond des choses, c'est donc la nation entière qui est coupable et qui doit être punie dans la personne de tous ceux de ses membres qui ont exécuté le plan de haine et de vengeance dont la lettre de l'Empereur donnait l'idée maîtresse. L'article 64 du code pénal français est un texte fait pour des peuples civilisés : il suppose une contrainte exercée dans des cas isolés : et, de fait, son application est rare devant la justice répressive.
55 Il ne saurait donc concerner la totalité des actes punissables commis dans une guerre entière, car l'action publique se trouverait complètement paralysée si son caractère exceptionnel se transformait en règle générale. Toutes poursuites devraient immédiatement cesser contre les prisonniers allemands; et, à la paix, aucune action ne serait possible contre ceux qui n'auraient point été capturés, car ils invoqueraient tous l'excuse tirée de la contrainte et, comme nous l'avons indiqué, finalement tous les subordonnés et tous les chefs, grands et petits, échapperaient à la répression.

Aussi les Conseils de guerre français n'ont point hésité à repousser l'application de l'article 64 toutes les fois qu'elle a été proposée, et elle l'a naturellement été dans la majeure partie des affaires à eux soumises. Dans celle jugée par le deuxième Conseil de guerre de Paris et dont il a été question ci-dessus, celui qu'on a condamné et exécuté alléguait des ordres formels qui paraissent vraisemblables; il nommait le général qui dirigeait les opérations duquel émanait l'ordre ainsi que le lieutenant qui l'avait fait exécuter, le tout avec une telle apparence de vérité, que le rapporteur crut devoir adresser un rapport au ministre de la guerre à Bordeau (1). De même, le lieutenant Erler condamné par le Conseil de guerre de la 17e région, dont nous avons également parlé ci-dessus, invoquait la contrainte, et l'Allemagne, reconnaissant par là même l'ordre donné, a réclamé plusieurs fois la revision du procès pour ce motif, revision que le gouvernement français a toujours cru devoir refuser.

De pareilles solutions sont, nous le reconnaissons, regrettables au point de vue du droit pur; elles sont le résultat forcé du mépris absolu que l'Austro-Allemagne a manifesté et manifeste tous les jours pour le droit au cours du conflit actuel. Il faut bien pourtant se défendre si l'on ne veut jouer un métier de dupe qui, à la fin, sacrifierait les intérêts vitaux de la nation. Ayant violé tous les principes essentiels de justice et de morale du haut en bas de l'échelle, nos ennemis doivent tous encourir les mêmes responsabilités devant les juridictions - du reste plus équitables que les leurs - chargées de les juger et de les punir.

Les mesures d'après-guerre.

A la paix certaines sanctions disparaîtront nécessairement : ce seront les représailles et autres procédés de rétorsion. D'autres prendront, au contraire, naissance : par exemple l'interdiction 54 de la reprise de tous rapports diplomatiques jusqu'à ce que satisfaction ait été donnée, par la réparation des dommages et la punition des coupables, aux justes réclamations des Alliés.

La responsabilité civile prévue par l'article 3 de la convention de la Haye de 1907 promulguant le règlement concernant les lois et coutumes de la guerre sur terre se produira utilement à la fin de la guerre et pourra être réglée d'Etat à Etat, conformément à la proposition de M. Weiss, étudiée ci-dessus au par. 1er. Si les Etats intéressés ne se mettent pas d'accord à l'amiable, la Cour arbitrale de la Haye est tout indiquée pour trancher le conflit, en recourant à tous les modes de détermination des intérêts en jeu, tels qu'enquêtes et expertises.

En ce qui concerne la responsabilité pénale, les poursuites concerneront également à la paix vis-à-vis de ceux qui n'auraient pu être saisis durant la guerre ou à raison des faits ultérieurement révélés. Et ici une double question se pose : qui poursuivra-t-on et quelle sera la juridiction compétente?

Sur le premier point, nous n'hésitons pas à répondre qu'il faudra poursuivre tous les coupables sans exception, depuis les chefs d'Etat jusqu'aux simples soldats, sans en excepter les civils fonctionnaires ou autres qui auraient ordonné ou perpetré des faits répréhensibles. Tout d'abord, la loi doit être égale pour tous, et le crime n'est point excusable en raison du rang social. Au contraire, plus ce rang social est élevé et plus le criminel devient punissable, car il se devait à lui-même de donner l'exemple. Le 27 avril 1915, à la Chambre des Communes, M. Asquith, Président du Conseil des Ministres, s'est ainsi exprimé : "A la fin de la guerre, nous n'oublierons pas cette horrible série de crimes. A ce moment, nous considérons qu'il est de notre devoir d'exiger les réparations nécessaires de ceux pour qui il pourra être prouvé qu'ils ont été les auteurs responsables de ces crimes". Dans sa déclaration Ministérielle du 14 septembre 1916, M. Briand, Président du Conseil des Ministres de France, a laissé entendre qu'il associerait son pays à toutes les mesures proposées contre les violateurs du droit des gens. Il est bon que, surtout par le procès des grands chefs, tous les Etats belligérants et principalement les [illegible] qui n'ont que trop plié devant l'audace allemande, soient instruits des résultats du militarisme à outrance des hobereaux prussiens et de la nécessité de le faire disparaître à jamais. Ce procès nécessaire, en même temps qu'il amènera la punition des criminels qui ont couvert l'Europe de ruines et de sang, marquera, pour l'histoire, la flétrissure définitive de la Kultur germanique et des procédés infâmes dont elle s'est servie pour tâcher d'assurer son triomphe.

Tout ce qui précède suppose naturellement que la clause d'amnistie ne figurera pas au traité de paix; et nous renvoyons à ce sujet aux raisons qui ont été données ci-dessus à cet égard.

Quelle sera maintenant la juridiction compétente? Nous croyons qu'en ce qui concerne les soldats et les officiers subalternes, il n'y a aucune raison d'écarter la juridiction des Conseils de guerre des Alliés, qui jugeront, comme durant le conflit, les actes commis sur leur territoire respectif. Quant aux faits accomplis sur le territoire de nos ennemis, chaque gouvernement intéressé désignera, pour en connaître, un certain nombre de Conseils de guerre nationaux suivant les besoins.

Enfin le procès des grands chefs devra être déféré à une juridiction spéciale (1), devant laquelle les débats auront lieu avec l'ampleur voulue, et dont la décision aura le retentissement nécessaire. Cette juridiction pourrait être prise dans la Cour arbitrale de la Haye à laquelle on adjoindrait un certain nombre de spécialistes militaires ou maritimes, suivant la nature du procès (2). Mais,

(1) Suivant l'opinion d'un juriste neutre distingué, M. James Montgomery Beck, ancien attorney général des Etats-Unis, les coupables des faits contraires au droit des gens devraient être jugés par un tribunal spécial composé de juristes nommés par les nations alliées et neutres (Daily Telegraf du 19 août 1916-.

(2) On a objecté que cette juridiction n'a pas de compétence pénale suivant les conventions qui le régissent; qu'elle n'a pas de code à appliquer et ne dispose d'aucune voie d'exécution; qu'il faudrait, pour la réunir, un compromis que ne signerait jamais l'Austro-Allemagne; que les Allemands refuseraient d'y siéger; que ce tribunal ne procède qu'avec une extrême lenteur....(Baums, op. cit., p. 11). On remarquera que nous n'avons proposé le choix de la juridiction de la Haye que pour le procès des grands chefs et non pour les coupables qui iraient normalement devant les Conseils de guerre. Et quant à ces grands chefs, il est bien évident que, pour leur procès, la juridiction de la Haye n'opérait pas comme elle agit ordinairement pour le temps de paix. Les Alliés resteraient juges et jugeant et l'accusation à leurs adversaires, et la loi à appliquer serait la loi [illegible] des peuples civilisés. Il ne serait pas, bien entendu,.....

dans cette juridiction, ne devraient point figurer les représentants des Etats neutres. Tout d'abord, ceux-ci, vu les sympathies non dissimulées de certains Etats pour les Empires du centre, n'auraient point l'indépendance voulue et seraient trop portés à envisager les faits à un point de vue trop subjectif. D'autre part, les neutres, en s'abstenant de protester contre les atteintes aux lois internationales, la violation de la neutralité belge et les autres excès qui on suivi, se sont eux-mêmes exclus de tout règlement relatif à la guerre européenne. Pas plus qu'ils n'auront part à la Conférence des Alliés où seront débattues les clauses de la paix, ils ne doivent être admis à la liquidation criminelle du 36 conflit. Et également, pour les mêmes motifs, ils ne figureront point dans le jury arbitral de la Haye chargé de statuer sur le règlement de l'action civile dont il a été parlé ci-dessus. Il est impossible, vu leur attitude au cours de la guerre européenne, d'accepter les neutres dans les juridictions où seront débattues et fixées les responsabilités civiles et pénales des Austro-Allemands et de leurs alliés. Il est probable, du reste, qu'ils n'insisteront point outre mesure pour être compris dans ces juridictions, continuant leur politique d'abstention du temps de guerre.

.....question d'y faire figurer des juges choisis par les coupables. Du reste, pour nous, le principal motif du choix du tribunal de la Haye résiderait dans la haute autorité morale de l'institution.

It is of little consequence if these laws are contrary to the constitution or the common law of the country - they are non the less valid. However, representatives of military authority, when making these rules, must not lose sight of the dictates of humanity, justice and honor. Even their severity is not distinct from and must in each case be in proportion with the dangers run by the army. In applying these laws they must take care not to give in to their feelings and must respect the elementary rules of justice (1).

However great the severity of a martial law, a principle universally accepted nowadays is that a penality may only be imposed after a sentence has been pronounced by a regular military tribunal where the right for defence was available. Even if the culprit is caught in the very act, he cannot be immediately executed, he is entitled to a trial and that alone is sufficient to remove from the custom of war a fair part of its former inhumanity.

Espionage deserves a special place among the chief offences against which an army has to defend itself. Espionnage is a process of war, the rightfulness of which may be disputed from the moral point of view, but the necessity of which is such that it has always and always will be practised. Espionnage can be carried out by combatants or non-combatants, but to commit espionnage a combatant abandons his arms and conceals his identity; therefore he should actually be charged with an offence appropriate to non-combatants. Espionnage is defined as follows in instructions issued to the American army in article 88:

> "Any individual who secretly, in disguise or under false pretences endeavours to procure information with intent to communicate it to the enemy, is considered a spy."

---

(1) BLUNTSCHLI, Völkerrecht, Paras. 542, 543, 546, 548.

Such an act is, in fact, peculiar to espionnage with the result that two conditions have to exist in order to constitute espionnage.

1. There has to be a secret enterprise, executed with the help of a disguise, a fraud and ~~therecongges~~ there must be a suggestion of a deceitful nature in the individual attempting the enterprise. Consequently, military people sent on reconnaissance duties alone or in groups, if they are armed and clothed in their ordinary uniforms and even non-military individuals who without dissimulating their identiy or the object of their mission penetrate into the enemy's lines, cannot be considered as spies. These emissaries do not even incur a penalty, especially if they are unarmed and cannot be reproached with the commission of any act of violence. It is true they are acting on behalf of the enemy but we know that the rule that non-combatants must in no way participate in hostilities cannot be taken too literally. The worst that could befall them would be to be treated as prisoners of war; any more severe treatment would be unjustifiable and might lead to reprisals.

2. A spy is essentially one who tries to procure information on the strength, the positions and intentions of the army. It follows from this that individuals using a disguise or some sort of dissimulation for a purpose other than to obtain information, are not spies. They may be punished if they have transgressed some article of the martial law actually in force; they cannot be punished for espionnage. This remark is particularly important as it concerns the status of emissaries and messengers who are greatly used in time of war, especially in cases where a place is occupied by enemy forces. The same thing would apply to persons attempting to penetrate into the enemy's lines to try and procure supplies or to meet other people, if they could prove that their motive was not to obtain information on the state of the enemy's forces.

At one time the question arose of considering as spies balloon crews observing the positions and movements of armies. This fact is claimed in a despatch of the 19th November 1870 from Prince Bismarck to Mr. Washburne. (1) It has had some support in German legal writings (2). It is, however, most unreasonable. A spy is essentially an individual who hides himself and tries to deceive people about his real intentions. Therefore, how can such a reproach be made to airmen who act within sight and knowledge of everybody and whose very act in its accomplishment cannot escape anybody's attention. A writer maintains that taking off by night or in the fog would be a clandestine action. Such a statement is not even worth refuting. Shooting at balloons, the fabrication of weapons with which to hit them more easily, the use of strategems to force them to land, all this is quite lawful. But the claim that belligerents who can be reproached with no dissimulation whatever should be punished as spies, is not lawful. At the Brussels conference, the German delegate (3) himself agreed that the only treatment applicable to balloon crews was to make them prisoners of war. Such is the law on this point and this law is mentioned in article 22, paragraph 2 of the Declaration of Brussels and in article 21 of the Manuel de l'Institut de Droit International.

It is not important whether the individuals in question are military, they belong to the category of ordinary emissaries, whose status has never been likened to that of spies.

An analysis of the elements constituting espionnage is of great importance, as espionnage has always been punished by the death penalty. Is this severity attributable to the odious character of the offence or rather to the necessity of taking energetic defensive measures against an eminently dangerous practice? It is probable that both the above considerations have contributed to the determination of the treatment extended to spies. This treatment, according to military laws, applies to accomplices of espionnage and to persons who try to provide them with shelter. In this respect, it is hardly necessary to point out that the punishment of a spy depends in no way on his nationality. It is immaterial whether he belongs to an enemy nation and tries to help his own country, or on the contrary, if he is a national of the state against which he is practising espionnage, thus adding the offence of treason to that of spying, the death penalty still stands. A guilty neutral citizen is punished in the same way as the citizen of a belligerent state. French Military tribunals applied this principle during the expedition to Madagascar and in the case of an American citizen, Waller, whose case was marked by a certain notoriety. (1).

Formerly, it was not enough to inflict the death penalty on spies; their punishment had to be of a character implying the infamy of their act; therefore hanging was the execution reserved for them. A case which was talked of a great deal in England at the time of the American War of Independence, was that of Major André, a British officer convicted of espionnage who could not obtain from Washington the supreme favor of being shot; he was hanged in spite of appeals made in his favor (2). There is no reason for this particular severity today, when espionnage, far from being practised exclusively for pecuniary reasons is often considered by the most distinguished officers as the accomplishment of a particularly important and dangerous duty. Not only should this harsh practice be abandoned altogether but it would even be right in wartime to make a difference between an individual for whom espionnage is a shameful traffic prejudicial to the most sacred interests of his country

(1) R.D.I.P., 1896, p. 82 et seq. Waller was punished with 20 years detention for corresponding with the enemy. The United States Government suggested the records of the case should be handed over to them. This suggestion was rejected as being absolutely contradictory to the conventions which are to be observed amongst the states.
(2) CALVO, Droit International, Vol. IV, p. 179 et seq.

and a military man who accepts the burden only as being part of the accomplishment of his duty. This distinction should equally be observed in regard to espionnage practiced in peacetime. It is to be hoped that this point will not be neglected in the law now being prepared for us in France.

In any case a spy has at least one right: the right not to be executed prior to a trial by a regular military tribunal. Even if caught in the very act, a spy must not be immediately executed, he must be tried and condemned; the importance of this precaution will be appreciated in view of the intricacy of the questions arising out of this subject.

A spy who has accomplished his dangerous mission without being discovered and who subsequently falls into the enemy's hands, is not liable to any penalty for the act of espionnage which he ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ committed.

Certain offences punishable by martial law have given rise to abuses which it is important to point out here. These are acts by which an inhabitant of an occupied state, in the interests only of his own country, endeavours to help the armies of his country thus endangering the security of the occupational troops. The most usual way, although not the only one, of accomplishing this is by espionnage for the benefit of one's own country. However, assistance to the national troops may consist inthe re-establishment of broken-down communications, in hiding persons wanted by the enemy, in the destruction of public works useful to the enemy's army, in the communication of important news, and in any other similar acts. They do not constitute acts of aggression, but are, however, harmful to the enemy. There is no doubt that these acts are unlawful, and their commission deserves punishment. But the doctrine has been carried further and has attempted to besmirch them by qualifying them as treason. Thus, in Germany a special word has been coined to define these acts - Kriegsverrath - war treason (1). The use of this definition, which it is surprising to find in our French Manuel (2) has a false implication which can be most harmful to those against whom it is directed. It suggests that the population of the occupied country has the same obligation of duty and loyalty to the occupiers as to its own country. Nothing is more incorrect than this idea. Occupation, as we shall see, does not take the place of sovereignty. The peaceful population is certainly required to show obedience to the occupier, but this is just a necessary duty, in no way accompanied by sentiments of affection and confraternity the violation of which gives the traitor's crime its defaming character. Far from being dishonorable, as the definition would lead one to believe, these acts are highly honorable and sometimes heroic; their authors are insulted in the worst and most undeserved manner by the imputation of treason in their offence.

But the question has also another aspect, and if the word treason is here used it is also to justify the extreme penalties customarily inflicted on the culprits, out of proportion with the seriousness of the offence. From this point of view it is important for justice's sake that the real facts of the case should be re-established. Incriminating acts, tending to assist the enemy's army in a manner prejudicial to the occupying troops, are in the eyes of the inhabitants of the occupied country, acts of insubordination, and not of treason (1). They are not of a dishonest character and deserve no other penalty than that proportionate, according to the rules and customs of war, to the danger which the army suffering their consequences will run.

What are the laws of war that apply to non-combatants? The sanction of a military law normally consists in inflicting on the culprit the penalty which he deserved by his infraction of the law. There is no objection to the enforcement of such a sanction and there will even be nothing surprising if the penalties inflicted by martial law are very severe and generally out of proportion with the offence committed. The circumstances under which this law is enforced are such that it has to use methods of intimidation rather than run the risk of proving unavailing. But the penalty, however severe, must remain just, and for this purpose two conditions are necessary:

1) It must be inflicted by a tribunal who views the offence in question with complete impartiality.

2) It must, of necessity, not be completely uniform and rigid. It must allow for varying degrees of culpability. From this point of view, penalties left to the discretion of the judge, although liable to certain inconveniences, are better than the indiscriminate infliction of the death penalty sometimes thrust at non-combatants for even the most minor offence.

"Councils of War", states a proclamation of the Supreme Commanders of the German Armies on the 18th August 1870, " will be empowered to inflict only the death penalty". This provision has been justly bondemned for its excessive severity. It means the actual outlawing of the culprits, and will perhaps attain its aim far less surely than would a system of graduated penalties.

The customs of war would incur no reproach if it was limited to punishing culprits for their faults, but it does not stop there, and often, especially in cases of occupation, entire populations suffer from reprisals for offences of which they are completely innocent.

This was prepared by Major Willard B. Cowles, JAGD. Colonel King, Chief, War Plans Division, JAGO, does not agree with all conclusions. He believes that if unlawful but not apparent on face of the order it is a defence.

SUBJECT: The Defense of Superior Orders in Relation to War Crimes.

1. The question presented arises where an offense against the law of war has been committed. It may be stated as follows: Under the international law of war does a plea in bar by the accused on the ground that he committed the act under superior military orders go to exemption from liability as such -- as an excuse or justification -- or does it go only to the matter of mitigation of the sentence or punishment?

2. The broad and classic statement of the law on this subject, as made by the Supreme Court of the United States, appears in the case of Mitchell v. Harmony, (13 How. 115, 136, 1851 Term). The case grew out of an illegal act of a United States Army officer during the Mexican War. The Court said that "it can never be maintained that a military officer can justify himself for doing an unlawful act, by producing the order of his superior. The order may palliate, but it cannot justify."

Prior to this case, in 1804, the Supreme Court had held in accordance with this principle, in a situation involving the international law of sea warfare, where the superior orders came directly from the President of the United States. Following the President's instructions, which were in violation of the laws of neutrality, the captain of a United States man of war, brought into a United States port, a neutral vessel having only neutral property on board. The Supreme Court (opinion by Marshall, C. J.) held that the superior order constituted no justification for the illegal act. (Little v. Barreme, 2 Cranch 170 [1804]).

The a fortiori application of the broad principle of Mitchell v. Harmony to laws of war and in the criminal law is well stated as follows in Riggs v. The State, (43 Tenn. (3 Cold.) 85, 87-88 (1866)), case of murder, committed under orders by Federal soldiers during the Civil War. In that case, the Supreme Court of Tennessee said:

"It is a well settled principle, a soldier is not bound to obey an illegal order. If he does, and commits an offense, it is no justification to him, and he is liable to be proceeded against and punished. This principle was settled in the Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of Mitchell v. Harmony, 13 Howard, 129, in which it was held a military officer cannot rely on an apparently unlawful order of his superior, as a justification.

"The same principle was recognized and settled in the Court of King's Bench, reported in 1 Cowp., 180. In this case, a Captain in the English Navy, by orders of the British Admiral, pulled down the houses of some Suttlers /sic/ on the coast of Nova Scotia, who was supplying the sailors with spiritous liquors, and the health of the sailors was thereby much injured. The motive was a laudable one, and done for the public service. The Courts say, it was an invasion of the rights of private property, without the authority of law, and the officer who executed the order, was held liable. This being the rule in civil cases, the principle would be more strictly applied in criminal ones." (Emphasis supplied).

The principle had previously been applied, on the basis of the laws of war, in the case of Commonwealth v. Blodgett & another (53 Mass. (12 Metcalf) 56, 90-91 (1846), which involved civil war (Dorr's Rebellion). In carrying the orders of a Major a criminal law of Massachusetts was violated. The subordinates were held criminally liable, the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts saying:

"It has been argued upon the ground, that men ought not to be held responsible for acts done in obedience to orders which they are compelled to obey, under severe military discipline. But this is not the true principle; and it would be dangerous in the extreme to carry it out into its consequences. The more general and the sounder rule is, that he who does acts injurious to the rights of others can excuse himself, as against the party injured, by pleading the lawful commands only of a superior, whom he is bound to obey. A man may be often so placed in civil life, and more especially in military life, as to be obliged to execute unlawful commands, on pain of severe penal consequences. As against the party giving such command, he will be justified; in foro conscientiae he may be excusable; but towards the party injured, the act is done at his own peril, and he must stand responsible."

3. The same principle was applied by military commissions during the Civil War. In United States v. Hearst (1 Rebrec, II, 284, 291-292 (1862)) a plea of superior orders was overruled where enemy soldiers of a raiding party, mostly out of uniform, were ordered to burn a railroad bridge behind the lines. The accused, a member of the band, stated: "We were ordered to march up to the Big River bridge. We were told that the destruction of that bridge was a military necessity, and were ordered by our officers under the penalties inflicted by military law for disobedience of orders to destroy the bridge. I felt it was wrong at the time, and hesitated." Although the accused was found guilty and sentenced to be shot, the commissioners said in part:

> "The members of the commission engaged in the trial have reason to believe that the prisoner is an unusually stupid and ignorant man, and not capable of discriminating between the lawful commands of a superior officer and those that are criminal; that he enlisted in the rebel ranks more from unfounded fear of his neighbours than from any deep-seated feeling of disloyalty, and that he voluntarily delivered himself up as a prisoner when he could have escaped arrest."

On the basis of this statement Major General H. W. Halleck mitigated the sentence by commuting it to confinement for the duration of the war. In United States v. Tompkins (1 Rebrec, II, 485, 486-487 (1862)) the accused, charged with violating the laws of war in that he aided in the irregular burning and destruction of a railroad bridge, introduced in evidence a written order, to his captain from the major-general commanding, to destroy the bridge. The captain testified before the commission that he had ordered the accused to burn the bridge. In a statement made by the accused, he said:

> "On the 15th of June, 1861, under orders from Captain Hicks, the captain of my company, I assisted in burning the Sturgeon bridge. I believed it to be my duty as a member of the Missouri State Guard. It was not my feelings to do so. I disliked to do so but my obligations I conceived compelled me to do so. . . . . I now declare solemnly that I am entirely guiltless of the charges and specifications against me, except that on the 15th day of June, 1861, under orders of my superior officers I assisted to destroy Sturgeon bridge."

The commission found the accused guilty of the charge and specifications and sentenced him to be shot to death. The reviewing authority recommended mitigation by commuting the sentence to imprisonment. The confirming authority so commuted it.

In United States v. Reall (8 Rebrec, II, 279 (1865)) the accused was charged with spying and committing acts of guerrilla warfare, in scuttling and sinking steamboats and attempting to derail passenger trains by placing obstructions across railroad tracks. In the opinion of the reviewing the following statement is made:

> "The accused, in justification of the transaction on Lake Erie, produced the manifesto of Jefferson Davis, assuming the responsibility of the act and declaring that it was done by his authority. It is hardly necessary to say that no such assumption can sanction an act not warranted by the laws of civilized warfare. If Mr. Davis were at the head of an independent Government, recognized as such by other nations, he would have no power to sanction what the usage of civilized States has condemned. The Government of the United States, from a desire to mitigate the asperities of war, has given to the insurgents of the South the benefit of the rules which govern sovereign States in the conduct of hostilities with each other, and any violation of those rules should, for the sake of good order here and the cause of humanity throughout the world, be visited with the severest penalty. . . . . The major-general commanding feels that a want of firmness and inflexibility on his part in executing the sentence of death in such a case would be an offense against the outraged civilization and humanity of the age."

The famous case of United States v. Wirz (1865) is also in point. (House Ex. Doc. 23, 40th Cong., 2nd Sess. pp. 3, 706-709, 749-762, 805). Henry Wirz, Commandant of the Confederate prisoner-of-war camp at Andersonville, Georgia, charged with conspiring with others to injure the health and destroy the lives of United States soldiers, defended principally on the ground of his subaltern position and superior orders. He was sentenced to be hung for maltreatment of prisoners-of-war, notwithstanding the fact that, although not originally named in the specification of the charge of conspiracy, the military commission in its findings, amended the specification to include, among others, the following officials of the Confederacy: President Jefferson Davis, Secretary of War James Seddon, Surgeon General Samuel P. Moore, and the commanding general of the district of Georgia, Howell Cobb. Wirz was found guilty and sentenced to be hung, notwithstanding the fact that the necessary inference from the findings is that he was acting under high superior orders.

There was likewise considerable probative evidence in the military commission trial of the conspirators in the assassination of President Lincoln that the conspirators in that assassination and in the contemporaneous attempt on the life of Secretary of State Seward, were acting under the orders of high Confederate officials. (Pitman, pp. 363, 373, 375 and 378). This fact did not affect the decisions in these cases. For remarks by the Judge Advocate General on the relation of superior orders to these cases, see Rebrec, III, 492-493.

No significance was attached to the established fact of superior orders in the case of United States v. Hoge et al., which involved the trial by military commission of a group of armed Confederate soldiers, who, in civilian dress, boarded, as peaceful passengers, a Federal merchantman in a foreign port, intending to capture and convert it into an armed raider. (8 Rebrec, II, 674, 676, 681 (1865)). For other similar Civil War cases, see United States v. Owen, 1 Rebrec, II, 406, 408, 421, 426, passim (1862); United States v. Howard, id. at 439 (1862); United States v. White, id. at 443 (1862); United States v. Harris, id. at 486, 494 (1862).

4. Since World War I a few cases in point have been tried. In Germany v. Dithmar and Boldt, (Leipzig, 1921, 16 Am. Jour. of Int. Law 708), the accused subordinate U-boat officers were tried and found guilty as accessories to the killing of defenceless people in lifeboats under orders of the U-boat commander. It was found that they assisted in the firing on the lifeboats by reporting the varying distances of the lifeboats and as look-outs. (id. at 719). Instead of death, the sentence given was four years imprisonment. The reasons for giving such a mild sentence were stated as follows by the Court:

> "In estimating the punishment, it has, in the first place, to be borne in mind that the principal guilt rests with Commander Patzig, under whose orders the accused acted. They should certainly have refused to obey the order. This would have required a specially high degree of resolution. A refusal to obey a commander on a submarine would have been something so unusual, that it is humanly possible to understand that the accused could not bring themselves to disobey. That certainly does not make them innocent, as has been stated above. They had acquired the habit of obedience to military authority and could not rid themselves of it. This justifies the recognition of mitigating circumstances." (Id. at 723).

The case of Germany v. Neumann (16 A.J.I.L. 784), decided contra by the same court, is complicated by the fact that a question of reprisals was involved.

In United States v. Burger et al (1942), the eight saboteurs tried by a United States military commission were presumably acting under orders. They might have made a superior orders defense, but if they did, it was not regarded as a justification. A defense of superior orders appears to have been overruled in the Kharkov trials of December 1943. (N.Y. Times, 18 Dec. 1943; AP, Moscow, 17 Dec. 1943 (Wash. Post, 18 Dec. 1943); London, 19 Dec. 1943, Wash. Post, 19 Dec. 1943).

5. Most textwriters are of the same view. Winthrop states the law as follows:

> "But in the great majority of the adjudications it has been held that an order which is in fact illegal -- which commands the doing of an act which is unlawful or legally unauthorized -- can, however regular, proper, or just it may appear on its face, protect no one concerned in the performance; that the superior who gives it and causes its execution, and the inferior who actually executes it as ordered, will both, or either, be liable in damages as for a trespass to any person aggrieved. That the illegal order may have proceed from the highest authority of the government -- may have been in fact given directly by the President as Commander-in-Chief -- cannot render it of any greater efficacy in protecting the subordinate who acts upon it.
> "In this class of cases, however, the inferior, if he has acted in good faith, will ordinarily be charged with but slight or nomal damages. On the other hand the superior, if sued, will, as the principal offender, be held to a stricter accountability and made liable for all such acts of the inferior or inferiors of the command, by whom his orders were executed, as were within the scope of such orders." (Military Law and Precedents (1920 reprint), p. 887).

According to Wharton, both the Roman and the common law are that illegal superior orders are no justification. Thus he says:

> Under the Roman law, when a subordinate acts in obedience to a superior's lawful commands, the defense respondeat superior applies. With us, also, a command, to be a defense, must be lawful. "In all cases," says Sir J. F. Stephen, "in which force is used against the person of another, both the person who orders such force to be used and the person using that force are responsible for its use, and neither of them is justified > by the circumstance that he acts in obedience to orders given him by a civil or military superior; but the fact that he did so act, and the fact that the order was apparently lawful, are in all cases relevant to the question whether he believed, in good faith and on reasonable grounds, in the existence of a state of facts which would have justified what he did apart from such orders. (1 Sharton's Criminal Law, (12th ed., 1932) sec. 124, p. 175).

6. It is noteworthy that in all the cases cited, with the single exception of the aggravated case of United States v. Wirz, the maximum sentence was ultimately given in no case, notwithstanding the findings of guilty. Fairman makes the point that the soldier's dilemma "probably is more fancied than real" because sentence may be mitigated; and, "in criminal cases the nolle prosequi and pardon may in proper cases be the means of substantial justice." (The Law of Martial Rule (2nd ed. 1943), pp. 312-313). Wiener admits that the law is as held in the foregoing cases, but believes that it should be changed. He, however, is thinking in terms of domestic martial law situations, rather than of international war crimes. (Wiener, A Practical Manual of Martial Law, (1940), ch. IX, esp. p. 143).

7. On the basis of the above materials it is clear that, in the application of the laws of war, a defense of superior orders for an illegal act can not constitute a valid plea in bar in excuse orjustification, but is relevant only to the question of whether or not, under the facts of the particular case, any consideration should be given by the court to mitigation of sentences.

The situation is similar in principle to the well-established proposition that the advice of an attorney that an act would be legal, is not a justification for an illegal act, but goes only to mitigation, and to the practice in United States courts-martial of not bringing in evidence of previous convictions until after the findings. As regards war crimes the rule could hardly be otherwise for the most practical reasons. If the plea went to justification, proof of the superior order would be sufficient to acquit the accused. If his superior officer, who gave him the order were tried, and he, in turn could produce an order from his superior, he too would have to be acquitted. The effect of this might well be that responsible offenders would go unpunished, and only a few high officials could legally be held responsible. Orders might even be traced to the commander-in-chief or the head of the state, as was the case in Little v. Barreme and Germany v. Neuman.

8. There remains to consider only the statement in paragraph 347 of F.U. 27-10 to the effect that individuals of the armed forces will not be "punished" for war crimes in case they are committed under the "orders or sanction" of their government or commanders. While this statement is probably bad law and has its origin in a dictum of Oppenheim, International Law, sec. 253, (SPJGW 1945/4897, 30 Apr.), which has been changed in the latest edition of that work (6th ed. by Lauterpacht, sec. 253), it is important to note that, even as stated it is susceptible of being interpreted as being in accordance with the law. Thus it does not say that the inferior shall not be tried and found guilty. If this happened and the sentence was remitted, or he was sentenced and thereafter pardoned, he would not have been "punished". Moreover, as the lack of punishment applies only to the "orders or sanction" of his superiors, it does not preclude punishment for aggravated cases going beyond the order given. In any case, however, this statement has only the status, in United States law, of an administrative regulation and cannot override the contrary law, especially as it is laid down by the Supreme Court in Mitchell v. Harmony and has never been overruled.

9. It is, therefore, recommended that the Secretary of War be requested to authorize an amendment to F.U. 27-10, to the effect that the foregoing sentence of paragraph 347 be deleted and the following longer statement be substituted therefor:

It may be presumed that the accused in many cases involving such offenses will defend on the ground that they acted under orders from military superiors. The law of war on this subject is that such a defense is pertinent only to the mitigation of the sentence, not to the finding of guilt. This international rule can hardly be better stated than in the words of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Mitchell v. Harmony (13 How. 115, 136, 1851 Term): "It can never be maintained that a military officer can justify himself for doing an unlawful act, by producing the order of his superior. The order may palliate, but it cannot justify." What is here said specifically with reference to officers, applies equally to any member of the armed forces, or other persons participating in warlike activities. This is to say that any defense of superior orders should not be regarded technically as a plea in bar but as though introduced by way of mitigation of the sentence which would be imposed upon a finding of the accused guilt. It is not meant, however, to be suggested that in any such case a defense of superior orders is not of great importance. It is. Its importance is, however, relevant to the amount of the sentence, but the fact of the existence of a superior order has no bearing on a finding of guilt, and should not influence such a finding by a military tribunal.

Any person who defends upon the ground of superior orders must prove the existence of such orders, and where it is asserted that illegal superior orders were issued as a matter of reprisal, the burden of proof to show a proper case for reprisals is upon the person asserting the defense, but the tribunal may take judicial notice of such facts. As regards a finding of guilt, it matters not that the subordinate was in disagreement with the superior's intentions. Whether or not there should be no or complete mitigation should depend upon the presence of aggravating or mitigating circumstances. The following matters should also be given consideration in the determination of sentences in such cases: All relevant circumstances surrounding the offense are relevant to mitigation or aggravation. If, in carrying out superior orders, excessive force is used, or if they are carried out in bad faith, or with malice, the case is one of aggravation, rather than mitigation. The fact that, in military law, a command of a superior officer is presumed to be a lawful command should always be given consideration, unless the case is an aggravated one. Conclusive evidence of a threat of immediate death for failure to obey an illegal order should have great weight in mitigation, where no aggravating circumstances are present. In considering mitigation, the nature of the offense should be given careful consideration, in relation to the likelihood of the knowledge of the accused of the illegality of the act. Thus, participating in the shelling of defenseless persons in lifeboats or in deliberate mutilation of unarmed prisoners of war should have far less mitigating influence than participation in the confiscation of property. The following query will test this. Should the average member of the armed forces of the grade or rank of the accused probably know that the particular order in question was illegal? Thus, in past cases where subordinate officers have been accessory to unlawful killing, but did not actually participate, instead of receiving death sentences, upon a finding of guilty, they have been imprisoned for only four years.

Consideration should also be given to the heighth of the authority giving the order. A particular order of a first lieutenant given to a second lieutenant to do an illegal act may be less pertinent in relation to mitigation than a general order from the Chief of Staff, where the illegal order may be presumed to be a matter of legitimate reprisal, even though its ordinary illegality may be apparent. This is particularly true where officers (or men) have conferred about the matter and the subordinate has advised the superior against issuing the illegal order.

SUBJECT: Case No 11-384, OBERSEEBACH (P).

1. This case involves the alleged killing of an American pilot near OBERSEEBACH, Germany.

2. The case has been reviewed, wanted reports have been filed on the alleged perpetrators, and arrangements are being made to interrogate the witnesses and to locate the grave of the victim for the purpose of having the body exhumed for pathological examination and identity. The case has been classified as one which, from information on hand, the commission of a war crime is indicated. Upon further development and upon apprehension of the perpetrators the case will be made ready for an early trial.

MEMORANDUM TO COLONEL STRAIGHT.

SUBJECT: File 5-103, CHUTSEN (P).

1. This case involves alleged killing of four American airmen by the commander of STALAG 17A, CHUTSEN, Austria. The information was obtained from a former French prisoner of war and is purely hearsay. He states that he heard from some unstated source that in February 1945 four American airmen who had parachuted to safety were shot by the commander of STALAG 17A, at CHUTSEN.

2. This case was forwarded to this branch by Colonel HODGSON on 11 September 1945, and has not as yet been reviewed.

3. The file contains only the statement of a French prisoner whose further interrogation would be of doubtless value. The only lead contained therein is the unnamed commanding officer of STALAG 17A, CHUTSEN, Austria, who held that office in February 1945, and who is the alleged perpetrator. Upon review of this case it is probable that steps will be taken to ascertain the name of the camp commander, locate, detain and interrogate him with respect to his culpability in connection with the alleged crime. After the investigation, if it indicates him or others as the guilty party or parties the case will be prepared for early trial.

DANISH GERMAN

LIEUT-GENERAL (SS) GUNTHER PANCKE
(Bevollmächtigter für Innere Angelegenheiten, Denmark)

Copenhagen, September, 1944.

Deportations of Danes
Firing on crowds in Copenhagen
Torture of Prisoners.

(a) Deportations of Danes. About September 14th, 1944, General PANCKE ordered that, by way of reprisals for the killing of certain informers, about 270 Danish patriots, imprisoned in the concentration camp at FROSLEV, close to the German frontier, would be transferred to Germany. The transport of these men commenced on 15th September.

As these deportations were a violation of an assurance that Dr. Best had given when the camp at FROSLEV was instituted, the Danish workers declared a strike on September 16th, 1944.

Deportations of Danish Police. On September 19th, the German police Chief PANCKE announced the dissolution of the Danish Police Force and ordered the arrest and deportation of its members. The central and district Police Stations were stormed, and the Danish police were overpowered and disarmed. The grounds for this action - as stated in his proclamation - was that the Danish Police had assisted the law-breakers. Many of the police hid to evade arrest, but 1,600 were taken to Germany in one ship, and another 287 marched across the frontier from Froslov concentration camp into Germany.

(b) German Troops fire on the Danes.

The Danish New Service (D.P.T.) reported on 19.9.44. that the Amalienborg Castle where the King was in residence, was attacked by German marines shortly after 11 a.m. The Castle was guarded by 160 Danish Police, who repulsed the first attack, whereupon the Germans brought up artillery. Both sides suffered losses.

The (German-controlled) "Danish Home Service" at first alleged (19.9.44) that the German marines had been fired on while peacefully marching by. A second explanation sent out by the same agency a few hours later, said that the affair was due to a misunderstanding. The Danish police had mistakenly supposed that the German detachment meant to disarm the sentries and take the King prisoner.

On 16.9.44. German soldiers, who arrived in a lorry, fired on the public in the Randhusplads, and prevented the Danish ambulances from removing the wounded. The explanation given by the Germans was that the first shots had been fired from 3 taxis and that the German troops acted in self-defence.

(c) Torture of Prisoners

Danish prisoners in the (Gestapo) Vestre prison were tortured by the German Gestapo.

(c) Torture of Prisoners

Danish prisoners in the (Gestapo) Vestre prison were tortured by the German Gestapo.

(a) Evidence concerning Deportations from Froslev

The paper "Frit Danmark" (London) of 22.9.44. reported that it was the head of the Gestapo in Denmark, Gunther Pancke, who had ordered the deportations from Froslev during the absence in Germany of Dr. Best. Dr. Best had returned but did not seem to have any influence over Pancke. The Gestapo were now openly masters in Denmark.

The same paper in its English news-column reported as follows :

"The last fortnight has increased the number of denouncers liquidated by the patriots. There has scarcely been a day on which at least one or two have not been killed. This led the Germans to take reprisals on Thursday, September 14th, when the Gestapo Chief, General Pancke, ordered that about 200 of the Danish patriots now imprisoned in the newly established concentration camp Froslev (which is placed just north of the Dano-German Frontier) were to be taken away to Germany as hostages. This, said Pancke, was done to check resistance. The action is a complete breach of the promises made by the German plenipotentiary, Dr. Best, when his new concentration camp was established. It was upon Best's guarantee that no more Danes were to be taken to Germany that the Danish authorities gave their consent to the opening of the new camp. The reaction to the new deportation order came immediately. Danish workers, still working on the completion of the camp, went on strike and simultaneously strikes broke out in all the larger towns of South Jutland."

(b) Evidence concerning deportations of Danish Police

The (German-controlled) "Danish Home Service" announced on 20th Sept, 44., that the 1,700 Danish Police arrested on 19th September had been sent to Germany by ship for further interrogation, and that food parcels might be sent to them through the Danish Red Cross, marked "interned police."

The (German-controlled) Borsen of 22nd Sept, 44 published the following notices :

PROCLAMATION BY FORCE
(in the German-controlled Danish Press (Borsen 22.9.44.)
(cuttings in file))

AN ORDER MADE BY THE CHIEF OF S.S. AND POLICE LEADER IN DENMARK CONCERNING A POLICE STATE OF EMERGENCY

1. A police "State of Emergency" is hereby put in force with immediate effect in Denmark.
2. The Danish police and C.D. organisations excepting the C.P.U. are hereby disbanded with immediate effect.
3. Until such time as the Danish police have been reorganised the maintenance of public order and security will be undertaken by the German occupying forces.
4. Persons unlawfully in possession of firearms will be shot on the spot.
5. Any action tending to impede the measures taken for the restoration of public peace and order will be severely punished, - in certain cases by death.
6. The measures which it has been necessary to undertake in regard to the Danish police will be revoked as soon as normal order has been restored in Copenhagen and the provinces.

COPENHAGEN, 19th Sept. 1944.

The German-controlled Danish Press (of Borsen 22nd Sept.44) printed the following :-

A STATEMENT BY THE CHIEF SS AND POLICE LEADER IN DENMARK ON THE REASONS FOR HIS ACTION

The Press Office of the Chief SS and Police in Denmark announces:

The reasons for the deportations of the arrested policemen to an internment camp in Germany are as follows :

1. After careful investigation it was found that the police contrary to their duty, had assisted lawless elements, sheltered them, and hindered the German investigations, and had attempted to liberate offenders.

2. x x x

3. To prevent further attempts at liberation and to avoid bloodshed, the unlawfully-acting part of the Danish police force have been transported to a special internment camp in Germany, where all the men who were embarked have now arrived safely.

The Swedish Home Service of Oct 2nd, 1944, reported from Copenhagen that some 2,000 police had been deported to Germany and were being taken from a camp at Hamburg to the Buckenwald Camp near Weimar.

(c) Evidence in support of the charge of firing on the Danes

D14.DPT. 19.9.44. A most dramatic fight developed at Amalienborg Castle where King Christian and the Crown Prince are now in residence. The Amalienborg police force, which replaced the Royal Guard on August 29th, was warned immediately the treacherous siren sounded, and preparations were made. Barbed wire barricades were placed at all four entrances and Danish police reinforcements arrived. While the preparations were proceeding, the Queen arrived in a car. The castle, which was guarded by 160 Danish policemen was attacked by a large force of German marines shortly after 11 a.m. The first German attack was repulsed and the Germans suffered heavy losses. About a dozen Germans fell wounded outside the Danish Legation in Amaliegade. After the first unsuccessful attack on the Royal Castle, the Germans called up reinforcements and also brought up artillery. The whole quarter was surrounded by the Germans and the people in that area were unable to leave their houses. It is not known how many were wounded and killed in the Amalienborg fighting, but losses on both sides were heavy.

D.17. The (German-Controlled) "Danish Home Service", 19.9.44. (20.45). "With regard to the incident at Amalienborg Palace, it has been learned that it was due to a regrettable misunderstanding. The Danish police guarding the palace thought that the German detachment was going to disarm the sentries and take the King prisoner. Therefore they fired. However, German quarters never had the intention of disarming the King's bodyguard."

Evidence of firing on crowd in the Raadhusplatz

The Danish Press Service (DPT Stockholm) wrote 16.9.44. "On the night of September 15th at midnight a lorry arrived at Raadhuspladsen with 15 German soldiers, who jumped out. They started shooting at innocent passers-by without warning. Twenty-three persons were wounded. The Germans blocked the way with machine-guns; collected cartridge cases show that at least 53 shots had been fired.

DPT.16.9.44. "The German assault in Raadhuspladsen took place at the time when all was quiet in Copenhagen. After the shooting, crying was heard everywhere and the moans of the wounded and dying who were lying on the pavements, were to be heard. Fire engines on their way to a fire came right into the shooting and the fire inspector directed his car back to the fire station and from there all available ambulances were sent out. The fire inspector and the police were thrown back from the wounded by the Germans and had to flee down Stroget. An ambulance was allowed to drive up, but was forced to take wounded Germans to hospital in Rye Landsvæl. The ambulances were not allowed to take the slightly injured people, who together with casual passers-by, were packed together in a corner of Raadhuspladsen where they were forced to stay with their hands up and the blood flowing down. The Germans continued to shoot with machine-guns at everybody they saw and pursued them down side streets. Those who in spite of threats helped the wounded were dragged into Dagmarhus and were not released until later in the night."

"The Germans at first tried to explain that the shotting started from three taxis and that the German soldiers had only defended themselves. The Germans, however, have already abandoned this explanation, and it is a fact that the persons shot by the Germans were entirely innocent."

(d) Evidence concerning Torture of Prisoners

EXTRACT FROM THE "NEWS DIGEST"

MORGON-TIDNINGEN (Swedish) 20.8.44. reported: A citizen of /Helsingborg

Helsingborg (T.T.V.) Ohlsson, who has returned to Sweden after escaping from Horserd camp, says he was caught in a Swedish boat in the Sound on February 6th, 1944, by (? two) German motor torpedo boats which took him aboard a German warship in Copenhagen for a short questioning. The following morning he was taken to Dagmarhus in a lorry and the questioning was resumed, while he had to stand all day without food. After six hours of questioning he was taken to Vestre prison, but was told it would not be more than six days before he could return to Sweden. Things turned out differently.

Food was scarce, at first consisting of two slices of bread, artificial honey and apple tea; later he had bread and water and soup made of white cabbage and potatoes. He lost 10 kg. After four days he was asked to get ready to return, but later was questioned instead, and told that his first statement was thought to be a lie. As the Germans knew all about him, he was advised to confess. He was questioned by German and Danish Gestapo men, and repeatedly slapped and kicked. The following day he was asked to sign a German statement. He asked to see the Swedish Consul, but this was not permitted. He was kept six weeks in Vestre prison in order to change his mind and was afterwards transferred to Horserd camp, where the treatment was fairly good and the Danes deal with the food question. The camp, however, is strongly guarded, and the German guards are very provocative.

After the cinema demonstrations against Hitler in Copenhagen, all the prisoners were given a talking to, and again on another occasion when they were informed that five Germans had been killed in Copenhagen. Someone cheered this news and one guard fired wildly at the crowd. Nobody, however, was injured.

Ohlssons's escape from the camp was very exciting, and he thus avoided the third degree with torture, which was not unknown to prisoners in Vestre prison. He saw a teacher patriot lying badly injured without medical treatment in one cell. During questioning, this patriot was so tortured that one leg broke, and when mended so that he could stand he was shot. Another Dane who one evening was thrown into Ohlsson's cell had had his teeth kicked out by a doctor in a German field hospital. Many rumours about torture circulated in Horserd and there are reports of enemas of 80 degrees, and of people forced to eat salt and not given water until they are willing to speak. This, however, does not frighten the Danish patriots; they fight bravely.

NOTE:

A Memorandum, No. 164, produced by the F.O. Research Department based on Press sources, stated (April 4th, 1944):

"There were conflicting reports as to the identity of the Chief Gestapo official in Denmark, but at all events he is subordinate to Polizei General DANCKE in control of all German police troops in the country, who moreover ranks above Best in the Party hierarchy."

And in Memorandum No. 200, by the same department (July 4th, 1944) it was stated:

"The German chief of police in Denmark since October, 1943, Gunther DANCKE, was responsible for the recent war of nerves "clearing murders" sabotage of purely Danish interests, and the branding of patriotic Danes as Nazis."

UNITED KINGDOM CHARGES AGAINST ITALIAN WAR CRIMINALS

CHARGE NO. UK - I/B.2

(1) The Officer in command at and in the neighbourhood of Bomba in Libya on June 23rd/24th 1942.

(2) The Italian carabinier at the above place and date who assaulted Private Ketteridge, R.A.M.C.

(3) The said carabinier or in the alternative some other member of the guard of prisoners of war who assaulted Captain E.T. Gilbert, R.A.M.C., R.M.O., 1st Battalion The Sherwood Foresters attached to 2nd Guards Brigade.

23rd/24th June, 1942.
Bomba in Libya.

No.xxix. Ill-treatment of prisoners of war.
Breach of Articles 2, 10, 11 and 46 of the Geneva Convention, 1929, relative to the treatment of prisoners of war.
Breach of Article 5 of the said Convention.
Assault.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS

Captain Gilbert having escaped with his section from Tobruk on 20th June 1942, and having been recaptured on 23rd June, 1942, on the beach north of Gambut, was driven to some place in the region of Bomba, where they were all (seven of them) herded into a tiny room for the night, where conditions fell far short of requirements of the above-mentioned Convention.

At this place Ketteridge was assaulted for no apparent reason and when Captain Gilbert tried to interfere he was struck in the back and chest by rifle butt.

On the following day they were all driven to Tmimi by truck, on their way to Derna. Up to the time of arrival in Tmimi Captain Gilbert and party had not yet been given any food or water because they were told they had refused to answer the questions put to them by the German intelligence officers at the point of their recapture north of Gambut, who wanted to know (1) why Tobruk had fallen so easily; (2) were there any more of our troops down the sadis.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME

108109 Captain Edward Theodore Gilbert, R.A.M.C., R.M.O., 1st Battalion The Sherwood Foresters, attached 22nd Guards Brigade, was first captured by the Germans with his Battalion at a point between El Adem and Fort Pilostrino at (approx.) 15 hours on 19th June, 1942, but managed to escape at 16 hours the same day in an ambulance with five of his section plus three wounded. All the other wounded had been evacuated earlier in the day. As he was driving away one of his section, Private Jennings (Regimental No. ending in "00") was shot while in the ambulance by the Germans, who opened fire on this withdrawing Red Cross vehicle. Captain Gilbert sustained a slight graze wound.

At about 1750 hours Captain Gilbert reached the beach hospital at Tobruk, where the casualties, including Private Jennings, were admitted. After capturing Tobruk on 20th June, 1942, the Germans took over the beach hospital. In the meantime Captain Gilbert with the remaining four of his section and two other officers (Captain Petter and Captain Smith, both R.A.M.C.) who had asked to go with him, slipped out of Tobruk. Before doing so Captain Gilbert asked Lieutenant-Colonel Brian Brennan, who was O.C. beach hospital (i.e. 9th Light Field Ambulance) whether he was needed and if not whether he might escape back to our lines. The O.C. wished him luck and told him to try if he thought he had a chance. At about 14 hours on the 20th June, 1942, Gilbert drove another ambulance in which were his party on to the road and joined the German column moving along the Bardia Road. His ambulance aroused no suspicion in the German convoy. About 12 miles towards Bardia the sight of a check post made him turn off the road down a wadi towards the coast. After destroying the ambulance they walked and hid, eluding capture for three days and nights without provisions of food or water (they dug down in the sand near the beach and drank brackish water). At about 1750 hours on the 23rd June, 1942, they were recaptured by a mixed Italian and German patrol and taken to Bomba.

At Bomba occurred the events described in the short statement of facts on page 1 to which there is at present nothing further to add. They were given neither food nor water and next day, still without food or water, they were driven to Timmi on the way to Derna.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

1. The following will presumably be available to give evidence:-

108109 Captain Edward Theodore Gilbert, R.A.M.C.
Captain Petter, R.A.M.C.
Captain Smith, R.A.M.C.
Private Ketteridge, R.A.M.C. (presumptive only)
Other members, if necessary, of Captain Gilbert's section.

2. Captain Gilbert's narrative of events in summary form has been reduced to a statement by Allied Interrogating Organisation and included in a special report on conditions in enemy prisoners of war camps. The reference of this report is A.10/11/12 dated 11th January 1943. Captain Gilbert has sworn that the statements made by him are true and that the facts have been faithfully and accurately recorded.

Paragraph 2 of the report is the relative paragraph, of which the first four paragraphs only refer to this matter. They have been reproduced in substance in the 'Short Statement of Facts' on page 1. Full copy of paragraph 2 is attached to UK - I/B.5.

NOTES ON THE CASE

There is no doubt of the commission here of war crimes and of the direct responsibility of those who committed them. There can be no defence.

Apart from the fact that other witnesses should be available, it may be said that the case is complete since if Captain Gilbert's narrative of events is studied, his reliability, it is believed, will become self-evident.

The only difficulty is identification, and since there is no indication that there was a prisoners of war camp at Bomba, identification may be more difficult than in the case of a commandant of a well-established prisoners of war camp. On the other hand it is to be supposed that the party was taken to headquarters.

There may be said therefore to be sufficient prospects of identification to justify submission of the case.

Even if this were not so, the case is worth drawing attention to for the reason that it gives an introductory account to Captain Gilbert's narrative of events, which without being in the least bombastic shows him throughout as a man of courage, determination and resource, qualities which entitle his evidence to be accepted with confidence.

It may be noted as possibly having a bearing in this connection that when the senior medical officer at Benghazi went sick Captain Gilbert by common consent was asked to take charge.

UNITED KINGDOM CHARGES AGAINST ITALIAN WAR CRIMINALS

CHARGE NO. UK -I/B5

BI for the Commandant

Name, rank and unit of the accused is unknown.
Accused was Commandant of the prisoners of war camp at Derna on 24th June 1942 when the events complained of occurred.

Guards at above camp.

24th June 1942.
Derna

No.xxix Ill-treatment of prisoners of war.
No. xiv Confiscation of property.

Breach of Articles 2, 6 and 10 of the Geneva Convention 1929 relating to the treatment of prisoners of war.
Robbery.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS

On arrival at the prisoners of war camp at Derna Captain E.T. Gilbert, R.A.M.C., and other prisoners of war in the party with him were paraded in a filthy courtyard and all systematically robbed of their personal effects. Watches, cigarette cases, fountain pens, cameras, rings and everything that could be stolen, were grabbed and forcibly taken from the prisoners of war by the guards and others in the presence of the Commandant, and even under his supervision.

On the night 24th/25th 1942, the majority of the prisoners of war, officers and men, had to sleep on the bare ground in a graveyard. There were no tents, groundsheets or blankets. As it rained during the night they all got drenched.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME

Such further particulars as are available relate to a case of robbery and assault which is necessarily made the subject of a separate charge.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

The War Office despatch dated 22nd December 1942, by command of the Army Council addressed to the Foreign Office (ref. WO.24/55 and 0.013/4626/PW 2a) states that the facts alleged were compiled from the evidence of 25 British prisoners of war recently rescued from an Italian transport vessel who had been detained in the Benghasi and Tripoli area between July and September, 1942.

Amongst these witnesses was Captain E.T. Gilbert, R.A.M.C., whose experiences as a prisoner of war covered the period from 23rd June 1942, when he was captured, to 14th November 1942 when he was picked up at sea after being torpedoed on an Italian ship, S.S. "Scillon", which was transporting prisoners of war from Tripoli to Italy under disgraceful conditions of overcrowding and inhumanity, (see the case of S.S. "Scillon", UK-I/B11.) During the period of somewhat less than 5 months when he was a prisoner of war Captain Gilbert had experience of Bomba (UK-I/B2), Derna, Barce, Benghazi and Tripoli. An extract from the sworn summary of his statement is attached hereto. The passage which refers to this case is marked in red ink.

There is also attached an extract of another report, dated May 16th 1943, by the Allied Interrogating Organisation on conditions of Italian prisoners of war camps. This report records the views of naval officers and men which has already been referred to.

Corroborative evidence of this charge is to be found in the facts constituting the next charge but one, UK.-I/B7.

107/UK/It/5

NOTES ON THE CASE

The War Office dispatch referred to under the heading "Evidence in Support" is attached to UK.-I/B12, since it summarises conditions in prisoners of war camps in North Africa, and is more conveniently set out at the end of this group of cases. At this stage it is sufficient to mention the view taken by the War Office of conditions, after examining 25 witnesses, and making all allowances for possible Italian difficulties. The matter is covered in paragraph 8 of the despatch:

'8. Although the Italian Government may seek to condone some of these breaches of the Prisoners of War Convention by the plea of the difficulties of supply under conditions of desert warfare or of military exigency, the Council are not aware of any excuse that can be adduced for the deliberate/-417-treatment of prisoners of war, including even shooting, for the avoidable neglect of sick prisoners and for the disgraceful conditions under which prisoners were embarked by sea.'

Clearly whatever excuse can be found for failure in material matters involving command of resources which might not be available, which remains to be proved, none can be found for deliberate plunder. For this disgraceful proceeding the Commandant must be brought to book, and guards if identified.

No defence can be made or entertained on such a charge: Nor can it be other than the responsibility of the Commandant in the main, and in less degree the guards, if under orders.

SPECIAL REPORT ON CONDITIONS IN ENEMY P.O.W. CAMPS

SOURCE: 108109 Captain Edward Theodore GILBERT, R.A.M.C., R.M.O., 1st Battalion, The Sherwood Foresters, attached 22nd Guards Bde.

He was first captured by the Germans near EL ADEM on the 19 June 42 but escaped to TOBRUK the same day. He got out of Tobruk as the Germans were occupying this town on the 20 June 42, but was recaptured on the 23rd June on the beach north of GAMBUT; while escaping East.

2. TAKEN TO BOMBA, DERNA, BARCE AND BENGHAZI

On being recaptured they were all immediately put on a truck and driven to somewhere in the region of Bomba where they were all (seven of them) herded into a tiny room for the night (23-24 June 42).

There was absolutely no ventilation in this room which had obviously been used quite recently for all purposes.

It was at this place that KETTERIDGE of Source's section was struck by the butt of a rifle in the back by one of the sentries (an Italian Carabinier) for no apparent reason and when Source tried to interfere he also was beaten, being struck in the back and chest by rifle butt. Source had sustained a fractured rib the day before his capture at El Adem-Palestrino, and this treatment at Bomba, following on the three-days' trudge while endeavouring to escape and badly blistered feet, did not improve matters.

On the 24 June 42 they were all driven to Tmimi by truck where they saw some other p.o.w. Source and party had not yet been given any food or water because, they were told, they had refused to answer the questions put to them by the German Intelligence Officers at point of recapture North Of Gambut, who wanted to know (1) Why Tobruk had fallen so easily? (2) Were there any more of our troops down the Wadis?

From Tmimi they were transported that night by truck to Derna where they caught up with the main body of P.O.W. captured at Tobruk. Here Source and the others were paraded in a filthy courtyard while they were all systematically looted under the supervision of the Italian Commandant. Watches, cigarette cases, fountain pens, cameras, rings, etc., everything that could be stolen was grabbed and forcibly taken from the P.O.W. by the guards and others openly in the presence of the Italian Commandant. One subaltern in the R.A. smashed his camera rather than surrender it and was promptly set upon and beaten by the Italian guards, his glasses being knocked off in the process. When Source and some others tried to assist him they were driven back at the point of the bayonet.

On the night of the 24-25 June 42, Source with the majority of the P.O.W. officers and men had to sleep on the bare ground in a graveyard. There were no tents, groundsheets or blankets and as it rained during the night they all got drenched. Two men were shot that night by the guards for no reason other than expressing the desire to go to the latrines. The one died soon after while the other was severely wounded in the buttocks. Source took the latter with him when they were transported to BARCE on the 25th June, 42, and sent him to hospital there.

Source and his party were kept at BARCE for three days. On the whole, conditions and treatment here were better than in the previous P.O.W. camps.

EXTRACT FROM

A REPORT ON CONDITIONS IN P.O.W. CAMPS IN ITALY, NORTH AFRICA AND RHODES FROM INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM REPATRIATED BRITISH, IMPERIAL AND ALLIED PERSONNEL
(Dated May 16th, 1943)

DERNA CAMP

Derna is generally admitted by all Naval Officers and men to have been the worst P.O.W. Camp on the North African coast. Officers and men were treated in the most disgraceful manner.

The Commandant appeared to suffer from "reprisal mania" for alleged misdeeds of Australian troops to Italian prisoners; for this reason, everybody in his estimation was a criminal.

Shortly after the TOBRUK capitulation, organisation at DERNA Camp completely broke down: men lay about in the open with no kind of protection. Guards were permitted to poke officers around with the point of the bayonet, and one night three O.R's were shot for no reason at all. In addition, all valuables such as watches, rings, fountain pens, etc., were taken and never returned.

Rations

Each man received 1 tin of bully beef, one biscuit, sometimes a little coffee and occasionally some macaroni. Prisoners were purposely kept short of water.

There were practically no washing facilities, and sanitary arrangements were the worst possible.

BRITISH CHARGES AGAINST GERMAN WAR CRIMINALS

CHARGE NO. UK - G/B 45

The name of the accused are unknown but they are identifiable with indications of probable rank and units by their positions as follows:

B1 1. The medical officer in charge of the 17/21st Hospital in Boulogne on or about May 22nd, 1940, which had been taken by the Germans.

B1 2. The Commandant of the Prison at Loos from on or about 25th September 1940 to February/March 1941.

B1 3. The sergeant of the Prison Guard at the Prison of Loos and probably a non-commissioned officer of the Gestapo, during the above-mentioned period when Corporal James John Hogan, D.C.M. was interrogated.

C 4. Gestapo Agents in the prison at Loos who, during the above-mentioned period, assaulted Pte. Hoyle of the Buffs.

September 25th 1940 to February/March 1941.

Loos.

No. i. Ill-treatment of prisoners of war.

Breach of Article 1 of the Geneva Convention 1929 for the amelioration of the sick and wounded in the field.
Breach of Articles 2, 50 and 54 of the Geneva Convention 1929 relating to the treatment of prisoners of war
Assault and false imprisonment and neglect of duty towards defenceless persons by denial of suitable food in hospital.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS

Formerly Corporal Norman James John Hogan D.C.M., R.A.S.C., NO.3444749, now discharged from the Army, was wounded and became a prisoner of war 22nd May 1940. He was taken to 17/21st Hospital in Boulogne. The food consisted of six biscuits a day and a little soup. He was subsequently transferred to a Camp for convalescents at Paris Plage 4th June 1940 from which he escaped the same day. Two days later he was recaptured and taken to Lille from which place he escaped on the 8th June 1940. For rather more than three months he remained at liberty and had hopes of reaching unoccupied France but he was recaptured by the Gestapo and imprisoned in Loos jail for five months' solitary confinement after the Germans discovered that he was an escaped prisoner of war.

At an interrogation by the Gestapo he was struck in the face and kicked by a sergeant and by the guards of the escort. While in Loos jail he saw Private Hoyle thrashed by agents of the Gestapo and on another occasion deduced from Hoyle's appearance that he had again been beaten.

152/UK/G/37

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME

Corporal Hogan has sworn an Affidavit, a copy of which is attached hereto. This Affidavit includes all available particulars and may be said to be complete except for the lack of information as regards the names of the accused.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

The only evidence available at present is that of Norman James John Hogan, D.C.M., late Corporal, R.A.S.C., No. 3444749 who has now been discharged from the Army and is at present employed by the Britannic Assurance Co. Ltd., as an agent, and is living at 5 Barcroft Street, Ramsbottam in the County of Lancaster.

From paragraph 8 of the Affidavit it will be seen that Hogan escaped from a Prisoner of War Camp at Mulheim in Germany in March, 1941. Since his return to this country, though he has given very clear and satisfactory accounts of his experiences, the reactions on his general health have been at times rather serious and medical evidence could be produced if necessary showing that he had clearly undergone ill-treatment which would afford some general corroboration.

At the end of hostilities Private Hoyle of the Buffs will presumably be available on his release and return to this country and will be able to give evidence in his own case and to prove the presence of Corporal Hogan at Loos.

In paragraph 5 of the Affidavit a certain Captain Lowden is mentioned as having been in the hands of the Gestapo and on his return from Germany no doubt he will be able to give valuable corroboration and support the charges against the Governor of the Prison and other personnel as at the time mentioned.

In a note entitled "German Breaches of International Law which have not been the subject of Protest through the Foreign Office to the Protecting Power", dated the 23rd October 1942 and prepared by the Prisoner of War Department of the War Office, the general detail of this case is referred to under the heading of "Brutality and Ill-treatment". The note includes the statement that the Germans discovered that Hogan was "an escaped prisoner of war but nevertheless imprisoned him in solitary confinement in Loos prison for five months", thus indicating the view that it was also a breach of international law as is clearly the case. The view was expressed in the above-mentioned note that Hogan's reliability was good.

NOTES ON THE CASE

The facts of this case are clear and the first and second accused and probably the third accused should be identifiable, without difficulty.

In the event of the Governor of Loos prison (the second accused) and the sergeant (the third accused) being identified, it is to be expected that information would be made available as to guards who participated in these offences.

It may appear that the charge based on insufficient food in hospital is not a very serious one. It has its importance, however, as tending to establish the existence of systematic discrimination against and inhumane treatment of British prisoners of war. It may be pointed out that this was in effect the beginning of the campaign. The Germans were well supplied. Early victory was confidently regarded as in sight. There was no sort of justification for seizing medical supplies in captured British hospitals which were needed for British wounded. It cannot be too strongly insisted that actions of the Germans at this time reflected complete disregard of obligation towards prisoners of war for which, it is submitted, they should be made accountable.

152/UK/G/37

IN THE MATTER of brutal treatment of Corporal Norman James John Hogan, D.C.M., No. 3444749 R.A.S.C. by the Gestapo or other German Agnets contrary to the principles of International Law and the provisions of the Convention made at Geneva the 27th July 1929 in relation to prisoners of war, particularly articles 2, 5, 46, 50, 54 and 56 of the said Convention.

A F F I D A V I T

I, NORMAN JAMES JOHN HOGAN, D.C.M., late Corporal R.A.S.C. No. 3444749, at present employed at Britannic Assurnace Company Ltd. as Agent and living at 15 Barcroft St., Ramabottam in the County of Lancaster make oath and say as follows:-

1. On the outbreak of war on September 4th 1939 I was in the Reserve Class B of the Loyal North Lancashire Regiment and I received my calling up papers in pursuance of which I reported in due course at Lancaster. Later in the month, or early in October, the battalion to which I was posted was sent to France. Shortly afterwards I was transferred from my battalion to the R.A.S.C. Subsequently I received promotion to the rank of Corporal and was in charge of a section.

2. On or about May 22nd 1940 I was wounded and became a prisoner of war. I was taken to the 17/21st Hospital in Boulogne. The food consisted of six biscuits a day and a little soup. The Germans had taken from the Hospital, as I was informed and verily believe, two-thirds of the British medical supplies and all the cigarettes.

3. On or about June 4th 1940 I was sent to a camp for convalescents at Paris Plage, from which I escaped the same day. Two days later I was recaptured and taken to Lille from which place on June 8th 1940 I again escaped. For rather more than three months I remained at liberty and had good hopes of getting into unoccupied France and thence to England as I had secured some civilian clothes and was passing as a French civilian.

4. I was rearrested by the Gestapo on September 25th 1940. This time it became impossible for me to conceal my British nationality, or that I was an escaped prisoner of war, of which fact the Gestapo seemed to be fully informed. I therefore claimed my rights as a prisoner of war. Nevertheless, I was taken to the civil prison at Loos and treated as a criminal, being kept in solitary confinement for five months. During this period my food consisted of a small loaf and so-called coffee in the morning, and half a bowl of soup at midday and half a bowl of soup in the evening. During the whole of my term of solitary confinement I was never allowed out for exercise.

5. In the cell next to me was a certain Captain Lowden with whom I managed to establish communication and this officer will no doubt corroborate the treatment of British prisoners of war by the Gestapo.

6. During the period of my solitary confinement I was interrogated about every five weeks. On one occasion they 'planted' documents in a case which had been in my possession and producing these they made them the basis of an examination. My interrogators refused to accept my statement that these documents had nothing to do with me and that they had never been in my possession. This interrogation having failed in its purpose of drawing from me information which they desired irrespective of whether such information was in my possession or if in my possession whether it could be properly communicated by me I was struck in the face and kicked by the Sergeant and the guards forming the escort. I sent a letter of complaint in relation to this treatment to the Commanding Officer but it was intercepted by the Sergeant of the Guard who again struck me in the face causing me to lose a tooth.

7. While I was detained by the Gestapo I saw another British prisoner of war whose name I knew, Private Hoyle of the Buffs. On one occasion I was a witness to a very serious assault on Hoyle by Gestapo Agents. Two days later I saw Hoyle again when he showed signs of having been severely beaten once more.

8. At the end of my term of solitary confinement as aforesaid I was sent to a prisoner of war camp at Mulheim in Germany. From this camp I escaped in the month of March 1941 and worked my way through Holland, Belgium and France to Gibraltar. I was alone in making my escape but in Brussels I picked up some Belgians who accompanied me until we reached occupied France.

Corporal Hogan has sworn an Affidavit, a copy of which is attached hereto. This Affidavit includes all available particulars and may be said to be complete except for the lack of information as regards the names of the accused.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

The only evidence available at present is that of Norman James John Hogan, D.C.M., late Corporal, R.A.S.C., No. 3447[illegible]9 who has now been discharged from the Army and is at present employed by the Britannic Assurance Co. From paragraph 8 of the Affidavit it will be seen that Hogan escaped from a Prisoner of War Camp at Mulheim in Germany in March, 1941. The note includes the statement that the Germans discovered that Hogan was "an escaped prisoner of war but nevertheless imprisoned him in solitary confinement in Loos prison for five months", thus indicating the view that it was also a breach of international law as is clearly the case. The view was expressed in the above-mentioned note that Hogan's reliability was good.

It has its importance, however, as tending to establish the existence of systematic discrimination against and inhumane treatment of British prisoners of war. It may be pointed out that this was in effect the beginning of the campaign. The Germans were well supplied. Early victory was confidently regarded as in sight. There was no sort of justification for seizing medical supplies in captured British hospitals which were needed for British wounded. It cannot be too strongly insisted that actions of the Germans at this time reflected complete disregard of obligation towards prisoners of war for which, it is submitted, they should be made accountable.

152/WW/G/37

IN THE MATTER of brutal treatment of Corporal Norman James John Hogan, D.C.M., No. 3444749 R.A.S.C. by the Gestapo or other German Agents contrary to the principles of International Law and the provisions of the Convention made at Geneva the 27th July 1929 in relation to prisoners of war, particularly articles 2, 5, 46, 50, 54 and 56 of the said Convention.

A F F I D A V I T

I, NORMAN JAMES JOHN HOGAN, D.C.M., late Corporal R.A.S.C. No. 3444749, at present employed at Britannic Assurance Company Ltd. as Agent and living at 15 Barcroft St., Bambottan in the County of Lancaster make oath and say as follows:-

1. On the outbreak of war on September 4th 1939 I was in the Reserve Class B of the Loyal North Lancashire Regiment and I received my calling up papers in pursuance of which I reported in due course at Lancaster. Later in the month, or early in October, the battalion to which I was posted was sent to France. Shortly afterwards I was transferred from my battalion to the R.A.S.C. Subsequently I received promotion to the rank of Corporal and was in charge of a section.

2. On or about May 22nd 1940 I was wounded and became a prisoner of war. I was taken to the 17/21st Hospital in Boulogne. The food consisted of six biscuits a day and a little soup. The Germans had taken from the Hospital, as I was informed and verily believe, two-thirds of the British medical supplies and all the cigarettes.

3. On or about June 4th 1940 I was sent to a camp for convalescents at Paris Plage, from which I escaped the same day. Two days later I was recaptured and taken to Lille from which place on June 8th 1940 I again escaped. For rather more than three months I remained at liberty and had good hopes of getting into unoccupied France and thence to England as I had secured some civilian clothes and was passing as a French civilian.

4. I was rearrested by the Gestapo on September 25th 1940. This time it became impossible for me to conceal my British nationality, or that I was an escaped prisoner of war, of which fact the Gestapo seemed to be fully informed. I therefore claimed my rights as a prisoner of war. Nevertheless, I was taken to the civil prison at Loos and treated as a criminal, being kept in solitary confinement for five months. During this period my food consisted of a small loaf and so-called coffee in the morning, and half a bowl of soup at midday and half a bowl of soup in the evening. During the whole of my term of solitary confinement I was never allowed out for exercise.

5. In the cell next to me was a certain Captain Lawton with whom I managed to establish communication and this officer will no doubt corroborate the treatment of British prisoners of war by the Gestapo.

6. During the period of my solitary confinement I was interrogated about every five weeks. On one occasion they 'planted' documents in a case which had been in my possession and producing these they made them the basis of an examination. My interrogators refused to accept my statement that these documents had nothing to do with me and that they had never been in my possession. This interrogation having failed in its purpose of drawing from me information which they desired irrespective of whether such information was in my possession or if in my possession whether it could be properly communicated by me I was struck in the face and kicked by the Sergeant and the guard forming the escort. I sent a letter of complaint in relation to this treatment to the Commanding Officer but it was intercepted by the Sergeant of the Guard who again struck me in the face causing me to lose a tooth.

7. While I was detained by the Gestapo I saw another British prisoner of war whose name I knew, Private Hoyle of the Buffs. On one occasion I was a witness to a very serious assault on Hoyle by Gestapo Agents. Two days later I saw Hoyle again when he showed signs of having been severely beaten once more.

8. At the end of my term of solitary confinement as aforesaid I was sent to a prisoner of war camp at Mulhein in Germany. From this camp I escaped in the month of March 1941 and worked my way through Holland, Belgium and France to Gibraltar. I was alone in making my escape but in Brussels I picked up some Belgians who accompanied me until we reached occupied France.

Sworn at Swabottom

this fifteenth day of February 1943.

Committee I Meeting
11th April, 1946.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

DANISH

Notes on Cases by J. Litawski

I. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS:

1) Some of the accused are not sufficiently identified in the sense that the offices to which they were attached are not indicated. This applies to the accused:

APEL, BERNT, DOMINIK, FALKENBERG and PRINZIK

2) From the particulars of the individual cases it appears that some of the accused are already in custody but this is not expressly stated and there is no information as to where they are detained.

3) The majority of individual cases consist of short statements of facts only and no particulars of the alleged crimes have been submitted. If this would be acceptable to the Committee then all the accused can be listed on 'A' with some exceptions indicated in section II of this paper and subject to reservations submitted therein.

4) There is a number of Germans mentioned in the particulars of individual cases who apparently were involved in the crimes but have not been charged. This applies to the following persons:-

BOVENSIEPEN and RIIS (Burfeind case).
Persons named under 6 in the Jessen case.
BROSAMLE (mentioned in the John case).

5) It is not clear what the names listed under 4, 5 and 6 of the individual cases are intended for. Some of them are Germans who were either witnesses to the crimes or accomplices. In the latter category almost all the accused are included and the question therefore arises whether the Committee should list them also as witnesses. As regards the former category there are no sufficient personal data to be shown on the Commission's List.

II. INDIVIDUAL CASES:

JOHN on 'S'

VON KAMPTZ	-	This case is not sufficiently clear and requires more particulars of the alleged crime.
KUNDSEN	-	No charges submitted against him under BLUHME.
LINDEMANN	-	No date of commission of the alleged crime.
MUSSENER	-	On 'A' for ill-treatment only.
NEUHAUS	-	On 'S'
SCHMELEIN	-	On 'A' for murder and destruction of property only. Charge for putting hostages to death not substantiated.
THYSSEN	-	On 'A' for murder and deportation only. Charge of torture not substantiated.
WASCHE	-	On 'A' for ill-treatment and destruction of property only. Not for internment of civilians.

FOR THE MEETING OF COMMITTEE I
TO BE HELD
28TH MARCH, 1946.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I.

Notes on Cases
By Dr J. Litawski.

1) Yugoslav Cases.

596 (Addendum)	1 - 3 and 5 on 'A'. ZERBINO has already been listed.
1736	This case was adjourned on 12th December, 1945, in order to enable the National Office to submit additional information and also to clarify the question as to the belligerent status of the persons sentenced by the Italian Military Tribunal. In view of the supplementary information now submitted, it is proposed to list all the accused on 'A'. The case is analogous to case 1737 which has already been accepted by the Committee.
2691	On 'A'.
2692	1 - 9 on 'A'; 10 on 'C'.
2693	On 'A'.
2694	1 - 6 on 'A'.
2695	On 'A'.

2) Netherlands Case.

2690	1 - 2 on 'A'; 3 on 'W'.

3) United Kingdom Cases.

2681	On 'A'.
2682	On 'A'.
2683	On 'A'.
2684	3 - 15 on 'A'. In regard to the first and second accused, it is submitted to list them on 'S' as it is not clear in what measure they were implicated in issuing orders for the killing of Allied parachutists.
2685	1 - 5 on 'A'; 6 on 'C'.
2686	1 on 'A'; 2 on 'C'.
2687	1 - 2 on 'A'.
2688	On 'A'.
2689	On 'A'.

/.. .....

4) French Cases.

1019	1 and 2 on 'A'.
1382 (addendum)	HILMER on 'A'.
2648	On 'A'.
2649	1 - 20 on 'A'.
2650	On 'A'.
2651	The facts as submitted do not constitute a prima facie case of a war crime. According to Article 53 of the Hague Regulations an army of occupation is entitled to take possession inter alia of means of transport belonging to the State which may be used for military operations. Also all kinds of private means of transport may be seized and made use of for military purposes. The distinction between public and private property of this kind can have a bearing only on the question of compensation.
2652	On 'A'.
2653	1 - 2 on 'A'.
2654	1 - 2 on 'A'.
2655	On 'A'.
2656	It is submitted that the National Office should be asked for additional information as to the responsibility of each of the accused separately.
2657	On 'A'.
2658	1 - 5 on 'A'; 6 - 17 on 'S'.
2659	1 - 7 on 'A'.
2660	On 'S'.
2661	On 'A'.
2662	On 'A'.
2663	On 'A'.
2664	On 'A'.
2665	1 - 2 on 'A'. With regard to the third accused, the National Office should be asked whether he was in the service of the Gestapo or any other enemy organisation.
2666	On 'A'.
2667	On 'A'.
2668	1 - 3 on 'A'.
2669	1 - 4 on 'A'.
2670	On 'A'.
2671	On 'A'.
2672	On 'A'.

/.....

4) French Cases (cont:)

2673	On 'A'.
2674	On 'A'.
2675	1 - 5 and 7 on 'A'; 8 on 'S'; 6 on 'C' as the spelling of his name is obviously incorrect.
2676	1 - 24 on 'A'.

5) Czechoslovak Cases.

465 (Addendum)	The charge seems to be insufficiently substantiated with regard to the responsibility of the first accused. His identification data should also be supplemented by indicating the office of which he was the head. It is submitted that the accused 2-47 should be listed on 'A' and 48 on 'C'.
2677	The initial part of the crime alleged in this case was committed before the outbreak of war. From this point of view the case falls partly under the category of charges alleging crimes against humanity which are now under consideration by Committee III. The second part of the case alleges a crime committed during the war but it is not clear whether the final "taking over" of the property was in any way connected with the negotiations which took place in London before the war. Consequently it is not clear in what way the first, second and third accused were implicated and responsible for that crime. It would be necessary to know also in what circumstances and on what legal basis, even if it was a criminal one, the property was"taken over".
2678	On 'A'.
2679	1 - 3 on 'A'. (These accused are not sufficiently identified).
2680	1 - 7 on 'A'.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I.

Notes on Cases.
By Dr. J. Litawski.

1) United Kingdom Cases.

270	1 - 2 on 'A'.
	This case is a re-draft of a previous case referring to the same crime and for which Colonel NICOLETTI has been listed on 'A'. It is therefore submitted that NICOLETTI should be removed from the Commission List.
1292 (addendum)	KOKAIL on 'A'
P.286	1 - 15 on 'A'.
P.287	1 - 4 and 6 - 8 on 'A', 5 and 9 on 'C'.
P.288	1 - 3 on 'A', 4 - 6 on 'C'.

1053	This case was adjourned for further consideration on the motion of Sir Robert CRAIGIE and Captain WOLFF.
2025	This case was adjourned as the Committee were of opinion that the facts as submitted in the case do not constitute a prima facie case of a war crime. In view of the supplementary information, it is submitted that the accused should be listed on 'A'.
915	In view of the fact that all the persons named in the main charge have already been listed on 'A', this addendum should only be filed, and no further action taken.
2009	1 - 4 of addendum No. 2 on 'A'.

2566	1 on 'A'.
	As to the accused No.2, in view of the numerous crimes and the number of victims involved, the whole division should be listed under 'A' as a unit, but it is doubtful whether this would be a practical step at this late stage.

Notes on Cases.
By Dr. J. Litawski

1) Polish Case.

2423	On 'A'. The accused should be listed not only for murder and putting hostages to death, but also for indiscriminate mass arrest, torture of civilians and exaction of illegitimate contribution.

2) Norwegian Cases.

2499	On 'A'
2500	1 - 2 on 'A'.
2501	1 - 2 on 'A'.
2502	1 - 4 on 'A'.
2503	1 - 2 on 'A'.

3) Netherlands Cases.

2460	1 - 3 on 'A'. It appears from the affidavit that General RAUTER should have been charged also.
2461	On 'A'.
2462	On 'A' for deportation, not for murder.
2463	There is nothing in the case to establish a charge of murder. The accused denounced the victim for having committed a crime for which he was sentenced by a legal German Court to eighteen months' imprisonment. On expiry of this sentence which he served in Germany, the victim came back to Holland, and later on was deported to Poland where he died. There is, therefore, no direct connection between the action of the accused and the victim's death, or even his deportation which occurred after eighteen months and was probably caused by the fact that the victim was a Jew.
2464	On 'A' for torture and pillage only. There is nothing in the case to establish a charge of internment under inhuman conditions.

2256 1 on 'A', 2-4 on 'W'

2257 1 - 6 on 'A'.

2258 On 'A'.

2259 The allegations that the systematic destruction of St.Malo was not necessitated by strategic reasons, and that the town was outside the zone of military operations are not supported by the facts submitted in the particulars of the case. From the latter it results quite clearly that

a) St. Malo was on the line of the Allied offensive, was bombarded by Allied planes and finally besieged. On August 13th a truce was agreed upon in order to evacuate and spare the civilian inhabitants.

b) The accused No.1, having been in charge of German Forces, decided on his own initiative or upon orders received from his superiors, to defend the town to the last, and was entitled to do so

The action taken by the accused is therefore to be regarded as a military necessity unless the French National Office would be in a position to submit facts to the contrary other than presented in the case.

6) United States Cases.

2305 According to Article 24 of the Geneva Convention 1929 (Amelioration of the Condition of the Wounded and Sick, etc.,) the emblem of the Red Cross shall not be used either in time of peace or in time of war except to protect or to indicate the medical formations and establishments and the personnel and material protected by the Convention. Any action to the contrary should be regarded as an abuse which may take one of two different forms:

a) The emblem is intentionally used on a feigned mission in order that a military operation may be carried out under the protection granted by or due from the enemy to this actually pretended emblem.

b) The emblem is intentionally used as a treacherous way of killing and wounding members of the enemy Army. Such action is forbidden by Article 23 (b) of the Hague Regulations inasmuch as the belligerents have not got an unlimited right as to the choice of means of injuring the enemy (Article 22).

Both forms of abuse may meet with reprisals or with punishment of the offenders.

In view of the fact that the Four-Power Agreement of 8th August, 1945, regards as a war crime the violation of all laws or customs of war, it is submitted to list the accused on 'A' after the case be supplemented by the National Office to the effect that the ambulances commanded by the accused were provided with the Red Cross emblem, which has not been expressly stated.

Case No. 211 (War Crimes Branch, USFET, Case No. 6-7, Buenderhauf).

In a telephone conversation had on 7 February 1946 with Colonel Kinman, whose telephone number is WIESBADEN 8707, I was informed that the information contained in the files of War Crimes Branch, USFET, reveals that the ambulances mentioned in this Charge were marked with Red Cross emblems in the manner prescribed by the Geneva Convention.

The source of this information is a confession of the Accused.

Case No. 223 (War Crimes Branch, USFET, Case No. 12-1368. Grubisa).

In a telephone conversation had on 7 February 1946 with Colonel Kinman, whose telephone number is WIESBADEN 8707, I was informed that information in the files of the War Crimes Branch, USFET, on this case reveals that Accused No. 1, (HILDEBRANDT) was the Gauleiter who gave the original order to Accused No. 2 (GROENWALDT), that captured Allied flyers would be summarily shot. Groenwaldt passed this order on to Accused No. 3, (BOLLOW) for execution.

At the time the two flyers,who were Victims in this case, were captured, Accused Nos. 2, 3, and 4 (GROENWALDT, BOLLOW and HASELOW), agreed that the flyers should be killed. Thereupon Accused Nos. 3, 4, and 5 (BOLLOW, HASELOW, and PENZIEN), took the flyers in Bollow's car to a secluded spot in the woods where they shot and killed them.

2259 The allegations that the systematic destruction of St.Malo was not necessitated by strategic reasons, and that the town was outside the zone of military operations are not supported by the facts submitted in the particulars of the case. From the latter it results quite clearly that

a) St. Malo was on the line of the Allied offensive, was bombarded by Allied planes and finally besieged. On August 15th a truce was agreed upon in order to evacuate and spare the civilian inhabitants.

b) The accused [illegible].l, having been in charge of German Forces, decided on his own initiative or upon orders received from his superiors, to defend the town to the last, and was entitled to do so

The action taken by the accused is therefore to be regarded as a military necessity unless the French National Office would be in a position to submit facts to the contrary other than presented in the case.

6) United States Cases.

2305 According to Article 24 of the Geneva Convention 1929 (Amelioration of the Condition of the Wounded and Sick, etc.,) the emblem of the Red Cross shall not be used either in time of peace or in time of war except to protect or to indicate the medical formations and establishments and the personnel and material protected by the Convention. Any action to the contrary should be regarded as an abuse which may take one of two different forms:

a) The emblem is intentionally used on a feigned mission in order that a military operation may be carried out under the protection granted by or due from the enemy to this actually pretended emblem.

b) The emblem is intentionally used as a treacherous way of killing and wounding members of the enemy Army. Such action is forbidden by Article 23 (b) of the Hague Regulations inasmuch as the belligerents have not got an unlimited right as to the choice of means of injuring the enemy (Article 22).

Both forms of abuse may meet with reprisals or with punishment of the offenders.

In view of the fact that the Four-Power Agreement of 8th August, 1945, regards as a war crime the violation of all laws or customs of war, it is submitted to list the accused on 'A' after the case be supplemented by the National Office to the effect that the ambulances commanded by the accused were provided with the Red Cross emblem, which has not been expressly stated.

C O M M I T T E E I.-

NOTES ON CHARGES FOR THURSDAY, JANUARY 17th, 1946.

FRENCH CHARGES:

2142. "Unité F.N. 15,527."
F.N. probably stands for Field Post Number.

2144: "Ersatz Brigade Mot-Gross Deutschland Infanterie".
"Mot" stands for "Motorisiert" (Motorised).
"Gross Deutschland" is the name of a Panzer Division, which apparently has no number.

2146: "Cie. de Pontonniers":
"Brucken Kompanie."

2149: "Poste de guet de la D.A.T."
It is not known what D.A.T. stands for.

2154: "Zentral Ersatzteillager."
No doubt a misprint for "Ersatzteillager:" a depot for spare parts.

2155: "2me Compagnie A.A. 7 de la IIe Panzer Division."
It is not known what A.A. 7 stands for.
"A.A." might be "Artillerie Abwehr", but in that case it would be A.A.2, as it belongs to the 2nd Panzer Division.

2164: "Cie d'outillage du 12e SS. Panzer Regiment" 'Hitlerjugend':
It is not known what "Compagnie d'outillage" represents in the German organisation.

2168: "Chasseurs alpins": "Gebirgs Jäger."

2185: "2me Cie. de Garde des depôts."
~~This then means 'prisoner of war guards'~~ in French.

2188: "Regiment SS. der Führer."
This would be Panzer Gren. Regiment 4.

2190: Charge against Dr. Meidner.
The evidence in this charge might ve also used in the charge already filed against Pancke.
Perhaps the Danish National Office would like to "adopt" the latter charge.

U.S.A.

P. 134. Charge against Lieut.-General HOMMA.
According to the Press of December 19th last, General Homma has already been placed on trial at Manila, in connection with the Bataan death march.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

CHARTER I.

Notes on the British cases Nos. 2116 to 2136

and on the Addenda to cases Nos.1075, 1761,

1766, 1768 and 1782.

By Egon Schelb.

1. Nos. 2116-2136.

2116 On ' '.

2119 1 and 2 on 'A'.

2120 'A'. The Accused KINCA belonged to the 610th [illegible] Battalion. See affidavit by T.C.Thorne, para.2.

2121 'A'.
The unit to which [illegible] belonged is not given, but particulars making his identification possible are given in the affidavit by [illegible], paras.6 and 8 and in the affidavit by CLARKE, para.4.

2122 1 and 2 on 'A'. 3 on 'C'.

2123 1 and 2 on 'A'. [illegible] is stated to have been a member of the local brownshirt party, i.e. probably the S.A. (Affidavit by [illegible], para.2.) [illegible] should be [illegible].

2124 1 to 4 on 'A'.

2125 ' '. Particulars leading to the identification of the accused are contained in para.7. of Bell's and in para.6. of [illegible]'s affidavit.

2126 'A'.

2127 1 on 'A'. 2 on 'C'.

2128 1 and 2 on 'A'.

2129 1 and 2 on 'A'.

2130 'A'

2131 1 on 'A'.
As to (2), particulars are given in the affidavit by [illegible], para. 14. With the help of the accused (1) who is apparently in allied custody and a witness called Meyers (see para.9 of the same affidavit) it should not be impossible to identify (2).
As to Meyers it is stated by [illegible] (para.9) that "he did what he could to make our conditions bearable". In the opinion of [illegible], on the other hand, he was "in part responsible for the conditions under which we were kept."
It is submitted for consideration whether Meyers should not be listed on 'C'.

2132 ' '. The correct name of the place is:
In Czech: [illegible],
In German: [illegible].

2133 ' '. The correct name is [illegible].

2134 1 and 2 on 'A'. 3 on 'C'.

2135 — 1. and 2 on 'A'.

2136 — 'A'.

2. [illegible].

Nos.1075 and 1255. — On 25th July 1945, General Berger (1) was put on 'A', the "other officers, etc" on 'C'.
In the addendum 8 new names (2 to 9) are given.
The four affidavits establish a good prima facie case against the accused 2 to 5, ([illegible], [illegible], [illegible] and GINSCHEL), who should go on 'A'. 2,([illegible]) is already on 'A', (case No.1255).
I did not find an allegation against 6 ([illegible])(?).
As to 7 to 9 the British National Office refers to 'Q' Forms citing [illegible] (7), [illegible] (8) and MILLER (9) as further accused. Their connection with the criminal activities and the reasons for their responsibility are not stated in the addendum.
I would, therefore, propose:
1 and 2 are already on 'A'.
3 to 5 on 'A'.
As to 6 to 9, the National Office should be asked to give additional information.
In addition to British Prisoners of War, also Russian prisoners were among the victims. See particularly the affidavit by CAUBUT, para. 10. I submit for consideration whether the Soviet authorities should not be informed of the case.

1743 — Gefreiter [illegible] on 'A'.
Schlichtling and Rickisch on 'C'.

1766 — 1 and 2 on 'A'. It is left to the discretion of Committee I whether the witnesses should be listed. The British National Office does not consider their listing necessary.

1778 — [illegible] on 'A'.
A separate case charging the guilty civilians will be submitted by the National Office.

1784 — 1 and 2 on 'A'. Charge against 3 dropped by British National Office.

1808 — 1 was put on 'A' on 28th November 1945. The British National Office does not want to list [illegible]. No further action required.

1916 — 1 was put on 'A' on 28th November 1945. No additional information available as to the place. No further action required.

1922 — A separate charge regarding the shooting of Private Clarkson will be presented. No further action required on the present charge.

2065 The 218th Battalion: apparently a Schutzen Battalion.

2071 38th Battalion Chasseurs à pied, 189th Reserve Division. Better say Jäger. The 189th Division was in France at Clermont Ferrand.

2073 "Standortzacht Company". Probably a mistake for Standort, i.e. a garrison company.

2076 The 950th Regiment "RIH". Hindu.

2077 Régiment de Securité Militaire. Better say Sicherungs Regiment.

2086 Chasseurs Alpins. Better say Gebirgs Jäger Battalion.

BELGIAN CHARGES

2090 Marshal "MODEL" - evidently a mistake for Field-Marshal Walter MODEL.

General MULLER: probably Eugen MULLER who was on the General Staff of OKW.

2093 "Division Deutschland Das Reich". Deutschland is the title of a regiment and Das Reich is the title of a division. Should apparently be Panzer Grenadier Regiment No. 3 Deutschland in the Division Das Reich.

2094 "23 Uhland Stad 23", possibly a mistake for Uhlanen Stab.

2098 Oberfeld Commandant Liège July 1944. This must have been Major-General Bernhard von Glaer who held that office from August 1943 to August 1944. (See Belgian charge 139/B/2/12)

2101 Neuengamme Camp. General Bassewitz described as "SS-General commanding all concentration camps in north Germany".

This is no doubt Police General Graf Henning Bassewitz Behr who was Chief SS and Police Leader" in Wehrkreis X, which includes Neuengamme. He was arrested by the British at Bremen, as reported in the Press of October 28th 1945 (see Summary of Information 48).

Pauli and Truman are mentioned as war criminals in the British report on Neuengamme (B/C/4/6 A) 2106 & 7. Dachau Camp. Kick was one of the defendants in the recent Dachau Trial and is believed to have been condemned to death; see also Summary of Information No.30 for his affidavit.

Defendant No.25: Police Chief of Wehrkreis. As Dachau is in Wehrkreis VII the Police Chief would be Police General Friedrich Karl von Obelstein.

2113 Divisional General commanding at Bruges early September 1944.

Lieutenant-General SANDER was commanding the 245th Division near Bruges at that time. He was in the cage of the 8th British Corps in September and could therefore be interrogated. He is known as an extreme Nazi; formerly at Dieppe.

By E. Schwelb.

No.2042 — 1 - 4 on 'A'.

No.2043 — 1 - 11 on 'A'.
As to (1) (Joachim Irmer) a question of jurisdiction arises because this accused is at present a member of the French armed forces. The crimes have been committed on Yugoslav territory and against Yugoslav nationals.
It appears that the French authorities do not claim jurisdiction in this case, the French representative on the United Nations War Crimes Commission having furnished the necessary information and copies of the depositions to the Yugoslav national Office. It is expressly stated in the note of the General commanding the French troops in Morocco to the French Minister of War, dated 13th October 1945, that the French Permanent Military Court at Casablanca has no jurisdiction in this matter. There appears, therefore, to be no obstacle to the listing of Irmer as a war criminal wanted by Yugoslavia.

5th December 1945.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

Notes on Yugoslav Cases Nos. 1736, 1737, 1824 and 1738.

By J. Litawski.

Nos. 1736, 1737 and 1824.

These three cases raise some difficult problems.

There is no doubt that every individual, even a member of irregular forces of a belligerent party who is deprived by enemy power of his liberty, not for a crime but for military reasons, has a claim to be treated as a prisoner of war and enjoy the privileges due to members of the Armed Forces. This implies that measures of reprisal against them because of such membership are prohibited according to Article 2 of the Geneva Convention of 1929.

With regard to these three cases, the question, however, arises:

(1) whether in view of the Article 1 of the Geneva Convention of 1929, the persons indicated in these charges were captured by the Italian authorities in the course of military operations,
(2) and/or whether at the time of their capture they were members of military or semi-military bodies organised according to the conditions laid down by Article 1 of the Hague Regulations,
(3) and consequently whether they acquired or were entitled to acquire the status of prisoners of war.

This question is important especially in view of the fact that the individuals mentioned in all three cases were presumably deprived of their liberty and in fact tried and sentenced during the Italian occupation of Yugoslavia.

Not one of thethree cases provide sufficient ground to solve these difficulties because apart from the very concise statements they do not elaborate any circumstances in which the victims were allegedly taken prisoners and do not give any information as to the time of their capture.

It would, therefore, be necessary to ask the National Office for further information, and clarification of all the points noted above.

No.1738.

The enlistment of soldiers among the inhabitants of occupied territory can be regarded as a war crime only if such action was enforced by the occupant and carried out under compulsion.

From the facts presented on page 2 of the case, it appears that the recruiting of Yugoslav Moslems was subject to negotiations between the leaders of this part of the Yugoslav population and the German authorities and that it was a question of inducing the Moslems to give their consent for such recruiting. Therefore the facts presented in this case, as they are, do not constitute sufficient prima facie evidence of a war crime and require further information and clarification by the National Office. In particular it would be quite important to know whether recruitment of Yugoslav Moslems was ultimately enforced by a particular order issued by the German military authorities or was carried out on a voluntary basis.

1960, From the particulars of the case, it appears that the conditions and the regime imposed upon the prisoners in the Penitentiary at Ebrach remind one very much of the system applied generally in concentration camps. Therefore it is proposed to list the accused Nos. 29, 33, 34 and 35 on 'A' and all the rest on 'B' until the National Office would be in a position to supply more particulars and information as to their responsibility.

Notes on Yugoslav Cases Nos. 1736, 1737 and 1738.

By J. Litawski.

Nos. 1736 and 1737.

These two cases raise some difficult problems.

Notes on the United Kingdom Cases Nos.1925 to 1941
and
Addendum to No.1540.

By. E. Schwelb.

No.1925 Art.9(4) of the Geneva Convention provides that:

> No prisoner may at any time be sent to an area where he would be exposed to the fire of the fighting zone, or be employed to render by his presence certain points or areas immune from bombardment.

The underlined second part of the paragraph is here in point. The wording of the provision makes it possible to argue that the intention to render certain points or areas immune is of the essence of the offence. This intention on the part of the accused is not alleged in the present charge, nor should it be possible to prove this intention. The accused employed the prisoners of war in the dangerous occupation primarily to have the repair work on the railway marshalling yards done. But they did it recklessly as to the question whether the prisoners would thereby be exposed to additional dangers.

It may be said that it is the primary purpose of the quoted provision to protect the prisoners of war against such reckless behaviour irrespective of the actual intention of the perpetrators.

If Committee I accepts this wider view there is no obstacle to listing both accused on 'A', particularly in view of the fact that they are charged also with other forms of ill-treatment.

1) BRITISH CASES:

No.35 (Addendum) On 'A'.

1769 (Addendum) GRAUZ on 'A'. WOISTITZ who has been previously listed as a possible accused No.4. should be removed from the list 'A' and listed on 'S'.

P.68 and P.69. In these two cases, only the following persons have been specifically charged or mentioned in the documents attached therein:
YANAGITA, KUROIWA, MORIMOTO, Dr. MORI and NYUMURA.
In view of the particular character of these cases, and taking into account that the responsibility of some of the accused and suspects has not been sufficiently established, I submit the listing of the persons involved as follows:
In case P.68, 1, 2, 3 and 4 on 'A'.
5, 6, 7, 8 and 14 on 'S'.
9, 10 and 11 on 'C'.
12 and 13 on 'W'.
In case P.69, 1, 2, 3 and 4 on 'A'.
5 - 10 on 'S'.
11, 12, 13 on 'C'.
14 and 15 on 'W'.

2) YUGOSLAV CASES:

1819 On 'S'. There is a number of enemy witnesses mentioned in the case who should be listed on 'W'.

1820, 1821,)
1822, 1823,) On 'A'.

1824, This is the third case against an Italian Military Tribunal. It raises the same problems as those indicated in my notes on the two other Yugoslav cases, i.e. Nos. 1736 and 1737.
With regard to these 3 cases, the decisive consideration would seem to be whether the trial of the Yugoslav citizens by these particular courts deprived them of the protection to which they were entitled under International law, and if not, whether the penalties imposed upon them were excessive in relation to the offences committed.

3) FRENCH CASES:

1826 On 'A'.

1827 It is doubtful whether a mere list of names so far furnished in this charge could be regarded as establishing a prima facie case against the accused.
In my submission, the National Office should be asked to supplement the case at least with a general report on crimes committed in the district of Strasburg for which the persons listed in this case could be held responsible, because of their official position.

Military points connected with Charges for November 28th.

1829: Groupe de transmission: should be described as Nachrichten Gruppe.

1833 General Hederich. A Lieutenant-General Wilhelm Hederich, aged sixty-five is reported as commanding in N.E. France 1942 - 44.

1836 FP.NRL. 4959/LF - This Field Post Number does not appear to be identifiable.

1850 The Field Post Number shows this to be an Anti-Aircraft Unit.

1857 "7th Company of S.S. Germania." There seems to be an error here. Germania is the title of the 9th Pz. Grenadier Regiment in the 5th S.S. Pz. Division, but neither the Division nor the Regiment were ever in France.

1867 The 8th S.S. Regiment was part of the 4th S.S. Division (Polizei Pz. Division).

487 The 25th Regiment S.S. belonged to the 12th S.S. Division, Hitler Jugend.
The 1st Pz. Division has no 25th Regiment and was in Hungary in 1944.

1352 General Pohl (head of the List).
A General would not be in command of a concentration camp. Possibly Oswald Pohl, Head of the WVHA, which administrated all concentration camps, is intended.

1215 List of officials of RSHA. Should not the officials listed be taken rather from the WVHA than from the RSHA? The RSHA was not directly concerned with the administration of concentration camps, though it had a representative in the political office in each camp.

United Kingdom Charge 1923: Evacuation of prisoners' camp from Sagan. This seems to be the camp referred to in the minutes of Hitler's Conference with Goering and others on January 27th 1945 (Goering: "Near Sagan there are ten thousand captured Air Force officers . . " See Summary of Information No. 37.)

Suggested that a copy of this Charge together with the minutes of the Conference should be sent to Nurnburg as it appears to incriminate Goering.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

Notes on Yugoslav Cases Nos. 1736, 1737 and 1738.

By J. Litawski.

Nos. 1736 and 1737.

These two cases raise some difficult problems.

There is no doubt that every individual, even a member of irregular forces of a belligerent party who is deprived by enemy power of his liberty, not for a crime but for military reasons, has a claim to be treated as a prisoner of war and enjoy the privileges due to members of the Armed Forces. This implies that measures of reprisal against them because of such membership are prohibited according to Article 2 of the Geneva Convention of 1929.

With regard to these two cases, the question, however, arises:

(1) whether in view of the Article 1 of the Geneva Convention of 1929, the persons indicated in these charges were captured by the Italian authorities in the course of military operations,
(2) and/or whether at the time of their capture they were members of military or semi-military bodies organised according to the conditions laid down by Article 1 of the Hague Regulations,
(3) and consequently whether they acquired or were entitled to acquire the status of prisoners of war.

This question is important especially in view of the fact that the individuals mentioned in both cases were presumably deprived of their liberty and in fact tried and sentenced during the Italian occupation of Yugoslavia.

Neither of the two cases provide sufficient ground to solve these difficulties because apart from the very concise statements they do not elaborate any circumstances in which the victims were allegedly taken prisoners and do not give any information as to the time of their capture.

It would, therefore, be necessary to ask the National Office for further information, and clarification of all the points noted above.

No. 1738.

The enlistment of soldiers among the inhabitants of occupied territory can be regarded as a war crime only if such action was enforced by the occupant and carried out under compulsion.

From the facts presented on page 2 of the case, it appears that the recruiting of Yugoslav Moslems was subject to negotiations between the leaders of this part of the Yugoslav population and the German authorities and that it was a question of inducing the Moslems to give their consent for such recruiting. Therefore the facts presented in this case, as they are, do not constitute sufficient prima facie evidence of a war crime and require further information and clarification by the National Office. In particular it would be quite important to know whether recruitment of Yugoslav Moslems was ultimately enforced by a particular order issued by the German military authorities or was carried out on a voluntary basis.

With regard to this particular case, it would be important to clarify the two following points:
(a) whether the orders "not to take prisoners" allegedly issued by the accused were in fact enforced, and
(b) whether the victims, if any, acquired or were entitled to acquire the status of prisoners of war.
The National Office should be asked for further information and clarification on these points.

795 (Addenda Nos.3. and 4.) All on 'A'.

1090 (Addendum No.1) 1109 (Addendum No.2)

(1) In the Main cases of these, the commandants of the camps and some members of the personnel indicated by name, have already been listed on 'A' and charged.

(2) The purpose of these two addenda, and this applies also to the addenda to cases Nos.1803 and 1804, has obviously been to ensure that all the personnel of the consentration camps in question be listed as units. This would mean a departure from the practice hitherto generally applied by this Committee, and it is doubtful whether such a departure would be practical and justified, especially in view of the comparatively small difficulties which the National Office would have to overcome in establishing, not only the names and functions of the accused, but also the specific crimes committed by the individual persons against their own nationals

(3) Though in cases concerning concentration camps, mere membership of the staff of a concentration camp constitutes a prima facie case, such cases always involve two points relevant to the responsibility of such persons:

(a) their responsibility for participation in a common plan or conspiracy to commit or which involved the commission of crimes,

(b) the responsibility for specific crimes committed individually.

None of these points has been elaborated or specifically made the basis of these two addenda.

I submit, therefore, that the commandants of the camps in question having been already listed on 'A', all other personnel should, for the time being, be listed on 'C'.

Polish Case No.1120.

This case is one of a series of Polish cases dealing with confiscation and destruction of property in Poland. All of them have been accepted by this Committee and all of the accused listed on 'A'.

This particular case deals with crimes against Polish property so far as collections of books, booksellers' shops, circulating libraries, archives, collections, and publishing are concerned, and has been prepared on the same lines as the former cases.

There is no reason to discriminate in this case between various groups of accused and all of them should be listed on 'A'.

P.22)
P.23) In these two cases, all of the accused except those mentioned under Nos.8. are the same persons. Most of them have not been specifically mentioned or charged in the "Particulars of Alleged Crime".

Taking into account:

(a) the general background related in the cases,
(b) the particular facts described in the affidavits,
(c) the extent to which the National Office succeeded in identifying the personalities involved as well as their functions,
(d) the kind of position held by the accused in the material time and their possible connection with the crimes committed by the actual perpetrators,
(e) as well as the fact that those who have provided information have not a clear recollection of persons (and names) who should be charged, especially in the higher ranks --

it seems appropriate to list the accused in both of the above mentioned cases as follows:

(A) Main Cases: 2, 3, 7, 12, 13 on 'A'.
(The accused No.13 can be listed on 'A', provided the National Office would add to the description of his position the words "in immediate command of Gendarmerie".)

1716 (a). Out of the persons proposed by the National Office to be listed on the list 'A', only 5, (Nos.3, 4, 5, 6 and 20) have been specifically mentioned and charged with crimes in the "Particulars of the case". On the other hand, on page 4 it has been said that all persons proposed to be listed on 'A' have been identified. If this was meant to imply that they were identified as actual perpetrators, they can be listed on 'A'. In any case on list 'A' should go all five persons mentioned above, i.e. Nos. 3,4,5,6, and 20 and also the accused Nos. 1 and 2 because they were in command of the unit involved. On list 'A' should also go the following: GOEFFERT (or GOEPPERT), WEISSELT and MISCHÄER, all of them charged on page 5 (see annex 3) with specific crimes, but omitted in annex 1.

(b) All persons named in Group 'S' should be listed on 'S' in view of the fact that they were members of the Gestapo of Lyon where a great number of crimes were committed.

Notes on Belgian Cases.

By J. Litawski.

898 (Addendum) The case of the accused No.1. requires some clarification. This accused is charged in the addendum because of the fact that he was Commandant of the unit involved at the time when the crimes were committed, but in the main charge, SEPP DIETRICH and KUMM have already been listed on 'S' as two possible Commanders of this unit. If the accused No.1. is explained as the officer who commanded the unit at the material time, it would seem to be necessary to take off the list the other two names.

Notes on the United Kingdom Cases Nos. 1643 - 1655, and on the Addenda to cases Nos. 1560, 1562 and 1563.

By E. SCHWELB.

I. NEW CASES.

1643, See special paper I/41.

1644, 1 and 2 on 'A'.
The victims of the crime are Australians. It is assumed that the United Kingdom National Office has brought up this charge on behalf of the appropriate authorities of the Commonwealth of Australia.
EBERTHAUSEN, of which the accused No.1. was Bürgermeister, is in the Russian zone of occupation.

1645, 1 on 'A', 2 on 'B'.

1646, 'A'.

1647, 'A'.

1648, 'A'.

1649, 'A'. There appears to be also a contravention of Article 31 of the Prisoners of War Convention of 1929 (prohibited work). It appears that Art.31 applies also to prisoners serving a sentence imposed by a Court.

1650, 1 - 4 on 'A'. Proceedings as to the identification of the accused are being conducted.

1651, 'A'.

1652, 'A'.

1653, 1 - 4 on 'A'. Both the "Particulars of alleged crime" and the affidavits speak also of a Hauptmann SCHMIDT (for particulars see SUZUKI's affidavit para 5 and Warrender's affidavit, para. 8.
He should also go on 'A'.
In the affidavits also other members of the German staff are mentioned. The accused Wilhelm BIRR, a civilian, could probably be traced through the Czechoslovak police authorities. He should be on thepolice register for LADOWITZ (Ladovice)(see affidavit by SUZUKI, para.8.) The Czech name of the town mentioned as place of the crime is MOST (Brüx).
OBERGFORGENTHAL is HORNI JIRETIN.

1654, 'A'.

1655, 'A'.

II. ADDENDA.

1560. In a newly presented affidavit (By Gudner Randall, para 5), additional information is given with regard to the perpetrator of crime who, on 3rd October 1945, was put on 'C'. A characteristic, not irrelevant, is given by Randall (in conformity with the affidavit by Corporal Lea): the accused had one eye completely closed as a result of a war wound.

1562. Two additional names are contained in Signalman Moakes's affidavit: Unteroffizier DANEWART and KITLER, civilian.
Both should go on 'A'.

1563. From four new affidavits it appears that six additional persons are involved in the responsibility for the HEYDEBROEK camp. They are:

MAJONGORGE,	Dr. SCHULZ,
Hauptmann LEHNERT (or Lehnert)	Hauptmann TOUR,
Hauptmann SCHMIDT,	Feldwebel [illegible].

They should be listed on 'A'.

by Mr. E. Schwelb

No. 989. This addendum contains 41 additional names of Neuengamme Concentration Camp personnel. All on A.

No. 1107. The Belgian National Office now supplements the charge which was adjourned on July 25th, 1945, by the statement that 150 workers, of whose illtreatment Kümmel is accused, are of Belgian nationality and that two of them have been examined as witnesses.

Now Kümmel could be listed on A.

No. 1486. This case was adjourned on 26th. September because the identification of Major Schultz as a commander of the "1a 3e Cie de la Panzer Division, Nachschub Tr 82" appeared to Committee I to be difficult.

Now it is stated that Schultz was in command of the 3rd Company Nachschub Tr 82 of the Panzer Division. Tr. appears to stand for Train. I submit that these dates are sufficient as there can be no difficulty in establishing which Panzer Division was operating in Banneux, Province de Liege on 5th. September 1944.

Notes on the Yugoslav Cases

Nos. 1592 to 1597 and addendum to the case 956

by Mr. E. Schwelb.

No. 956. This addendum gives two new names. The case of the two persons mentioned is indistinguishable from that of the fourteen people who were placed on A on June 26, 1945.

No. 1592. 1 to 9 on A. 10 and 11 are the persons on whose deposition the charge is based. 10 (Gaida) admitted that he himself had "in two or three cases given people a box on the ear." He should therefore go on A.

No charge is brought forward against 11 (Krabitza) and 12 (Schabatka). Krabitza as a POLIZEI-CRIMINAL-SEKRETAR of the Gestapo should, according to precedent, - see the Czechoslovak Oswiecim charge - also go on A. Schabatka whose rank is unknown should go on S.

No. 1593. A

No. 1594. A

The accused's present address is given as Chemnitz. It is submitted that application for his arrest should be made by the Yugoslav National Office to the Soviet authorities.

No. 1596. The charge is based on the deposition of two witnesses who testify to the accused having boasted of crimes committed in Yugoslavia. Though this evidence should not be considered sufficient to find Kupke guilty, it would seem to be in accordance with the usual practice to consider it sufficient to make out a prime facie case.

No. 1597 1 on A

As to (2) (Schwicetenberg?) it is stated that he fought against Tito and that he disarmed the Italian troops and Tito's partisans. These activities do not constitute a war crime.

But it is also said that:-

(a) The partisans were handed over to the S.D.

(b) That some of the partisans were shot "by his unit" by the orders of General Roesner.

(c) That 50 men were shot at once.

(d) That 30 men were shot another time by Schwicetenberg's men.

(e) That these 80 partisans were sentenced to death by Court Martial on the orders of General Roesner.

The part played by Schwicetenberg is not very clear and it would probably be useful to get the original text of the Statement made by Schwicetenberg to the French authorities

Notes on the French Cases Nos. 1602 to 1627 and to the addenda

Cases 732 and 1355

By Mr. E. Schwelb

No. 1602. 1 to 3 on A

No. 1603. 1 to 3 on A.

4 (Platz) is one of the rank and file of the unit accused of the crime. According to established practice he ought to be listed on S. To list him on S would, of course, in this case be meaningless, because Platz is a prisoner-of-war in French custody. As he is said to have taken part in the pillage he could also go on A.

No. 1604. A special paper dealing with this case will be circulated.

No. 1605. 1 and 2 on A.

No. 1606. 1 to 6 on A. The name of the accused No. 6 which is given as KATSEISS and as KALTSEISS is probably KALTEIS.

No. 1607. 1 and 2 on W.

It will be noted that here the French National Office proposes the listing of two officers on W without making a charge against people who could be listed on A.

The designation of the unit is OSTBATAILLON, not ORSTBATAILLON.

No. 1608. Here 31 persons are charged with crimes committed by German and Cossack soldiers belonging to an unidentified unit who were accompanied by the Feldgendarmerie of VESOUL. Horn (1) was the FELDKOMMANDANT of Vesoul. SUHR (2) the officer in command of the operation complained of. ASMUTH (31) the interpreter is personally charged with cruelty. The 28 others (3 to 30) are NCO's of the Feldgendarmerie of Vesoul. The French National Office suggests them for A. This proposal is impliedly based on the principle of collective responsibility, often discussed by the Commission and now laid down, for the "major" war criminals, in the Four Power Agreement of 8th August 1945. ("...leaders, organisers, instigators and accomplices participating in the formulation or execution of a commo plan or conspiracy to commit..... crimes are responsible for all acts performed by any persons in execution of such plan"). The question is whether this principle can be applied to a unit of the FELDGENDARMERIE. If the question is answered in the affirmative, 3 to 30 would go on A, otherwise on S. 1, 2 and 31 should go on A in either case.

No. 1609. There is no doubt that(1) and (2) should go on A. The French National Office proposes to put 3 to 49 on S. It is submitted that some of them, particularly 3, 4 and 5, could probably also go on A, if the decision Doc. C.140 were applied (executive officials of the security police from the rank of Kriminalsekretär upwards). As to 3 and 4 only the S.S. ranks are given, namely Hauptsturmführer (Captain) and Obersturmführer (Lieutenant). It is highly probable that the rank of these two accused in the Gestapo hierarchy is at least that of Kriminalsekretär.

No. 1610. 1 on A.

No. 1611. The name of the unit to which the accused belong is not given.

1 to 3 on A.

4 on S

No. 1612. 1 on A.

No. 1613. 1 on W. See note on case 1607.

No. 1614. The correct name of the accused probably is RUDI (RUDOLF) GRUND. The unit to which he belongs is not given.

GRUND on W. See note on case 1607.

No. 1615. 1 on A.

Lydia FRIEDLI (?) probably FRIEDL or FRIEDEL should be listed on W.

No. 1616. A separate paper on this case will be circulated.

No. 1617. No doubt can exist as to the putting of Grabowsky (No. 1) on A. In addition to this commanding officer, a great number of officers, N.C.O's and men are proposed for List A. (Nos. 2 to 49 either inclusive or exclusive). This involves a decision of principle. As to the accused Nos 49 (or 50) to 54 no indication with regard to their part in the crime is given.

No. 1618. 1 on A.

2 on W. The correct spelling probably is MECKLENBURG.

No. 1619. 1 and 2 on A.

No. 1620. 1 on A

No. 1621. FEUCHTLENGER (probably FEUCHTLINGER) on A. See note on case 1607.

No. 1622. 1 on W. See note on case 1607.

No. 1623. The 3 accused "constituted themselves" as a court martial and "sentenced" their victim to death. This case is similar to the case No. 1518. (see my note on that case prepared for the meeting of CommitteeI held on September 19th, 1945). The case No. 1518 was adjourned because the Committee wanted to get more information about the nature of the "court" involved in it. (See Minutes No. 31, page 2). I suppose that Committe I will want additional information also in this case No. 1623. If it were not for the particular attention Committe I usually pays to "judicial" or quasi-judicial crimes, I would say that the facts set out in the French charge made out a prima facie case against all three accused.

No. 1624. 1 on S.

No. 1625. A separate paper on this case and on the case No. 1616 will be circulated.

No. 1626. There the question is whether the destruction of the plant was not an act of legitimate warfare.

No. 1627. 1 to 4 on A.

No. 1628.

No. 732. (Addenda)

The Committee will have to decide upon 3 addenda to the French charge regarding the Concentration Camp Struthof-Natzweiler. There is, in my view, no objection to putting all the persons charged on A.

No. 1355. (Addendum)

Oberscharfuhrer KLUSSNER (No. 2 of the addendum) should go on A as a member of the personnel of the Woippy Camp. The four other persons mentioned in the addendum (1.3.4.5) are already on it on account of the original charge, the addendum containing more personal data.

COMMITTEE I

Notes on the United States Cases Nos. 1628 to 1642

by Mr. E. Schwelb

No. 1628. This charge concerns German personnel of Stalag Luft IV and persons responsible for the movement of prisoners from Stalag VI to Stalag IV. Particular charges are preferred ~~duly~~ only against Captain Pickard (No. 11) and Oberfeldwebel Hans Schmidt (No. 13). Lieutenant Colonel Bombach (No. 1) is prima facie responsible as Commandant of Stalag Luft IV.

Leader reports All

As to 2 to 10, 12 and 14, nothing is said as to their connection with the crimes and as to their responsibility.

Canadian and British prisoners of war were also among the victims.

No. 1629. 1 to 5 on A.

6 on W.

1 statement of Bad Lipp. St.

As to 1 (Kürschner) and 3 (Müller) who are not in custody, particulars making their identification possible should be added.

No. 1630. 1 to 5 on A.

No. 1631. Only against 1 (Hasemann) a concrete charge is brought forward /s viz: that he released captured American airmen to a mob of German civilian He should, therefore, go on A.

Leaders reports

Nothing is expressly said as to the accused (2) to (15) But it seems to be implied in the charge that they were those civilians resident in Bad Dürrenberg who were among the mob several of whom beat and kicked these airmen, injuring at least one of them severely. The victims have, according to the charge, not been identified but inquiry has been instituted with the Graves Registration Service. It should be noted that it is not alleged in the charge that any of the airmen have died as a consequence of the beatings and kicking.

I would submit to put (2) to (15) on S.

No. 1632. Though the victim does not appear to have been injured as a result of the assault committeed by the accused they are nevertheless prima facie guilty of a war crime and should go on A.

No. 1633. Wiegand on A.

No. 1634. Schultheiss on A.

ELLENBERGER should be listed on W (provided that he is of enemy nationality).

No. 1635. LANDWEHR and KONIGSDORF on A

Data leading to the identification of Konigsdorf should be added, if possible. Both he and Landwehr probably were civilian inhabitants of BURGDORF.

No. 1636. 1 to 3 on A.

The German Lieutenant Colonel in charge of the Erding airfield could also be held responsible for assenting to the handing over of prisoners to civilians for the purpose of exhibiting them to the villagers.

No. 1637. CURDTS on A.

No. 1638. BÜHLER on A.

No. 1639. The connection of the six accused with the crime is not expressly described in the charge.

Nedwed (5) is obviously held responsible as Chief of the Innsbruck Gestapo and PRIMBS (4) as Kreisleiter. If a copy of the [redacted] Statement sworn by Lieutenant Mayer were submitted to the Commission, the implication of (1), (2), (3) and (6) could probably be established.

(4) and (5) on A. Additional information necessary as to the others.

No. 1640. The only difficulty of this case is the identification of the accused.

No. 1641. The part played by the two accused is not described in the charge. Additional information appears to be necessary.

No. 1642. Rothel on A.

It is submitted that at least SICKERT who is stated to have carried a shot gun should go on S.

In addition to Kappe, also Brandt and Scheuermann should go on W.

DRAFT.

REPORT

on the Czechoslovak charge concerning the Oswiecim (Auschwitz) and Birkenau Concentration Camps.

To be sent to all the National Offices as requested by the Czechoslovak Representative.

(Draft by the Legal Officer, Dr. LITAWSKI).

The Czechoslovak National Office recently transmitted to the Commission a charge against German war criminals concerning atrocities committed against Czechoslovak nationals which have taken place in Oswiecim (Auschwitz) and Birkenau concentration camps.

Because of the fact that this charge differs from similar charges which so far have been transmitted by other National Offices, the Commission felt it of some importance to draw the attention of National Offices to the scheme adopted in this charge, in case they should feel inclined to follow the policy of the Czechoslovak National Office.

The charge is directed against individuals and groups of persons (about 2,000 in number) as follows:

1. Members of the German Government in the material period (1939-1945).

2. Persons responsible for the direction of the police activities in Germany of the highest rank. Apart ofrom H. HIMMLER himself, this group comprises all chiefs and officials of the two Hauptämter of the Reichsführer SS. and Chef der Deutschen Polizei in the Reichsministerium des Innern: I. Hauptamt Ordnungspolizei; II. Reichssicherheitshauptamt. For the names and functions of these officials see Annex I.

3. Persons responsible for the general administration and supervision of all concentration camps, i.e. in Germany proper and in the occupied countries, so-called Wirtschafts und Verwaltungshauptamt (WVHA). The list of persons and their functions is attached in Annex II.

4. Persons of all ranks belonging to the camp personnel.

5. Chiefs and officials of the police authorities acting in, or competent for, the different sections and districts of the Czechoslovak Republic indicated by their functions or offices, in Annex III.

The Czechoslovak National Office holds these persons and groups of persons responsible for ordering and executing the arrest of Czechoslovak nationals and for committing them to the concentration and extermination camps Oswiecim-Rajsko (Auschwitz-Birkenau), and/or for aiding and abetting these criminal activities. The charge differs from similar charges which so far have been dealt with by Committee I in that it indicts not only the persons in authority on the top level (Reich Government, SS. High Command), and the actual perpetrators at the end of the journey (the camp personnel), but that it attempts to establish the guilt and responsibility of the intermediate authorities, i.e. the people competent to exercise local jurisdiction in the different parts of occupied Czechoslovakia and who had the power either to propose or to order the individual arrests and commitments to the camps.

In making charges against persons who are held responsible for their share in the crimes on the intermediate level, the Czechoslovak National Office makes two distinctions:

1. between functionaries of the Ordnungspolizei on the one hand and those of the Sicherheitspolizei on the other. Both were competent to order arrests with a view to committing the arrested persons to a concentration and extermination camp. But, there being no sufficient evidence that the regular police (Ordnungspolizei) took a decisive part in these activities, the Czechoslovak National Office proposed to put the officials of the Ordnungspolizei on the List of Suspects (S), while the officials of the Sicherheitspolizei, Gestapo and SD. are on the List of War Criminals (A).

2. The charge further distinguishes between police authorities having jurisdiction exclusively for Czechoslovak territory (so-called Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia, and the so-called Reichsgau Sudetenland), and such police authorities as were in charge of predominantly Reich German or Austrian provinces to which slices of Czechoslovak territory have been annexed during the occupation. In the case of the "Protectorate" and of the "Reichsgau Sudetenland", the Czechoslovak National Office proposed to list the police officials, other than Ordnungspolizei, on the List of War Criminals (A), and officials responsible for other parts of Czechoslovak territory on the List of Suspects (S). The reason for this distinction was that a proper prima facie case could not be established with regard to this category of officials.

As far as the delimitation of responsibility of various ranks of the police officials is concerned the Czechoslovak National Office charged only:

(i) the administrative officials of the higher administrative police service from the rank of Government Councillor (Regierungsrat) upwards;

(ii) the executive officials of the security police who belong to the Führerlaufbahn des mittleren Dienstes und der Sicherheitspolizei, from the rank of Criminal Secretary (Kriminalsekretär) upwards);

(iii) the S.D. functionaries from the rank of manager (Geschäftsführer) upwards.

Committee I decided to put all the persons and groups of persons accused in the charge on the Commission's Lists A and S according to the delimitation of responsibility mentioned above.

COMMITTEE I
Meeting 19th September, 1945

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

SEP 13 1945

COMMITTEE I

Notes on French Cases No. 1512-1534 and Addendum to No. 926

By. Mr. E. Schwelb.

No. 1512 — BERG, HENKEN, HABENICHT, : "S"
CLARCK (this spelling does not seem correct) : "W"

No. 1513 — All on "A".
The identification of the first and second accused may be assisted by pointing out that the unit in question had on its vehicles the emblem of a lion sitting upright.
The identification of "the Captain" and "German Soldiers" seems to be difficult.

No. 1514 — All named persons on "A".
Soldiers on "C".
The correct spelling of the first accused probably is : HALLENDORF, of the second accused : PAUL.
No particular charge is brought forward against SCHENK.

No. 1515 — SCHÜTZ-KELLER on "A".
NISSOFFEN and FRANCKMANN(probably FRANKMANN) are proposed for "S", though it might also be considered adequate to place them on "A".
IVERSEN on "S".
Soldiers on "S" or "C".

No. 1516 — All on "A".

No. 1517 — METGER (probably METZGER), SCHWARTZ and JACOB } on "A"
The proposed witnesses do not seem to be of enemy nationality.

No. 1518 — This is an accusation of judicial murder. It does not appear that the accused party functionaries could claim any privileges on the ground that they were acting as members of a kind of tribunal.
There is a prima facie case against all six accused who should go on "A".
The following spelling mistakes should be corrected:
2) Landes kommenar(?) , possibly : LANDES KOMMANDANT or LANDRAT(?)
5) ABSCHNITTSLEITER.

No. 1519 — HUSTERT on "A".
LANDSCHUKE (?) and HORNBURG on "S".
As to the identification of HUSTERT it should be added that he was a Lieutenant and established whether the number S.P. 35250/A is probable.
As to the others, the designation of a military unit as BLUT-grupp A , seems to be based on some misunderstanding.
Blutgruppe (blood group) is a term of modern forensic medicine. People are distinguished as belonging to several, probably three (A,B,C,) blood groups, according to the consistency of their blood. This distinction is important in law suits concerning the rights of illegitimate children against their alleged father.
The correct spelling of the town of Hornburg's domicile probably is : HILDESLAGEN.

No. 1520 — All on "A".

No. 1521 — The charge proposes to put three persons on "A". Two of them have the name of SCHAEFER, the first was the commander of the ILE D'OLERON, and is described as a Korvettenkapitän, the second is described both as a Major and as a Captain (of the medical corps).

Provided these are really two distinct persons there is no reason why all three persons proposed for "A" should not be put on "A", and the six other persons named (four Germans and two Italians) on "S".

LAZ does not appear to be either a probable German, or a probable Italian name.

No. 1522 — BECKER on "A".
Query whether HERMANN and BLANC are Germans or Frenchmen.

No. 1523 — KOTTER, TRAXCELLER(probably TRAXZELLER) and HEINZ on "A".
BOUR is described as a Frenchman, compulsorily enlisted into the German Forces. The date (28th June, 1945) is obviously a mistake.

No. 1524 — DUDEY and Graf von SCHWERING (Probably : SCHWERIN) on "A".
WEBER on "W".

No. 1525 — BERNARD on "A".
LAMMACHER(?), also described as LAUNIACER?on "S".

No. 1526 — 1-5 on"A"
6 on "S"

No. 1527 — It will be difficult to identify the first accused TETARD , nothing but the name being stated. It will be impossible to trace the second accused of whom nothing but the date of birth is known.
TETARD on "A".
Query whether the witnesses are enemy nationals.

No. 1528 — SCHMITT on "A".
X on "C"
Query whether witness is an enemy national.

No. 1529 — STURMHOFF and Russian Colonel (if the identity of the latter can be established) : on "A".
German soldiers on "S" or "C".

No. 1530 — GROSS and KRUPP (?) (Name not very probable) on "A".
Soldiers on "C".

No. 1531 — It appears that the French authorities are in possession or may get hold of the files of he German Court Martial which tried and condemned the accused. It should, therefore, not be impossible to add more particulars about the accused. (Unit, habitual place of residence etc.) The plea ne bis in idem does not apply in such a case according to the established practice of Committee I.

No. 1532 — See special report on this case.

No. 1533 — 1 on "A". The spelling probably is KAHL
2-5 on "S".

No. 1534 — HEX on "A".
WEYRAUCHER on "S"
YOU does not appear to be a conceivable or probable name."Standartwachtkompagnie " does not seem to be a correct description. Standarte is the designation of S.S. Regiments.

No. 926 — This is an additional charge against two men who are already on "A".

No. 1510. 1 on 'A'

As to 2 (Members of the fascist militia attached to the battalion VESPRI) it should be investigated what the relationship between a battalion and the fascist militia attached to it used to be. In case the number of militia men attached to a battalion was small (2) could be put on 'S', otherwise on 'C'.

FOR MEETING OF COMMITTEE I.
19th September 1945.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

Notes on the Czechoslovak Case No.1535 (Killing of Inmates of Mental Homes, Jews and Political Prisoners, Human Guinea Pigs.)

By E. Schwelb.

I. This charge is directed against 50 persons involved mainly in crimes connected with so-called Racial Hygiene, with using human beings as guinea pigs for experiments and with systematic extermination of Jews and Allied Nationals and political opponents.

II. The persons mentioned under Nos. 2, 4, 6, 8, 11, 12, 13, 14, 18, 21 and 22 have already been listed by the Commission on a Commission charge for the facts established, also in the present case (activities of the so-called Beelitz Stiftung). The charge is further concerned with the criminal activities of Dr. Ding (No.27) who is charged on the Commission's list in connection with the Belgian charge concerning Buchenwald.

III. The Czechoslovak National Office also charges the leading personalities of the S.S.Dept. WVHA (nos.30-36).

IV. The Czechoslovak National Office proposes to put the persons named under Nos. 1 - 39 on 'A' and there is no reason whatsoever why Committee I. should not agree to this proposal.

As to No.26, his particulars are as follows:

GRAWITZ, Dr. Ernst Robert, Chief Medical Officer of S.S. and Police; Vice-president of the German Red Cross, deputy to the Reichskommisar for voluntary nursing service (Reich Ministry of the Interior), SS-Obergruppenführer, General d. Waffen-SS and d. Polizei. Professor.

In the report written by the accused, Dr. Ding, on the 24th May 1943, which is quoted in the charge, Enclosure 3, Paragraph 24, it is expressly stated that the experiments made by him were conducted on the initiative of the Reichgesundheitsführer and on the command of the Heeres-Sanitäts-Inspekteur of the Reichsarzt SS and by the Chef des Sanitätswesens der Waffen-SS. It is, therefore, submitted that the Reichgesundheitsführer, whom the Czechoslovak charges proposes to put on 'S' (49) and the Heeres-Sanitäts-Inspekteur (No.41) should be placed on 'A' as follows:

CONTI, Dr. Leonardo, Staatssekretär and Chief of Health Divisions (Abteilungen III & IV) Reich Ministry of the Interior; Reichsgesundheitsführer:Hauptdienstleiter SS-Obergruppenführer.

HANDLOSER, Prof. Dr. Generaloberstabsarzt; Heeressanitätsinspekteur; Chief of the Medical Service of the Armed Forces.

The following person should be added to 'A':

Chef des Sanitätswesens der Waffen-SS. The name of this person will be established with the help of the Research Office.

IV. As to numbers 40, 42-48 and 50, the Czechoslovak National Office proposes to put thesem on 'S' and this proposal is fully justified.

V. The following particulars could usefully be added to the names of the following accused:

No.21. DR. KARL BRANDT. Reich Commissioner for Health and Medical Services (Reichskommissar für das Sanitäts und Gesundheitswesen) SS-Gruppenführer; Professor.

No.30. OSWALD POHL. Chief of Administration and Economics Division of SS; Ministerialdirektor Reich Ministry of the Interior; SS-Obergruppenführer; General der Waffen SS. ~~member, Board of Directors Gollschauer Portland Zement.~~

No. 31. RICHARD GLUCKS. Chief of "Amtsgruppe D," Wirtschafts- and Verwaltungshauptamt of SS. Commander of Concentration camps; SS-Gruppenführer; General leutnant d. Waffen-SS.

No. 50. Dr. OTTO LEBRECHT MEISSNER. Staatsminister; Chef der Präsidialkanzlei;

VI. SUMMARY:

1 - 39, 41, 49 and Chef des Sanitätswesens der Waffen S.S. on 'A'.

4-, 42-48 and 50 on 'S'.

BELGIAN CASES.

Addendum to No. 796.

Here the Belgian National Office adds eight new names to its charge concerning the shootings of 50 allied Air Force Officers. The case against all the accused is based on the deposition of Generalmajor WESTHOFF (see Summary of Information No. 37). There is no doubt that all eight should go on A. The question is whether Westhoff's statement should be taken at its face value also in those parts where he attempts to clear all army officers of any responsibility for the crime.

The only really new person charged by Belgium is No. 4. (Friedrich), described as BORMANN's Deputy. I have never heard of a Nazi functionary of this name. Westhoff speaks of him as "Bormann's deputy, who was an "Obergebietsleiter or something of the sort, called Friedrich." (see Summary of Information No. 37, page 7)

If the existence of this functionary is to be assumed, he should be described as:

FRIEDRICH, "Obergebietsleiter" (or party officer of similar rank") deputy of Martin BORMANN, head of the Party Chancellery.

No. 1486. A.

No. 1487. 1 - 5 on A.

As to "le Boxeur" and 'le Watmann", it is doubtful whether these nicknames, in the latter case obviously incorrectly reproduced, suffice for the establishment of the identity of the criminals.

NORWEGIAN CASES.

No. 1483. Fischermann. It should be added: alias SÜDERMANN. A.

No. 1484. A. "SCHLUSSMACHER" is probably not the real name of the second accused, but a nickname.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION.

Notes on the Yugoslav Cases.

By Mr. E. Schwelb.

No. 1461. This charge is concerned with crimes committed by Italians on Italian territory against Italian citizens. The fact that after the Second World War the territorial sovereignty of part of the territory may undergo some changes is irrelevant from the point of view of criminal law.

The crimes fall under what in Art. 6 (c) of the Charter of the International Military Tribunal is called "crimes against humanity."

Committee I will have to give a ruling on cases of this kind.

It is submitted that the criminals cannot be listed as war criminals in the narrower sense and that they cannot be listed at the instance of the Yugoslav National Office.

Similar considerations are involved in the cases Nos. 1323 (see Doc. I/25) and 1339 (see Notes prepared for the meeting of 29th August 1945.)

In Doc. I/25 (para VI (3)) I submitted for consideration by Committee I. whether the attention of the Allied Control Commission for Italy should not be drawn to similar crimes.

No. 1462. Here applies what has been said under No. 1461.

No. 1463. No particular accusation is brought forward against 9 (Rocci) and 10 (Soldano) but the charge against them is apparently implied in the general statement that "the individuals mentioned" are "responsible for numerous acts of murder, etc. "

I would propose to put 1 - 8 on A, 9 and 10 on S.

Canino (1) is described as Commander of the 259th Division "Murge". At other places the charge speaks of the 259th Regiment.

No. 1464. It is not expressly stated, but it may be implied, that the soldiers who shot nine innocent inhabitants of Budva acted under Bertelli's command. If this assumption is correct, Bertelli can be placed on A. "Other perpetrators" is too general a description for any action to be taken by the Committee.

Query whether the statement that BUDVA is in the Kotor district of Montenegro is correct. Does it not belong to Dalmatia?

No. 1465. A.

No. 1466. A.

No. 1467. A.

No. 1468. VILLASANTA and MORRA.

This charge may be read in connection with the following statement made by Dr. Živković in the Meeting of Committee I held on 23rd May, 1945, (Minutes No. 10) in supplementing the charge against Bushianini, Barbera and Butti, No. 848:

" Zadar, although belonging to the pre-war Italian
"territory, was a centre of the whole Yugoslav Dalmation "territory occupied by Italy during this war. It was "from there that instructions for the commission of crimes
"in these Yugoslav territories were issued. "

Although Zadar (Zara) was at the relevant time Italian territory, there is a prima facie case against Villasanta and Mora.

No. 1469. A.

No. 1470. A.

No. 1471. A.

No. 954. (addendum.)

The addendum proposes 20 new names to the charge 954. Against all of them there is a good prima facie case.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I.

NOTE ON THE YUGOSLAV CASES 1014 (ADDENDUM) AND 1310 TO 1325

By Mr. E. SCHWELB.

Addendum to the charge No. 1014 (Terrorism in Krusevac, Kragujevac and Cacak.)

The Yugoslav National Office submits a list of persons whom it holds responsible for crimes committed by the German Limited Company "Didier Werke A.G. Ofenbau").

In the paper I/14 I submitted for consideration by Committee I the question whether the construction and delivery of appliances for the cremation of the bodies of executed persons constitutes a war crime and drew attention to the distinction to be made between this case and the case of the firm of Faulhaber, Berlin, who had delivered gas chambers for the extermination of living persons.

In case Committee should decide that the construction and delivery of appliances for the cremation of the dead is sufficient to establish a prima facie case of a crime having been committed, the following would have to be considered with regard to the five persons whose names have now been submitted :

1). Flotow, as chairman of the Aufsichtsrat (i.e. board of auditors) is prima facie not responsible for crimes committed in the course of the business of the firm.

2). Fellinger as "Vorstand", i.e. a member of the board of directors, belongs to the group of persons who are responsible for dealings of the Company.

(3) - (5) seem to be members of the technical staff.

In case Committee considers that a crime has been committed by the company, (2) to (5) should be listed on S.

No. 1310 - Concentration Camp Skoplje.

A clear case against Bogdanov and Panev who should go on A. Puskarew is already on A. (425).

No. 1311 - Stockhausen and others - illegal execution of 12 peasants.

The case against Stockhausen (1) and Quasny (who is already on the Commission's list; charge No. 1140) is clear. As to (2), (3), (4) and (5) it is only stated that they are "either directly or indirectly" responsible for the execution. No indication about what constitutes the direct or indirect responsibility is given.

No. 1312 - Personnel of Neuengamme Concentration Camp.

A clear case for putting all 17 accused on A. One of them (Pauli; No. 1) is mentioned in Col. Wade's report No. R/G/4/6a. Four additional persons (Jumann, Dreimann, Speck, Roese) mentioned in that report are not charged by the Yugoslav National Office.

The Belgian charge No. 989 also deals with Neuengamme Concentration Camp and six persons have been put on A upon the Belgian charge.

On the request of the French National Office (No. 1058) Professor Heissmayer has been put on A for poisoning of Jewish children at Neuengamme.

No. 1313 - Massacre at Meckovac and Marsic.

A clear case against all the accused (A). Felber, and Wagner are already on the Commission's lists (No. 1014). I could not find Zimmermann on the Commission's lists. As to Schlegel and Zierger no details as to units etc. are given.

No. 1314. - Feldwebel Winter - rape of a woman of 65 years.

According to the "particulars of evidence in support", this infamous incident has been dealt with in a document from the Nuioe Town Council which is on the files of the State Commission.

The question is whether the fact that a Town Council document deals with the incident makes a prima facie case against the accused, the Yugoslav National Office itself having not examined the case.

No. 1315 - Münster - Shooting of 100 civilians.

A case against Münster (A).

Herstenberg and Schroeder are already on A. (Cases 1014 and 1248).

No. 1316 - Mosca - illegal arrest

The question is whether Mosca, when arresting Uccellini, knew that he was innocent. The sentence on Uccellini was certainly not passed by Mosca who is a customs officer.

The Yugoslav National Office should be asked to supplement the information.

No. 1317 - Ciaccio and Terzi - Shooting of partisans.

Both on A.

No. 1318 - Siffredi: A

No. 1319 - Leopardi and Boruzzo: A

No. 1320 - Bertorelle and Orioli: A. Pedrazzoli is already on A (No. 621).

No. 1321.- Concentration Camp Fraschette, Alatri

All on A.

No. 1322 - Siracusa, Cetinje.

The illtreatment of the survivor, Aleksander Demajo, suffices to put Siracusa on A. As to the death sentence on Moris Deniajo, Sava Vukovic and Ivan Sudjevica, th e part played by the accused should be made clear. Obviously he was neither a member of the court, nor the public prosecutor acting before it.

No. 1323. - Il Tribunale Speciale per la Difesa dello Stats

A special paper dealing with this charge will be circulated.

No. 1324 - Santamaria and others - Italian Concentration Camps.

All the accused were directors of Concentration Camps, (2) and (3) of the notorious camp in the Lipari islands which were known for the abominable treatment of the internees long before this war and long before the accession to power of Nazism. There is evidence that allied nationals were among the victims of the camp during the present war and this is sufficient to put all the accused on A.

No. 1325 - Women's Concentration Camp at Pollenza

A case for putting the accused functionaries of the camp on A.

For Committee I, Meeting
22nd August, 1945

NOTES ON CASES
(Luxembourg, Belgian, French, Norwegian).

by Dr. Litawski, Legal Officer.

Luxembourg cases (adjourned)

No. 1285 — It is not clear what the Luxembourg National Office proposes to do with information and names submitted in the Annex. Those persons had nothing to do with the facts dealt with in the charge.

No. 1286 — It appears from the particulars on page 2 that SCHMIDT and LOHNES should also have been charged.

No. 1288 — It is proposed to list all persons indicated in the Annex on the Commission's List "S".

Belgian cases

No. 1300
a) The accused not sufficiently identified. (Units).
b) As a general remark, which applies also to cases other then Belgian, it should be pointed out that for the idenfification of persons accused it is not sufficient to indicate places of commission of crimes, because of the fact that in many instances the offenders committed crimes outside their official residence. It is therefore ofGreat importance for tracing those criminals, to identify them in charges not only by places where crimes were committed, but also by indicating their official residence at the time of commission of crimes.

If we take, for instance, the present charge it is clear, that the accused No. 2, held the position of Ortsgruppenleiter somewhere in the district of Celle, but it does not necessarily follow from the description given on page 1. that he was an Ortsgruppenleiter of Neuhagen.

No. 1301 — The accused not sufficiently identified. There is no indication of his rank and unit, or his official position or residence.

No. 1302
a) No identifying data of the accused No. 2.
b) No indication as to where the accused No.4 was a Chief of the Gestapo. There are two places mentioned in the charge.

No. 1304
a) The accused Nos. 1 & 2 not sufficiently identified, (Official position or places of residence), though, as it has been stated, ~~that~~ the victim has identified them , it should also be possible to identify the accused No. 2 as he was a member of the Belgian Military Police.
b) Responsibility of the accused No.2 is not clear, as he was presumably entitled to take action against the deserters. Besides, it is not expressly stated that he personally tortured the victim.

No. 1305
a) Names under Nos. 16, 19, 22-25 seem to be incorrectly spelt , and some of the others sound strange.(Nos. 26,36,41)
b) The Belgian National Office proposes to list the accused:

Nos. 1-4 on A List
" 5-69 " S "
No. 70 " W "

It appears from the statement of the German witness No. 70, as well as from the facts elaborated in the Annex, that the victims have been executed by soldiers stationed in the Château des Pères Blancs. It seems therefore that the group of soldiers Nos.60-69 stationed elsewhere should be left out of the charge even as suspects. The case does not give any sufficient basis to charge this group of persons at all.

No. 1307 a) The place should be spellt CREFELD instead of OREFELD.
b) The crimes have been committed also at the RHEYDT Concentration Camp and the Commandant of that Camp should also have been charged.

No. 1308 The first name of the accused does not seem probable.

No. 1309 There are two separate charges in this case. In the second one, against the accused No. 2, the victim is a Dutch National.

French cases

No. 1326 a) Nothing has been said in the case that could justify bringing up charges against the group of Military Police at AVALLON as such. On the contrary, from the particulars on page 2. it appears clearly that only the accused No. 1. was involved and committed the crime personally.

b) The victims were Yugoslav and Portuguese Nationals and the respective national authorities should be notified.

No. 1327 Responsibility of the accused not sufficiently established. Apart from the statement that he was in some kind of control position over the French workers, and that he was hated by all people, no specific charges have been brought against him.

It has not even been stated that any crimes were committed against workers under his control which would justify to list him as suspect.

No. 1328 a) The accused Nos. 1-3 and 5-7 not sufficiently identified. The particulars given in the case should be supplemented by indicating the units or the official residence of the accused. There are too many places mentioned in the case which make it more difficult to establish the official residence of the accused mentioned above.

b) The accused Nos. 10-16 not at all identified. (Ranks , Units, Official Residence).

c) The names of the accused Nos. 2 and 14-16 seem improbable or incorrectly spelt .

No. 1329 a) The names of the accused Nos. 4 and 5 seem incorrectly spelt .
b) The accused Nos. 2 and 5 are Belgian Nationals. The Belgian National Office should be notified.
c) The case requires some clarification as to the responsibility of the accused Nos. 3-7 because on page 1 it has been stated that they are charged with complicity and on page 2 they are regarded as suspects.
In the first case they should be eventually listed on "A" instead of on "S". In the second case, the statement onpage 2 does not give sufficient ground to list them even as suspects.

No. 1330 The last three of the accused not sufficiently identified. (Ranks, Units, Official Residence.)

No. 1331 It would be desirable if the French National Office would change the practice of giving first names of the accused in French transcription.

No.217(Additi) No charges brought against DICKMANN.

No. 438 " In the main case it has been stated that the orders to commit the crimes were issued by the accused AHRENDT while in the Additif the same is attributed to the accused HAUCK.

Norwegian cases

No. 1332 a) The accused not sufficiently identified. (Units or Official Position). It is not clear whether LOTZE and MALMENDIER were in charge of the P.O.W camp.
b) The victims are Soviet Nationals and the respective national authorities should be notified.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

COMMITTEE I

Note on the United Kingdom
Cases Nos. 1289 to 1299

By Mr. E. Schwelb

No. 1289 Obergefreiter Lobitz - murder of British P.O.W.

A Clear case for A.

Dr. Studhoff, Obergefreiter Puhl and Fraulein Heisch should be put on W. (See Rice's Affidavit).

No. 1290 Unteroffizier Adler - throwing of petrol on P.O.W.

A clear case for A.

The Stabsarzt (military doctor of the rank of major; see Green's Affidavit, paragraph 9) could be put on W.

No. 1291 Murder of Private Trainor.

The victim was a Private in the Australian Imperial Forces. The case, therefore, concerns the Commonwealth of Australia.

A clear case for A against Unterfeldwebel Vater (1).

As to (2) (Martin Mathis) it appears from the Notes on the Case that the British national office wants him as a witness only. He is not suspected of murder. It is said of him that he rode into the cowhouse where the prisoners were on a horse and rode it straight at Private Trainor. Trainor tried to ward off the horse with his dung fork and Mathis attempted to strike him with his riding fork. This would seem sufficient to put Mathis also on A.

No. 1292 Shooting of Private Tattersall.

A clear case for A against both Duras and Kuels.

In addition, Blenkle (particulars in Reid's Affidavit, para. 7) could be charged as accessory before the fact.

No. 1293. Gefreiter Gerstenberg - Shooting and severely wounding Pte. Tyler

A clear case for A against the accused Gerstenberg. The consequences of Tyler's wound would not have been so serious if he had received proper treatment (see Affidavit by Captain Learner, para. 4). For this neglect the Kommando-Führer seems to be responsible. (Bryant's Affidavit, para. 3). If his identity can be established, he could also be put on A.

No. 1294 Attempt at escape through sewer

The Affidavits of Graham, Hunt, and Bowman constitute prima facie evidence that the prisoners-of-war were ill-treated after recapture. The Affidavits of Hughes, Sunley, Conduit and Burling contain hearsay evidence only.

(1) and (2) were the commander and second in command of the camp respectively. The case against them is obviously based on their general responsibility for what is going on in the camp. Apart from that their individual criminal responsibility is not established. From the evidence it appears that a well-prepared attempt at escape was in progress and the firing at the escaping prisoners in the pitch dark tunnel (Affidavit of Hughes) does not seem to have been as such criminal, the less/as it was preceded by shouting (Sunley's Affidavit).

As to (3) Bowmann concretely accuses the Sergeant i/c the Carabinieri to have stamped on the prisoners' feet with his boots and struck them in the face with his revolver-butt.

No. 1295 Functionaries of P.O.W. Camp at Macerata.

A prima facie case against 1,2,3,4,5a and 5b.

No. 1296 Shooting of Trooper Aaron.

This incident took place in the camp with which also the preceding charge deals (1295).

A very clear case for A against (4) whose name is not known. The charge against (1), (2) and (3) is obviously based on their responsibility for the conduct of the camp.

No. 1297 Fascist leader Gonella - shooting of Indian P.O.W.

This charge is based on hearsay evidence by Lt. Partridge whose Affidavit is based on the information furnished by two Italians.

The identity of the victim is not established. He was reputed to be an Indian Prince.

Enquiries are in progress to establish, a.o. the identity of the victim and to interview the Italian witnesses.

Committee I may either put Gonella on A forthwith, or adjourn the case in order to await the result of the enquiries which are being conducted in Italy.

No. 1298 Functionaries of P.O.W. Camp at San Guiseppe, Sicily.

The charge is not only a general charge against the way the camp had been run, but the Affidavit of Phillips contains also direct and personal charges against the Camp Commandant.(1). The charge against (2) is based on his general responsibility for conditions in the camp. (3) should in my submission be put on W only; (4) on C; (1) and (2) on A.

No. 1299 Zanoni - illtreatment of Ps.of.W.

A very clear case against Zanoni (1) and - on account of his general responsibility - against (2).

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

FOUR SUGGESTIONS CONCERNING C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S.

By M. de BAER

I. A close collaboration has now been obtained between C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S and the U.N.W.C.C. Attempts by C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. to obtain contact with some of the National Offices have not always reached the right person so that it is now felt that the proper channel through which the Governments can be most usefully and most speedily reached is through the members of the U.N.W.C.C.; they are undoubtedly the best placed to ensure a proper liaison. Therefore, and in order that the members of the U.N.W.C.C. should have an up-to-date view of the progress that has been made by C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. and that, moreover, C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. may receive from the Commission any suggestion concerning the improvement of its work, it is necessary to create a regular contact between the two bodies, i.e. that a representative of C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. be invited to come to London at regular intervals, say every month, until the completion of our common work, to attend one of the U.N.W.C.C.'s meetings.

II. C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. is taking a leading part in the scheme of the punishment of war criminals, it has proved its merits as a centralising office covering the activity of - and giving assistance to - all the United Nations engaged in that work; previously it was working under S.H.A.E.F. On the termination of Combined Command control of C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. passed from S.H.A.E.F. to the U.S. Group Control Council and the Control Commission (British Element) working in close association with the other parts of the Quadripartite Commission. It is carrying out its work in this way to the satisfaction of all concerned. It is however necessary to provide for the continuation of its work after the expiration of the lease-lend period, when the question of the financing of C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. will arise. It is therefore suggested that, when the lease-lend period finishes (and that period, if it is not prolonged, may end on Nov. 8th), C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. should rather than be split up among the Allies, remain a central body the financing of which could be done in the same way as the U.N.W.C.C.

III. In the connection mentioned under II. above, it is advisable that the activity of C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. should not be controlled only by Great Britain and U.S.A. but that outside representation should be provided within that body. It is for obvious reasons not possible to provide for the representation of all European Continental countries, but as C.R.C.W.C.A.S.S. is functioning in Paris it seems that at least one of them, namely France, should be represented on it, the more so that she is taking a part in the occupation of Germany

IV. The Commission of Control has not yet adopted a policy in respect of the handing over of persons whose surrender is requested by two or more Allies. It is therefore suggested that a copy of the U.N.W.C.C. recommendations on arbitration by the Commission when the surrender of an accused is requested by several Allies (doc. C.123) be forwarded to the Commission of Control for its information, together with the answers received to date by the Governments concerned.

It is suggested that the U.N.W.C.C. should make suitable recommendations to the Governments on the four points mentioned above and that a copy of these recommendations be sent to the Commission of Control.

For Committee I - Meeting 15th August, 1945.

N O T E

on British Cases Nos. 1251 - 1263.

By E. SCHWELB.

No. 1251. It is not probable that the rank "SS. Obergruppenführer" is correct. The rank of Obergruppenführer corresponds to the rank of General in the Army. It is not probable that a general would interrogate prisoners of war of the rank of guardsman.

No. 1252. 2. ROMPA is said to have been a shipping master in Hamburg before the war.

No. 1253. Hauptmann PICKARD is thus described by F.O. Mackenzie:

> "The German officer in charge of the detraining I would describe as: approximate age about 35-40; about five feet four inches in height; medium build; weight about 140 pounds; blue eyes and auburn hair; blotchy complexion with heavily lined face and with fencing scars on his neck."

Warrant Officer Wright describes him differently:

> "The German officer in charge of the journey from the station to the camp was a man whose age I estimate to be about fifty. He was about five feet three inches in height, with grey hair, close-cropped, fresh complexion, slightly corpulent."

No. 1254. The correct name of the place is:

Weidenau, Bezirk Freiwaldau (Frývaldov), Czechoslovakia.

No. 1257. The depositions of the Polish witnesses, partly corroborated by a German witness, make a good prima facie case against (2), (3) and (4). As to (1), the Burgomaster, the question is whether he had any duty towards the Prisoners of War and whether he, therefore, can be guilty of an offence of omission. Such duty may be implied in his position as head of the local authority. Under Art. 2 of the 1929 Convention Prisoners of War are in the power of the hostile Government and it may be argued that the head of the local authority is part of the Government machinery. If this be so, then the Burgomaster is a proper subject of the provision that Prisoners of War shall be protected, particularly against acts of violence, from insults and from public curiosity, and he would appear guilty of a contravention of this provision in not attempting to stop the illtreatment. The fact that he ordered slave labour away from the place does not seem to constitute an offence and with regard to that the accused can invoke his duty to protect the airmen from curiosity.

The aircraft and the victims of the crime have not been identified. Nor is the nationality of the victims (British or American) established.

No. 1258. Identity of the accused to be established through the Canadian authorities.

No. 1260. Attempts to trace the accused will be made. At present the accused are not identified.

No. 1261. It is doubtful whether in the particular circumstances of this case (escape of British P.O.W. from moving train) there is sufficient reason to hold the officer in command (No. 1) criminally responsible.

No. 1262. As to some of the complaints there is some difference in the evidence: e.g. Lance Corporal Pearson says that the general living conditions were very fair, the billets were equipped with running water and water closets and the food was adequate. (Paragraphs 3 & 4 of Affidavit.) Lance Sergeant Mellon and Company Sergeant Major Coles complain of the accomodation, sanitation and food.

No particulars about the work prohibited or suspected of being prohibited are given and it is therefore difficult for the Committee to judge whether it had direct connection with the operation of war (Art. 31 of Geneva Convention), but there are some complaints, e.g. of chaining of prisoners of war which are a sufficient foundation for the charge.

COMMITTEE I

No. 1268 Responsibility of the accused Nos. 14 - 16, 31, and of the accused NAJDANOV not established, and no specific charges brought against them. All of them hold inferior positions and could not be held responsible on general lines for atrocities committed in the district concerned.

Luxembourg Cases

No. 1285 It is not clear what the Luxembourg National Office proposes to do with information and names submitted in the Annex. Those persons had nothing to do with the facts dealt with in the charge.

No. 1286 It appears from the particulars on Page 2 that SCHMIDT and LOHNES should have been also charged.

No. 1288 It is proposed to list all persons indicated in the Annex on the Commission's List "S".

No. 1144	It seems that the offences, as presented, are too limited in number (four only), and too insignificant to charge the C.-in-C. of an Army in respect of them. The charge does not give any indication that pillage has taken place on a large scale and systematically.
No. 1146	a) The accused No. 8 not sufficiently identified (Unit). b) Responsibility of the accused No. 11 not established. c) The Yugoslav National Office should give some explanation as to the circumstances in which the described crimes were committed. British Cases:

No. 1075. a) Official position of the accused No. 1 given in the case should be changed to: "Inspector-General of P.O.W. camps".

b) It is doubtful whether it would be useful to ask CROWCASS for names of the accused No. 2; taking into account the circumstances it seems nobody could know these names.

No. 1076. The case gives three different spellings of the accused's name, i.e. FARSCH, FARSCHE and FASCHE.

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

Notes on the members of the so-called Doenitz Administration

(By the Legal Officer, Dr. Schwelb)

" of Agriculture	-	Backe.
" of Transport	-	Dorpmueller.
" of Labour	-	Seldte.

All these men are on one or several lists of the United Nations War Crimes Commission as war criminals.

Backe by Belgium, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Dorpmueller by Belgium and Czechoslovakia.

Seldte by Belgium and Czechoslovakia.

Speer by Belgium and Czechoslovakia.

Stuckardt by Poland.

LIST OF ITALIAN AND HUNGARIAN KEY MEN.

MEMORANDUM TO COMMITTEE I.

In regard to Italian key-men Dr. Litauski has been compiling a list. It includes, as you will see:

(a) Mussolini and his Ministers from the time of Italy's intervention in the war till the fall of Mussolini in July 1943;

(b) Italians holding key positions in Yugoslavia;

(c) Some prominent Fascist personalities.

Before typing these lists for submission to Committee I, we would like a ruling on the following points of principle:

1. Are all Italians who have held office as Mussolini's Ministers (in list a) to be regarded as key-men in the sense of the definition in the preface to the List ??

(For example: what about GRANDI, who was, it is believed, instrumental in overthrowing Mussolini?)

2. Should Ministers who held office under Mussolini, and later on under Badoglio be excluded?

Can you let us know your views, in time to get the list ready for the next Committee?

Hungarian List of Key-men.

We have compiled a list of about 30 Hungarian key-men, but in view of the very long lists already published in Hungary--presumably under Soviet auspices--it seems hardly useful to issue such a list.

If the list is to be produced, should Horthy be included?

UNITED NATIONS WAR CRIMES COMMISSION

Czechoslovak Charges against German War Criminals

Charge No. 4/44

DIETZ Sepp

SS-Standartenfuehrer (Banner-leader) and C.O. of the 52nd SS Banner, Krems on the Donau (District Niederdonau, Austria).

At the beginning of March 1939, at Jihlava in south Moravia.

Massacres and systematic terrorisation (No. 1).

Sec. 134, 99 of the Czechoslovak Penal Code;
Secs. 1-3, 13, 6, 14, 14a, 17 of the Defence of the Republic Act.

Short Statement of Facts

DIETZ, Sepp, with a group of selected SS-men, invaded Czechoslovakia territory from Austria at the beginning of March 1939. In the town Jihlava in South Moravia he provoked clashes with members of the State police and with the local Czech population. During these clases Czech people as well as members of the State police were massacred. A number of persons were seriously wounded and killed.

Particulars of Alleged Crime

Shortly before 15th March 1939 armed raids on Czechoslovak territory were made by German SS formation. The purpose of these raids was to provoke clases with the Czechoslovak population and with the Czechoslovak police organs. These incidents were welcome to the German propaganda service which claimed, through the medium of the Reich German press, that the Czechs were terrorising the remnants of the German population still residing on the territory of Bohemia and Moravia after Munich.

There were few incidents of this kind. The Czech people behaved in an orderly manner and avoided anti-German demonstrations of any kind, being fully aware that the mendacious German propaganda would make use of them and would present them to the public of the world in a distorted and inaccurate way, as it did in the pre-Munich days.

For this reason incidents had to be manufactured by the German propaganda service.

One of them is the action of DIETZ Sepp, SS-Standartenfuehrer and C.O. of Banner 52, Krems on the Donau (District Niederdonau).

At the beginning of March 1939 DIETZ Sepp left Austria with a group of selected SS men and wentoto Jihlava in south Moravia where, with the assistance of the local German youth organised in the FS formation, he provoked clashes with the organs of the Czechoslovak State police and with the Czech population. During these clashes Czech people and policemen, who protected the population and whose task it was to maintain public peace and order, were massacred.

By DIETZ's deeds a number of Czech people and members of the Czechoslovak State police were killed and seriously wounded.

DIETZ Sepp, who was sent as an agent provacteur to the Czechoslovak territory by the Reich German authorities, was later decorated for his services in this affair.

Particulars of Evidence in Support

Those who witnessed this case are partly in Great Britain and partly in Czechoslovakia (Document No. 5264/duv. 44 of the Ministry of the Interior).

The names of the witnesses are available for communication orally to Committee I or to the Commission, if they are requested.

NOtes on the Case

ad a) : Probably carrying out orders of his SS superiors within the framework of a large-scale terroristic action.

3. HECK, Heinrich, Alg.SS Mann; Oberfeldwebel of the 392nd "Blue Division", born 14.10.1914. at HEUSS-KÖBELN near HANAU; married ; now at Camp No.91 at DARMSTADT. F.2341

In the first half of 1944.

I. Murder

Violation of Articles 23 b & c, & 46, of the Hague Regulations, 1907, and Article 3, para.3 of the Law concerning Crimes Against the People and the State, 1945.

All the above accused were involved in the murder of 38 gipsies of Jezerane in Croatia, in the first half of 1941.

YUGOSLAV STATE COMMISSION:

12th March, 1947.

At the beginning of 1944, sections of the 392nd "Blue Division", mostly composed of Croats but commanded by German staff, entered JEZERANE (BRINJE district) in western Croatia, and, without any military reason arrested 38 gipsies, half of them under the age of 15 years.

These people were taken to Brinje and handed over to Oberfeldwebel HECK, SS man on gendarmerie duty, at that time in charge of a post (Aussenstelle) of the 392nd 'Blue' Division, who took these people to Oberleutnant REICHERT, Ortskommandant at KRIŽPOLJE.

In the course of that same night these arrested gipsies were shot at a place called KALJEN, and thrown into an already prepared grave, in accordance with the order of Leutnant STRNLAR, who was HECK's superior.

Oberfeldwebel HECK, now at the Prisoner of War Camp at Darmstadt, was interrogated by an Investigating team of the Yugoslav State Commission on July 1st, 1946, and he confirmed the above. He added that according to the order of General.lt. MICKELN, the gipsies concerned were to have been transferred to a concentration camp and that the shooting of them was due to an arbitrary decision of Leut. STRNLAR.

This charge makes all three accused responsible for the murder of these civilians, as their death was a consequence of the combined actions of the accused.

Statements in the files of the Yugoslav State Commission, among which is a statement made by the 3rd accused.

I. Murder & Massacres, Systematic Terrorism.

Violation of Articles 23 b & c,46 of the Hague Regulations 1907 and Violation of Article 3, para. 3 of the Law concerning Crimes against the People and the State, 1945.

On April 18th 1941 near the village of BELJE the Hungarian occupying army shot 6 peaceful Serbian citizens without any reason at all.

Yugoslav State Commission.

15th December, 1946.

In April 1941 the Hungarian Army occupied BARANJA and a small place called BELI MANASTIR without any fighting. Despite this fact the Hungarians arrested ten Serbians without any reason, on the denunciation of the local Germans on April 17th 1941.

The next day all those arrested were taken to the village of BELJE where the 38th Hungarian Regiment had its HQ under the command of Albrecht HABSBURG. They were interrogated by Lieutenants BENKO and SAUSCHJ, officers of the same regiment. They were shown a photograph of the local Cetnik society, where six of the detained people were taken. Joseph STIGLER, Mayor of BELI MANASTIR, HODJINA, solicitor, Jovan ROKICKO, merchant and Sagi BANDI, chemist from BELI MANASTIR were present at the interrogation, having come by car to BELJE.

As the detained men admitted that their photographs were on this picture Lieutenant BENKO went with the picture to O.C. Colonel A.HABSBURG. When he returned BENKO declared that this photograph, in the opinion of Colonel A. HABSBURG was prima facie proof corpus delicit and that the detained people who were on the picture should be shot. All the detained men were taken back to a prison. About 5 o-clock in the afternoon six of those shown in the picture under a strong escort with Lieutenant SAUSCHJ, were taken in the direction of the river DRAVA and CELJSK. As they were not heard of any more it is probable that they were shot somewhere there.

Jovanka [illegible], Slavuka [illegible] and Neveska [illegible], wives of the victim, charged the above mentioned criminals with the murder of their husbands. Four people who were arrested with the victims are reliable witnesses.

NOTES ON THE JUGOSLAV CHARGE 4146

As the rank given and the facts set out on page 2, paragraph 1 of the Charge show, that the accused was apparently a member of the Secret Field Police (Geheime Feldpolizei, abbreviated G.F.P.).

The functions of the G.F.P. relevant for the consideration of the case are defined in the German G.F.P. Field Manual as follows:-

(a) The prevention and discovery of espionage and other offences against security in the German Armed Forces as well as of all other military and civilian tendencies and actions within the zone of operations which may be hostile to the Nazi State. Special emphasis is placed on the prevention and prosecution of sabotage, demoralising propaganda and rumour mongering.....

(b) The prevention of civilians from joining in an action against the occupying forces.

(c) The execution of all security measures within the forward and rear zones of operation.....

(e) The execution of all security Police tasks not within the field of action of the Feldgendarmerie (Military Police).

Of some bearing on the case as well appear the following notes in the SHAEF publication "The German Police" issued in April 1945 (para.108):

> "Like the Gestapo, the Secret Field Police may arrest civilians without Court Orders....."
> "...the original clause denying the G.F.P. jurisdiction over matters within the field of the SIPO came to be interpreted so generously in favour of the RSHA that the G.F.P. was in practise deprived of much of its power...."

There is, therefore, no doubt that it was within the power of the G.F.P. to arrest without Court Orders, orders of the SIPO, that is on their own initiative, persons who were suspected of activities against the security of the German Armed Forces or their Allies.- a mere arrest for this or similar reasons cannot be considered in itself as a War Crime.

Persons arrested by the G.F.P. had to be handed over to the SIPO. It was obviously left to the latter to decide their fate (compare the somewhat VAGUE passage in paragraph 107, under (c) of the SHAEF publication quoted above which seems to contradict this statement to some degree).

To apply in the Jugoslav case No. 4146 the same principles as in the Czechoslovak Case No.952, it should be remembered that the Czechoslovak case was mainly concerned (a) with Police Authorities empowered to order protective custody and preventive custody respectively, (b) with the Police Authorities superior to them by which they were directed and controlled and (c) with the Police authorities subordinate to those mentioned under (a) which had the task of suggesting in individual cases either protective custody or preventive custody.

Persons who were taken into protective or preventive custody were to be detained in concentration camps. In the opinion of the Committee, the officials of these Police Authorities, from certain ranks upwards, appeared, therefore, to have a prima facie responsibility for the deportations carried out in their districts of Czechoslovak citizens to various concentration camps.

Of the officials of these Police Authorities which had to arrest the persons ordered to be taken into protective or preventive custody, only the Inspectors (Befehlshaber) or the Ordnungspolizei were placed on list "S" of War Criminals. The Inspector (Befehlshaber) of the Ordnungspolizei was the highest official of the Ordnungspolizei in the Reichsgau (in the territory of the Czechoslovak Republic the highest official of the Ordnungspolizei in the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia).

The rank of the accused corresponds to the lowest rank of the Führerlaufbahn des Gehobenen Dienstes in the Sicherheitspolizei and would in itself, if the same principles as in the Czechoslovak case No.952 were applied, justify the listing of the accused only if the Committee comes to the conclusion that the accused belonged to a Police authority either empowered to order protective or preventive custody or at least in a position to influence decisively another Police Authority so empowered.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Lt. Colonel Joseph V. Hodgson.

FROM : Capt. Wolff.

SUBJECT : Yugoslav Case No. 940

1. This case was adjourned several weeks ago and is on the Agenda of the next Meeting.

2. Several of the accused are charged with having participated in illegal trials, either as judges or as prosecutors. The Yugoslav representative was asked to present evidence in regard to the law applied by the court and the procedure followed.

3. In response to the suggestion of the Committee the Yugoslav representative submitted a 4-page memorandum. It will be seen that this memorandum separately deals with 4 distinct tribunals. An examination of the charge, however, reveals that all the accused judges or prosecutors were either judges or prosecutors at the Special Court of Sibenek. From a reading of the Memorandum it is not clear which of the 4 courts discussed therein is the Special Court of Sibenek. An inquiry I made brought forth a statement from Mr. Markovic that the Special Court of Sibenek is the court discussed under No. 4 of the Memorandum, to wit: - 'Tribunale Speciale della Dalmazia.' Your attention is therefore particularly directed to the discussion under that heading.

YUGOSLAV CHARGES AGAINST GERMAN WAR CRIMINALS

ADDITION TO CHARGE NO: 306/I/G/2 (R/N/2)

The Yugoslav War Crimes Commission has been informed that SS Obersturmbannfuhrer TEICHMANN was the Befehlshaber der Sicherheitspolizei und Sicherheitsdienst in Serbien at the time of the crime described in the Charge submitted under the above number. The court martial in question was under his authority so that he is directly responsible for the sentence pronounced by the members of that court martial.

The Yugoslav War Crimes Commission, therefore, also charges TEICHMANN and adds his name to those of the criminals named in the above Charge.

The Yugoslav War Crimes Commission has been informed that the Kommandierender General and Befehlshaber in Serbien in 1943 was General Paul BADER. Therefore, the name of the Kommandierender General und Befehlshaber in Serbien accused in the above Charge is General Paul BADER.

ADDENDUM TO JUGOSLAV CHARGE R/IT/144 - 1323/Y/IT/114

The following are additional details of the judicial crimes perpetrated by members of the Italian Special Court for the Defence of the State in Rome and described in the above charge:

I. The sentence pronounced by the Special Court in Rome against about 60 Jugoslavs arrested on the 28th April 1941, i.e. only three weeks after the invasion of Jugoslavia by the Axis (above charge, p.4. under I), was pronounced on the 15th December 1941 (Sentence 216 R.G.P.H. No. 73, R.G.M. 1/1941). The trial was organised by the Italian Government with the purpose of making a political case against Jugoslavia and her Allies, particularly Great Britain, and proving that they had plotted an aggression against Italy before the war. Thus the trial had to justify the Italian invasion of Jugoslavia as a mere preventive measure against the enemies of Italy. To this end the Italian Government brought before its Special Tribunal for the Defence of the State a group of Jugoslavs born in the territories around Trieste, with the prior intention of getting the Court to "prove" that they were "Jugoslav and British Agents", paid for creating disturbances and armed insurrections against the Italian State.

The importance attached by the Italian Government to this trial is demonstrated by the fact that the Tribunale Speciale in Rome was brought to Trieste for this special occasion.

The majority of the Jugoslavs brought to trial were of Italian citizenship, but some of them had never been Italian subjects. They had always been Jugoslav citizens. Apart from that, against the majority of the condemned Jugoslavs there was no evidence whatsoever of their "criminal activity against the State", except their opinion that they should unite with their fellow countrymen in Jugoslavia proper.

This is particularly well illustrated in the case of Dr. Lavoslav CERMELJ, a distinguished Trieste born professor at the University of Ljubljana. He left Trieste at the very time of the transfer of these territories from Austria-Hungary to Italy and went to Jugoslavia where he became a Jugoslav citizen and one of the most prominent intellectuals in Slovenia. He was arrested by the Italians immediately after their occupation of Slovenia, in Ljubljana, where he had always lived since his departure from Trieste, and it is from there that he was brought before the Special Tribunal in Trieste. His only guilt was that he had written before the war a book on the Jugoslavs who remained under Italian rule. This book was translated into English under the title "Life and Death Struggle of a National Minority (The Jugoslavs in Italy)" by Miss Fanny Copeland, reader in English at the University of Ljubljana. The fame of Professor CERMELJ being great among the Jugoslavs in Italy, the Italian Government wanted to get rid of him at all costs and thus destroy one of the foremost intellectual representatives of the racial community under their rule. There was no proof whatsoever of Professor CERMELJ's activity directed against the Italian Government apart from his opinion as a free man that his fellow countrymen should not stay under Italian rule. And this was the sole basis for his having been sentenced to death by the "Tribunale Speciale" on the 14th December 1941.

A few hours after the sentence was pronounced, the death sentence passed on four of the accused (CERMELJ, SARDOC, SCUKA and KAUS) was commuted to life imprisonment, but was carried out, on the 16th December 1941, on the other five (BOBEK, IVANCIC, KOS, VADNAL and TOMAZIC).

A small but not unimportant aspect of the illegality of this trial is brought out in the fact that, even though Professor CERMELJ had never been an Italian subject, the Tribunal "italianised" both his Christian name and surname. Thus, for "Lavoslav" it put "Leopold", and for "CERMELJ" it used "CERMELI"

As to the Jugoslavs of Italian citizenship, the conspicuous feature is that they were selected as former members of the Jugoslav cultured institutions and associations in the Julian March which the Italian Government had disbanded and prohibited long before the war. All these men were known to be devoted to their racial community and to hold anti-fascist views, and they were consequently chosen as easy victims for a trial that had to provide proof of a "Jugoslav Conspiracy" against the Italian State. Apart from belonging to the Jugoslav community, from having taken part in its cultural life, and from having stood for their re-union to Jugoslavia, these men had nothing to do with an insurrectionary or terrorist organisation. None of them took part in any act of sabotage before the war or in any organisation intending to overthrow the Italian Government by violence. And after Italy invaded Jugoslavia they hardly had time to undertake such an activity, having been placed under arrest only three weeks after the invasion.

Their trial, therefore, represented a clear case of persecution on "racial and political grounds", as provided for in Article 6 (c) of the Charter of the International Military Tribunal, their sole guilt being that they belonged to the Jugoslav community which had not wished to be "italianised" and subdued to the fascist yoke.

The final result of the trial was that:

5 of the accused were sentenced to death and shot;
4 " " " " " " " their penalty was commuted to life imprisonment.
23 of the accused were condemned to 30 years imprisonment each;
1 of the accused was condemned to 24 years imprisonment;
3 of the accused were " " 16 " "
6 of the accused were " " 15 " "
6 of the accused were " " 12 " "
2 of the accused were " " 10 " "
1 of the accused was " " 8 " "
1 of the accused was " " 7 " "
3 of the accused were " " 6 " "

Apart from Professor CERMELJ, another of the accused was also a Jugoslav and was not an Italian citizen : Josip ZIDARIC. He was born in Trieste in 1919, but his parents emigrated to Jugoslavia, as Professor CERMELJ had done, and settled there. As in the case of Professor CERMELJ, ZIDARIC acquired Jugoslav citizenship before Trieste and the surrouding territories were incorporated into Italy. He also was arrested in Ljubljana after the invasion of Jugoslavia, and brought to trial in Trieste.

As regards those two of the accused, the trial represented not only a "crime against humanity" but directly a "war crime".

The members of the Court guilty of those crimes were the following: General TRINGALI-CASANUOVA, as President; PASQUALUCCI, CIANI, ROSA-ULIANA, COLIZZA, CAPUTI and CAU, as Judges; and LANARI as Military Prosecutor (Procuratore Militare) and "juge-rapporteur".

II. The sentence passed on the 25th September 1941, No.228 R.G.N. 314 (see above charge, p.5. under II), was illegally pronounced against a Jugoslav soldier (of Jugoslav citizenship), Bruno GACINA, The illegality of the condemnation is manifested from the fact that GACINA was condemned for having performed his military duty on Jugoslav soil the day before the attack of Italy against Jugoslavia, i.e. on the 5th April 1941.

Apart from the fact that GACINA could never have been held to account for performing his military duty before the war on Jugoslav soil, his superior officers, who ordered the reconnaissance on the frontier, were entitled to do so according to all existing laws and customs of war, and more particularly on account of the Italian military movements on the frontier preceding the treacherous attack on the 6th April 1941 which was made without any declaration of war.

The responsible members of the Special Tribunal in Rome were: GAUTTIERI as President; LANARI as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; CISOTTI, PALMERI, VEDANI, MINGONI and POMPILLI as judges.

III. As to the sentence, passed on the 23rd February 1942, on 13 Jugoslavs because of an attack on six members of the Italian Customs Guard (aforementioned charge, p.5., under III), the particulars so far collected do not show whether they were Italian or Jugoslav subjects, or whether they belonged to units of the Jugoslav Army (regardless of their citizenship). However, the conspicuous feature in this case is the severity of the sentences, (7 were condemned to 30 years hard labour and 6 to 20 years) which is out of all proportion to the alleged offence (physical assault on Italian Customs Guards). It is safe to assume that such extremely severe penalties were imposed solely because the alleged offenders were of Jugoslav race and the condemnation thus represented a disguised means of persecution on racial grounds.

The responsible members of the Tribunal were: TRINGALI-CASANUOVA as President; LANARI as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; PASQUALUCCI, VENTURA, RAMBALDI and SCARZI as judges.

IV. The sentence pronounced on the 24th February 1942 (aforementioned charge, p.5. under IV) was passed on two Jugoslav citizens (ANTIC and BARADA), living in Fiume, and on seven Jugoslavs of Italian citizenship. They were all condemned "for having belonged to a communist organisation and for having made communist propaganda". The two Jugoslav citizens were arrested before the war between Italy and Jugoslavia, on the 20th February 1941, and all the accused men were tried and sentenced only four days after their arrest. The point of importance is that, before the war and especially in the months preceding the Italian aggression, the Italian authorities used the "communist" argument indiscriminately and systematically against all Jugoslavs in their territory. This was one of the ways of persecuting Jugoslavs on account of their racial position and their anti-fascist attitude. Therefore the sentencing of Jugoslavs to many years of hard labour on the sole charge that they "belonged" to "a communist" organisation and that they "made propaganda" is a clear case of persecution on Political grounds, incompatible with the laws of humanity.

The responsible members of the Tribunal were: GRIFFINI as President; PRESTI as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; CAPUTI, PALMERI, PASQUALUCCI, SUPPIEJ and PALMENTOLA as Judges.

V. The sentence passed on the 6th March 1942 (above charge, p.5, under V) is a case concerning two Jugoslav citizens (PRIMOZIC and BUTKOVIC), one living in Slovanic (Ljubljana) and the other in Dalmatia (Crkvenica). The case is in every respect similar to the one described above under II. Both these men were serving in the Jugoslav forces (one in the Gendarmarie) long before the war, and both performed their military duty by patrolling the Italo-Jugoslav frontier area at that time. It is for the carrying out of that military duty before the war (one as far back as in 1933-1935) that they were arrested by the Italian authorities in 1941, after the occupation of Slovania and Dalmatia by the Italian forces. And it is for the obvious fact that, while patrolling the frontier area, they saw and noticed some fortifications and troops on the Italian side, that they were charged and condemned for having "collected and given information" to the Jugoslav authorities. This is, therefore, a quite clear case of illegal trial and criminal condemnation.

The responsible members of the Tribunal were: LE METRE as President; PRESTI as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; GANGENI, ROSSI, VEDANI, PASQUA-LUCCI and LEONARDE as Judges.

VI. The sentence passed on the 17th April 1942 (aforementioned charge p.5-6, under VI) was pronounced against two Jugoslav citizens (MATCOVIC and BAN) on the charge that they "approached the Consul-General of the U.S.A. in Zagreb, Mr. John MEILY, with a view to having four ships, owned by Matcovic and run by Ban, as his naval agent, taken over by an American company." The four ships were, at that time, sailing in the Western hemisphere. The following are the details of this trial:

MATCOVIC and BAN were brought to trial before the Tribunale Speciale per la Difesa dello Stato in Rome, on the basis of a communique issued on the 1st September 1941, by the quisling Croat Office of Foreign Affairs to the Italian press. This communique was related to the "activities of the American Consul in Zagreb who maintained relations abroad in order to weaken the Italian war effort". The communique contained a reference to such "activities" on the part of the American Consul, by mentioning that documents had been found according to which the Consul had been approached by the above-mentioned two Jugoslavs on the subject of the taking over of the four MATCOVIC ships.

It is on the basis of this Press Communique that MATCOVIC and BAN were arrested by the Italian authorities in their zone of occupation and brought to trial before the Tribunale Speciale. MATCOVIC was sentenced to 15 years hard labour "for having approached the American Consul General in Zagreb with the request that his four ships be taken over by one company in the U.S.A. and one in Canada, in order not to fall into the hands of the Axis Powers". BAN was sentenced to 10 years "for having personally visited the American Consul General, upon the instructions of MATCOVIC" with the same purpose.

No better case could be provided to show the illegality of the trials of Jugoslavs by the Tribunale Speciale and the criminality of their condemnations. The Tribunal treated the above two Jugoslavs as though the inhabitants of a country occupied by Italy owed allegiance to the Italian Government, and as if they were not entitled to look after their property and business in the countries at war with Italy. This is a conspicuous example of complete disregard for International Law and "Roman Justice".

The responsible members of the Tribunal were: GRIFFINI as President; PRESTI as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; CAPUTI, PASQUALUCCI, SUPPIEJ, LEONARDI and D'ALESSANDRO as Judges.

VII. The sentence passed on the 25th June 1942 against 22 Jugoslavs of Italian citizenship for having been members of the Jugoslav Army or for having fought against the Italian Army, (above charge, p.6. under VII), is a case in point with regard to the new and unprecedented position created for all Jugoslavs from Italy during this war. The facts are as follows:

Apart from Jugoslav units created during this war in the territory of Jugoslavia proper, units composed of Jugoslavs from Italy were formed in the province known as the Julian March (Istria, Gorizia and Trieste). These units were founded by Jugoslavs on the spot, and soon after that a close military liaison and co-operation were established between them and their British and American Allies. Allied liaison officers were attached to them, with the purpose of co-ordinating their operations with those conducted by the Supreme Allied Command, Mediterranean. Members of these Jugoslav forces were supplied with uniforms, arms and other military equipment by the Allies and recognised as a part of the Jugoslav Army fighting under the orders of Marshal Tito.

From that time on, their operations were closely combined with those of the United Nations.

After such recognition and co-operation, it is impossible for the Allies (here for the U.N.W.C.C.) to recognize the right of the Italian Government to prosecute and punish these Jugoslav soldiers as "traitors" to Italy. This would be a contradiction in adjecto not only to the informal but also to the official treatment of these Jugoslavs and their units as an integral part of the Allied Forces. In view of such a new situation, all that could be conceded to the Italian Government would be the treatment of these Jugoslavs as prisoners of war with consequent internment in P.O.W. camps till after the end of hostilities. Of course, nothing could, de facto, prevent the Italian Government from going on with the thesis that, these individuals being "Italian subjects" the Italian courts were "entitled" to condemn them for "treason". But this is a principle which obviously cannot be admitted by the United Nations.

In this delicate legal position, there is no other way out than to create the necessary precedent based on the recognition of the practice, unknown up to the present war, of establishing official military co-operation with units of a racial community under the rule of an enemy State.

For the United Nations War Crimes Commission the precedent consists in declaring that, once members of a racial community under enemy rule become regular members of a coalition of belligerent Powers fighting against that enemy State, by joining the ranks of regular military units conducting combined operations with the said coalition, the enemy State is no longer entitled to treat members of such units as traitors but only as prisoners of war.

This would only logically fit into the larger frame of legal novelties recently introduced by the United Nations into the sphere of war crimes and other international criminal offences. And it would certainly be less bold than the admitted rule that Heads of State and members of Governments are penally answerable for preparing and/or launching an aggressive war.

By the aforementioned sentence, out of 22 Jugoslavs taken prisoner as members of Jugoslav military units, 15 were sentenced to death and shot, and 7 were condemned to 30 years hard labour.

The responsible members of the Tribunal were: TRINGALI-CASANUOVA, as President; PRESTI as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; CIANI, ROSA-ULIANA, RADOGNA, PALMERI and SUPPIEJ as Judges.

VIII. The sentence passed on the 31st July 1942 (aforementioned charge, p.6. under VIII) was pronounced against two Jugoslav citizens on the charge that they "maintained liaison with the British with the purpose of harming Italian military operations". One was a captain in the Jugoslav Navy before the war PRERADOVIC- and the other a lieutenant in the Air Forece (JURIC). The illegality of their trial appears in the fact that they were held responsible by the Tribunale Speciale as "Italian subjects" on the ground that one of them was born in Istria (Pola) and the other in the newly "annexed" part of Jugoslavia, Sibenik. Apart from such an utterly illegal treatment of two Jugoslav subjects, there was no other proof of their having "maintained liaison with the British" than the statements of Italian witnesses who were all members of the Italian occupying authorities. No British "Agent" could be found and arrested, neither could any British name be produced.

The responsible members of the Tribunal were: LE METRE as President; LANARI as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; RADOGNA, CISOTTI, D'ALESSANDRO, ROSA-ULIANA and PERILLO as Judges.

IX The sentences passed on the 23rd October 1942 against ZNIDARSIC and STERGAR (aforementioned charge p.6 under IX) was similar to the cases described above under II and V, with the sole difference that the two victims were not members of the Jugoslav Army during the period of time involved in the accusation. As Yugoslav citizens, arrested during the occupation in Jugoslav territory, they were charged with having "given information about the Italian Army to Jugoslavia" in 1938 and later, in all the alleged cases before April 1941, i.e. before the state of war existed between Italy and Jugoslavia. On the assumption that the charges were genuine - which is far from being established - the trial and condemnation were illegal in any case, being related to a time preceding, in some cases by two and three years, the state of war between Italy and Jugoslavia.

One not unimportant feature is that both victims were Slovenes, belonging to the same racial community of Jugoslavs in the Julian March, and that their native soil (Slovenia) was illegally annexed by Italy in 1941 and called the "Province of LJUBLJANA".

The responsible members of the Tribunal were: LE METRE as President; PRESTI as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; CISOTTI, PALMENTOLA, VEDANI, BERGANASCHI and ALVISI as Judges.

X. The sentence passed on the 28th November 1942 (above charge , p.6, under X) was pronounced against a Jugoslav citizen born in Istria in 1919 (JARDAS) and 13 Jugoslavs from Italy, on the basis that they "belonged to a Jugoslav partisan unit". As to JARDAS, the Trial and condemnation are beyond all doubt illegal, as the victim had the right to be treated as a prisoner of war. As to the Jugoslavs of Italian citizenship (13 Slovenes and Croats), they were in the same position as those in the case described and discussed above, under VII, and should, therefore, have been placed on the same footing as prisoners of war of units belonging to a recognised belligerent party.

The responsible members of the Tribunal were: LE METRE as President; PRESTI as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; CIANI, COLIZZA, PALMENTOLA, PERILLO and CAPUTI as Judges.

XI. The sentence passed on the 5th December 1942 against Jugoslav citizens arrested in Jugoslavia and interned on the ill-famed LIPARI islands (above charge, p.6-7, under XI), is a clear case of illegal and criminal jurisdiction.

Like all the other inmates, the victims were interned in LIPARI because of their anti-fascist convictions and attitude, which to the Fascist Government already represented a "revolutionary" action. Apart from that, they were interned in a concentration camp known throughout the world as a huge jail from which no one could ever dream of escaping. Furthermore they were interned for an indefinite period of time, giving them no prospect whatsoever of when they could anticipate their release and carry out whatever "revolutionary" programme they might have planned in the camp. Therefore to indict and condemn persons who were already interned as "revolutionaries" for having formed a "revolutionary organisation" in the camp would only have a ridiculous and cynical significance were it not tragic in its consequences for the victims.

None of the deeds of the victims in this camp could have possibly justified such a charge and condemnation. If they had actually succeeded in forming some sort of an "organisation" which was anti-fascist, if they had manifested their anti-fascist convictions even violently, all this would in any case have only amounted to a breach of the camp regulations entailing, at the most, disciplinary punishment and nothing else.

The responsible members of the Tribunal were: GRIFFINI as President; MILAZZO as Prosecutor and Juge-Rapporteur; PALMIERI, PASQUALUCCI, D'ALLESANDRO, ALVISI and RICCIO as Judges.

XII. Up to date it has not been possible to establish who were the judges responsible for the sentences passed on RADOVANOVIC and VRHINEC, nor the date and number of the sentence. All that has been established is that both men were condemned by the Tribunale Speciale in Rome, each being sentenced to 30 years hard labour in the course of the same trial.

The illegality of the condemnation appears particularly in respect of RADOVANOVIC. He was nominated Chief of the Central Press Bureau in the Government formed on the 27th March 1941, i.e. on the occasion of the overthrowing of the pro-Axis Government of Prince Paul. This revolutionary manifestation against the Axis was the direct cause of the Axis aggression against Jugoslavia a few days later, on the 6th April 1941.

RADOVANOVIC was arrested by the Italians in Dalmatia and interned in Italy. It was directly from the concentration camp that he was brought before the Tribunale Speciale and sentenced to 30 years hard labour. Having in view his immediate arrest after the occupation and the fact that he was known to the Italians as an anti-fascist, the only reason that can be found for his condemnation is his anti-fascist attitude which he also expressed in the press.

XIII. As a matter of explanation regarding the paragraphs on p.4 of the above survey of the number of victims sentenced under the presidency of each of the judges named there, according to information collected so far by the Jugoslav National Office.

XIV. The following is a general remark of importance regarding the Tribunale Speciale per la Difesa dello Stato in Rome:

This Tribunal had its own procedure, which was in every respect identical with that of a court-martial. All the judges were members of the Fascist Party (Black Shirts) and, after taking their oaths, they had to obey the "Duce" unconditionally. Before pronouncing their sentences, they had to report to him, and he either dictated the condemnation or at least determined it in its main outlines.

Being members of a purely political court, some of the judges were not even specially trained lawyers.

XV. In conclusion it is therefore suggested that all the individuals named in the above charge should be put on List A.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

From the 9th July,1941 until the 3rd October 1944, 23,000 men, women and children were detained in the camp at BANJICA. All these persons went through incredible hardships. They were tortured, beaten and starved, many were sent to Germany on forced labour and about 10,000 were killed and all their valuables taken from them.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME.

This terrible camp at BANJICA was organised by the German Authorities and administered by the Gestapo. BANJICA was one of the German horror camps in Jugoslavia which was run on the same lines as those of Belsen, Buchenwald, Dachau and others. The Camp Commandant, FRIEDRICH, his assistants and other members of the camp staff used the most ingenious methods of torture on the innocent inmates of the camp. Only a German brain was capable of inventing such terrible methods of inflicting physical and mental suffering and it is difficult to imagine their full horror. To mention only a few examples: scientific starvation, crushing the skull with special instruments, beating young girls on their breasts, inserting spikes under the finger nails.

Probably the worst psychological torture was the one which occurred every day when all the prisoners were lined up in the courtyard and the Germans chose their victims for execution. No one ever knew when his turn had come.

Even in the case of execution, the Germans had their special methods and procedure. Apart from shooting, they used to hang their victims or lock them into specially built chambers into which they let poison gas.

Many lost their reason in consequence of this mental strain. Although the execution ground was away from the camp itself, it was easy to hear the cries of women and children facing the execution squads, and this added to the other horrors of the camp. It is plain that the Germans, when they executed children in their mothers' arms or clinging to their skirts, had only one intention - to exterminate the nation.

At that execution ground of JAJINCI, the grave-yard of the Serbian nation, at least 68,000 persons were executed. The Germans tried to conceal their crimes, hiring 90 men to dig up all the bodies and burn them. Under German supervision these men worked day and night and finally they, too, were killed and their bodies burnt in the hope that thus no trace would remain. However, according to the registers of different churches in Belgrade, over 10,000 men, women and children were killed in the camp at BANJICA, and the rest of the 68,000 came from all over Serbia. Except for those who managed to escape in time, the flower of the nation perished in this camp.

There should be no doubt that all the criminals mentioned in this charge, and many more whose names will be submitted in due course, are responsible for the death of these 68,000 innocent Serbs.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS

The criminals listed in this charge are responsible for a very great number of crimes committed in the POZAREVAC district. Some details of the crimes which were committed are given in the following section and will plainly show that all the criminals in question either took an active part or issued direct orders to carry out the operations.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME.

STOETZEL, as Kommandant Polizei Gebietskommandatur II Belgrade, in accordance with directions issued by DANCKELMANN, BADER, MAYSNER and HELM, sent detailed instructions to kreiskommandants in different districts in Serbia concerning the treatment of the population. In addition to these orders, STOETZEL is responsible for a number of crimes committed in the vicinity of BELGRADE. From the very beginning of Spring 1941, he carried out a "policy of scientific extermination" of the Serbs. The following are some details of crimes committed with his full knowledge, approval and consequent on his instructions:-

cont'd.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME (cont'd)

(1) 16 men shot at Sm PALANKA on the 20th July 1941.

(2) 39 houses burnt down at the villages, STARO SELO, NOVO SELO, SOPIC, VREOCI and ZAOKO on the 21st November 1941.

(3) Milorad JANKOVIC and Zivomir PANTELIC hanged in front of the school building at ARANDJELOVAC in April 1943 - 200 persons interned.

SCHULTZ, Kreiskommandant at POZAREVAC, is responsible for many crimes committed in that district during 1942. Many persons from POZAREVAC and the neighbouring villages were arrested, maltreated and deprived of their belongings. For example: on the direct orders of SCHULTZ, Bozidar JANKOVIC and a number of peasants from neighbouring villages were executed on the 5th September 1942. On the 23rd November 1942, Maksim TRAILOVIC, Mayor of BOSNJAK Municipality, Stanoje ATANCKOVIC, five other men and a woman were arrested, beaten and tortured.

CLAUSEN, on resuming the post of Kreiskommandant, continued the reign of terror in POZAREVAC in even worse form. An endless list of victims can be produced to prove the crimes of this man and his subordinates. During this period, hundreds were arrested, tortured, beaten and starved. Many were deported. It is possible to supply the names and full details of more than 30 persons who were shot without any reason at all. The only offence of Milosav STANENKOVIC (aged 72), Radovan MILOSEVIC (aged 60) and Zivorad MILANOVIC (aged 16), who were shot, was that they were Serbs. The material loss in the district was enormous - one of the richest and most prosperous regions in Serbia was impoverished and devastated. There is no end to the crimes committed with the full knowledge of this Kreiskommandant. Age and sex did not count. For example, during the night of the 10th and 11th October 1943, thirty girls were taken to a house (Burdjelj mali 15) and raped. Some of them were only children. The population lived in constant terror. No one was sure of his life. Nobody was spared.

Colonel WURSTER, high-ranking commander in the POZAREVAC district, co-operated closely with SCHULZ. He gave instructions to his men and directed all those "operations" which inflicted such heavy losses of life and property on the Serbian population. On the 14th November 1942, his men arrested 50 peasants at ZAGUBICE. Five of these men were taken to POZAREVAC and the next day the remainder of the inhabitants of ZAGUBICE, including women and children, were arrested and all possessions were looted.

General BOROVSKI, as Commander of a Division at POZAREVAC and the highest officer in the Kreiskommandatur, is obviously responsible for all actions performed by his subordinates. From 1942 onwards he was the man who issued orders and instructions, and he was fully aware of all the crimes committed in the district where he occupied such a high position.

Generalmajor MAY, as Befehlshaber der Ordnungspolizei in Serbia, issued orders to his subordinates throughout Serbia, and in particular in the district of BELGRADE. He co-operated very closely with STOETZEL.

All the individuals listed on the first page of this charge took an active part and personally conducted operations against the Serbs. The cruelty and savagery of these criminals can hardly be described. Hundreds lost their lives either directly through the enemy or indirectly through the circumstances created by the enemy. The very life of the Serbian nation bears deep wounds in consequence of this barbarity.

The above-named individuals tortured any Jugoslav citizen who happened to be under arrest in the local prison.

The Jugoslav State Commission:

3rd August, 1945.

Immediately after the occupation of the Dalmatian islands, the Italians began a systematic terrorism of the Jugoslav population. For this purpose the Italian authorities made use of those Italians who had been living on the islands before the war and who knew local conditions.

The Italians in this charge, BARBIERI, STOLP and CARLETTO, used to denounce Jugoslavs and offer their services to the authorities. Among other things they would beat and systematically torture any Jugoslav citizen who happened to be under arrest. Witnesses have stated that all three showed great cruelty towards prisoners.

These cruel activities lasted throughout the occupation of the island, that is from April 1941 to the end of 1943.

Evidence is based on a sworn statement by Anton ZIC of Aleksandrovo, on the Island of KRK.

- I. Murder & Massacres - Systematic Terrorism.
  XIII. Pillage.

  Violation of Article 46 & 47, Hague Regulations, 1907, and of Article 13, Jugoslav Military Courts Act, 1944.

The above-mentioned persons persecuted, pillaged and murdered the Slav inhabitants of Istria, especially at the time of the German operations there.

The Jugoslav State Commission:

7th August, 1945.

ZAPETTI MICAN and STUPAR, all natives of PAZIN, as ardent Fascists and haters of Slavs, terrorised the Slav population. Especially during the German operations in Istria (after the collapse of Italy) they denounced a number of Slavs to the Germans. These Slavs were then arrested.

They also pillaged the helpless inhabitants of Istria and committed a number of murders. For example, they captured the Commander of a Partisan unit (whose name has not been established so far) in the neighbourhood of PAZIN and hanged him in the village GRACISCE after cruelly maltreating him.

These Italian Fascists arrested many innocent persons all over Istria and helped the Germans to wipe out those Slavs who had survived the period of Italian Fascist terror.

Evidence is based on the sworn statements of numerous inhabitants of PAZIN, among them being Branko GRZIC.

- Violation of Articles 23 and 46, Hague Regulations 1907, and of Article 13, Jugoslav Military Courts Act, 1944.

The three above-mentioned criminals issued orders for crimes to be committed which caused great suffering amongst the oppressed population.

Jugoslav State Commission :

9th August, 1945.

On the 1st August, 1941, PEDRAZZOLI issued an order, No.3338, Op Comando Divisione Fanteria "Taro" which was also signed by BENTIVELLE and CRIOLI. In this order Italian units belonging to the "Taro" division were instructed to :

1. "As this struggle has nothing to do with the war" every rebel must be shot.

2. The rebels must be hunted like ordinary animals, and as soon as they are caught must be shot regardless of whether they are armed or not.

3. If the leaders do not surrender by a certain time a number of hostages must be taken and their houses destroyed and burned down.

4. Those who give information regarding the position etc. of the rebels should be paid well, but if the information proves false then the persons must be shot.

5. All houses where arms are found during the investigations must be completely destroyed.

This order was repeated in a telegram sent to all units asking that all prisoners who were not yet shot be sent to his headquarters for further interrogation. The result of this order was terrible. It was carried out in detail and many districts suffered badly.

The evidence consists of :

1. Original document No.3338 - 1.8.1941. Comando Divisione Fantasia "Taro".

Date and Place of Commission of Alleged Crime.

From April 1941 until September 1943: The Special Court for the Defense of the State, in Rome. (Il Tribunale Speciale per la Difesa dello Stato, Roma.)

Number and Description of Crime in War Crimes List.

I. Murder and Massacres - Systematic Terrorism.

X. Usurpation of Sovereignty during Military Occupation.

Violation of Article 42 & 46, Hague Regulations, 1907, and of Article 13, Jugoslav Military Courts Act, 1944.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

The individuals mentioned on the foregoing list were members of the Special Court for the Defence of the State in Rome. This Court tried Jugoslav citizens from Jugoslav territory occupied by the Italians during 1941-1943 and sentenced them to severe punishment for political acts against Italy which had taken place before the war - in Jugoslavia - as well as for acts connected with the National Rising and the people's fight against the Italian invaders. This was contrary to the International Laws concerning war.

Contrary to the solemn pledge given by the Italians in 1919, to respect the rights of the Jugoslav minority in Italy, members of Special Court aimed at the extermination of Slovenes and Croats under Italian rule.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME.

The Special Court for the Defense of the State in Rome (Il Tribunale Speciale per la Difesa dello Stato) was created on the 26th November 1926 and judged all offenses against the security of the Italian State and the Fascist régime. During the Italian occupation of Jugoslav territory from April 1941 until September 1943, a great number of Jugoslav citizens were brought before this Tribunal, as well as Slovenes and Croats from Istria, Goritzia and Trieste who were Italian citizens.

This Special Court was one of the instruments for the criminal destruction of Slovenes and Croats under Italian rule. The sentences which were passed were out of all proportion to the "offenses" with which the victims were charged.

Moreover the Special Court not only committed judicial crimes within the sphere of defence of the fascist régime and the persecution of the Jugoslav minority in Italy, but also committed the crime of usurpation of sovereignty during the military occupation of Jugoslavia - contrary to Article 42 and the following of Hague Regulations 1907.

Slovenes and Croats from Istria, who left Italy in 1929 and became Jugoslav citizens, were tried and sentenced by this Special Court. It also tried Jugoslav citizens from Dalmatia - because they had worked for their liberation - and sentenced them, as though they were Italian citizens, for endangering the plitical, social and economic régime of "their country". This action by the Court was in consequence of the illegal annexation and usurpation of the right to judge Jugoslav citizens from occupied territory. Even Jugoslav citizens from other regions of Jugoslavia, who were found in that part of

A.d Jugoslav

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME (continued.)

Jugoslavia occupied by the Italians, were tried and sentenced by the Special Court.

They also sentenced, during the Italian occupation, those former members of the Jugoslav Forces who had been doing reconnaissance duties during the brief period of actual warfare between Italy and Jugoslavia. This reconnaissance work was called "spying."

1. Under the presidency of Lt. General TRINGALI-CASANUOVA, the Special Court sentenced either to death or hard labour 91 persons who were Jugoslav citizens belonging to the Jugoslav minority in Gorizia and Istria, who had fought for their national liberation from the Italian and fascist yoke.

2. Under the presidency of Lt. General LE METRE, the Special Court condemned 79 Jugoslavs, from Jugoslavia proper and from the Jugoslav minority in Italy, to different penalties varying from hard labour to death.

3. Under the presidency of Console Generale GRIFFINI, the Special Court condemned 40 Jugoslavs to hard labour.

4. Under the presidency of Console Generale SUPPIEJ, the Special Court condemned 5 Jugoslavs to hard labour.

5. Under the presidency of Lt. General CONTICELLI, the Special Court sentenced 2 Jugoslavs to hard labour.

6. Under the presidency of Lt. General GAUTIERI, the Special Court sentenced a Jugoslav citizen to 30 years hard labour

The National Liberation movement spread in those Jugoslav regions taken by Italy after the First World War and in those Jugoslav regions occupied by the Italians. The Special Court was used to suppress the movement. Severe sentences were passed for belonging to the movement and for unimportant and unproved charges. The following are some examples of the sentences which were passed:-

Jugoslav State Commission :

17th August, 1945.

The Jugoslav population of VENEZIA GIULIA, TRIESTE and ISTRIA ehad been terrorized by the Italians since the very beginning of Fascism in Italy. The Fascist policy was to exterminate the Slav element in those provinces, and since 1922 Slav inhabitants, although Italian citizens, were subject to most inhuman ill-treatment, persecuation and forcible denationalisation. The main objectives of the Fascists were Slav intelligenzia, Slav schools, cultural centres, churches - in fact everything that bore a Slav mark. Slovene and Croat peasants were driven from their land and their possessions. Slavs were not even allowed to use their mother-tongue. During the twenty years before this war the Fascist regime staged a number of trials against distinguished Slav inhabitants; many were executed, whilst the rest were condemned to long-term imprisonment. The aim of the Fascist Government was to terrorize the Slav population into submission and into giving up their natural historical, national and cultural tradition.

After the occupation of western Jugoslavia, in 1941, by the Italians, the Italian Government violated the Jugoslav sovereignty and abolished the existing frontier by the illegal annexation of the western Jugoslav territories. In violation of Section III, Hague Regulations 1907, these territories were made part of the Italian State, and the "Roman law" was extended to the occupied areas. Encouraged by the initial military successes of the Axis they began an even more ruthless persecution of the Slav people. From that time onwards they applied the same methods to all Jugoslavs under their occupation, regardless of their citizenship, thus denying to those who were Italian subjects the fundamental rights of a citizen. By so doing the Italian Government gave proof of the fact that, both within the pre-war frontier and in the newly occupied Jugoslav territory, they were conducting a single policy - the persecution of the Jugoslav population as such. Thus the crimes dealt with in this charge and committed in 1941 by the individuals as listed on page 1. are just an ordinary continuity and extention of the Fascist law of the territory of Jugoslavia proper, and a miniature illustration of the terror perpetrated by the Fascist Government against the Slav population of Italy during the twenty years before this war.

Dr. PERLA started his carper in O.V.R.A. in 1930, as assistant to FARAZZI, who was at that time the High Commissioner and Chief of O.V.R.A. From 1930 he participated, as investigator, in all the proceedings, which resulted in hundreds of death penalties, mass internments and hard labour for life.

In 1939 he became Chief of O.V.R.A. and in this capacity he conducted the investigation at a proceeding against some 200 Jugoslavs before the Tribunale Speziale per la Difesa Stato Roma, which took place at TRIESTE on December 14th, 1941. Among the accused were : Dr. Lev CERNELJ, Daniel FERTOT, Stanislav KLAVICIC, Drago MILIC, Anton BABIC, Viktor BOBEK, Ivan IVANCIC, Simon KOS, Ivan VADNJAL and Josip TOMAZIC.

They were kept in prison pending investigation, some for over a year. During the interrogation they were beaten and tortured by Dr. PERLA and the carabinieri : SCARANO, DONNAMURA, and OSMIANI. The victims were beaten to such an extent that their hands and feet were so swollen that they could not use them. One of the prisoners had his moustache burnt and pulled out; two others were beaten unconscious and thrown into the prison cellar of the Police H.Q. where they were kept for 17 days, getting food and water only every third day. This torturing was carried out in order to extort false statements from the prisoners against their comrades, so as to get sufficient evidence for the trial which took place on December 14th, 1941.

Ten were sentenced to death : On December 15th, by the order of General Giovanni CORTE (document of Comando Difesa Territoriale TRIESTE of 14.12.41.) five of them were shot, their names being : Viktor BOBEK, Ivan IVANCIC, Simon KOS, Ivan VADNJAL and Josip TOMAZIC. Sixty received sentences of hard labour, varying from 2 years to penal servitude for life.

COMMITTEE I

NOTES ON THE YUGOSLAV CASES NOS. 1333 to 1344 and ADDENDA TO CASES 461, 600, 601, 1152 and 1268.

By Mr. E. SCHWELB.

No. 1333. The question is whether Nojevminev, who obviously was the military commander of a detachment arresting Manojlovic is criminally responsible for the suffering of the arrested person in the horror camp of Banjica and at the time when he was on forced labour in Greece. But the arrest itself, if effected without reasonable cause, could be regarded as criminal.

No. 1334. A.

No. 1335. A.

No. 1336. A.

No. 1337. A particularly outrageous crime. Though it is not expressly stated that all the accused were participants in the crime, this may be implied from the charge and all 15 accused can therefore be put on A.

No. 1338. A.

No. 1339. This charge deals with abominable crimes committed against Italian citizens on Italian territory. It is not clear from the charge whether Yugoslav citizens were also among the victims.

It has been the practice of Committee I, before the listing of a criminal to insist on prima facie evidence either that the crime had been committed on allied territory or that allied nationals were among the victims.

It is up to the Committee to decide whether they want to alter their attitude in view of Art. 6(c) of the Charter Cmd. 6668 (Crimes against humanity). The same problem is implied in the charge No. 2323 (see Doc. I/25).

No. 1340. A.

No. 1341. 1 and 2 on A. "Other perpetrators" is too general a description.

No. 1342. A.

No. 1343. A.

No. 1344. As to the place: Is not Crna Gora the Serbian name for Montenegro, a province, formerly an independent kingdom, of which Cetinje is the capital?
All: A.

No. 461. (addendum): A.

No. 600. (addendum): A.

No. 601. (addendum): A.

No. 1152. (addendum): an additional charge against Diersing, who has already been listed on A.

No. 1268. The Yugoslav National Office have restated the "particulars of alleged crime" by inserting a new text for pp. 3 and 4 of the original. There now seems to be a prima facie case against the 37 accused persons.

Special Courts in Dalmatia.

Soon after the Italians took over the administration of Dalmatia the Italian Legal Gazette announced that the administration of justice was to remain in the hands of existing courts, but with tue use of the Italian language in certain districts (Susak, Sibenik, Split, Dubrovnik and Kotor) as "the language of indictment against civil defendants." There was to be a Court of Appeal at Split. (Transocean, 18th May 1941.) Three months later there was news of the establishment by Decree of a military tribunal at Sibenik, which it was stated was to play an important part in the "welding together of the old and new order and the uprooting of such conceptions as were incompatible with the authority and dignity of the State" (Regime Fascista, 30th August, 1941).

A similar court was apparently set up at Split, for it was reported from Rome in October that 30 "Communists" had just been sentenced, 18 of them to death, by these two courts (New York Times, 19th October).

Shortly afterwards a new Law was passed in Rome for the establishment of a special military tribunal for Dalmatia. The offences to be tried by this Court included the concealment of arms and ammunition, the hoarding of food-stuffs for the purpose of increasing prices, and the destruction of raw materials, agricultural produce and industrial goods, for all of which penalties up to death could be imposed. For other crimes, such as participation in public demonstrations, incitement to revolt, the spreading of false rumours for purposes of propaganda, or assistance to other persons guilty of these offences the court could decree terms of imprisonment ranging from five to 15 years (New York Times, Göteborgs Handels-och Sjöfartstidning, 29th October).

Early in November La Stampa (12th November) described a bomb incident at Split at which several persons were injured and one was killed. One hundred and fifty people were arrested on the spot—they were described as "Communist elements", many of whom came from other parts of the Balkans—and held as hostages. The culprits, it was stated, would be tried by the Special Tribunal for the Defence of the State.

Since the end of 1941 this Department has had no information concerning the activities of the Court at Sibenik.

The description of persons suspected of anti-Italian activities as "Communists" does not necessarily give any clue to such persons' views and aims. It may well have been a mere propaganda device.

A Bulgarian unit under the command of Lieut. PANEV entered the village of JOSJE in July 1942. Some persons reported to Lieut. PANEV that Serafim MILENKOVIC was supposed to be the treasurer of the local partisan organisation, and although this statement was false PANEV issued an order to the Bulgarian soldiers to search MILENKOVIC'S house. 100.000 dinars were found and the accused was taken to STALAC, KRUSEVAC and lastly to CUPRIJA prison, where he was kept for 14 days and was tortured in the hope of extorting a confession from him that the money belonged to the partisan organisation at JOSJE. In spite of all efforts it could not be proved and the victim was set free, though his money, which indeed was his personal property, was withheld. The victim suffered bodily injuries and material loss.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

The criminals mentioned in this charge are responsible for innumerable crimes committed against the innocent and peaceful inhabitants of the districts of ZADAR and SIBENIK. In the following paragraph details are given concerning the crimes and the individuals responsible for the crimes.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME.

Dr. BINNA was the Prefect of the province of ZADAR from May 1941 until November 1941. Immediately after the occupation of Dalmatia, the Italians started with a carefully planned campaign of terrorism with the purpose of completely exterminating the Jugoslavs. Apart from killing, deporting and interning innocent persons, the Italians started a policy, on a vast scale, of denationalisation. As a part of such a policy, they started a system of "re-education" of Jugoslav children. This "re-education" consisted in forbidding children to use the Serbo-Croat language, to sing Jugoslav songs and forcing them to salute in the fascist way, become members of the G.I.L. (Gioventu italiana del Littorio) and spend a certain time in camps for "education". In all these actions aimed at the denationalisation of Jugoslav children, Dr. BINNA took a very active part. He brought Italian teachers from Italy and posted them all over the province of ZADAR. Amongst those Italian teachers who insisted on the italianisation of Jugoslav children, BETTINI, Education Inspector, and INCHIOSTRI, head-master of a secondary school at SIBENIK took a prominent part. Dr. Tulio NICOLETTI, Trustee for Education at SIBENIK and Edoardo CIUBELLI, Education Inspector at ZADAR were also prominently associated with this policy. NICOLETTI organised special courses for teachers to learn Italian and Italian "methods" and he threatened all those who would not attend the courses.

Dr.BINNA is also responsible for forbidding the edition of any newspaper printed in the Serbo-Croat language, and for forcing Jugoslavs to hoist Italian flags.

Apart from the actions mentioned in the foregoing paragraph, Dr. BINNA is responsible for the following crimes:-

1. On the 2nd July 1941, Dr. BINNA ordered carabiniere to arrest Dane SKARICA , a former M.P., Blaz SKARICA, Jakov SKARICA, Ivan ZORIC, Milan ZORIC, Dragi ROR, Josa GRUBISIC and Nika BEROVIC, all from SIBENIK. These men were tortured in prison, beaten and forced to drink enormous quantities of castor oil. Blaz SKARICA suffered so much that he went out of his mind and finally died.

2. On the 22nd July 1941, Dr. Binna ordered the illegal arrest of Josip BINGARO-PUCO. He was brutally tortured for seven days in the SIBENIK prison and when he collapsed, he was pushed down the stairs from the third floor, during the night of the 28th and 29th July and was reported to have committed suicide.

3. On the 14th August 1941, Antun SANTIC, a clerk from SIBENIK, was arrested and shot for no reason at all.

4. Dr. BINNA ordered the arrest of six persons and, on the 13th October 1941 they were shot. These persons were: Dragan JUNAKOVIC, STIPIN, Ivan LOSIC, Dusko VRLJEVIC, Blaza VISIC and Ante BELANOVIC.

5. On the 27th October 1941, Dr. BINNA carried out a mass arrest of workers, students, doctors and solicitors. In the course of this action, Nikola SUNKO, a banker, was shot while going peacefully on his way to work.

It is possible to cite many more cases to prove the responsibility of Dr. BINNA as the man who gave orders and instructions for crimes committed against innocent persons.

Camillo BRUNO, Deputy Prefect of ZADAR province from the 1st June 1942 until the 1st September 1942, issued a great number of orders to his subordinates which resulted in terrible crimes and great sufferings. The following are some details of the crimes committed upon his personal instructions.

1. On the 14th June 1942, Tomo OSTOJIC and Jovo DVORICA were shot only because they were suspect. There was neither an investigation nor a trial.

2. On the 12th June 1942, Marin ZIVKOVIC was killed and 6 persons from MURTERA, 30 persons from TIJESNA and 14 from VODICE were taken as hostages, and many more crimes were committed.

Camillo BRUNO's close collaborator was PAULOVICH, Commissario Distrettuale, who sent the following reports to BRUNO concerning the carrying out of his orders:-

(a) No.2732/II of the 16th June 1942, informing the Prefect that 54 persons had been arrested and were at the disposal of the Prefecture.

(b) No. 2753/II of the 18th June 1942, in which PAULOVICH informed the Prefect that 250 persons had been arrested.

(c) No.2844/II of the 24th July 1942, in which PAULOVICH informed the Prefect that 90 persons had been arrested and placed at the disposal of the Prefecture.

(d) In further reports it can be seen that 731 persons were arrested and deported and 150 shot.

To denationalise the population, PAULOVICH closed a school for teachers at SIBENIK which, according to his words was " the most dangerous institution against Italian crusaders of Italian culture."

PAULOVICH also disbanded all cultural Jugoslav associations and forced people to use the Italian language only.

Piero MORGLIA was a special secretary to the Prefect of ZADAR district. In that capacity he stubbornly insisted on the carrying out of all orders issued by the Prefect. On the 20th May 1943, he personally sent a secret order to General Corrado BRANCATI in which he suggested that 36 hostages, taken from VRPOLJE-PETROVIC (SIBENIK district) should be shot "as an example", which was done.

Corrado BRANCATI, a General of the Fascist Militia, took an active part in a great number of crimes committed in SIBENIK and the district, where he was a kind of mayor. On the 4th March 1943, BRANCATI sent 5 women hostages to the Prefect of ZADAR who were shot. The names of the victims, as stated in document 3487, signed by BRANCATI and sent to the Prefect, are as follows: Ika VULINOVIC, Draga ERCEGOVIC, Vesela RAKANOVIC, Sima NINIC and Duma ZONINOVIC. Furthermore, in a report 1268 -R/R and 7P Ris/43 of the 15th June 1943, BRANCATI informed the Prefect that Miodrag UROS, Mirko ERGIC, Ante TABULA and Nikola ERGIC, hostages from GACELEZA had been shot on his orders.

Apart from many other similar crimes, BRANCATI carried out the denationalisation of the population by enforcing the Prefect's orders. In agreement with the Prefect, he prepared leaflets, which were later dropped all over the district, in which the people were threatened that three hostages would be shot for every telegraph pole cut down. It is known and has been established from enemy documents that this was only an excuse to kill hostages and in consequence to exterminate as high a number as possible of the innocent population.

Dr. Athos BARTOLUCCI, the Secretary of the Fascist Party for ZADAR Province during 1941 and until November 1942, was the "evil genius" and initiator of a number of crimes. He was the man who made suggestions to the Prefect and wielded an enormous influence over civilian and military officials of the Italian occupation forces. His first action on arriving in Dalmatia in 1941 with the Italian Army was to impose the Italian language on Jugoslavs. In his order of the 21st April 1941, all public and private institutions were instructed to use the Italian language and all correspondence had to be first in Italian and then in Serbo-Croat. From that day on began a reign of terror. If citizens did not obey the order they were simply shot. BARTOLUCCI is responsible for this reign of terror and is guilty of the death of many hundreds of innocent persons.

After November 1942, Paolo QUARANTOTTO was the Secretary of the Fascist Party at ZADAR. He continued BARTOLUCCI's policy, and wielding the same influence on the Prefect, the civilian and military authorities of the occupation forces, is responsible for the initiation of innumerable crimes. In his report 8 Ris of the 4th November 1942 to the Prefect, he asked for decisive measures against the districts of KURTERA and KRSMINE. In his report 71/Ris of the 24th November 1942, sent to the Prefect, he informed him of the drastic measures taken at PRIMOZEN where 82 men were shot, and a great number arrested and interned. According to this report, artillery was used against women and children. This report alone suffices to show the influence which he exercised in initiating crimes.

Ivan SCALCHI, Chief of the Political Department (Capo del Ufficio Politico Investigativo U.P.I.) took an active part in this terrible crime. In his report 293/B/6 of the 17th November 1942, SCALCHI stated that even more persons were killed - 150 - and that the material damage was "really great". SCALCHI is also responsible for ordering and taking an active part in a "clearing action" at TRIBUNJE on the 1st November 1941 when 16 persons were shot. On the 23rd September 1942, in his report 2441/A/II, he suggested to the Governor of Dalmatia that the food of all persons in sympathy with the Liberation Movement should be confiscated. This caused the starvation and eventual death of many innocent men, women and children.

Piero CIANCOLLINI, Commissario for the municipality of TIJESNA (district of SIBENIK) participated actively during 1942 in the illegal arrest of a great number of persons. In his report 4005 of the 7th November 1942, he informed the Prefect of ZADAR that preparations had been made for the internment of all relatives of persons who had joined the Partisans, and in his report 4064 of the 10th November 1942 he stated that 234 persons - between the ages of 10 and 60 - were on board ship in order to be interned at the MOLAT concentration camp.

Dott. Vittorio MONICA, Commissario for public security at SIBENIK, is responsible for the arrest, internment and death of many hundreds of innocent persons. He organised a special force of agents whose duty it was to provoke and arrest people. For example, they were sent to the main square of the town to arrest all persons who did not salute the Italian flag in the fascist way. The persons who were arrested were then tortured and beaten. MONICA is responsible for all these crimes.

AMADASI was the Commissario for public security in 1942. In his report 1422 of the 6th November 1942, sent to the Prefect of ZADAR, he stated that during "clearing actions" in SIBENIK 106 men, 13 women, 4 boys and 20 girls had been arrested. These persons were tortured and beaten and many of them were sent to various concentration camps.

Gr. Uff. Enrico ARMANDO, General at SIBENIK from January 1943 until the 23rd April 1943. During this period he enjoyed special power conferred by the Prefect of ZADAR. He exercised this power to the utmost and the population suffered greatly. In his code telegram 321/R/R of the 17th February 1943, he asked that ZATON, TRIBUNJA and SRIME should be completely destroyed by fire. On the 27th March 1943, he ordered two units of the "Milano" battalion to burn down the church at VODICE, although no military operations could warrant this action and no other reason whatever existed. This was done simply as a measure taken to frighten the population.

Paolo GRIMALDI, General, Commander of a Brigade of the "Bergamo" division, gave orders on the 9th June 1943 to shoot 40 hostages at MANDALINI near SIBENIK. Captain FORESIO also took an active part in this shooting.

Aldo SENATORE, major and head of the staff of the "ZARA" infantry division, gave orders for and actively participated in many crimes, committed by the "ZARA" division against the innocent population. In his report 01/1166 of the 26th November 1942 to the military department of the Governor of Dalmatia, he stated that 16 members of the BEKULIC family had been arrested in the village of OSKOVAC and 6 had been sent to a concentration camp. These arrests and internments were completely illegal as the persons in question were innocent and guiltless of any offence.

Gr. Uff. Carlo VIALE, General, Commander of the "Zara" Division, is responsible for the crimes committed by the division of which he was the chief. He gave the order for the arrest of the 16 persons at OSKOVAC, members of the BEKULIC family, as mentioned above, as well as for the action at VODICE when a great number of persons were deported and interned. In his report 01/2005 of the 15th November 1942, he suggested to the Prefect of ZADAR that drastic measures should be taken to "normalise the situation" in the SIBENIK zone - namely internment, arrests and the killing of hostages.

On the 16th November 1942, Italian forces started a clearing action in the village PRIMOSTEN near SIBENIK. In this action six batteries took part, some with guns of 190 mm calibre, also three battalions, one unit of carabiniere, one destroyer with guns of 102 mm and three 'planes. This "clearing action" was one of the many actions which the Italians conducted against towns and villages with the purpose of taking vengeance and terrorising the population. The result of the action against PRIMOSTEN was terrible.300 houses were completely destroyed, all belongings were either looted or burnt. 82 persons were murdered and 166 were sent to various concentration camps. First artillery and 'planes attacked and caused chaos in the village. Later infantry entered the village in three columns and started to search every house. The terror was terrible. The innocent inhabitants were massacred for no reason at all - the Italians were merely showing their power.

The following took an active part in this action:-

General Alfonso CIGALA FULGOSI, commanded this "clearing action" at PRIMOSTEN.

Pietro TACCHINI, Commander of the destroyer which bombarded the village of PRIMOSTEN.

RUGGERI, Sergeant Major of the Carabiniere Unit which took part in the massacre at PRIMOSTEN.

Vitto GIERAGGI, Finance Officer at PRIMOSTEN also took an active part in the massacre at PRIMOSTEN.

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

Evidence consists of a great number of original enemy documents. There are 96 documents in all, as well as those which have been quoted in this charge, and they are all on the files of the Jugoslav State Commission.

The Jugoslav State Commission:

[illegible] 11th August, 1945.

This charge deals with a number of crimes committed by the Italians during this war against the Jugoslav population in the provinces known as VENEZIA GIULIA, TRIESTE and ISTRIA.

It is a known fact that the Italian authorities secretly persecuted the Slav population of the above-named provinces long before this war and, after the occupation of regions within the frontier of Jugoslavia proper, they did not even try to hide their policy of terrorism and denationalisation of the Jugoslav minority in Italy. Encouraged by the initial successes of the Axis, the Italian authorities, both civil and military deprived the Jugoslavs of Italy of all the protection and rights which the latter should have enjoyed in accordance with the treaties. Moreover, the Italian authorities, after the Jugoslavs of Italy rose to arms in consequence of this Italian policy and became part of the Jugoslav National Army of Liberation, applied to the Jugoslav citizens of Italy the same criminal methods which they had employed in the case of the inhabitants of the conquered parts of Jugoslavia proper.

Investigation of these crimes is far from complete and only a fragmentary picture can be provided so far. However, in this charge there are some cases from which some particulars of Italian criminal methods can be collected.

BERGONZI, ZICCAVO and FABRONI of the Difesa Territoriale at Videm (Udine) were especially responsible for introducing, during 1941-42, the same drastic measures against the Jugoslav population of Venetia Giulia as those in force against the inhabitants of Jugoslavia proper. They ordered the shooting of hostages and of members of the Jugoslav Army of Liberation, the burning down of villages and mass deportations. Units under their command committed the following crimes:-

In July 1942, Herman FURLAN of Gozza near VIPAVA (Vipsco) a soldier of the Jugoslav Army, was captured and shot.

On the 21st July 1942, seven Jugoslav soldiers were captured during the mopping up operations in the sector Vipava-Sanos and shot on the spot. Their houses were burnt down on the same day.

On the 24th August 1942, the so-called Partisan BAZA, a Jugoslav soldier, was captured and shot.

Between the 10th and 15th September 1942, the squadristi burnt down several houses in the village GRADOV near GORIZIA in revenge because seven young Slovenes had joined the Partisans in the woods.

On the 28th and 29th September, 67 relatives in all of those who had joined the Jugoslav Army were arrested and sent to concentration camps.

On the 1st October 1942 a number of families, whose members were with the Jugoslav Army, were deported from the municipality of TRNOVO (Montessino). 17 families were also deported from the municipality of St. Peter near Gorizia (Gorica).

On the 7th November 1942 Franc [illegible] and Henrik [illegible], Jugoslav soldiers, of Monforte del Timavo, and a woman Partisan were captured and shot.

On the 26th November 1942 about 50 relatives of partisans were arrested and deported from [illegible] near Gorizia.

In December 1942 a number of punitive expeditions, so-called "rastrellamenti" were carried out against villages in the area of GORIZIA, TOLMIN and IDRIA. Houses were burnt down and a number of persons were shot or deported.

On the 5th December 1942, 16 more relatives of partisans were arrested and deported from the "rastrellamenti" areas.

evidence, now in the possession of the State Commission consists of the sworn statements of witnesses and captured Italian official documents of the Comando Truppe Territorio, Udine and others.

A.R.K.

The Italian authorities ruthlessly persecuted the Slav population in the provinces known as Venetia Giulia, Trieste and Istria ever since they acquired them. The forcible denationalisation of Slavs under Italian rule was carried out silently. With the occupation of the western part of Jugoslavia and with the encouragement of the initial successes in this war, the persecution of the Slavs under Italian rule became more cruel. Jugoslavs who were Italian subjects were denied all rights as citizens and were persecuted quite openly. As a result of this Italian policy a large proportion of the Jugoslav population of Venetia Giulia and Istria rose to arms and became an integral part of the Jugoslav Liberation Army. The investigation of the crimes committed by the Italian authorities as a reprisal for the rising of the Slav population under Italian rule is so far incomplete, but from the following instances some idea of the criminal methods employed by the Italians can be derived.

1. On the 4th July 1942, Carabinieri of Pola, acting on the orders of CORTE, arrested 45 Jugoslavs from various municipalities of Istria. Among those who were arrested were: Franc KUNER of PAZIN, Atilij ZOVIC of PAZIN, Viktor HARAPIC of PAZIN. On the 14th July the Carabinieri arrested 21 other Jugoslavs from Istria. All these arrests were illegal.

2. Alberto FERRERO, as Commander of the XXIII Army Corps at BUZESIK (near RIJEKA) ordered the execution of an 18 year old boy, Josip VIDI. The execution was carried out by shooting in the back, on the 16th July 1942.

On the 18th July 1942, in the course of mopping up operations in the woods of Sighetleno, near SUSAK, three Partisans were captured and shot on the spot, in accordance with the orders issued by FERRERO.

3. The Commander of the "NOVARA" Division (name not known) the Commander of the 153 Inf. Regt. (name not known) and the Commander of the 255 Inf. Regt. (name not known) - listed in this charge under 3, 4, & 5 - are responsible for the following crimes:-

Troops of the 153 Inf. Regt. burnt to the ground the house of Antonija LOGAR on the 19th July 1942, at the orders of the Commander of the 153 Inf. Regt.

Soldiers of the 255 Inf. Regt. shot two farmers, Josip INCANO and Ivan ZANGARO in the village SCHOZZE (near Trieste) on the 2nd August 1942 because they were found in the street after curfew. On the same day, soldiers of the same regiment shot an artist, Metodi SIMONI, in the village KRUCEVJE near BREMOVICA. They also shot Alojz GRALJ in the village CERJE and seriously wounded Josip SEVCIK in the village VELIKO TRNO.

4. The Segretario Politico Fascista di Matuglie (Matulje) near Fiume, who is listed in this charge under 6, is responsible for the following crimes:-

On the 7th July 1942, police agents and carabinieri broke into the house of Jakob ANJAN in MATULJ where they ill-treated and wounded Viktor ZAGORAC and Vinko GRABAR, students from ZAGREB. The Carabinieri arrested them, together with Joahim JURCEVA, and, on taking them away, burnt down Jakob ANJAN's house, on the instructions of the Political Secretary in question.

- In Sarajevo (Yugoslavia).

- Illegal recruiting of inhabitants of occupied territory.

In April 1943, Major [illegible] recruited several thousand Jugoslav Moslems and formed an SS Division, which was used by the German command in military operations against the Allies.

Jugoslav State Commission :

13th October, 1945.

During the period of occupation, the German Command in Jugoslavia recruited a large number of Jugoslav citizens into German military units, or into quisling units, which they placed under their direct control.

One of such cases of illegal recruiting took place in Bosnia, which was incorporated in the Croat puppet State under the quisling PAVELIĆ.

In 1943 SS.Major SCHUTTE was charged by the German command to proceed with the recruiting of Jugoslav Moslems from Bosnia. In order to induce the Moslems to accede to Major SCHUTTE'S request, the German Government sent the former Grand Mufti of Palestine, EL HOSSEIN MUHAMED EMIN, to SARAJEVO, entrusting him with the task of using his influence with the Jugoslav Moslems.

In April 1943 a conference was held in SARAJEVO between the heads of the Moslem religious community and the ex -Mufti. SS.Major SCHUTTE took part in the conference as official representative of the German command.

As a consequence of this conference, several thousand Jugoslav Moslems were drafted by Major SCHUTTE into a new SS Division, comprised solely of these Moslems. The Division was given the name of "HANDJAR" SS Division.

This Division was used in operations conducted by the German command against the Jugoslav Army of National Liberation. Later it was transferred to France, and in both countries it was ordered to commit a great number of crimes and this was done.

These particulars were given to the Jugoslav State Commission in affidavits of three reliable witnesses.

Date and Place of Commission of Alleged Crime.

- 1941-1943
- In LJUBLJANA

Number and Description of Crime in War Crimes List.

- I. Systematic terrorism.
  Sentences of death, hard labour for life, and other punishments on prisoners of war.

Reference to relevent provisions of national law.

- Violation of the Geneva Convention, 1929, and of Article 46, Hague Regulations, 1907, and Article 13, Jugoslav Military Courts Act, 1944.

Short Statement of Facts.

After the attack on Jugoslavia in 1941, and occupation of one part of the Jugoslav territory, the Italian 2nd Army organised its Military Tribunal with the seat at SUSAK. The Tribunal had two branches : one section was at SIBENIK (DALMATIA), and the other was in LJUBLJANA (Slovenia). From 1941 to 1943 this Tribunal was responsible for numerous war crimes being committed in sentencing prisoners of war, contrary to the provisions of the Geneva Convention, 1929. When they fled hurriedly from Jugoslavia, the Italian Military authorities left behind all their files with the original sentences pronounced by this Tribunal, proving the guilt of its members - judges.

Particulars of Alleged Crime.

The Military War Tribunal of the 2nd Army - Section of LJUBLJANA - from 1941 to 1943 was used as a means of the destruction of the political opponents to Fascism, on the basis of the Fascist laws, and especially of the Bando del Duce of the 3rd October 1941 and 4th October 1941, of the Bando di General ROATTA of the 7th November 1941 and of the decree of the 13th August 1941. The Military War Tribunal tried the members of the Jugoslav National Liberation Army "en masse" and sentenced them to death, hard labour for life, and other severe punishments out of proportion to the alleged offences.

I. Murder - Systematic Terrorism.

II. Putting hostages to death.

III. Torture of Civilians.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

The individuals mentioned in this charge are responsible for many crimes including murder, torture, internment of civilians under inhuman conditions, illegal arrests and acts of denationalisation.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME.

Immediately after the Italians had occupied the western areas of Jugoslavia, Mussolini initiated the mass internment of Jugoslav civilians. This policy of mass internment was intensified by General Mario ROATTA, Chief of the Italian 2nd Army Group occupying Slovenia and Dalmatia who, in a secret order No. 2468/AC of the 5th March 1942, directed "that families and relatives of the rebels should be interned". The resulting number of prisoners was so much greater than expected that BASTIANINI, Governor of Dalmatia issued an order (No. 0625 G.b.N.S. of the 13th June 1942) to the effect that "a camp, consisting of eight barracks, capable of holding one thousand persons each, should be established on the island of VIR where the families of thos who have joined the rebels can be kept as hostages." This was done in agreement with all the Chiefs of the Civil administration of the occupied territory. However the camp was finally established on the island of MOLAT (MVLADA) near ZARA instead.

In compliance with BASTIANINI's order, the Deputy of the Prefect of ZARA, Camillo BRUNO issued an order on the 28th June 1942 (Gab.No.1847) to all Police and Carabinieri authorities in the province - "to start with the arrests of families of those belonging to the rebels". A special stea mer "Amiraglio Viotti" regularly visited one port after the other to take the crowds of arrested men, women and children to the island of MOLAT.

The following are a few examples of deportations recorded in official Italian documents:

65 persons deported from SIBENIK on the 13th July 1942.
52 " " " ZATON on the 14th July 1942.(10 men, 13 women and 29 boys & girls)1 54 " " " TJESNO, BETINA & MURTER. (12 men, 11 children under the age of 10, & 10 children under the age of 18)on the 16th July.
240 " " PRVIC on the 18th July. (43 men, 92 women,

On the 18th July,1942, BASTIANINI, the Governor of Dalmatia, sent the following telegram to MUSSOLINI:" I have done everything in my power to enable the task to be carried out and have ordered the arrest of all the families of the rebels."

On the 23rd July 1942, 98 persons were deported from KLANJE and KNAPANJ. Among them were 12 men, 44 women, 15 children under 10 and 27 boys and girls under 18.

On the 29th July 1942, 247 persons were deported from SIBENIK: 76 men, 103 women, 25 children under 10, 24 children under 15, and 19 boys and girls under 18.

On the same day 197 persons were deported from VODICE, 13 persons from TRIBUNJ and a further 29 from SIBENIK.

Because of the great number of deported persons, a number of transit camps were established in Dalmatia itself to handle the flow of those on their way to MOLAT. For example, there were transit camps on the island of OBLJAK near ZARA and at VODICE and ZLARIN near SIBENIK.

In those days MUSSOLINI himself issued an order (Bando No.143) according to which "internees in the camps within annexed Jugoslav territory who escape or try to do so, are to be condemned to 3-10 years penal servitude, while those who help them to escape are to be condemned to 6 years penal servitude."

On the 15th September 1942, 96 persons were deported from SIBENIK.

As the new Prefect of ZARA, General Gaspero BARBERA, was not satisfied with the results of the repressive measures - pro-Allied activities among the Jugoslavs had rather increased than diminished - he ordered all Civil Commissars and all Police and Carabinieri authorities to take more drastic action against "Partisan" families and not only to intern them but also deprive them of their food. (Doc.3907 of the 17th October 1942). He also ordered that food parcels, sent by relatives to the internees, should not be delivered. (Doc. Gab.5501 of the 29th December 1942)

From that time on, arresting the families and relatives of the Partisans became the main concern of the Fascist Italian authorities of occupation. The following are a few examples recorded in official Italian documents:-

143 persons deported from MANDALINA, RASLIN, ZATON & TRIBUNJ on the 6th November 1942.
234 " " " BETINA and MURTER on the 10th November 1942.
295 " " " BETINA and MURTER on the 13th November 1942."old men, women & children".

Paolo QUARANTOTTO, the Federal Secretary of the Fascist Party at ZARA reported officially (8/Ris. of the 4th November 1942) that he had ordered the internment of all "Partisan" families from the villages of KRENINA and MODRAVA.

Console Ivan VIALE of the 107th Legion of Black Shirts, reported to the Governor of Dalmatia that there was nobody in the area of PUTICANI - Sv. ILIJA, nor in the area of MURTER, to collect the grapes, because all the inhabitants had been interned. He further enquired what was to be done with the grapes "which could be sold on the local market".

General Carlo VIALE, Commander of the "ZARA" division reported to the Military Cabinet of the Government of Dalmatia that he had prepared the list of persons to be interned. (Doc. No.01/2005 of the 19th November 1942.)

Major Aldo BENATORE reported in the name of the Staff of the "ZARA" division that six members of the Stanko SKULIC family as well as ten other relatives had been interned. (Doc. 01/1166 of the 26th November,1942.)

The Commander of the Carabinieri of Dalmatia reported that, in accordance with the order of the Prefect of SPLIT, Dr. Paolo ZERBINO, the Carabinieri on the island of SOLTA had interned 36 persons whose relatives were with the Partisans. (Doc. 99/51 Comando dei Carabinieri della Dalmazia of the 24th November 1942.)

KOLAT Concentration Camp soon became much too small to hold all the civilians deported from Dalmatia. Because of the lack of accomodation, conditions in the camp became even worse. At times there were as many as 3,500 persons in the camp. The survivors describe the camp as a "death camp".

Until the 27th January 1943 the Commandant of the Camp was Leonardo FANTOLI. He was then succeeded by his Assistant, Carlo SZOMMER. The second Assistant was Antonio AMORUSO. The Commandant of the Camp Guard was Ernesto MALORCHI until March 1943. These four men were actually in charge of the camp.

The first groups of internees had to live in tents for several months after their arrival at the camp while wooden huts were being built for them. The internees had to sleep on straw spread on the ground or just on the bare ground as there was not enough straw. Some slept on wooden boards. They were given no blankets or bedding. The huts were infested with lice and other vermin for the internees had no means of cleaning or disinfecting. The quantity of water in the camp was far from sufficient. Even during the hot summer the internees were given only one litre of water a day at the most. This water was salty and hardly fit to drink. There was no soap. During the winter the internees were given blankets which would have just sufficed during the summer nights. People were therefore forced to sleep in their clothes. Newly born babies were wrapped in overcoats. There were only 11 latrines for about 3,500 persons. Food was far from sufficient. Everyone was supposed to receive 150 gr. of bread and 100 gr. of other food per day. But even this amount of food was not given regularly because the officials and guards of the camp took food from the camp stores and exchanged it with the local peasants and grocers for lamb, chickens, bacon etc. In an attempt to improve the bad food situation in the camp, the authorities gave the internees an allowance of one lira (2d) per day, but the provision of this additional food was also in the hands of the camp authorities with the result that the internees were never given what they had paid for. Due to their insufficient diet all the internees became very weak physically and ill in particular from eating food from the refuse heaps.

About 500 internees died from starvation alone. Many developed tuberculosis, dysentry and other intestinal diseases which proved fatal in many cases. Director SZOMMER is chiefly responsible for the appalling food conditions. He stole the best food for the use of himself and his colleagues. He did not allow the internees to have any control of the food.

There was no hospital or dispensary in the camp. Even those who were gravely ill had to remain on the straw in a hut or tent among those who were still well, until they died. A little girl, Ljubica RAK in whose throat a pea-pod had stuck died in terrible pain after five days of choking. Director SZOMMER would not allow her to be taken to hospital where her life could easily have been saved. Due to the lack of medical help 422 internees died in the period covered by the 1st July 1942 to the 25th February 1943. This has been found in official Italian records.

The Director, his assistants and officials and other camp personnel were extremely cruel to the internees. They beat them, tied them to a pole in the blazing sun, denied them food and imprisoned them as long as they liked. They imposed collective penalties on the inmates of single huts, or even on the whole camp. Internees were not allowed -

- sometimes for days - to come outside the huts. Internees were thrown into the camp prison for the slightest offence. The arms of the victims were chained to their legs so that they were obliged to remain in a painful sitting position.

All male internees between the ages of 21 and 60 were declared hostages in accordance with the order issued by the Prefect of ZARA, General BARBERA. From time to time a motor-boat with about ten heavily armed Carabinieri came to the island and each time six to ten, or even fifteen internees were summoned according to a prepared list. These men were chained and taken away to execution. This practice, which continued as late as the 10th August 1943, spread special terror among the internees as not only men were taken as hostages but also women and youths. During the last few months victims were selected at random. The Prefect of ZARA, General BARBERA, had himself had a number of Jugoslavs interned as hostages in MOLAT camp and shot. For example, he ordered the internment of Drago KONCAREVIC and Mico MADOVEZA-LUKIN as hostages for the municipality of KISTANJE. (Order No.752 of the 18th and 20th May 1943). He also ordered the internment of Nikola KALIK, Milan KALIK and Krsta KALIK as hostages for the municipality of SKRADIN. (Order No.752 of the 1st July 1943). On the 7th July BARBERA ordered the internment as hostages of Marko BERKINIC, Bozo RASKOVIC, Stevan TOMASOVIC and Laza TOMASOVIC. These orders and others to the same effect, issued by BARBERA, are in the possession of the Jugoslav State Commission.

MOLAT concentration camp was also the scene of the de-nationalisation and forced italianisation of internees. Jugoslavs, old and young alike, were forced to attend special lectures and Italian sermons and to give the Fascist salute. All children under 14 years of age were separated from their parents and had to attend the Italian school the purpose of which was to make the children "good Italians", according to the official order No 3597 of the 9th July 1942 issued by the Prefect of ZARA, General BARBERA. For this purpose Edoardo CINBELLI drew up a special plan which was carried out by sixteen teachers. CINBELLI was Inspector of Education.

ad 16, SZOMMER, in his capacity as Director of the Camp, also committed or participated in the following crimes:

(a) One evening in March 1943, SZOMMER, assisted by MALORCHI, questioned a captured Partisan courier, Avgustin LOVRETIC of BRGULJ. The morning after LOVRETIC was found hanged in his prison cell. When his body was removed it was discovered to be covered with wounds. Everyone who knew LOVRETIC was convinced that he had been murdered or, at least, that he had died as a result of the wounds he had received while being questioned and that his body had been hanged up as pretended suicide in order to hide the murder. There was no reason why LOVRETIC should commit suicide.

(b) Also in March 1943, SZOMMER, assisted by Captain MALORCHI and Carabiniere TOMASSO badly tortured an internee named Srecko BORANIC in order to extract from him information about the escape of another internee.

ad 19, ROATTA, who was Brigadier of the Carabinieri in the camp, was known as a brutal beater and torturer of the internees. He also abused his position and forced a number of interned women to give in to his lust.

ad 20, PASQUALI Vice-Brigadier of the Carabinieri in the camp, committed the following crimes:

In Spring 1943, without any provocation, he sent his Alsatian dog among the internees a number of times. The dog bit them and caused widespread terror.

On another occasion, also without provocation, PASQUALI pushed into the sea two old internees who were chatting about their home.

While the individuals listed under 1 - 14 gave the initiative and orders for the crimes described in this charge, the individuals listed under 15-27 were carrying them out.

The individuals listed under 22 - 27 carried out the work of denationalisation and forced italianisation of Jugoslav internees, especially children in the camp. Edoardo CINBELLI, in his capacity as Inspector of Education of the Government of Dalmatia at ZARA, drew a plan for the denationalisation of Jugoslav civilians in MOLAT camp. According to his plan, submitted to the Governor of Dalmatia (Doc: 3597 of the 9th July 1942) a number of schools were established in the camp. CINBELLI himself appointed the following five teachers: Alfredo FECONDI, Gaspari CICHELO, Alvaro GAGGIOTTI, Elsa GAGGIOTTO and Esemplo RESTAINO and personally brought them into the camp on the 7th July 1942. He gave them all the instructions and gave Alfredo FECONDI the task of supervising the work of all the teachers in the camp and of co-ordinating the work with the Board of the camp.

All children between 6 & 14 were compelled to attend the school and stay there for the whole day. The language used was Italian only. The children sang Italian revolutionary and national songs, were told stories of the lives and ideas of Italian national heroes etc. Children over 14 were also compelled to attend classes. Religion was constantly used for political purposes. This "education" had one purpose and one purpose only, as defined by CINBELLI himself: "to make the Jugoslavs realise that they are Italian and Fascist".

CINBELLI also ordered the teachers to do everything to influence the grown up internees as well in order that "their souls too may return to the ideal motherland of their children which was always ready to re-accept them and forgive them as a mother would do." However, in practice, the grown up internees were beaten and kicked and forced to attend the daily ceremony of hoisting and lowering the camp flag and to give the Fascist salute.

As masses of Jugoslav civilians were constantly being brought from occupied Dalmatia to MOLAT, the camp soon became too small to hold them all. Congestion became so great that a number of new camps had to be established all over Italy. MOLAT camp itself became a transit camp through which thousands upon thousands of Jugoslav men, women and children were sent to camps on the Italian mainland and Italian islands, such as LIPARI, USTICA, RENALDO, MANFREDONIA, SCIPIONE, FROSINONE, COLONIA, PISTICCI, TREMITI, RENARDA, ARIANO-IRPINO, FABRIANO (ANCONA), NERETO (TERAMO), ALBEROBELLO, PIACENZA, LANCIANO, BUSSETTO, CHIETI, PESCARA, CASOLI, TOLLO, AREZZO, FRASCHSTTI (nr. ROME) and many others. There the process of extermination was continued.

MOLAT camp stands out as an example of the policy of Fascist Italy towards the population of the Italian-occupied areas of Jugoslavia. Well over 10,000 Jugoslav men, women and children passed through it. The number of children in the camp can best be judged by the fact that 16 teachers were especially appointed to the task of "re-educating" Jugoslav children in the Fascist Italian spirit. Surviving Jugoslav internees describe MOLAT camp as a "death camp", for it meant physical extermination for the older ones and national death for the younger ones. Fascist Italy carried out both processes systematically and ruthlessly.

Violation of Article 4, 5, 23, 42, & 46, Hague Regulations,1907, and of Article 13, Jugoslav Military Courts Act,1944.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

On the 10th April,1941, the Hungarian Regent HORTHY ordered the Hungarian armed forces to attack Jugoslavia, in spite of the treaty of "eternal friendship" of 1940. General Henrik WERTH, Chief of Staff, elaborated the plans of attack, carrying out HORTHY's orders. The Hungarian Army, in invading Jugoslavia, committed many war crimes against the peaceful and innocent Serbian people. The numerous atrocities committed by the Hungarian Army included massacres, murders and torture.

PARTICULARS OF ALLEGED CRIME.

Regent HORTHY is guilty in respect of both his functions:

1) As Chief of State he is responsible for the unprovoked attack on Jugoslavia and for the breach of numerous rules of international law and 2) As Supreme Commander of the Hungarian Armed Forces he is responsible for the war crimes committed against the peaceful Serbian population in Northern Jugoslavia.

I. a) In 1940, the Royal Hungarian Government concluded a "treaty of eternal friendship" with Jugoslavia. In spite of that treaty and without any provocation, Hungary attacked Jugoslavia on the 10th April 1941, without previously denouncing the treaty in question and without any declaration of war.

In a proclamation dated the 10th April,1941, HORTHY ordered Hungarian troops to attack Jugoslavia. This was contrary to Article 1 of Hague Regulations,1907.

b) In December 1941, HORTHY signed the decree of annexation of Northern Jugoslavia to Hungary - contrary to the Provisions of Article42, 43, and 45 of Hague Regulations,1907. This decree had very grave consequences for the Serbian inhabitants of that area who suddenly became - against their own will - Hungarian citizens with all the obligations attached to such citizenship.

c) After the promulgation of the decree of annexation in 1941, the Hungarians forcibly recruited Serbians for Hungarian active military service and sent them to the frunt line or working companies. In this way scores of thousands of Serbians were sent against their will and national sentiment to serve in the Hungarian army.

II. 1) According to the established facts, in the first few days of the occupation alone, the Hungarian army committed terrible atrocities and massacred the peaceful Serbian people. 720 persons were killed in NOVI SAD, 500 at SOMBOR, 520 at SRBOBRAN, 136 at KULA, 100 at SENTA and 1,000 at SIRIG which was burnt to the ground. About 8,500 Serbs and Jews - women, children, priests, schoolmasters and intellectuals - were killed without reason by the regular Hungarian troops during the first few days of the invasion. An even greater number of Serbs was tortured, arrested, injured and humiliated by the Hungarian regular army.

2) In the beginning of 1942, the Hungarian reign of terror reached a climax. From the 4th to the 30th January 1942, the Hungarians arrested innocent persons on a gigantic scale. Mass murders followed these mass arrests, as has been described in the Jugoslav Charge R/M/1. The regular Hungarian army and the civil authorities carried out these crimes in accordance with plans for the extermination of Serbian people from the northern Jugoslav province which had been annexed to Hungary. The victims, men, women and children, were robbed before being killed and thrown into the rivers Danube and Tissa.

The Hungarian member of Parliament, Endre Baici ZILINSKY, Chief of the Smallholder's Party, personally addressed a memorandum to the Regent HORTHY on the 4th February 1942, describing the atrocities committed against the peaceful and innocent Serbian people and protesting against them. This procedure proves the guilt of HORTHY in respect of these crimes, because ZILINSKY, as a member of Parliament, did not send the memorandum to the Prime Minister but to the Regent HORTHY, considering the latter, as Supreme Commander of the Army, personally responsible for the crimes which were being committed.

3) The Hungarian authorities at once began to send masses of the Serbian population and Jews to concentration camps where they suffered the privations of hunger and many tortures. Later they were sent to slave labour camps at Budapest, Sarvar, Kistaros, Baro, Velika Kaniza, Vizic etc, or even to Germany and the Ukraine. Many died there and those who lived lost their health in consequence of the harsh treatment and starvation. These victims were deprived of all their property.

In April 1944, Jews from this region of Jugoslavia were rounded up and handed over to the German Gestapo and SS troops. The great majority of these Jews died or were killed at the death camps at Auschwitz, Maidanek etc.,

All the aforementioned crimes were carried out on the direction of the highest Hungarian military and civilian authorities, in order to exterminate the Serbian people living in the annexed territory of Jugoslavia.

The crimes in question represent breaches of International Law: Article 1 of Hague Regulations,1907, concerning the operation of hostilities, and articles 23(b), 42-47, 50-52, 55, 56. These crimes could not have been committed without the knowledge and assent of the Regent HORTHY who never did anything to stop the perpetration of crimes or to punish their authors.

Henrik WERTH, was Chief of the Hungarian General Staff, and he was responsible for the preparation of plans for the unjustified and unprovoked attack on Jugoslavia in 1941.

All the atrocities, murders and massacres committed in Backa, Baranja and Medjumurje in Jugoslavia, by the Hungarian army, took place while WERTH was Chief of General Staff.

He issued order No.95 of April 1941, for the formation of the ill-famed Hungarian military tribunals which, with mock trials, sentenced several hundreds of innocent persons to death by hanging. The Hungarian Member of Parliament, ZILINSKY, said in his memorandum: "This Court exercised its dreadful powers for weeks and months, hanging Serbs and Jews... the number of those hanged rose to several hundreds until the day when the "pogroms" started. I do not know what was the criterium of the trials, but I know that children were taken from their homes by force, without the knowledge of their parents and without the chance of defence. In these hangings I see only the intention to terrorise the people."

PARTICULARS OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT

The State Commission holds numerous statements and affidavits by the victims and their relatives confirming the atrocities committed by the Hungarian army in Northern Jugoslavia.

XXII. Destruction of Fishing Boats and of Relief Ships.

XXIX. Ill-Treatment of Wounded & Prisoners of War.

Violation of Article 3, 4-21, 23(g), 46, & 47, Hague Regulations, 1907, of Geneva Convention, 1929, and of Yugoslav Military Courts Act, 1944.

SHORT STATEMENT OF FACTS.

von GRAVENSTEIN was C.O. of the "Tiger Infantry Division 373" which was located in and operated in LIKA (a Croatian Province). From the beginning of 1943 until the Spring of 1945, his division committed numerous war crimes, especially pillaging villages, burning down houses and buildings, and killing innocent people. Even captured prisoners of war were tortured and killed by men of his division. These operations were mostly planned and carried out by General von GRAVENSTEIN.

In 1942

In NIŠ, ZAGREB and other places.

Number and description of crime in war crimes list.

I. Murder and massacres.

References to relevant provisions of national law.

Violation of Articles 23b & c, and 46, of the Hague Regulations, 1907, and Article 3, para. 3 of the Law concerning Crimes against the People and the State, 1945.

Short statement of Facts.

The above-named are guilty for the killing of innocent civilians in 1942, in two cases of which they murdered them in gas vans.

Particulars of alleged crime.

One of the accused, Fritz HÖCKER, is at present detained by the American authorities in DACHAU. He was interrogated by both the U.S. and Yugoslav investigating authorities, and has made the following confession:-

'In 1942 I came to Yugoslavia. In Yugoslavia I was ordered to take part in 4 executions, 2 hangings and 2 gassings of people. The first gassing of people was carried out with 40, the second with 50 people who had to die.

The reason given was, they were partisans.

I know that I am guilty of many crimes. Many people could still be alive. I ask again and honestly to be given the opportunity for rehabilitation. This is my greatest wish."

Later, when interrogated by the Yugoslav investigator, he said:

'I was in Yugoslavia from April 1942-October 1942 as Private (Oberschütze) in 11th Coy. 3rd. Battalion, 487th Regiment, 267th Infantry Division. At Belgrade (end of March-April), Niš (May-June) and Zagreb (till October). At that time the C.O. of the 267th Infantry Division was Lt.General FEUSSNER; C.O. of the 487th Regiment was Col. HÖCKER ; C.O. of the 3rd battalion was Major WORKUS, and C.O.s of the 11th Company were at that time: 1st Lieut. WOLLENKORT (March-May), Lieut. FISTENMACHER (June-August) and 1st Lieut. VETKE (August-October).

After the end of the war Major WORKUS was in May 1945 free at Hameln near Hannover).

In Niš, the following soldiers of my Company: Pvt. (Gefreiter) GROSSE Erich from Quedlinburg and Pvt.(Gefreiter) SCHARFE Günther from Quedlinburg, have killed by order of the Company Chief, 25 civilians. The Commander said they were partisans. I did not take part in this action. In Zagreb the same soldiers of my Company (11 Coy) with some others, have killed 50 civilians.

The soldiers of my 11th Coy took part in two gassings of people in a special car (the first gassing of people was carried out with 40, the second with 50 people who were collected from the streets). The C.O. of the 11th Company, 1st Lieut VETKE gave the order for the gassing of people.

At that time he said : "These actions are measures of retaliation for some attacks performed by Yugoslavs against the members of the German minority (Volksdeutscher). "

In view of the fact that among the crimes perpetrated there were two cases of gassing in special gas-vans of people collected at random in the streets, it is not possible to assume that such crimes could have been committed without the orders, or at least the consent, of the superior officers.

It therefore appears that a prima facie case exists, not only against the actual perpetrators (named under 7, 8 and 9) and their immediate superiors (named under 4, 5 & 6), but also against the C.O's named under 1, 2 & 3.

Particulars of evidence in support.

Two interrogations of Fritz HÖCKER, attached to this charge.

13th/14th March 1944 in position 02°S. 10°W.

No. 1. Murder, attempt to murder and unlawful wounding.

Breaches of the laws and usages of war at sea and in particular the wilful killing, attempt to kill and unlawful wounding of defenceless passengers and crew of a torpedoed merchant ship.

The Greek S.S. PELEUS was torpedoed and sunk without warning at approximately 2113 hours on the 13th March in the Atlantic south of Freetown. After the PELEUS sank U.852 surfaced and attempted to kill all survivors. The rafts and wreckage were rammed, the men on them and in the water were machine gunned and hand grenades thrown among the rafts. On the 20th April 1944, three men out of a crew of 35 were picked up by the Portugese S.S. ALEXANDRE SILVA: it can be proved that at least 3 members of the crew died as a direct result of U.852's actions. The S.S. PELEUS was under charter to the Ministry of War Transport and the victims of this crime included a number of British subjects.

U.852 sailed from Kiel on her first patrol on the 18th January 1944. She called at Christiansand about 2 days later and proceeded into the North Atlantic passing between Iceland and the Faroes. She then set course for the South Atlantic. At dusk on the 13th March, whilst U.852 was surfaced, the PELEUS was sighted. Two torpedoes were fired, both of which hit the PELEUS, and the crew jumped overboard, some catching hold of wreckage and some climbing on to rafts. The U-boat interrogated the 3rd Officer of the PELEUS and ascertained her identity: questions were also asked about the port of sailing and destination and whether there were other vessels in the vicinity. After interrogation the 3rd Officer returned to his raft and moved about 1,000 metres away. One of the officers of U.852 suggested that the rafts might betray the U-boat's position; discussion ensued and it was decided to murder any survivors of PELEUS's sinking. Lenz states in his own defence that he informed Eck that he was not in agreement with this decision but that Eck replied that he was nevertheless determined to carry it out. Two machine guns and hand grenades were ordered up from below; U.852 then approached the rafts and Hoffmann and Weinspfennig commenced shooting: Hoffmann was seen to kill at least two men by machine gunning. He also used 3 hand grenades and was wounded by a splinter from one. Eck was seen to use one of the machine guns as were also Schwender and Lenz. Only three men out of the crew of the PELEUS survived and there can be no doubt that the great majority of those missing were murdered in cold blood by the accused.

British members of the crew, all but one of whom met their death, were :-

John Birtles	-	W/T Operator
Manas Dimitrioli	-	Bo'sn
Alfred Pike	-	Ch. Steward
Rocco Said	-	Greaser (survived)
Peter MacCleod	-	Seaman
James McConnach	-	"
Emmanuele Sulley	-	Fireman
Casper Banjo	-	"

1. A chart captured from U. 52 showing her course and a sinking at the time, date and place in which [illegible] was torpedoed.

2. Rocco Said and Antonios Liossis, survivors from the PELEUS, can give evidence regarding her sinking and the machine gunning, ramming and use of hand grenades. Rocco Said found a Chinese fireman, a member of the crew, dead on one of the rafts the next day with injuries to his face and chest from the explosion of grenades. He can also speak to the damage to rafts from the explosion of hand grenades and from machine gun fire and he can swear to the fact that the 3rd Officer Kefalas died whilst on the raft as a result of a broken arm caused by the explosion of a hand grenade, since he nursed him and removed splinters from the grenade from the wound. Liossis can speak to being wounded by a grenade and to the death of Constantinides, a sailor from PELEUS, as a result of bullet wounds.

3. Affidavits have been sworn by the crew of U.852 as follows:-

(a) by Eck denying that he acted under superior orders;

(b) by Lenz speaking to the sinking of the PELEUS to the course of events leading to the decision to murder survivors and to the shooting by Schwender and by himself;

(c) by Matrosenobergefreiter Johann Ciemniak speaking to the interrogation, the ordering up of machine guns and firing by Hoffmann and Weissphennig and to the shooting by Hoffman of at least two men;

(d) by Obersteuermann Heinz Hartmann speaking to the identification of the PELEUS, the passing up of hand grenades and machine guns and the opening of fire, to Eck having been on the bridge whilst the shooting was still going on, and to the fact that he gave the order to ram 3 or 4 rafts in order to destroy them;

(e) by Bootsmann Georg Bernheiden (since deceased) speaking to seeing Hoffmann throw grenades;

(f) by Mechanikershauptgefreiter Wilhelm Schmitz who was in charge of small arms; he received an order to prepare machine guns and hand grenades for a boarding party. He got them ready and brought them to the control room. He can swear that machine gun ammunition and 7 hand grenades were used;

(g) by Sanitatsobergefreiter Werner Hanchter who can swear that Eck, Hoffman, Lenz and Weissphennig were on deck whilst the firing was going on. He saw Weissphennig fire a machine gun. During the night he bound up Hoffmann's hand which, Hoffman told him, had been injured by a splinter whilst throwing a grenade.

(h) Leutnant (Ing) Waldemar Hanft can swear to seeing Schwender firing a few shots with a machine gun and seeing Lenz take it over and fire. He also saw Hoffmann fire.

This case reveals a clear attempt to murder all the survivors from a torpedoed merchant ship without cause or provocation. The evidence both from survivors and from members of the crew of U.852 is clear and the affidavits available prove the case beyond any reasonable doubt. The German witnesses are being held in custody as are also the accused and the case can be brought to trial at short notice. It is to be noted that although there is certain extrinsic evidence which suggests that the order to eliminate survivors came from above, the Commanding Officer specifically denies the existence of such an order and thus deprives himself of his only possible excuse. The other officers will doubtless allege that they acted under superior orders, a defence which is clearly not applicable to this flagrant violation of the rules of international law, humanity and common decency. The case against Eck as the prime mover and against Hoffmann and Weisspfennig as his principal assistants can be proved without difficulty. Lenz has confessed but puts forward in extenuation the fact that he endeavoured to persuade Eck not to murder the survivors, that he only fired a few shots at the end of the incident at no particular target and did not kill anybody. The case against Schwender is perhaps not so strong as against Eck, Hoffmann and Weisspfennig as the crew are unwilling to give evidence against him. There is no evidence that any other member of the crew is implicated; indeed the feeling on the U.852 after the incident was so strong that Eck had to make a speech justifying his decision.

ALEXANDRE SILVA: it can be proved that at least 3 members of the crew died as a direct result of U.852's actions. The S.S. PELEUS was under charter to the Ministry of War Transport and the victims of this crime included a number of British subjects.

U.852 sailed from Kiel on her first patrol on the 18th January 1944. She called at Christiansand about 2 days later and proceeded into the North Atlantic passing between Iceland and the Faroes. She then set course for the South Atlantic. At dusk on the 13th March, whilst U.852 was surfaced, the PELEUS was sighted. Two torpedoes were fired, both of which hit the PELEUS, and the crew jumped overboard, some catching hold of wreckage and some climbing on to rafts. The U-boat interrogated the 3rd Officer of the PELEUS and ascertained her identity: questions were also asked about the port of sailing and destination and whether there were other vessels in the vicinity. After interrogation the 3rd Officer returned to his raft and moved about 1,000 metres away. One of the officers of U.852 suggested that the rafts might betray the U-boat's position; discussion ensued and it was decided to murder any survivors of PELEUS's sinking. Lenz states in his own defence that he informed Eck that he was not in agreement with this decision but that Eck replied that he was nevertheless determined to carry it out. Two machine guns and hand grenades were ordered up from below; U.852 then approached the rafts and Hoffmann and Heisspfennig commenced shooting: Hoffmann was seen to kill at least two men by machine gunning. He also used 3 hand grenades and was wounded by a splinter from one. Eck was seen to use one of the machine guns as were also Schwender and Lenz. Only three men out of the crew of the PELEUS survived and there can be no doubt that the great majority of those missing were murdered in cold blood by the accused.

British members of the crew, all but one of whom met their death, were :-

John Birtles	- W/T Operator
Manas Dimitrioli	- Bo'sn
Alfred Pike	- Ch. Steward
Rocco Said	- Greaser (survived)
Peter MacCleod	- Seaman
James McConnach	- "
Emmanuele Dulley	- Fireman
Casper Banjo	- "

1. A chart captured from U.852 showing her course and a sinking at the time, date and place in which PELEUS was torpedoed.

2. Rocco Said and Antonios Liossis, survivors from the PELEUS, can give evidence regarding her sinking and the machine gunning, running and use of hand grenades. Rocco Said found a Chinese fireman, a member of the crew, dead on one of the rafts the next day with injuries to his face and chest from the explosion of grenades. He can also speak to the damage to rafts from the explosion of hand grenades and from machine gun fire and he can swear to the fact that the 3rd Officer Kefalas died whilst on the raft as a result of a broken arm caused by the explosion of a hand grenade, since he nursed him and removed splinters from the grenade from the wound. Liossis can speak to being wounded by a grenade and to the death of Constantinides, a sailor from PELEUS, as a result of bullet wounds.

3. Affidavits have been sworn by the crew of U.852 as follows:-

(a) by Eck denying that he acted under superior orders;

(b) by Lenz speaking to the sinking of the PELEUS to the course of events leading to the decision to murder survivors and to the shooting by Schwender and by himself;

(c) by Matrosenobergefreiter Johann Cierniak speaking to the interrogation, the ordering up of machine guns and firing by Hoffmann and Weisspfennig and to the shooting by Hoffmann of at least two men;

(d) by Obersteuermann Heinz Hartmann speaking to the identification of th PELEUS, the passing up of hand grenades and machine guns and the opening of fire, to Eck having been on the bridge whilst the shooting was still going on, and to the fact that he gave the order to ram 3 or 4 rafts in order to destroy them;

(e) By Bootsmann Georg Bernheiden (since deceased) speaking to seeing Hoffmann throw grenades;

(f) by Mechanikerhauptgefreiter Wilhelm Schmitz who was in charge of small arms; he received an order to prepare machine guns and hand grenades for a boarding party. He got them ready and brought them to the control room. He can swear that machine gun ammunition and 3 hand grenades were used;

(g) by Sanitätsobergefreiter Werner Hämmister who can swear that Eck, Hoffmann, Lenz and Weisspfennig were on deck whilst the firing was going on. He saw Weisspfennig fire a machine gun. During the night he bound up Hoffmann's hand which, Hoffmann told him, had been injured by a splinter whilst throwing a grenade.

(h) Leutnant (Ing) Waldemar Kanft can swear to seeing Schwender firing a few shots with a machine gun and seeing Lenz take it over and fire. He also saw Hoffmann fire.

This case reveals a clear attempt to murder all the survivors from a torpedoed merchant ship without cause or provocation. The evidence both from survivors and from members of the crew of U.852 is clear and the affidavits available prove the case beyond any reasonable doubt. The German witnesses are being held in custody as are also the accused and the case can be brought to trial at short notice. It is to be noted that although there is certain extrinsic evidence which suggests that the order to eliminate survivors came from above, the Commanding Officer specifically denies the existence of such an order and thus deprives himself of his only possible excuse. The other officers will doubtless allege that they acted under superior orders, a defence which is clearly not applicable to this flagrant violation of the rules of international law, humanity and common decency. The case against Eck as the prime mover and against Hoffmann and Weisspfennig as his principal assistants can be proved without difficulty. Lenz has confessed but puts forward in extenuation the fact that he endeavoured to persuade Eck not to murder the survivors, that he only fired a few shots at the end of the incident at no particular target and did not kill anybody. The case against Schwender is perhaps not so strong as against Eck, Hoffmann and Weisspfennig as the crew are unwilling to give evidence against him. There is no evidence that any other member of the crew is implicated; indeed the feeling on the U.852 after the incident was so strong that Eck had to make a speech justifying his decision.

WHAT IS CROWCASS ?

1. It is apparent both from the personal experience of the members of the Staff of this Organization, and the official documents and inquiries transmitted to this Office, that a complete answer to that question is required by all interested authorities of the Allied Nations.

2. C.R.O.W.C.A.S.S. stands for The Central Registry of War Criminals and Security Suspects.

3. This account is divided into two parts:

Part I OBJECT
Part II SYSTEM
AND Appendix "A" -- Requirements from all Allied Authorities, with notes on Common Errors made in Submission of Data.

PART I - THE OBJECT OF C.R.O.W.C.A.S.S.

The end of the war in Europe gave the Allied Nations the opportunity thoroughly to consider the problem of tracing and bringing to justice War Criminals. Each Nation had its own particular, ever-increasing list of Wanted Criminals. Each Nation had in custody either as Prisoners of War, or Internees, persons who might possibly be wanted in connection with War Crimes by some other Nation.

The combined territory occupied by the Allied Nations was very large, and even if Allied H.Q. were able to co-ordinate information as to all persons Wanted and Detained by their individual Nations, the transmission of the information to each other would have been a most laborious and confusing undertaking.

To meet the necessity for some Central Inter-Allied Information Bureau, the Central Registry of War Criminals and Security Suspects was formed by SHAEF and began effectively functioning in Paris, approximately 20 months ago.

In the first instance, the Central Registry dealt with three types of persons: Wanted Persons, Detained Persons, and Prisoners of War, but subsequently the P.O.W. committment was abandoned, leaving the Registry free to cope with Wanted and Detained only.

Efforts have been made, with fair success, to cover possible War Criminals amongst P.O.W., by maintaining close liaison with Allied Prisoner of War Information Bureaus circulating CROWCASS Wanted Lists to P.O.W. Camps.

The Object, then, of CROWCASS is to provide a pool into which information regarding Wanted and Detained persons can be poured, this information to be set up as a Register available to all Allied Nations, and at the same time, to provide the subject matter for the publication of Lists of Wanted and Detained persons.

SYSTEM

CROWCASS must be served in order to give service. CROWCASS, as a Registry only, cannot produce any information by the efforts or inspiration of its Staff.

The onus is therefore on all Wanting or Detaining authorities to provide both timely and efficient information to CROWCASS, in order that their opposite numbers of all the Allied Nations may be similarly served. For this purpose, two forms have been devised upon which to originate reports of Wanted or Detained persons - the CROWCASS Wanted Report, and the CROWCASS Detention Report. Particular notes regarding the completion of these will be found at Appendix "A".

The Operations Branch of CROWCASS is divided into the following Sections:

a. Operations Control and Correspondence.
b. Searching Section.
c. Name Index Section.
d. Publications Section.
e. Report Filing Section.

Upon receipt of Wanted and Detention Reports, Operations Control scrutinizes them, records statistics, and passes the report to Searching Section.

The Searching Section compares each Report with the Name Index, which is sub-divided into Wanted and Detained, and contains the names of all subjects of Wanted and Detention Reports received previously. If a match, or possible match is made between a Wanted Report and a Detention Report, this information is conveyed immediately to the Wanting Authority via Operations Control and Correspondence. Whatever the result of searching, all reports are then passed to Name Index Section.

Name Index Section registers Wanted and Detention Reports, writes out Name Index Slips, and files them into the Name Index. With the exception of newly received Wanted Reports definitely matched with Detention Reports, all reports are then passed to Publications Section.

Publications Sections prepares typewritten lists of Wanted Persons and Detained Persons which are then reproduced as CROWCASS Wanted Lists and CROWCASS Detention Lists with an approximate distribution of 4.000 and 600 respectively.

When Publications Section have finished with Wanted and Detention Reports, they are passed to Report Filing Section where they are filed numerically and are available for future reference.

The foregoing paragraphs deal with the Routine System followed in dealing with Wanted and Detention Reports. In addition, CROWCASS received inquiries from all Allied Nations by letter, wire, or telephone, and transmits extracts from CROWCASS records as desired.

Notifications of persons no longer Wanted and Detainees who have been released, extradited to another Allied Nation, died, escaped, sentenced, or acquitted are also entered in CROWCASS records.

Security Suspects:

CROWCASS Wanted Lists Nos 1-3, Consolidated into the large printed Wanted List published in two parts (A-L and M-Z) dated July 1945 contained the names of some 80.000 Security Suspects. Although all Security Suspects listed were shown as such, considerable confusion arose as the result of these persons being listed as "Wanted". A person termed a "Security Suspect" is not known to have committed any specific crime nor has his name been quoted as a witness. He cannot therefore be properly classified as a Wanted Person. As the term implies, a Security Suspect is merely one whose past status, employment or associations classify him as one who may possibly become an active or passive sympathiser with any subversive effort to disturb the security of the post-war peace.

It was undoubtedly an initial error on the part of CROWCASS to publish the names of Security Suspects in a Wanted List. The realization of this has lead to the setting up of a completely separate Name Index and Report Filing for Security Suspects. Extracts from this Index are now only transmitted in two instances:

(a) If a Detention Report is received upon which the sole Reason for Arrest is shown as "identical" or "Possibly identical" with a Security Suspect listed in the above-mentioned Wanted List. In such a case, a letter is sent to the Detaining Authority pointing out that the Detainee is a Security Suspect only and in so far as CROWCASS Records show is of no particular War Crimes interest.

(b) In reply to inquiries received from Public Safety Authorities who may perhaps be interested in the history of a Security Suspect.

APPENDIX "A"

Requirements from all Allied Authorities with notes on Common Errors made in Submission of Data.

WANTED REPORTS.

To be completed and forwarded to CROWCASS in respect of all Nationals of ex-enemy countries who are wanted either as Alleged War Criminals, Suspected War Criminals, Witnesses to War Crimes, or for interrogation in connection with War Crimes. It is important to note that a Wanted Report should be filed with CROWCASS even if the filing authority is aware of the address or place of detention of the Wanted Person, as thereby an official claim is made on that person.

DETENTION REPORTS.

To be completed and forwarded to CROWCASS in respect of all Nationals of ex-enemy countries who are Detained as Alleged War Criminals, Suspected War Criminals, Witnesses to War Crimes, Automatic Arrestees, or for interrogation in connection with War Crimes.

A Detainee may be either a person who has been arrested in the first instance for one of the reasons stated above, or an ex-POW who has been re-classified as a Detainee as the result of Screening against Lists of Automatic Arrest Categories or Lists of Wanted Persons. In both instances, the CROWCASS Detention Report should be completed. It is important to note that this includes all cases of Detainees who are Wanted by the Nation detaining them, as the filing of Detention Reports will ensure that any other Allied Nation wanting these persons will be informed and that CROWCASS records will be properly adjusted.

COMPLETION OF WANTED REPORTS AND DETENTION REPORTS.

GENERAL:

Speciment copies of CROWCASS Wanted and Detention Reports are attached. At first sight, the lay-out of the reports any appear unnecessarily complicated, but there are very definite reasons for this.

a. An authority completing a Wanted Report is generally in possession of very limited information concerning the Wanted Person. Conversely, an authority completing a Detention Report has the Detainee himself and a mass of information concerning him which has to be summarized. The Wanted Report is therefore devised to extract every possible piece of information which may be available about the Wanted Person while the Detention Report provides what has been found to be the most useful and informative pattern into which the description and history of the Detainee can be summarized.

b. Although Allied Officers and Other Ranks assisted by English-speaking Germans supervise the processing of Wanted and Detention Reports, the work of Searching, Name Index. Slip writing and typing Publications Lists is carried out by a German Staff, few of whom speak much English. It is therefore necessary to work by "Rule of Thumb", so that information is available in a set form for Searchers, Name Index Slip-writers, and Publication Lists Typists. For these reasons, the following list of common errors made by compilers of Wanted and Detention Reports will be readily appreciated.

WANTED REPORTS

Section	Remarks.
Date of Birth) Weight &) Height)	Generally left blank. Although exact details will rarely be known, approx. ones may assist in tracing, and should be shown.
Details of physical description contained in main panel of the face of the Report	Include almost every physical possibility and should be used more frequently. If characteristice are known other than those shown in panel, these should be indicated in the blank section surrounding the word "Characteristics", and not in the Section headed "Particulars" of Crime and Reason for which Wanted.
Particulars of Crime etc.	Often left blank or completed inadequately. This Section should include a brief statement of the crime (if any) in accordance with the directions contained in the Wanted Report. As a check it is also desirable that at the top right hand corner of this Section one of the following classifications (as applicable to the Wanted Person) is clearly set down. ALLEGED WAR CRIMINAL,SUSPECT,WITNESS,FOR INTERROGATION ONLY.
Wanted by (Country)	Often omitted.
Occupation and Rank	Frequently left blank even although one or other may have been included in "Particulars of Crime" Section. It is essential that these sections of the report are completed as fully as possible.
Town, Province, and Country Crime Committed in and Date of Crime)	Often left blank, although they may have been mentioned in "Particulars of Crime". Should invariably be completed.

DETENTION REPORTS

Section
Main panel giving Details of Physical Description	Often completed carelessly, sometimes not completed at all.
Reason for Arrest	Frequently omitted altogether, rendering the report useless. Reason for arrest must be one of the following: Alleged War Criminals, Suspected War Criminal, Witness to a War Crime, Automatic Arrest category, Wanted for Interrogation in connection with a War Crime. If the Detainee is considered to be identical with a person found in a CROWCASS Wanted List, the List No and the CROWCASS File No. should be indicated in this Section.
Where Detained:	Often omitted, or imperfectly completed. In all instances, the full designation and postal address of the place of Detention should be shown.
Occupation at time of Arrest and Previous Occupations or positions held, etc.	The correct completion of these sections of the Reports is of great value in comparing the records of Detainees and Wanted Persons, also to provide a useful history of every person listed in CROWCASS Detention Lists. The mistakes made in completing these section of the Report are many and varied, ranging from leaving the section blank to typing a mass of information which in not intelligible to the CROWCASS processing staff. It may assist completing authorities if a Detention Report is compared with CROWCASS Detention Lists, from No. 11 onwards, in which it will be found, that the sections of the report dealing with Occupation are listed under the following headings. 1. Rank (Or Status) 2. Unit (Or Occupation) 3. Place. 4. Date.

Rank (or Status) should be easy to complete, Unit (or occupation) is meant to cover either Military, Naval, or Air Force Unit (if a member of the Armed Forces), nature of appointment and division if a Nazi Party member, or civilian Occupation. Place (town and country stationed in) and Date should present no difficulty. If the full history of the Detainee from 1 Jan 39 to time of arrest cannot be conveniently completed in the four sections provided, blank paper should be used to add any additional information which can be summarized under the four headings mentioned above.

RELEASES

A difficulty which often arises when Detainees are released, is that the Detaining Authority, who may have received the Detainee as a Transfer, may be unaware whether Detention Reports have previously been filed in respect of the persons released. Allied War Crimes H.Q. have been asked to make some provisions to cover this difficulty by an endorsement of the Detainee's documents being made whenever a Detention Report has been submitted.

Assuming that this procedure has now been adopted by all concerned, the notice of release need only include the full name of the person, his date of birth, the date of release and to where dispatched.

TRANSFERS

In view of the frequent transfers which must take place between camps in the same Zone, CROWCASS need only be informed of inter-zonal or international transfers. Requirements and comments are as for Releases.

DEATHS AND ESCAPES

As they occur.
Requirements and comments are as for Releases.

SENTENCES AND ACQUITTALS

Notices of these are invariably required, but only after confirmation. It is known that several Allied Nations have not informed CROWCASS as to sentences passed by their Military Tribunals, and these should now be listed retrospectively and forwarded.

GENERAL: 1. Language.

It will be appreciated that it is necessary for all correspondence and Reports to be originated in one language (English), in order that all Allied Authorities may receive equally efficient and speedy service from CROWCASS.

2. Submission of Wanted Lists to CROWCASS

It is considered that except for special internal reasons it should not be necessary for any authority other than CROWCASS to publish Wanted Lists. What is perhaps not fully appreciated is that a Wanted Report filed with CROWCASS constitutes not only an initial check against persons detained but the inclusion of the Wanted Persons name in CROWCASS Name Index provided a permanent guarantee that any Detention Report filed for the same person subsequently will be matched with the Wanted Report. Although it is not the function of CROWCASS to search other Wanted Lists against Records, this work has been undertaken by CROWCASS in order to be of as much service as possible to all Allied Nations. It is hoped that after perusal of this account, a clearer understanding of the CROWCASS organisation will lead to the elimination of other Wanted Lists.

It should be noted that when searching such lists, it is invariably found that a large proportion of the persons listed have not been made the subjects of CROWCASS Wanted Reports. This is particularly true of UNWCC listed persons. However UNWCC Lists are being checked against CROWCASS records and where a report on a person has not been filed with CROWCASS (and has therefore not been published by CROWCASS) necessary steps are being taken to publish the name and put it in the CROWCASS Name Index. Any information resulting from the check of UNWCC lists against CROWCASS records will be forwarded to the appropriate authorities.

All Allied Authorities concerned are reminded that in accordance with the decisions reached by the United Nations Conference held prior to the inauguration of the United Nations War Crimes Commission all Allied Authorities initiating Wanting Reports should invariably submit to UNWCC an account of the alleged charges with which the wanted person is concerned. The Commission then publishes lists of all persons wanted as perpetrators, witnesses or suspects in connection with charges which in accordance with the Articles agreed and laid down by the Allied Nations constitute Crimes against the Peace, War Crimes or Crimes against Humanity. If a wanted Person is not listed by UNWCC it may be found that his extradition from another nation's custody is difficult to obtain. Therefore CROWCASS and UNWCC should be served simultaneously.

IDENTIFICATION OF POSSIBLE MATCHES

After CROWCASS has informed a Wanting Authority of a Possible Match between a Detainee and a Wanted person, the Wanting Authority is invariably asked to inform CROWCASS whether identity can be established. It is very rare that this information is passed to CROWCASS whose records cannot therefore be adjusted.

Not Wanted by CROWCASS

The following matter is frequently sent to CROWCASS but is not required.

1. Screening Reports: -- these should be submitted as Detention Reports.

2. Transfers, Releases, and other data concerning POWs. These are no longer required as records of POWs are no longer maintained by CROWCASS. The exception to this rule is the valuable assistance which can be given by Allied Prisoner of War Information Bureaus in screening CROWCASS Wanted Lists against their Indexes of POWs.

3. Any extraneous matter concerning Nazi Party members or War Crimes generally which has no direct reference to a Wanted Person or a Detainee.

4. Application for the extradition of a Detainee. - The function of CROWCASS is solely that of a Registry and does not include the authority to order or arrange extraditions. Such application should be made through the proper Liaison Channels.

IN CONCLUSION: --- Once again it is stated that CROWCASS exists for the service of All Allied Nations whether large or small and that only by following out the injunctions conveyed in this account can all be served fairly and equally.

This account is being published and distributed to all authorities on CROWCASS Distribution List and it is requested that all H.Q. who receive a number of copies for further distribution, will insure that every lower unit or formation interested in CROWCASS is duly served.

CENTRAL REGISTRY OF WAR CRIMINALS AND SECURITY SUSPECTS

(C R O W C A S S)
APO 887

2. August 1945

To : All Members of the
United Nations War Crimes Commission.

Subject : Central Registry of War Criminals and Security Suspects.

GENERAL .

a). A Central Registry of War Criminals and Security Suspects (CROWCASS) has been established and is located in Paris at 53 Rue des Mathurins Postal address - APO 887.

b). The Registry will contain three Sections :

(1) Detained Section .

(2) Wanted Section.

(3) Prisoners of War Section.

1 - DETAINED SECTION -

a). Records. In the Detained Section the Registry will keep a record of all persons arrested as War Criminals or as Security Suspects falling within the categories enumerated in Appendix "I".

b). Requirements from all Authorities holding Prisoners of War -

(1) In order that the Registry can give maximum assistance to all Allied Governments in tracing their War Criminals it is essential that all Governments forward to the Registry particulars of the War Criminals and Security Suspects held by them.

(2) To facilitate the speedy working of CROWCASS a special Detention Report Form has been prepared - and it is requested that one completed copy be forwarded to CROWCASS in respect of each prisoner falling within the categories mentioned in Para 1(a).

(3) It would also be of great assistance if finger prints and a photograph be supplied but where this is not possible the completed Detention Form will suffice . A specimen Detention Report is shown in Appendix "A".

.....

(4) For those Nations able to provide Finger Prints special cards will be supplied by CROWCASS. A rolled impression of each digit will be taken and in addition the impression of the four fingers taken simultaneously - Specimen Finger Print Card is shown in Appendix "F".

(5) Notes for the Guidance of Officers responsible for the compilation of Detention Reports are contained in Appendix "B".

2 - WANTED SECTION -

(a) The Wanted Section will contain the particulars of all persons wanted by the Allied Nations for War Crimes either against Allied Military personnel or civilians , and all persons wanted as Security Suspects .

(b) All requests for searches for War Criminals will be made on a Wanted Report Form, a specimen of which is attached at Appendix "C". It is appreciated that in many instances it will not be possible to provide all the information asked for on the form, but the National Authorities concerned will be requested to provide the fullest particulars possible. Attached at Appendix "D" are notes for the guidance of Officers completing Wanted Reports .

(c) Upon receipt of a Wanted Form the Registry will cause a search to be made for the Wanted person and in the event of his name not being recorded will include it in the next Wanted List to be issued.

(d) Detention Lists will be issued periodically, it is anticipated fortnightly, these lists will contain the particulars of Detained War Criminals and Security Suspects and to whom application should be addressed for authority to interrogate.

(e) Procedure regarding the handing over of War Criminals will be circulated in a subsequent communication.

(f) List No 1 giving particulars of Detained Persons is attached to this memorandum.

(g) Allied National Authorities will be requested to notify the Registry in the event of a prisoner upon further investigation or interrogation not being required by them.

(h) Where all Members of a Unit or Division are required and not a particular individual ,one form should be compiled giving details of the Unit with a note at the head of the form under "Surname" to the effect that all Members are wanted. If the Members stationed in a certain town on a particular date are wanted the appropriate columns on the form will be completed. The Wanted Report Form should also be used where prisoners are wanted as Witnesses, the form being indorsed accordingly.

.....

3 - PRISONERS OF WAR SECTION -

(a) The prisoners of War Section will contain a Record of all prisoners captured. These particulars are obtained from P.O.W.Forms which are completed in respect of each German prisoner. This Record when complete will enable CROWCASS to carry out extensive searches for War Criminals within the Registry .

(b) A specimen PoW Form is shown in Appendix "G".

(c) Up to the present time, the Registry is proceeding with the recording of all prisoners captured and held in U.S. and British Custody but in order to have a complete Record other Allied Nationals are asked to cooperate. Forms will be supplied by CROWCASS upon application together with explanations notes on the compilation of the forms.

4 - CROWCASS will be pleased to arrange for a personal visit by one of its Staff to any National Office to give any further explanation required and to effect fullest cooperation.
